Dean Culver Announces Valedictorian, Salutatorian; Honor Students Named

Dean Culver announces that the following seniors have been elected to Phi Delta Lambda Honor society: Dorothy House, Virginia Kirley, Edith Hoidal, Leah Zimbelman, Myrtle Hayes, Ruth Cronrath, Everett Nelson, Merrill Bennett.

The Phi Delta Lambda is a national honor society of the several Nazarene colleges. The chapter at N. N. C. is known as the Delta chapter. Students who complete their college courses with a 4-year grade point average which ranks them among the upper 15 per cent of the graduates of that year are eligible for permanent membership in the society upon vote of the faculty of the local college. The G. P. A. must be 2.40 or above and the student must show highly satisfactory work on comprehensive examination over his major field of study.

The new members are initiated at the annual breakfast which will be held this year on the morning of June 2 with the Rev. Lauriston J. DuBois as the speaker.

Dorothy House (2.90) was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, was assistant editor of the Oasis, helped on the Crusader for two years, and won the senior scholarship last year. She plans on staying here while her husband finishes school, then they will spend some time at the Nazarene seminary. She may take a few more courses here and perhaps teach some next year.

Virginia Kirley (2.81) won the P.-T. A. scholarship for 1948, won several debate trophies, was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges, won a junior scholarship, and was active in student council and athletic-literary society work. She plans on teaching next year and eventually going as a missionary.

Edith Hoidal (2.78) has acted as assistant editor of the Oasis, was elected to Who's Who, was business manager of the Crusader, won a junior scholarship, and has been hostess of the college dining hall for the past two years. She plans on teaching school.

Leah Zimbelman (2.67) has been president of eta Kappa Rho so-

Seniors Don Caps and Gowns for Annual Investiture Service

N. N. C.'s class of '48 donned their caps and gowns for the first time Monday night, May 10, at the annual investiture service. Led by Marshals Ruth Angell and Glen Dayton, the black-garbed seniors marched to the stirring strains of "War March of the Priests." After the invocation by the Rev. John E. Riley, Dr. Corlett presented the senior class. Ervin Edgar, class president, responded with "Senior Reflections." Ruth Cronrath played a piano selection, "The Bat," and Richard Lindbloom sang "Trust in Him." The investiture address was given by the Rev. James B. McGraw, assistant to the president.

Following the service a reception was given for the seniors and their wives by Dr. and Mrs. Corlett, and the class sponsors, Marian Washburn and A. J. Finkbeiner. At the reception Mrs. McGraw read the class prophecy written by Howard Zimmerman and refreshments were served by six junior girls.

Biz Managers Elected

Business managers for the school publications were elected by the student council Wednesday morning from candidates submitted by the editors. Those elected were: for the Oasis, Jim Gross; for the Crusader, Fred Drown.

Lauriston DuBois Named Commencement Speaker

President Seminar, Journalist, Speech, Philosophy Course Is Slated Next Year

Several new courses will be offered next fall in addition to the new major which is being given in religious education.

A special course for all seniors, taught by Dr. Corlett, the President's Seminar, is designed to help each senior to make a sound and healthy adjustment to life after graduation. Individual attention will be given out of Dr. Corlett's rich experience.

The English department is offering a new course in journalism, and it gives actual experience in all phases of newspaper writing. Students planning to work on the college annual or newspaper are urged to register for this class.

In speech, a new course in voice improvement will make possible considerable work with recordings both by the best readers and speakers and also of practice readings by the students themselves. New private instruction courses in story telling, and Bible reading are offered.

The Philosophy of Science is an addition to the offerings of the philosophy department. This course will deal especially with recent advances in science including the field of atomic development with the aim of relating these concepts to the fields of history, philosophy, and religion.

The department of history will stress international relations in its work next year under the leadership of Prof. C. E. Taylor who will head the department.

'Chuck-hole Lane' To Be Re-surfaced

A permanent oil mat 18 feet wide will be completed soon replacing "chuck-hole lane" as the drive in front of the administration building. Flanking the driveway will be a five-foot sidewalk, according to L. Wesley Johnson. In addition, the open ditch will be eliminated, tile being used to replace it.

The high school building will be doubled in size and the grade school pupils will be included in the finished building. The old grade school building will be used for auxiliary purposes.

Miscellaneous repairs will be made on the fine arts building and the chapel of the administration building will be re-decorated and new curtains installed. Asphalt tile will also be laid in the main hall of the administration building.

Plans are underway for a permanent dark-room and also for landscaping around Chapman hall and other locations on the campus. Total expenditures for the summer will run in excess of $15,000, according to the Rev. Johnson.

LAURISTON J. DuBOIS

The Rev. Lauriston J. DuBois, executive secretary of the Nazarene Young People's society, will give the commencement address to the graduating class of 1948 at Central auditorium, June 2, at 8:00 in the evening. A graduate of N. N. C., Rev. DuBois also delivered a series of addresses at the opening convention last fall.

Other outstanding speakers featured during commencement week will include Dr. Howard Hamlin of Japan, who will speak at the missionary rally on Sunday afternoon, May 30, at First church. The Rev. Fletcher Galloway, pastor of First church at Portland, Oregon, will bring the traditional annual sermon Sunday evening, while Dr. Lewis T. Corlett will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday morning.

New Teachers for Next Fall Revealed; Art, Music, and History Affected

R. J. Hughes is joining the faculty in the music department and will specialize in the field of theory as well as give assistance with the band. He is a graduate of the Trinity College of Music, London, England, L. T. C. L.; and of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, A. T. C. M. He has been teaching in the Canadian Nazarene college.

Miss Elva Meckling is a graduate of N. N. C. of the class of 1947. She has been teaching at Canadian Nazarene college this past year. She assisted as an instructor while in her senior year at N. N. C. She will be an instructor in piano.

Double E. Hill will be an instructor in piano while he continues advanced work in the field of music. He is graduating from N. N. C. this year and plans to make a career teaching in the field of music.

Chas. E. Taylor is joining the faculty to be an instructor in the field of history. He is a graduate of Bethany-Peniel college and will receive his master's degree from Boston university this spring. He has been accepted for graduate study toward a doctor's degree and plans to continue that work in the near future.

Miss Audrey Spurbeck will join the faculty in the art department this fall. She is a graduate of N. N. C. of the class of 1945. She taught in the Vale, Oregon, high school one year, and this past year has been a student in the department of art at the University of Washington where she has been working toward a master's degree.

John Johnson is to be a critic teacher in the high school department this coming year. He has been a teacher and administrator in public school work for 18 years. He was a student in the normal department of N. N. C. a number of years ago. He is principal of the high school in Sawyer, North Dakota, at the present time.

Editorials

Not Somehow, But Triumphantly . . .

By HELEN G. WILSON

Those who make a practice of reading these editorials (and I know that some people do, because two of them have told me so) will recognize in the title a repetition of the title of the first of this series. Once again we are back where we started at the first of the year and in this last chat together let's check up on how well we have succeeded in living up to our theme.

How have things gone this school year—somehow or TRIUMPHANTLY? Only eternity will reveal the answer in all our lives. Some students have made outstanding spiritual progress during the past nine months. Former problem children, spiritually speaking, they have sought and found triumph in the Lord Jesus. They have appropriated the blessings of the spirit-filled life until their influence has been a constant vote for the Kingdom of God here at N. N. C.

Some have won tremendous victories on the field of scholastic attainment. Disdaining to crib and cheat or just "get by" they have settled down to that discipline of study which has won for them a right to be labelled "college student." They have formed habits of learning which will pay rich dividends in the months and years to come.

Others have triumphed markedly in the realm of social grace. Many who were shy and self-conscious when they entered school have found that the seemingly icy seas of society abound in pleasant experiences and the joys of lasting friendship. Some who were introverts, walled in by ramparts of selfishness and fear, have fared forth bravely to discover a whole new world of happiness in association with their fellows. We are especially proud of those who, feeling their lack of etiquette and culture,

Vets Views In The News

Willis Walker

No doubt some have been wondering how N. N. C. will stand the transition from the Bennett regime to the Sulston regime in the ensuing school year, but cheer up, ye doubters, for some of us had such doubts and misgivings a year ago. Abe's summarizing remarks Sunday night about the student preachers, stating that they weren't up to the messages they preached but the Lord helped them, would perhaps express the feelings of many of us concerning Abe and his excellent leadership. However, Ken being a big man, physically speaking, of course, we will expect even greater things next year. And speaking of transitions, both Abe and Ken surely learned how it was done in Uncle Sam's service where leaders were shifted for fun if no other good reason could be found to do so.

By this time all of us have learned the occasion for Bob Manley's grin from ear to ear and his seeming absent-mindedness for a few days last month. Meeting him on the way home from the hospital on the day following the arrival of his son, and inquiring the name of the little one, brought no response for Bob was so excited he had forgotten the name. The name, it was learned later, was Ronald Eugene.

A bonus-studded recruiting plan was introduced into Congress to rally the anti-draft congressmen. Rep. Allen (R.-Ill.), chairman of the house rules committee, has substituted this plan for the straight two-year draft revival bill backed by Andrews, chairman of the armed services committee. The plan would give recruits the option of enlisting for two or three years. At the end of their terms, the two-year men could claim bonuses for $1,000 each, and the three-year men could get $1,500, or if they preferred, they could take advantage of the benefits of the "GI Bill of Rights."

By the Editors

Another year gone by. For many of us, it is our last year at N. N. C. It's really hard to realize. We are all glad to obtain our degrees, but as with all graduates, we have a feeling of regret that we will not be here next year.

Personally, we would like to thank all those who have had a part in making this paper a success this year. When we took over last fall, we were just a trifle greener than we are now, but we've enjoyed every minute of it. True, there have been times when we felt like taking a long (both in time and distance) vacation, but usually things worked out somehow.

Our thanks to Miss Wilson who contributed inspiring editorials faithfully throughout the year; to the staff members who worked long and hard to get information and facts; to those long-suffering department and organization heads who uncomplainingly supplied us with news and stories; and last but not least, to our sponsors, Prof. Kauffman and Miss Lawrence.

To Lloyd Gebhart, who will take over our job next year, we say thank you for the splendid work you did as managing editor this year, putting out several issues almost without our assistance; to Milton Gardiner, our thanks for lining our pockets with gold!

We know that the staff next year, under the leadership of Lloyd, will do an even better job. In this connection we are happy to note that plans have been made for a journalism class for 1948-49, which should definitely make improvement in the quality of the publications next year.

In our opinion, N. N. C.'s student body is basically progressive—by that we mean that given time for reflective thought and deliberation, they usually come up with the right answer and the punch to put over the program.

Many things about the student body need improvement. Although the student body as a whole is a spiritual student body, improvement CAN be made. With that we can all agree. Chapel reverence during prayer and devotions could be better; talking and whispering or even studying while prayer is being offered is as sacrilegious in chapel as it is in church on Sunday; of course, we all know that the necessity of using chapel for many secular things dulls our appreciation of it as purely a house of worship; nevertheless, improvement CAN be made.

Next year, if the rumors we have heard hold true, there will be many problems arising concerning student body organizations and allotments. Many of these problems had their inception this year. It is nothing to be alarmed about; N. N. C. merely is suffering from growing pains. Many of the practices that were best a few years ago need to be changed or modified to fit new conditions. It will be the responsibility of your student leaders to bring these various problems to the attention of the student body as a whole; then it will be YOUR responsibility to examine the various points carefully and intelligently and decide on the wisest course.

We are in college, not just to learn from textbooks, but to learn

Corlett Expresses Appreciation

As school year comes to a close I wish to express my appreciation to each student and faculty member for the good co-operation you have given during the year. The nine months have gone by rapidly because we have been busy. God has blessed us with many good things during the year. Many pleasant memories will linger in the minds of each of us.

The prospects for the future of N. N. C. are very good, yet if we accomplish the work God wants us to do there is distinct and specific aid which each one can render. The enrollment has been gaining each year, yet if this is to continue there must be additional work done. There are many young people throughout the educational zone who would attend N. N. C. if they knew more about the college. The best advertising that the school can have is for the members of the staff and the student body to tell of the privileges, blessings, and opportunities to be found at the college.

I wish to invite your assistance, especially during the summer months, in an extensive publicity campaign. Groups will be traveling and holding services in the churches, mail will be going out from the office, but we need the added touch of personal contact. With all these working together we will see a large enrollment at N. N. C. this coming fall.

Also I wish to invite you to join in prayer that God will prepare us for great spiritual advancement during this coming year.

LEWIS T. CORLETT.

With An Eye to Next Year . . .

By KEN SULSTON

Just a few more days will see the most of us homeward bound . . . an all-too-short year gone, except in memory. It's been a full year. For many . . . a year of spiritual decision . . . a milestone in this business of living. But where still others are concerned it's been just another year of drifting, floundering, and killing time in general. However, what's past is past. It's worthless except for the lessons it can teach us and (sentimentalist that I am) for the memories it affords. This school year is gone. Its failures are gone with it . . . so, too, its successes. What matters now is the year to come. What'll I do with it? What'll YOU do with it? Well, that entirely between you and the Master. N. N. C. has yet to see what can happen when the student-body is ENTIRELY yielded to Him. Will YOU work for it, pray for it, live it?

Big things next year . . . so big it'll take the help of every one of us to handle it. Are you with it? Then give it a boost this summer. Spread the GOOD word about N. N. C. whenever you may be during these upcoming vacation days, and give us a push with your prayers. Then, hurry back next September and pitch right in to show Nazarendom and the world what WE'RE made of.

To those of you who this year leave the campus via the graduates' gate . . . and to others who for various reasons won't be with us next fall . . . our prayers for God's richest blessings go with you wherever you may be. Should the buffeting of this cruel world take too heavy a toll and you feel in need of refreshing . . . remember the latch string's always out. God bless you and USE you in the furtherance of the Kingdom.

Not Somehow . . . But Triumphantly

And so these and other students mentioned above are returning home—not somehow but triumphantly! Henceforth there will be a new ring to their voices when they are raised in testimony in the home church; there will be a new purposefulness in their bearing when they meet and mingle with others. Not only that but there will be a rich heritage of culture in music appreciation, literary knowledge, and social finesse which they have received at N. N. C.

In winding up this series of editorials I wish to express my appreciation to those who have made it possible for me to "have my say" via this column. Especially do I feel grateful to Editor Harry Heighton, Wesley Lawrence, whose patience and courtesy have been a virtue, and last but not least, my "public!"

My prayer is that we may all unite in a determination to live NOT SOMEHOW BUT TRIUMPHANTLY!

Davis Speaks to Band Balmy Weather Greets School Picnic

The Foreign Mission Band was favored with a talk and moving pictures by Miss Davis that she had taken of our Nazarene work in Africa. The pictures also depict the common life and habits of the native. While on furlough Miss Davis is nursing at Samaritan Hospital. Miss Pat Davis, president of the band, announces that the next meeting will be an election of officers.

how to live; the best way to do that is—to live. You can't learn life by talking about it—you have to live it. However, if you take advantage of the "dress-rehearsal" here at college, it will make it easier later on.

So it's not good-bye—just so long, and God richly bless and keep all of you.

Blue skies, balmy summer weather, all the food and pop in the world, mountains by the score and all day to have fun: could it have been a better day for the picnic?

Amid shouts and whistles several trucks, buses and innumerable private cars left the college Monday morning for the annual college picnic above Garden Valley. Although conditions Sunday night indicated a storm, the weather couldn't have been better.

James Ranum, picnic chief, did a superb job, as did all the individuals who performed the various jobs assigned to them. Other than a variety of sunburns and a few sprained ankles, the picnic was a complete success, according to all who attended.

Cindermen Place Third in Meet; ISC, C of I Ahead

In a six-way track meet a week ago last Saturday night at Caldwell, the N. N. C. cindermen placed third, 9 points out of first. They followed Idaho State and C. of I.

The team scoring for the track meet was: Idaho State, 41½; College of Idaho, 37¾; N. N. C., 32½; Southern Idaho College of Education, 21; Boise Junior College, 17½; Eastern Oregon College of Education, 14¾.

Girl Athletes Elect Mitchell 48-49 Prexy

A meeting of Gamma Nu Gamma was held Wednesday, May 5, preceding prayer meeting.

The girls discussed the probability of getting pins for the benefit of those who do not have sweaters.

Election of officers followed the main business meeting. Officers for next year include: President, Irene Mitchell; vice president, Roma Mitchell; secretary-treasurer, Betty Beer; program chairman, Gwendolyn Stinnette. Miss Helen Wilson was elected as co-adviser with Lamont Lee.

Senior Artists Exhibit

Thursday and Friday, May 6 and 7 the senior artists exhibited some of their work in the library. Contributors were Abe Bennett, Janice and Ruth Loeber, and Sylvia Edinger. Among the display was work done by water colors, oils, pastel chalk, and sketching.

SPORTS

Athlete's Foot

by Peter Burkhart

The sports program at N. N. C. this year will soon be history. Looking back on this year's activity we wonder how there ever was time enough to carry on such an extensive program with such a busy student body. To me it has been a good year and I've enjoyed, with few reservations, every minute of it. It has been a privilege to work with a student body such as you and I am at a loss to try and discover what contribution I have left but you can all feel assured that you have taught me many valuable lessons from your attitudes and actions on the field of sports. So here is a big thank you and may our relationship in the field of sports be even better and more enjoyable the coming school year.

Christian Vets Give Service

The Christian War Veterans of America were invited to take charge of the Christian Workers' Band service on April 24. Both groups gave reports on the work of their gospel teams. Vernon Kutz was the guest speaker. Peter Burkhart and Ray Hastings opened an out-point in the Wilson schoolhouse on January 25 of this year. The average attendance is 20 and the work is growing. The Wilson school is located 20 miles out on the 12th avenue road from Nampa.

The other members of the out-point's staff are Janet Robbs, teacher; Carol Harris, teacher, who recently replaced Mary Harper who was transferred to a new teaching position.

Due to Religious Emphasis Week services there was no Christian Workers Band service on May 1.

Concert Band Presents Concert Tonight

The N. N. C. concert band, under the direction of Dick Friesen, will present an evening of entertainment Friday, May 21. The program will consist of marches and other music adapted for concert band, with Marge MacGillivray and Jim Mulligan featured as soloists.

This 35-piece band has been quite active this year. It has given five major performances prior to this one, and subdivision, the pep band, has played for all but two of the home basketball games.

C.W.B. Elects Officers

The Christian Workers' Band officers were elected last week with the following results: president, Richard Dickson; vice president, Herbert Ketterling; program chairman, Irma Hoidal; secretary, Delight Smith; treasurer, Richard Hoyle.

SLA on Top In Second Term Ball

STANDINGS

SLA	5	1
Oly	4	2
LSP	2	3
ADP	0	5

Behind near perfect fielding, Wayne Likens pitched the SLA's to the second semester softball championship with a 2-1 verdict over the LSP nine.

Outhit 6 to 4 the winners took advantage of two LSP errors to tally single runs in the first and third innings. Doubles by Galloway and Powers in the first brought in the lone LSP score.

Although in trouble in every inning except the fourth, Likens bore down in the clutches to set down the losers without further damage.

The Oly's snapped the SLA's four-game winning streak with an 8-7 win after snuffing out a five-run last inning rally by the champs. Bruner pitched effectively except in the final frame, while the Oly's had little difficulty solving Likens' offerings for 11 hits, as the SLA ace had one of his few bad days.

SLA Wins 9-4

The SLA's took advantage of seven errors for a 9-4 verdict over the ADP's and the Oly's blasted the LSP's 8-1 as Bruner lost a shutout and no-hitter in the last frame when Wesche singled and Mulligan tripled him home.

In Monday's game the ADP's dropped an 8-4 decision to the Oly's despite the three-hit pitching of Thompson. Eight walks and five errors caused the losers' downfall.

NNC Nine Makes Winning Column; Take Town Team

Last Thursday evening the N. N. C. baseball team broke into the victory column with a 2-1 win over the Nampa town team. It was a pitcher's duel between Bellamy of N. N. C. and Cudd of Nampa.

The Crusaders scored the winning run in the fourth inning on a ground single over the bag at third by Cramer, a bunt beat out for a hit by Unger, a walk, and then Bellamy's perfect squeeze bunt. This scored Cramer from third.

Unger played a sparkling game in the field and at bat. He made a running shoestring catch of a low fly ball in right center to pull the pitcher out of a hole and then went two for two at the plate.

Six-Run Rally Fatal To Crusader Hopes

A six-run rally in the ninth cost the Crusaders a game that saw them plaster three Coyote hurlers for 17 hits. C. of I. collected 16 base knocks.

This slugging bee took place April 27 at Caldwell. Leading the barrage of base hits for the Crusaders was Stigleder with four for five. Beukelman drove in three runs with a home run over the rightfielder's head. Taylor, Weatherford, Parkins, Dean and Burkhart all collected two hits apiece.

Bob Lee, former NNC student, connected for a towering home-run for the Coyotes. Kuroda and Farley also hit for the circuit for the visitors.

College High News

The past week has revealed the answers to many of the questions that have been buzzing around College high all spring. After much guessing and many false rumors, it has finally been revealed that Rachel Shaw, with a grade point average of all four years of 2.60, and Marilyn Perkins, with a grade point of 2.78, are this year's salutatorian and valedictorian, respectively.

Along with this revelation came the announcement that the following seniors and juniors have been elected to the National Honor society: Marilyn Perkins, Rachel Shaw, Nita Amundson (2.57), and Norma Carter (2.50). Juniors: Margaret Crowe (2.56) and Chester Wells (2.50). Members are chosen by the faculty on the basis of service, leadership, character, and scholarship (must have maintained at least a 2.5 grade point for all four years.)

OFFICERS ELECTED

keen campaigning competition, the following students were elected student body officers of College high for next year: Del Cherrington, president; Clarence Olson, vice-president; Lela Chittenden, secretary; and Jay Dean, treasurer.

SENIOR SNEAK

Tuesday, May 11, was the long-awaited day for the annual senior sneak. Leaving at 5:45 a. m. in the N. N. C. bus (previously known as the little tiddley-winks set, for the sake of secrecy), the seniors started off. At Smith's Ferry, they stopped for a breakfast of bacon and eggs, hot cakes prepared by Prof. Laughlin, and coffee (otherwise known as battery acid). After breakfast, they continued onward toward their ultimate goal—Warm lake. After traveling for three hours on 27 miles of unbelievably muddy roads, they finally got a glimpse of the WARM (?) lake, which proved to be still frozen. Following lunch, they piled back into the bus to get back to Smith's Ferry before dark. When the last hot dog had been swallowed, the seniors started back toward home. All were happy except Prof. Laughlin, who suffered two fractured ribs during the day.

EIGHTH GRADE BANQUET

Thursday, May 6, was the date of the banquet held in honor of the graduating class of the grammar school and their parents.

DRAWINGS COMPLETED

Drawings are now completed for completion of the new high school and grammar school building.

Student Body Election Finished

Elections were completed for the rest of the student body officers last week with the following results: Vice president, Fred Fowler; treasurer, Delmar Beukelman; secretary, Marcella Heberlein; and sergeant-at-arms, Clarence Olson.

Also elected at the polls were officers in the General Missionary society. Those elected were: President, Paul Harris; vice president, Delmar Cook; treasurer, Jim Gross; secretary, Margaret Sutherland; program chairman, Alice Schmidt.

Ape

Says..

Brother, sister, sometimes I think that the major offices on the campus should be full-time jobs. With so much to occupy one's time, occasionally one is apt to be derailed from the normal track.

Not that we were derailed, but Ken Sulston and myself have just returned from Thunderbird Field, Arizona, where we picked up a bunch of bees in our bonnets. My regret is that I was not privileged to attend last year's convention of the Pacific Students' President association, held at University of British Columbia. Engaging in retrospection, I can now see a lot of things that could have been done better. But don't get me wrong; I am not apologizing for mistakes and weaknesses. I am very happy that things have turned out as well as they have. The credit goes to those who have aided and advised me; and, more important yet, it is "not of works, lest any man should boast."

The reason the student council wanted to raise the student body fee was not to line its pockets, but to benefit the body as a whole. Since the amendment did not pass, that means that many organizations are due for a cut in budget; that means that social functions will not be so numerous; that means that the OASIS and CRUSADER will no doubt suffer. I tell you, friends, the council is really hard-pressed by the monetary and other problems. I wish every person could know the inside dope that the council knows; but the average person would probably crack under the strain.

Now for my farewell address: "You folks cannot realize how inadequate I have felt for this job. But with my feeling of inadequacy, I have had a certain pride in being the leader of our Christian student body. In 1942 I set my ambition for the job, but never expected to realize the ambition. You know the rest."

I don't know what I would do without my trust in my Savior. He has been so wonderful to me, my ever-present Help in all situations. Praise His Name! Talk about hypocrisy in the church, talk about your neighbors' faults—but Jesus Christ stands above; He never fails!

I believe great things are ahead for our student body. Many major problems are coming up that must be solved. We are now to the place where our A. S. B. is no longer a fledgling but is worthy to try its wings with the other colleges of the land. I am confident that Ken Sulston, the leader whom you have chosen for the coming year, is the man to more firmly establish our A. S. B. as a vital, living organization among the educational institutions of America, yea, even the world.

Who's Who

Willie Groundhog exposed himself one fine morning in 1927, at Billings, Montana, cast his traditional prediction, and retired. The next day in that same city, a girl was born whom we at N. N. C. know today as Miss Lillian Nutt.

Lillian attended grade school in Billings with the exception of one year which she spent at Roosevelt and Kenwood here in Nampa. She played in the orchestra for a while during the two years she spent at Billings high school, then came to N. N. A. for her junior year and took part in glee club and chorus.

In 1944, Lillian entered college as a provisional freshman, and has since been secretary of the Music club, was in a society play, and was program chairman for the ADP society first semester of 1947. She has taken part in musical solos, duets, trios, and was a member of the girls' quartet which traveled last summer for N. N. C. She also was a member of the a cappella choir for three years. Next year she will act as program chairman for the A. W. S.

Lillian has a bright future as she is working for an A. B. in music and plans to teach in the elementary grades. I have heard she is soon to become a preacher's wife, in fact, she will become Mrs. Paul Harris on commencement day of this year—and that isn't far away.

Lillian had one last SINGLE public statement to make: "I plan to do my utmost for God in His service."

SENIOR PINS

Senior pins arrived this week and proud upper-classmen are wearing them everywhere they go. Announcements and cards arrived last week.

The Timothy club will hold its annual banquet this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Dewey Palace. Dr. G. B. Williamson is sched-

Richard Lindbloom was born in Carthage, South Dakota, June 16, 1924. He attended grade school at Carthage, spent some time at Nampa junior high, then came to N. N. A. for his last three years of high school. In his sophomore year, he was student council representative, and was president of his junior and senior classes before he graduated in 1942.

Richard was a freshman at N. N. C. during the year 1942-43, then attended the University of Idaho for 12 months while in the U. S. navy. Also he went to pre-midshipman and midshipman school in New York, before ending a total of 33 months' service in the navy.

One of Richard's main activities is singing, and he has exhibited this talent for the A. D. P. society in many programs and contests, has been a member of the Philharmonic society all through high school and college, and took a major solo part in the "Messiah" this year which was performed by the Philharmonic society. He has made five trips with the a cappella choir, of which he was president this year, was business manager of the Oasis in 1946-47, and is now vice president of the senior class.

Richard has worked his way through high school and college, but has found time to be head of a family since 1944 when he was married. He is now the proud father of a four and one-half months old boy.

Richard has been majoring in English and plans one more year of college, but he is preparing to eventually work into newspaper advertising. He will also continue some music but says of his English professor, "I wish to express my sincere appreciation for Miss Washburn for her Christlike example."

uled as the speaker. Also to be featured is the Crusader's quartet, according to Paul Harris, president.

ciety, Oly secretary, and secretary to the athletic/literary council. She plans on working in the Nazarene publishing house at present; later she wants to get into children's work or work in the slums "until she finds a better occupation."

Myrtle Hayes (2.58) has been president of F. T. A., has taken honors in the speech tournaments, has been active in Christian Workers Band, and has taught the high school typing classes the last year. She plans to continue teaching.

Ruth Cronrath (2.52) has majored in music and several times has taken honors for the S. L. A.'s in music contests. Her future plans are to teach music.

Everett Nelson (2.46) has spent his last two years here. He is already accepted for graduate study at Berkeley Baptist Divinity school where he will enter next fall and start the long journey toward a doctor's degree in church history.

Merril Bennett (2.44) is present student body president, was elected to Who's Who, received the annual art award last year, has been cartoonist for the school publications, and has been active in speech tournaments. He plans on doing some kind of commercial art work.

Pay Phones Installed

The telephone company of Nampa has placed in Morrison and Chapman halls two coin telephones. This will considerably lighten the load of traffic on the college lines.

All long distance calls, whether collect or not collect, are to be placed on these pay telephones, also all outgoing local calls.

The telephone in Chapman is on the second floor and the telephone in Morrison is in the dean's office. The numbers are 1027-J and 1028-W, respectively.

Kelly Predicts Bigger, Better Sunday Schools

By TOM KELLY

As another school year draws to a close, seniors can be seen wearing their caps and gowns around the Sunday School halls of N. N. C. It'd be nice to be a senior, we think, but after all, we have it over them—we can stay around the hallowed S. S. halls for another year. Two years, or three years and continue to go to Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Next year there will be a fresh crop of freshmen to work on to get into Sunday school.

We have great visions—next year, in the new church of course, we are going to work on the proposition of having a contest with Bethany. After we take them we're going out for Bethany AND Olive in 1950, and to top everything off in 1951—well, we'll just keep that a secret until then. Godspeed to all of the seniors, may they go out to build bigger and better Sunday Schools!

Glee Clubs Present 'Ballad for Americans'

The combined men's and women's glee clubs, under the direction of Clara Christensen, presented Ballad for Americans in the auditorium Friday night, May 7. The program was of a patriotic nature expressing how we were all Americans regardless of nationality, color or creed.

The program opened with the singing of America by the audience followed by the invocation by the Rev. Riley. Tribute to the flag was given followed by salutes led by Donald Christensen. A picturesque description of the Statue of Liberty was given by Doris Mahl. A men's chorus sang "My Native Land." Ray Hastings gave a reading about Abraham Lincoln following which the Ballad for Americans was presented. Eugene Eitzen was baritone soloist. Accompanists were Beulah Vore and Ermã Johnson.

Leih, Kirley to Wed June 3 in Chapel

Wedding bells will ring in chapel on June 3 at 4 in the afternoon for Miss Virginia Grace Kirley, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Leo Kirley, and George G. T. Leih, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geurt Leih, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Pat Kirley, sister of the bride-to-be, will be the maid of honor and the bridesmaids are Dorothy House, Luceal Lenker, and Edith Hoidal. Best man is Rudy Lenker and ushers are Don Adamson, Harold Bates and Alvin House.

Richard Lindbloom will bring a special song and Elaine Carlson will play the organ for the wedding march. Reception hostess is Betty Edes.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will be at home on route 3, Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Both George and Virginia are graduating this year, and George plans to continue his schooling at the University of Colorado next fall.

Virginia Kirley was awarded the annual P.-T. A. award by Mrs. Carl Halberg, vice president of that organization for Idaho Monday morning. This makes the third year that a student of N. N. C. has won this award. The final selection is made from a list of students recommended by the faculty, and scholarship, sportsmanship and general all-around citizenship are the principal traits upon which the prize is awarded.

Lillian Nutt to Be Bride Paul Harris

Tuesday afternoon at 3:30, June 2, Miss Lillian Nutt, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Nutt, and Paul Harris, son of the Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Harris, will be married in a ceremony at the First Church of the Nazarene in Nampa. Rev. Harris will conduct the ceremony with Dr. L. T. Corlett assisting.

Maid of honor will be Miss Helen Nutt, sister of the bride-to-be, and the best man is John Harris, brother of Paul. The bridegroom's assistants will be Jim Hess and Rodney Smith and the bridesmaids are Alvira Satter of Salem, Oregon, and Carol Harris. Ushers are Wally Slonaker, John List, Max McLean, and Walter Goehring.

Special music will be provided by Professor Roger Taylor and the girls' sextette.

A reception will be held immediately following the ceremony in the recreation room of the First church parsonage, and the couple will be at home in Vetville. Both are seniors next year.

Sulston, Bennett Go To Arizona Confab; ASB Problems Discussed

President-elect Ken Sulston and President Abe Bennett attended the 23rd annual convention of the Pacific Student Presidents' Association, May 7 and 8, held at Thunderbird Field, Tempe, Arizona. Arizona State college was the host. Attending were representatives of all the Pacific states, of western Canada, and of Hawaii.

The following topics were discussed: Creation of Interest and Participation in Student Activities; Freshman Orientation; Student Body Election Procedures; Student Relations to the Nation's (World's) Problems; Methods of Student Body Finance; and general discussion subjects.

This convention of the incumbent and newly elected presidents of small, large, denominational, undenominational, co-educational, non-co-educational public and private colleges and universities affords the opportunity to meet and talk over mutual problems, and to give dynamic program suggestions to the new presidents.

Included in the party from N. N. C. was Mrs. Sulston and Gale Newell, chauffeur.

SHORT SHORTS...

ROY RAY

Prof. Roy Ray returned to the campus this week after being confined to the hospital for 10 days with an infected leg. "I'm surely glad to be back, he said. "I'd rather run around here and see Prof. Wilson, even, than to be in the hospital."

MORRISON GIRLS

Saturday night the girls of Morrison hall presented Alice Schmidt with a waffle iron. She has been assistant dean this year. As Lohengrin's "Wedding March" was played, little Patty Wesche and Eddie Fisher brought in the gift.

HOME EC.

The Home Economics department attended a buffet dinner in honor of the three seniors who will graduate this year with a major in that department. Guests of honor were Frances Gause, Ramona Vanderpool, and Olive Webb.

During the evening, Miss Joanne Burkhart announced her engagement to Ronnie Weatherford. The program consisted of the class will and prophecy and readings.

FIRE ESCAPES

For the past two weeks, the Freeman Gowen Machine Shop of Nampa has been installing fire escapes at Chapman hall.

These emergency exits will serve the men who live on the upper floors of the dorm. Installation has not been completed but the work is being finished as fast as circumstances permit.

Chapel Talks

Dr. Walter A. Maier of the International Lutheran Hour used as his text Romans 8:31: "In all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us. 'Be thou therefore not ashamed of the witness of Christ!'"

Dr. G. B. Williamson our general superintendent, spoke on the subject of our Nazarene movement in the British Isles. Before this time the work has been located mainly in Scotland, but now the greatest opportunities are in England. However, at Glasgow, Scotland, there is a religious educational college where young men and women are trained for Christian work with emphasis being placed on the missionaries that are being sent forth.

Mrs. Harold Hart: "If we go forth weeping we shall doubtless come again rejoicing, bearing much fruit." It is our responsibility to go to the Indians of the western hemisphere and teach them of "the Light" for "the Glory of the Lord shall be thy reward."

Delegate Reports On Teacher's Meet

By PHIL C. SALISBURY

The fifty-fourth annual meeting of the delegate assembly of the Idaho Education association convened in Boise April 22-23 with Pat Davis, Joe Tracey, and Phil Salisbury representing the E. E. Angel chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

The purpose of the delegate assembly this year was to conduct the regular annual business for the teachers of Idaho and to set the legislative program on education bills for the coming session of the Idaho legislature.

As it would not be possible to mention all the important resolutions which were passed at this assembly, I will list only a few of them:

1. A $2400 minimum salary for a teacher hold a B. A. degree or the equivalent and a graduated schedule for all credits thereafter.
2. Adoption of the continuing contract bill with notification date changed to March 1.
3. That the state board of education be elected on a non-partisan ticket.
4. Provision for teacher compensation.

From these and the many more resolutions that were passed we can see that Idaho is realizing her debt to her children and her teachers. This state is fast approaching the educational level of her sister states. To you students that haven't chosen your life vocation—there are many opportunities in the teaching field in Idaho—remember—IDAHO IS ON THE MARCH!

Church Building Fund Exceeds $70,000; Riley Tells of Needs for Summer, Coming Months

At the conclusion of the annual business meeting of College Church, May 5, 1948, The Rev. Riley, pastor of the church, released the following information:

"Sunday, May 2, concluded the drive for the raising of $70,000 for the building fund during the fiscal church year of 1947-48. We received in the collection plates cash totaling $4645.22, of which $4,300 was for the building fund. This brought the present building fund total up to $70,500.

"Upon recommendation of the church board, the church voted at its annual business meeting to set a goal of $50,000 cash for the 1948-49 fiscal year. This will bring the building fund total to $120,000 and it is hoped this will meet the major expenses of the new church costs.

"We wish to thank you for your many prayers and unstinting giving."

In revealing the plans for the summer for the new church building program, the Rev. Riley said that the work is moving along as rapidly as possible at the present time. It is hoped that the foundation will be poured within two weeks and the basement "I" beams in place within three weeks. Present plans call for brick laying to start the first part of July and with the Lord's help it is expected that the steel trusses will be up before cold weather.

There will be a small fulltime crew on all summer long and donated labor will be used every week day, including Saturday and Saturday night, except Wednesday night. Contracts have been let for heating, ventilation and plumbing and soon all of the necessary material for the building will be purchased.

Highschool Upper-Classmen Banquet

Gay spring formals and beautiful corsages, were much in evidence Tuesday, May 4, at the Brethren church, when the juniors, seniors, and faculty members of College high school got together for the annual junior-senior banquet.

In accord with the nautical theme, the banquet room was decorated with red, white, and blue streamers, ships, sea shells, and a large life belt.

Del Cherrington, acting as toastmaster, introduced the program which included a solo, "The Restless Sea," by Donna Jean Maxwell; a toast to the seniors by Dick Edwards, president of the junior class; a response by Ray James, president of the senior class; a trumpet solo, "Red Sails in the Sunset," by Keith Gilbert; a toast by Miss Helen G. Wilson, "Bon Volage;" a trio, "Now Is the Hour," by Dick Edwards, Bud Booker, and Alan Sturges. Professor A. J. Finkbeiner delivered the after-dinner speech on the subject, "Sailing on the Sea of Life."

Dr. Gish to Return For Summer Term Teacher Workshop Is Being Scheduled

Dr. Delbert R. Gish has been named as the visiting professor for the summer session, starting June 4 and running through July 31, according to information given out this month. Dr. and Mrs. Gish are well remembered at N. N. C., both of them teaching here only a year ago. Dr. Gish is returning from the Nazarene Theological seminary in Kansas City for the summer and will teach various classes in religion.

Of interest to teachers are the various courses offered for them this summer. In addition to the regular courses offered in Idaho school law, methods, the history of education and others, an educational workshop will be offered for the benefit of teachers needing special types of courses to meet certification requirements.

Although most of the courses will run through the entire eight weeks session, some will be offered the first four weeks that will cover one semester's work, and the second semester's work will be covered during the second four weeks period.

The maximum amount of credit which may be earned during the summer session is nine semester credits.

Wreckage Cast Gives Top Performance Audience Greet Play With Applause

Suspense reigned supreme last Thursday and Friday as the speech department dramatics class under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth McGraw, presented "Wreckage," a drama in three acts, by J. Hartley Manners.

Leads were handled by Jerald Johnson, Pauline Hilty, Jack Hawthorne, and Howard Zimmerman. The supporting cast was composed of Mrs. Patricia Mitchell, Christel Pyrtle, Molly Kemble, Alma Jean Herr, Janice Wheeler, and Paul Kunkel.

The drama was the story of a confirmed "drug addict" and kept the audience on the edge of their seats throughout the best part of three acts as they witnessed his struggle to overcome the habit.

The production was used by special arrangement with the Samuel French Publishing company.

NNC Be Represented At General Assembly

N. N. C. will be well represented at the General Assembly starting June 20 in St. Louis. Among the members of the faculty and administration who plan to attend are: Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Corlett, the Rev. and Mrs. L. Wesley Johnson, the Rev. and Mrs. Riley, Prof. and Mrs. McGraw, Dr. Culver, Prof. Ray, Prof. Taylor, Prof. Washburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Lee.

The Rev. Johnson will also attend three district conventions, speaking in behalf of the college. Leaving this Friday for Mitchell, South Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota, and Litchfield, Minnesota, he will return May 31.

Dean Culver announces that she and Dr. Corlett will attend the conference of the presidents and deans of all of the colleges preceding the General Assembly, starting May 17; also Dean Culver and Miss Marion Washburn hope to attend the Phi Delta Lambda meeting there on June 22. They are the executive council members representing the Delta, or N. N. C. chapter of the national honor society.

Church Vote Held

At the annual business meeting of the College Church of the Nazarene Wednesday, May 5, 1948, the following officers were elected for the fiscal church year, 1948-49:

Sunday school superintendent, Roy F. Ray.

Board of trustees, W. W. Swann, F. A. Powell, A. E. Vail, Donald Constable, Calvin Emerson, Ed Beukelman, John Dean.

Board of stewards, Thelma Culver, James McGraw, J. J. Maxwell, Guy Sharp, L. Wesley Johnson, Harold Hart, Ken Sulston, Bertha Dooley, Clarence Berkley.

Church school board, Mrs. Calvin Emerson, A. J. Finkbeiner, D. G. Laughlin, Helen Wilson, Mrs. L. T. Corlett.
