1993. July. Twenty-third General Assembly held at Indianapolis, Indiana. Repositioned NYI separately from Sunday School Ministries. Adopted the report of the Divorce and the Ministry Study Committee, emphasizing the biblical plan for the permanence of marriage, but providing that where divorce and remarriage has occurred, the marriage partners, upon genuine repentance of their sins, are not automatically disqualified from serving as ministers. Changed district categories from four to three, strengthened the authority of regional councils, and authorized the creation of a USA National Board. Accepted new language on such “sanctity of life” issues as genetic engineering, euthanasia, allowing to die, and abortion.

1997. June. Twenty-fourth General Assembly held in San Antonio, Texas. Created Holiness Today magazine by merging the Herald of Holiness and World Mission magazines. Altered process for amending the Special Rules to two-thirds “present and voting.” Gave flexibility to world regions in structuring themselves. Approved concept of “life long learning” for ministers and agreed to record continuing education achievements on ministerial records.

2001. June. Twenty-fifth General Assembly held in Indianapolis, Indiana. Changed regional membership criteria for nomination of General Board members (Manual paragraph 330.2), thereby decreasing number of General Board members (42).

2005. June. Twenty-sixth General Assembly held in Indianapolis, Indiana. Elected the first woman (Nina G. Gunter) to the Board of General Superintendents. Changed the amendment process for the church constitution from a two-thirds vote of registered General Assembly delegates to a two-thirds vote of delegates present and voting. Voted to allow use of leavened bread in the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper. Voted to place the Manual on the internet.

2008. Global Ministry Center relocated to Lenexa, Kansas, in September. On October 5, denominational Centennial Celebrations held in 24 time zones around the world.

2009. June. Twenty-seventh General Assembly held in Orlando, Florida. The first African (Eugénio Duarte, Cape Verde) was elected to the Board of General Superintendents. An abbreviated “global” Manual was authorized.

A. ORGANIZATION AND ORDER OF BUSINESS

Rule 1. Seating. Members of the General Assembly shall be seated by delegations and shall have reserve seat status. The section assigned to each delegation by the Platting Committee shall be properly identified and the members shall occupy their reserved seats for the entire meeting unless change is made by order of the General Assembly.

Rule 2. Meeting Hours. The first business meeting of the General Assembly shall convene at a time determined by the General Secretary and the Board of General Superintendents. Thereafter, the hours for convening and adjourning meetings shall be determined by vote of the General Assembly.

Rule 3. Organization. When the General Assembly has been convened in accordance with the provisions of the Manual, the Credentials Committee shall report the following:

- a. The names of the general superintendents, if any, who have died during the quadrennium and the names of the delegates-elect, if any, who have died since election.
- b. The number of delegates present.
- c. The number of delegates absent, by district.
- d. Alternates to be seated in lieu of delegates, giving first the name of the district represented, then the name of the alternate, in lieu of the name of the delegate.

Rule 4. Quorum. The quorum of the General Assembly shall be a majority of the total number of delegates elected. In the absence of a quorum, the only business to be properly transacted and in order shall be the approval of minutes and the matter of adjournment.

Rule 5. Preparation for Business. When the presence of a quorum is determined, the General Secretary shall nominate assistant secretaries and other necessary assistants to be elected by the Assembly. The report of the Platting Committee will be received with instructions for the seating of delegations and non-voting members. The business of the Assembly will then be in order.

Rule 6. Order of Business. The regular order of business shall be:

- a. Adoption of Rules of Order (first plenary business meeting only).
- b. Report of the Credentials Committee relating to the presence of a quorum and the seating of alternates (first three days).
- c. Report of the Daily Journal Committee (after first day).
- d. Presentation of appeals, resolutions, and miscellaneous business for immediate consideration. The question of considering these items shall be undebatable and require a two-thirds vote in the affirmative for consideration at this time.
- e. Reports of the general officers and department directors.
- f. Reports of special committees and commissions.

g. Miscellaneous business.

Rule 7. Agenda. The General Secretary shall keep a record of the Orders of the Day, of the reports of committees, and reports placed on the record by a vote. These items of business shall be presented to the Agenda Committee, which shall place them in order for consideration by the General Assembly. By a two-thirds vote, any item may be considered out of its proper order.

B. DUTIES OF CHAIR[MAN]PERSON

Rule 8. Preserve Order. The Chair[man]person shall be responsible for seeing that the business of the General Assembly proceeds in accordance with the aforementioned Order of Business and in accordance with these Rules of Order and such other rules and regulations as may be adopted by the Assembly.

Rule 9. Questions and Points of Order. The Chair[man]person shall rule on Questions and Points of Order, subject to appeal. In case of an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate if it relates to indecorum, to priority of business, or if the previous question is pending at the time the point of order is raised. On a debatable question, the Chair[man]person shall state the reasons for his or her decision and the member appealing may state the reasons for the appeal.

Rule 10. Questions of Privilege. The Chair[man]person shall decide on Questions of Privilege. After the Question of Privilege is stated by the member, the Chair[man]person rules on the admissibility of the question.

Rule 11. Appoint Committees. The Board of General Superintendents shall appoint all committees unless otherwise ordered by the General Assembly.

C. DUTIES AND RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

Rule 12. Attendance at Meetings. Members shall be expected to attend all meetings of the General Assembly unless physically unable to do so. In the event a member is unable to attend the meetings, arrangements shall be made with the Credentials Committee for the certification of an alternate.

Rule 13. Obtain the Floor. A member desiring to make a motion, debate, or bring a matter to the General Assembly shall rise and address the Chair[man]person, then state his or her name and district. The Chair[man]person, when assigning the floor to the member, shall announce the name of the member and the district he or she represents. The member then may proceed to speak. In the case of a motion, a second will be required before the Chair[man]person states the question. A question is not before the Assembly for consideration until stated by the Chair[man]person. Instructions for microphone sequencing shall be followed.

Rule 14. Questions which may Interrupt the Speaker. The following motions have the high privilege of interrupting a speaker:

- a. Questions of Privilege
- b. Call for the Orders of the Day

Rule 15. Rising to a Question of Privilege. A member desiring to rise to a Question of Privilege shall briefly state the question after being assigned the floor by the Chair[man]person but shall not proceed until the Chair[man]person rules its admissibility. Questions of Privilege are limited to matters relating to the rights of the entire Assembly or of the individual member, and must be of an imperative character to justify the interruption of the regular order or a speaker who has the floor.

Rule 16. Limits of Debate. Debate is limited to three speakers on each side of an issue. He or she may speak three minutes each time. A member may speak a second time to a question only after every member desiring to debate has spoken. A committee making a report through its chair[man]person shall be entitled to five minutes to close the debate. A report consisting of two or more propositions may be divided for consideration and each proposition shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as if they were separate reports. The same privilege shall be granted to the reporting member who presents the views of the minority.

An amendment must be germane to the motion it proposes to amend. When a member desires to change an entire motion, paragraph, or section, the proper amendment is the amendment to substitute. This is an amendment of the first degree and the original motion, paragraph, or section, and the substitute may be further amended by amendments of the second degree. When both propositions have been perfected by amending, the Assembly shall vote on the question to substitute. If the substitute is adopted, it becomes the pending question and must be adopted or rejected. If the substitute is rejected, the original question is before the Assembly for adoption or rejection.

Rule 21. Previous Question. The previous question may be called for on one or a series of pending questions. If not qualified, it applies only to the immediately pending questions. If adopted by a two-thirds vote, future debate and amending shall cease and the question or questions put to vote immediately. After the previous question has been adopted, it is in order to divide a question or lay it on the table; however, a member may not move the previous question or move to lay on the table a question under discussion at the close of his or her debate on the question.

Rule 22. Division of a Question. When a question is divisible into distinct propositions, any member shall have a right to call for a division of the question.

Rule 23. Motion to Adjourn. A motion to adjourn is undebatable and is in order, except when:

- a. A member has the floor.
- b. A vote is being taken.
- c. The motion to adjourn has been rejected and there has been no intervening business.
- d. A motion to fix the time to which to adjourn is pending.

Rule 24. Read. All reports and communications to the General Assembly shall be passed to the Secretary for reading.

Rule 25. Reconsideration. A motion or resolution which has been decided by the Assembly may be brought back for further consideration by the motion to reconsider the vote. Rule 30. Methods of Voting. Voting may be by:

- a. Show of Hands
- b. Paper Ballot
- c. Electronic Vote. A vote by machine shall in all instances be a valid vote, and shall constitute a vote by ballot when such is called for in the Manual, organizational bylaws, and in the Rules of Order for the General Assembly.
- d. Voice Vote (yeas and nays)
- e. Proposed Balloting for Electing New General Superintendents.

In each of the regional caucus meetings, each delegate is requested to submit one name by ballot for each general superintendent position proposed to be elected. These names will be compiled as a list for submission at a General Assembly plenary meeting. This list will become our first official ballot, and will be reported to the General Assembly as a basis for successive ballots, where delegates may vote electronically from that list, or add names by paper ballot.

A ballot vote on any question may be ordered by a majority vote.

Rule 31. Interrupted Vote. Once the chairperson has called for a vote, the vote cannot be interrupted for any reason.

PROCEEDINGS

FIRST DAY

SUNDAY MORNING, 28 JUNE 2009

COMMUNION SERVICE

10:00 AM

General Superintendent Jesse C. Middendorf, Presiding

The preparation for worship prelude, "A Call to Praise" and "Anthem of Praise", was provided by the General Assembly orchestra, combined college choirs and vocal group, and directed by Don Reddick, Music Coordinator for the General Assembly.

The twenty-seventh General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene was convened by General Superintendent Jesse C. Middendorf, in the Orange County Convention Center, in Orlando, Florida, USA. He welcomed the delegates in the Convention Center as well as those watching and listening via the Internet in the 155 world areas.

General Superintendent Middendorf reminded the assembly that they were there to celebrate Christ's death and then His resurrection on the third day. He read Revelation 7:9-12 as the call to worship and challenged each person to celebrate the life of Jesus the Nazarene.

Marvin Jones led the assembly in singing "Called Unto Holiness." General Superintendent James H. Diehl led the congregation in the Apostles Creed.

Following the choir and congregation singing a "Crown Him Lord" medley, General Superintendent Jerry D. Porter offered prayer in both English and Spanish.

General Secretary David Wilson made necessary announcements and encouraged attendees to participate in the afternoon service that would include the March of the Nations.

General Superintendent Nina G. Gunter reminded the congregation that there were 500,000 more Nazarenes than when the General Assembly convened four years ago. The Sunday offering, with a Board of General Superintendents' goal of $150,000, went toward the cost of the General Assembly. Ten percent of the funds raised went toward Haiti relief. Following prayer by General Superintendent Gunter, the General Assembly Choir and Orchestra presented "More than Enough" as the offertory.

General Superintendent Middendorf introduced Paul G. Cunningham to bring the morning message, "A View of the Future of the Church."

General Superintendent J. K. Warrick read Matthew 16:13-28. The General Assembly Choir and Orchestra presented music ministry of "End of the Beginning."

In his message, General Superintendent Cunningham proclaimed that “God is the God of the Nazarene future. He has made the future our friend because He is already there. He has prepared the way for us – and He invites us to follow Him into the next exciting chapter of our adventure with the Holy Spirit.” General Superintendent Cunningham shared that God has “also favored us with a mission—Go and make Christlike disciples in the nations—and He promised to resource us for the task. As a result WE HAVE A FUTURE!! He is the God of immeasurably more. Let’s continue to be a missionary church. Let’s step boldly into the future. Never forget that the God of the future is the God of immeasurably more!”

Don Reddick led the congregation, choir, and orchestra in singing “Here I Am Lord.”

As has been our practice on the Sunday morning of General Assembly, General Superintendent Paul G. Cunningham led the assembly in taking communion. While the choir sang “Reach the World,” the elements were distributed.

General Superintendent Jesse C. Middendorf concluded the service in prayer. The General Assembly Choir and Orchestra performed “Praise God Doxology” as the postlude.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, 28 JUNE 2009

GENERAL ASSEMBLY SERVICE

4:00 PM

General Superintendent James H. Diehl welcomed those in the Orange County Convention Center to the afternoon centennial service by reading from Psalms, “The voice of the Lord is over the world...full of integrity...and peace.” General Superintendent Diehl reported an attendance of more than 22,000 in the morning service.

Marvin Jones led the Praise and Worship in singing “A New Hallelujah,” “Hear the Call of the Kingdom,” “My Savior’s Love,” “We Speak to Nations,” and “Take My Life.”

Carla Sunberg offered the opening prayer and blessing in English, Russian, and German.

General Superintendent Diehl expressed appreciation to the combined choir, the worship team, as well as the orchestra for their participation in the services. He also thanked the congregation for the morning offering and challenged them to again give generously. The Haitian Choral Group presented the offertory.

General Secretary David P. Wilson made necessary announcements and encouraged delegates to be present at 8:30 AM on Monday, for the plenary meeting in South Hall B.

General Superintendent James H. Diehl introduced retiring General Superintendent Nina G. Gunter as the speaker for the evening.

Scripture readings from Joshua 3:1-5, 4:4-9 were provided in various languages.

Prior to the message special music was presented by the General Assembly International Choir.

General Superintendent Gunter spoke on the theme “In the Nations: An Amazing Crossing” and indicated four points related to the story of the Israelites as they entered the next century of their journey: 1) There were challenges to face, 2) There was a commitment to make, 3) There was a community to celebrate, 4) There was a connection to make.

General Superintendent Gunter asked the question, “Will we Nazarenes have the faith to walk in holy obedience to our God as He leads us into the Promised Land of the next century of our existence?” She affirmed that “The God of Joshua is with the Church of the Nazarene, giving us His grace so that we are a church to whom a future is promised. We are ready to cross into that bright missional future.” As Joshua called forth the tribes of Reuben, Gad, Judah, and Issachar, the “Nazarenes of 155 world areas are called to join in the great crossing from our collective celebration, equipped by the power of the Holy Spirit, to go from Orlando, Florida, USA, into a new century and ‘in the nations.’” It is “time to cross over.”

During the “March of the Nations,” the names of the 155 world areas of the Church of the Nazarene were read and displayed on the screen, and flags were carried by persons from his/her respective world area.

Each person received a stone upon entering the service. The stone, with the inscription of Joshua 3:5, was to remind the members of the congregation to consecrate themselves, “for tomorrow the Lord will do amazing things among you.”

Marvin Jones then led the congregation in “God is Gonna Finish Just What He Started.”

Following the closing prayer by Nina Gunter, Don Reddick led the vocal group and choir in music of benediction. The service concluded at 6:15 PM.

SECOND DAY MONDAY MORNING, 29 JUNE 2009

The first plenary business meeting of the Twenty-seventh General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene was called to order at 8:30 AM on June 29, 2009 in the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida, with General Superintendent Jesse C. Middendorf presiding.

Marvin Jones and the praise team led the assembly with a medley of “Call Upon the Name of the Lord” and “Breathe on Me, Breathe on Me, Oh God.”

Each of the General Superintendents led the delegates in Concerts of Prayer and asked them to gather in groups of four or five.

General Superintendent J. K. Warrick led the delegates in reading together from 2 Chronicles 7:14 and Joel 1:14. General Superintendent James H. The Board of General Superintendents requests this Twenty-seventh General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene to join us in a salute to

DR. JAMES H. DIEHL

We do this in recognition of his 50 years as a faithful minister of the gospel and in sincere appreciation for his 16 years as general superintendent in the Church of the Nazarene. Upon the occasion of his retirement, we honor him for a distinguished ministry of fruitful service to Christ and the kingdom of God.

James Harvey Diehl was born in Des Moines, Iowa, and grew up under the tutelage of godly parents, Don and Della Diehl. They taught him the Word of God and modeled Christian integrity through their faithful lives as dedicated lay persons. Molded during his formative years by the holiness lifestyle of the Diehl home and an early personal surrender to Christ as Savior, his heart proved to be fertile soil for God's call to Christian ministry.

Dr. Diehl was ordained an elder in the Church of the Nazarene on the Iowa District by General Superintendent Hardy G. Powers in 1960. At the center of his heart is a love for people and for ministry. He first demonstrated this as a pastor at Oskaloosa, Iowa, First Church and Atlanta, Georgia, First. While at Oskaloosa he conducted live radio programs for seven years and led his church to develop a weekly television broadcast.

His ministry gifts also led him to deeply impact the MidAmerica Nazarene University community, where he was Assistant to the President. Additionally, he served very effectively for a decade as district superintendent in Nebraska and in Colorado. At the Twenty-third General Assembly at Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1993, he was elected as general superintendent.

Prior to his election he was the senior pastor at First Church of the Nazarene in Denver, Colorado.

Dr. Diehl has authored numerous articles that have appeared in the Herald of Holiness, Holiness Today, Preacher's Magazine, Bread, World Mission, The Holiness Digest, Perspective, and other publications.

He has a great love for education. He is a 1959 graduate of Olivet Nazarene University, and in 1990 Northwest Nazarene University conferred on him a doctor of divinity degree in recognition of his outstanding achievements. He has served on the Board of Trustees at several institutions of higher education including MidAmerica Nazarene University, Nazarene Theological Seminary, Nazarene Bible College, and Northwest Nazarene University, where he also served as chairman of the Board of Regents.

Jim Diehl married Dorothy Ann Stanley in 1956. They have devoted themselves to a lifetime of ministry that has required traveling hundreds of thousands of miles to serve the worldwide Church of the Nazarene. Dr. Jim is grateful to God for the privilege of doing Kingdom ministry in 105 nations of the world.

The Diehls were blessed with four children: Jodi, Jim, Don, and David. Their seven wonderful grandchildren and one great grandson are the joy of their lives. In June of 2008 the Diehl family walked together through “the valley of the shadow of death” as Jim and Dorothy’s youngest son, David, passed away after a valiant battle with cancer. The global Nazarene family wept with them and at the same time celebrated David’s life and ministry.

Those who know Dr. Diehl recognize him as an encourager of people and a preacher of the Word of God with outstanding insight and practical application. A sense of humor and love for people are clearly evident in his preaching, and his gracious approach to the lost and the broken has inspired all of us to emulate his lifestyle of witnessing. His heart beats ardently for evangelism, missions, youth, families, and the communication of the Spirit-filled life to people of all ages and cultures.

Dr. Diehl, we honor you as one of the outstanding holiness preachers of the Church of the Nazarene. Your wit, humility, eternal optimism, and gripping stories have endeared you to all our hearts forever! Along with your perceptive mind, God-given wisdom, and spiritual fervor, a unique openness has been the hallmark of your administrative style, making you approachable by all. To know you, Dr. Diehl, is to be acquainted with the sound of laughter and the warmth of sincere counsel.

For these and numerous other significant reasons, our entire denomination expresses deep gratitude and profound appreciation for the exemplary life and ministry of James H. Diehl.

DR. PAUL G. CUNNINGHAM

We do this on the occasion of his retirement after 45 years of effective and faithful ministry for Christ and His Church. For the last 16 years of his active ministry he has served as a general superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, providing exemplary leadership to the global church.

Dr. Cunningham was chosen for the highest elected office in the church at the Twenty-third General Assembly at Indianapolis, Indiana, in July 1993, after serving for 29 years as senior pastor of College Church of the Nazarene in Olathe, Kansas.

He went to Olathe in 1964 to pastor the local Church of the Nazarene. The church grew from 46 members in 1964 to a constituency of more than 3,000 in 1993 when he left. Total annual giving rose from $11,000 in 1964 to over $3 million. The congregation built three sanctuaries and education units under his leadership, with the third sanctuary seating 4,000. Dr. Cunningham was instrumental in bringing MidAmerica Nazarene University to the Olathe area.

Dr. Cunningham served as chairman of the Board of Trustees of Nazarene Theological Seminary, and he was a member of the general church Beacon Hill Press Book Committee. He was also secretary of the Board of Trustees at MidAmerica Nazarene University and a member of the Kansas City District Advisory Board. At the 1985 General Assembly he was elected president of the General Board of the International Church and was reelected to that post in 1989.

In 1991 he was selected as the Citizen of the Year by the Olathe Chamber of Commerce, and in 1993 he was chosen by MidAmerica Nazarene University to receive the Citation of Merit from the denomination for his contributions to education. Also in 1993, Dr. Cunningham was given the J. T. Barton Award from the City of Olathe for distinguished service—the city's highest award.

After graduation from Olivet Nazarene University he married Connie Seaman, whom he had known since childhood. The two of them have exemplified what it means to be godly spouses, parents, and grandparents, always giving the best of themselves to their family in spite of the pressing demands of ministry.

Dr. Cunningham is a 1964 graduate of Nazarene Theological Seminary. In 1975 MidAmerica Nazarene University, in grateful appreciation for his influence in the founding and leadership of the university, conferred upon him the doctor of divinity degree.

In addition to his work as College Church pastor and general superintendent, he has been the special speaker in many revivals, district events, camp meetings, rallies, retreats, and seminars throughout the United States and in various world areas. His wife, Connie, has often joined him as a speaker. As leaders, speakers, and confidants, they have been models of integrity, faithfulness, and passion for the people of the church around the world.

The Cunninghams have three children: Paul Mark Cunningham, Lori Wegley, and Connie Jo Mason, all living in the Olathe area. Seven grandchildren are a constant source of pride, joy, and satisfaction.

Dr. Paul G. Cunningham, we salute you. Your colleagues on the Board of General Superintendents cherish the memories of our many hours together. Your love for Christ and the church has inspired and challenged us. Your deep commitment to nurturing relationships with family and friends stirs us. Your example of holy living encourages us. You are a model of Christian consistency and of passion for the doctrine and experience of entire sanctification.

For these and numerous other significant reasons, our entire denomination expresses deep gratitude and profound appreciation for the exemplary life and ministry of Paul G. Cunningham.

The Board of General Superintendents requests this Twenty-seventh General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene to join us in a salute to

DR. NINA GRIGGS GUNTER

We do this in celebration of her dedicated service, visionary leadership, and passionate commitment to Christ. She has served 54 years as a preacher of the Good News of Christ, culminating in four years as a general superintendent in the Church of the Nazarene.

Nina Griggs Gunter was born on September 4, 1937, in Bennettsville, South Carolina, to Joseph and Naomi Griggs. She answered the call to preach at the age of 14. Upon telling her pastor about this, he asked her to preach at the next service. From this simple beginning God has used her to touch the world with the message of full salvation.

Dwight Moody Gunter married Nina in 1956. They have two sons, Dwight M. Gunter II and Dwayne M. Gunter.

Nina G. Gunter received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Trevecca Nazarene University and her master of education degree from the University of South Carolina. She was awarded an honorary doctor of divinity from Trevecca Nazarene University in recognition of her creative and innovative ministry—the first woman to receive this honor from the university. She is listed among Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities and Outstanding Young Women of America. She was elected by Trevecca alumni as the “Ministerial Alumnus of the Year” in 1990 and was named by Nazarene Bible College as the 2005 “T. W. Willingham Preacher of the Year.” In 2006 Olivet Nazarene University presented her with the distinguished Maggie Sloan Crawford Leadership Award. In February 2009 Trevecca honored Dr. Gunter by making her the first recipient of the Nina Griggs Gunter Leadership Award established to give annual recognition to an outstanding Christian woman who models servant leadership. TNU also presents an annual Nina Griggs Gunter Scholarship to a female student who has demonstrated servant leadership on campus and in her community.

Dr. Gunter's ministry as an ordained elder in the Church of the Nazarene has been one of partnership with her husband. She served as co-pastor with him in Waverly, Tennessee, 1957–1958; Butler, Missouri, 1960–1961; Charleston, South Carolina, 1961–1963; Hartsville, South Carolina, 1963–1975; and Sumter, South Carolina, 1975–1976. In addition to serving as the South Carolina district office administrator while her husband was the district superintendent (1976–1986), she served in evangelism ministry and as interim pastor of various congregations.

While co-pastoring in Hartsville, South Carolina, Nina became involved in leadership for a ministry that would exercise her abilities and expand her passions and faith in God for the next 35 years—Nazarene Missions International (NMI). First she served as NMI president on the South Carolina District for 15 years. For the last nine of those years she was also the representative for the Southeast Region on the General Council. In 1986 she was elected to the position of General NMI Director. During her 20-year tenure she initiated many missions programs, and annual missions giving increased from $30 million to $62 million for a total of one billion dollars given to missions.

Dr. Gunter was elected to the Board of General Superintendents at the Twenty-sixth General Assembly in Indianapolis, Indiana, in June 2005—the first woman to be honored with the highest elective office in the church. Dr. Gunter's presence on the Board of General Superintendents has been marked by a spirit of cooperation and collaboration. Her insights, coupled with her devotion to the gospel, have made her voice one of reason, compassion, and experience. Her leadership has been framed by an ever-present awareness of the responsibility to adequately reflect the spiritual interests of every Nazarene. By her ministry and example the global church has been enriched.

Throughout her life she has always placed a high priority on family. She is deeply grateful that every member of her family is a committed follower of Jesus, serving Him in a local Nazarene church.

In spite of a hectic schedule, Dr. Gunter has found time for meditation, prayer, reflection, and writing. She has authored the following books: The Traveler's Psalm, Our Defining Moment, Christian Perfection, and The Cross—Seize It! Share It! She has coauthored her latest book, Holy Leadership in a Hectic World, published in 2009. Dr. Gunter was selected as a contributing editor in 2008 and 2009 for the Leadership Journal of Christianity Today as one of the “church leaders admired most for being faithful and innovative in contributing to Christ’s mission in the world.”

As a valued colleague, Dr. Gunter has been a model of the Church’s obedience to her Lord Jesus Christ. Her passionate effort to challenge local churches to a greater vision for global missions has resulted in unprecedented interest and support. Her perseverance in championing the cause of women in ministry emerges from her own conviction that the ground at the foot of the cross is level and that the call of God to ministry supersedes any distinctions of color, gender, or nationality. Her unwavering commitment to the doctrine and experience of entire sanctification has inspired many others to preach holiness with conviction and clarity.

For these and numerous other significant reasons, our entire denomination expresses deep gratitude and profound appreciation for the exemplary life and ministry of Nina Griggs Gunter.

39. The chair declared there was no election and called for ballot No. 2 to be taken electronically. General Superintendent Gunter explained that the delegates would input the number code listed to the left of the candidate's name on ballot No. 1. She then prayed for guidance for the delegates.

40. Rachel McCarty, Michigan, called for a point of order. Copies of the biographical information (bios) on the top 30 candidates had not yet reached all the delegates.

A 10-minute break was taken while the biographical information was delivered to delegates.

41. General Superintendent Nina G. Gunter reconvened the meeting and called for the electronic vote of ballot No. 2 for the fourth general superintendent.

Wavny Toussaint, Metro New York, expressed concern that some names did not include any biographical information.

General Secretary David Wilson responded that biographical information was requested at the previous General Assembly, that information for only the top 30 names was distributed, and that the information came from the ministerial database.

42. Crawford Howe, Northwestern Illinois, offered a motion that this General Assembly disregard the bios for the top 30 candidates for the office of general superintendent and that no bios be used in this General Assembly. The motion carried.

43. General Superintendent Gunter called again for ballot No. 2 for general superintendent.

44. The chair called Loren Gresham, chair of the International Church Committee, to read the committee's report, and she provided historical background of the Committee.

45. Resolution ICC-1 (considered for ICC-2, ICC-3, ICC-4, and ICC-6) was read, noting that the General Administration Committee voted on these resolutions as a group. After discussion, International Church Committee Chair Loren Gresham suggested that all resolutions be read before voting.

46. Resolutions ICC-2, ICC-3, ICC-4, and ICC-6 were also read. Resolution ICC-1 was considered for all, and the resolution was adopted.

47. Resolution SR-757 (considered for SR-757, SR-756, SR-756a, and ICC-5) was read and adopted.

48. Following a short break, General Superintendent J. K. Warrick assumed the chair and reconvened the meeting.

49. General Superintendent Warrick called for the report of ballot No.2 for the 37th General Superintendent.

Gluttony is the practice of consuming to the detriment of body, community, and spiritual life. While obesity may arise due to genetics, cultural constraints, or physical limitations, gluttony, on the other hand, reflects a way of life that consumes God’s good creation: Food, resources, and relationships that harm both persons and community. The practice of Christian stewardship calls us to seek to maintain the health and fitness of our bodies as the temple of the Holy Spirit and to live temperate lives with all the resources and relationship God provides. (Proverbs 23:19-21; Matthew 11:19; 23:25; I Corinthians 9:27; Galatians 5:23; Philippians 3:19; Titus 1:8; 2:12; Hebrews 12:16; 2 Peter 1:6).”

FIFTH DAY

315. General Superintendent Bowling addressed the assembly, indicating that when he was elected he wanted to do what was right. But he said he had been awakened this morning around 3:30 and felt checked by the Holy Spirit. He then rescinded his decision to accept the election as the 39th general superintendent.

General Superintendent Middendorf responded that this is the Lord’s church and that He still desires to give us His direction, His wisdom. The delegates were asked to gather with other delegates from their regions or districts to respond in prayer, seeking the peace of God and the mind of God. Newly elected General Superintendent David Graves led in the prayer.

We don’t want to repeat the process of electing a person who would decline.

319. Charles Jones, West Texas, spoke against the motion and offered an amendment to change the delay to 30 minutes instead of two hours.

320. Randy Berkner, Wisconsin, called the previous question (which suspends debate). On vote, the motion was adopted.

General Superintendent Jesse C. Middendorf read the following “Charge.”

THE CHARGE

We celebrate the leadership of the Holy Spirit in your elections as the 37th, 38th, and 39th general superintendents of the Church of the Nazarene. We have earnestly sought God’s guidance; we believe that He has graciously answered our prayers. You have obviously proven yourselves worthy of this trust by your spiritual qualifications, unquestioned integrity, leadership abilities, and record of effective service in the church.

And now, in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of His appearing and His kingdom, on behalf of the Board of General Superintendents and the Church of the Nazarene International, I give each of you this charge:

First of all, I charge you to make it your top priority to give leadership to the church. You have been called by God through the vote of this assembly to do exactly that. You are being asked to join hands, hearts, and minds with five other individuals to provide united, visionary, Spirit-anointed leadership. The success of any enterprise, including the church, risers or falls with its leadership. Prudent management is necessary; but do not allow the minutia of administration to so dominate your ministry that it negates your effectiveness as a leader. Manage prudently, but remember always that you have been set aside for prophetic leadership—so pray earnestly, think critically, and act catalytically.

Through the wisdom of the very earliest leaders of the Church of the Nazarene, the Manual provides you with authority to act. Use that authority with careful discrimination. I encourage you to lead by influence and persuasion as a general rule rather than by power of position. Lead with compassion; lead with the guidance of the Spirit; and lead selflessly.

I charge you to be a missional leader. Our mission is “to make Christlike disciples in the nations.” The Great Commandment and the Great Commission move us to engage the broken and the needy with compassion, to embrace the marginalized in justice, to bring the spiritually lost to the world’s only Savior, and to fold them into a caring community of faith. There they can be loved and discipled into that Christlikeness of character and purpose that is made possible in Christian community only through the cleansing presence and power of the Holy Spirit. This mission extends to all humanity. It begins in worship; it ministers in evangelism and compassion. It encourages believers to grow toward Christian maturity through discipleship, and it prepares women and men for Christian life and service through Christian higher education. Be guided by this mission in everything you do as a leader.

I charge you to think globally. Your election by the General Assembly signifies that in a very unique way you now belong to the global church. That will be both a delight and a sobering responsibility. A provincial ministry perspective is incompatible with this office. Several years ago we intentionally declared our commitment to be a truly international church. Thankfully, we have made much headway toward this goal, but there is more work to be done to bring our beloved church into the mature expression of a global church. This is a “work in progress.” We have not yet arrived. Thus, leadership must reaffirm its resolve to continue the pursuit of becoming an authentically international church. Think globally. Be sensitive to all the issues of diversity which confront us in this 21st-century world. Aggressively promote inclusivity throughout the church.

I charge you to remember that, while you have been elected as a general superintendent, you were also elected to a Board of General Superintendents. You were chosen because of the unique gifts and abilities you have demonstrated as a minister of the gospel and as a leader in the church. We expect you to utilize those gifts in the most appropriate and fulfilling way possible. But we also ask that you recognize your place in a community of leaders. The Board is not monolithic. We are not to engage in “group-think;” nor do we seek mere consensus or the lowest common denominator. Rather, we ask that you join us in careful examination of the issues that must be addressed in leadership. I charge you to work with your colleagues on the Board in a spirit of collaboration and cooperation, in an authentic demonstration of unity in the Spirit for the sake of the mission, and in the best interests of the Church of the Nazarene and of the Church of Jesus Christ at large. We will seek your wisdom as an individual. We will ask for your participation as a colleague.

I charge you to faithfully uphold the doctrinal positions, ethical standards, and governmental policies of the church as stated in the Manual. Be guided by the Manual in all your rulings and decisions. Gladly embrace the responsibilities given this office. In a few days you will have the holy privilege of laying your hands on the head of a God-called woman or man in the act of ordination into the Christian ministry. Nothing you do will be more sobering or humbling. Help the church recapture the sense of holy awe that accompanies the ordination of its elders and deacons as we project our core values to future generations.

I charge you to guard against allowing an intrusion into the life of the church by any threat that will weaken our moral and spiritual fiber or dissipate our effectiveness. The Church of the Nazarene was raised up to “spread scriptural holiness.” You have no greater responsibility than to ensure that the church faithfully and effectively performs this directive. The message is our mission. Manual paragraph 318 states: “The Board of General Superintendents shall be the authority for the interpretation of the law and doctrine of the church . . . subject to an appeal to the General Assembly.” The Board of General Superintendents has no duty more solemn than doing whatever it deems necessary to ensure doctrinal coherence and clarity. Please, for the sake of our Lord and His church, do everything you can to make certain that the trumpet is sounding a clear call, for thereby you will help reignite our passion to spread scriptural holiness.

I charge you, finally, to take care of your own soul. Because of all the demands and claims upon your time that attend this assignment, it will be difficult for you, particularly in these early days in office, to discover the new rhythm of your life as a general superintendent. Therefore, you must intentionally prioritize your life and live within your priorities as much as possible. Do not be governed by the merely urgent; live for the truly important. You are a spiritual leader of the church. The church will not rise higher spiritually than its leadership. The best thing you can give our church is Christlikeness. This is our purpose as ministers—to worship Jesus, to love Jesus, to think like Jesus, to talk like Jesus, and to live like Jesus. That is the kind of leader we need—and that is the kind of leader the church will follow. I charge you to be such a leader who, like that early church leader, will dare to stand before us in the power of the blessed Third Person of the Holy Trinity and say, “Follow me as I follow Christ.”

We are giving you a daunting task. We are asking the very best of you. We must have your unvarying loyalty to Christ and His Church in this assignment. But I am confident of this: You were elected by the church under the leadership of the Spirit. He is your strength, and He will be your guide.

May God who has called you to this work, gift you anew for this complex and demanding assignment. And may His unfailing promises be your source of wisdom, of discernment, and of hope. Live courageously and boldly. Lead with conviction and with wisdom. And may the unfailing grace of God enable you to fulfill this charge, to His glory, for the sake of His Church, and in fulfillment of His mission in the world.

On behalf of the church I give you this charge, in the Name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Following the reading of “The Charge” the new general superintendents knelt at the R. T. Williams altar. The current and emerti general superintendents were invited to lay hands on the new general superintendents. General Superintendent Jerry D. Porter prayed the prayer of consecration, asking for a special blessing and anointing of the Holy Spirit.

Scott Kelley provided music ministry of “I Will Not Forget Thee.” Don Reddick led the congregation in singing “The Church’s one Foundation.”

General Secretary David Wilson presented the Board of General Superintendents and spouses to the assembly. The General Assembly instrumentalists provided the postlude.

CHRISTIAN ACTION COMMITTEE

The Christian Action Committee having had referred to it the following resolutions, which were reported to the assembly in two reports, recommended action as indicated:

1. CA-700—Membership of Church Officers, Metro New York District General Assembly Resolutions Committee, Mid-Atlantic and Virginia Districts, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 82 for the resolution and 0 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 148.)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 39 be amended as follows:

F. Church Officers

39. We direct our local churches to elect as church officers [only persons] active members of the local church who profess the experience of entire sanctification and whose lives bear public witness to the grace of God that calls us to a holy life; who are in harmony with the doctrines, polity, and practices of the Church of the Nazarene; and who support the local church faithfully in attendance and with tithes and offerings. (113[9-13].10, 127, 145, 146, 147)

2. CA-701—Gender Inclusive Language, Reference Committee, Kansas City District, Washington Pacific District, and Wisconsin District Resolutions Committee, recommends that it be amended and adopted. The vote: 81 for the resolution and 9 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 150.)

RESOLVED that a new Manual paragraph be added as follows:

903.6. Gender Inclusive Language

The Church of the Nazarene affirms and encourages the use of gender inclusive language in reference to persons. Publications, including the Manual and public language should reflect this commitment to gender equality as expressed in paragraph 903.5. LANGUAGE CHANGES SHALL NOT BE APPLIED TO ANY SCRIPTURAL QUOTATIONS OR REFERENCES TO GOD.

FURTHER RESOLVED that remaining paragraphs be renumbered accordingly.

3. CA-702—Christian Compassion, Reference Committee, East Ohio District General Assembly Delegation, Eurasia Regional Advisory Council, and USA/Canada Mission/Evangelism Department, recommends that it be amended and adopted. The vote: 65 for the resolution as amended and 14 against the resolution as amended. (Adopted, see 153.)

RESOLVED that a new paragraph be added to the Manual as follows:

33.3. The Church of the Nazarene believes this new and holy way of life involves practices to be avoided and redemptive acts of love to be accomplished for the souls, minds, and bodies of our neighbors. One redemptive arena of love involves the special relationship Jesus had, and commanded his disciples to have, with the poor of this world; that His Church ought, first, to keep itself simple and free from an emphasis on wealth and extravagance and, second, to give itself to the care, feeding, clothing, and shelter of the poor and marginalized. Throughout the Bible and in the life and example of Jesus, God identifies with and assists the poor, the oppressed, and those in society who cannot speak for themselves. In the same way, we, too, are called to identify with and to enter into solidarity with the poor and not simply to offer charity from positions of comfort. We hold that compassionate ministry to the poor includes acts of charity as well as a struggle to provide opportunity, equality, and justice for the poor. We further believe the Christian's responsibility to the poor is an essential aspect of the life of every believer who seeks a faith that works through love. We believe Christian holiness to be inseparable from ministry to the poor in that it drives the Christian beyond their own individual perfection and toward the creation of a more just and equitable society and world. Holiness, far from distancing believers from the desperate economic needs of people in this world, motivates us to place our means in the service of alleviating such need and to adjust our wants in accordance with the needs of others.

FURTHER RESOLVED that the existing Manual paragraph 33.3 and subsequent paragraphs be renumbered as appropriate.

4. CA-703—Evidence of Baptism with the Holy Spirit, Reference Committee, recommends that this paragraph remain in the Manual and that it be adopted. The vote: 83 for the resolution and 0 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 154.)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 903.9 be reconsidered, and that a recommendation be made to include it as is in the 2009 Manual, or modify it, or eliminate it from the 2009 and succeeding Manuals, according to Manual paragraph 902.6.

Keep, Modify, or Eliminate?

903.9. Evidence of Baptism with the Holy Spirit

The Church of the Nazarene believes that the Holy Spirit bears witness to the new birth and to the subsequent work of heart cleansing, or entire sanctification, through the in-filling of the Holy Spirit.

We affirm that the one biblical evidence of entire sanctification, or the infilling of the Holy Spirit, is the cleansing of the heart by faith from original sin as stated in Acts 15:8-9: “God, who knows the heart, showed that he accepted them by giving the Holy Spirit to them, just as he did to us. He made no distinction between us and them, for he purified their hearts by faith.” And this cleansing is manifested by the fruit of the Spirit in a holy life. “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires” (Galatians 5:22-24).

To affirm that even a special or any alleged physical evidence, or “prayer language,” is evidence of the baptism with the Spirit is contrary to the biblical and historic position of the Church. (1997)

5. CA-704—Evidence of Baptism with the Holy Spirit, New England District General Assembly Resolutions Committee, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 34 for the resolution and 43 against the resolution. (Rejected, see 155.)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 903.9 be amended as follows:

903.9. Evidence of Baptism with the Holy Spirit

The Church of the Nazarene believes that the Holy Spirit bears witness to the new birth and to the subsequent work of heart cleansing, or entire sanctification, through the in-filling of the Holy Spirit.

We affirm that the one biblical evidence of entire sanctification, or the infilling of the Holy Spirit, is the cleansing of the heart by faith from original sin as stated in Acts 15:8-9: “God, who knows the heart, showed that he accepted them by giving the Holy Spirit to them, just as he did to us. He made no distinction between us and them, for he purified their hearts by faith.” And this cleansing is manifested by the fruit of the Spirit in a holy life. “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires” (Galatians 5:22-24).

To affirm that even a special or any alleged physical evidence, or “prayer language,” is evidence of the baptism with the Spirit is contrary to the biblical and historic position of the Church. (1997)

The Church of the Nazarene has never endorsed speaking in tongues or the use of a special prayer language, or any other exceptional physical or spiritual manifestations, as proof of baptism with the Spirit. While the possibility of the Holy Spirit manifesting itself in such fashion is not beyond the power of God to accomplish, it in no way serves to distinguish those who enjoy the gift of the Holy Spirit from those who do not. Relying on speaking in tongues, or other extraordinary manifestations, as proof of such baptism contradicts the understanding of the Church of the Nazarene and the common Christian experience of the last two millennia. While we cannot prohibit such rare and exceptional movement on the part of the Spirit, should the Spirit see fit so to act, the Church of the Nazarene does not recognize such activity as something to be approved, endorsed, or encouraged, as it is contrary to our understanding of God as desirous of making Himself known to His people in clear and understandable ways.

6. CA-705—Covenant of Christian Conduct—Gluttony, Virginia District, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 39 for the resolution and 42 against the resolution. (Substituted, Amended, and Adopted, see 224.)

RESOLVED that a new paragraph be added to the Manual as follows:

~~34. We hold specifically that the following practices should be avoided:~~

~~34.7. The practice of gluttony. Our people should seek to maintain the health and fitness of their bodies as the temple of the Holy Spirit.~~

903. WELLNESS

THE SCRIPTURE CALLS ALL BELIEVERS TO BALANCE, HEALTH, AND WHOLENESS THROUGH THE TRANSFORMING POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. GLUTTONY IS THE PRACTICE OF CONSUMING TO THE DETRIMENT OF BODY, COMMUNITY, AND SPIRITUAL LIFE. WHILE OBESITY MAY ARISE DUE TO GENETICS, CULTURAL CONSTRAINTS, OR PHYSICAL LIMITATIONS, GLUTTONY, ON THE OTHER HAND, REFLECTS A WAY OF LIFE THAT CONSUMES GOD'S GOOD CREATION: FOOD, RESOURCES, AND RELATIONSHIPS THAT HARM BOTH PERSONS AND COMMUNITY. THE PRACTICE OF CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP CALLS US TO SEEK TO MAINTAIN THE HEALTH AND FITNESS OF OUR BODIES AS THE TEMPLE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT AND TO LIVE TEMPERANT LIVES WITH ALL THE RESOURCES AND RELATIONSHIPS GOD PROVIDES. (2009)

(Proverbs 23:19-21; Matthew 11:19; 23:25; 1 Corinthians 9:27; Galatians 5:23; Philippians 3:19; Titus 1:8; 2:12; Hebrews 12:16; 2 Peter 1:6)

7. CA-706—Working with Immigrants, USA/Canada Mission/Evangelism Department, recommends that it be amended and adopted. The vote: 81 for the resolution as amended and 5 against the resolution as amended. (Amended and Adopted, see 180.)

RESOLVED that the 27th General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene go on record affirming the following:

WE ARE COMMITTED TO:

1. Provide ~~ING~~ pastoral care and crisis intervention to immigrants and to build bridges with the immigrant community ~~regardless of~~ NOTWITHSTANDING their legal status.
2. Provide ~~ING~~ technical and financial assistance to local churches in compassionate ministry with ~~undocumented~~ immigrants and asylum seekers.
3. Become ~~ING~~ more informed and active citizens, using our voices and votes to speak for the voiceless, to defend the poor and the vulnerable, and to advance the common good.
4. Encourage ~~ING~~ our leaders to show their support for congregations composed of or working with immigrants who may or may not YET have OBTAINED LEGAL documents.

8. CA-707—Use of the Word “Ethnic”, USA/Canada Mission/Evangelism Department, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 79 for the resolution and 2 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 183.)

RESOLVED that the 27th General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene go on record affirming the following:

That the word “ethnic” be considered an acceptable descriptive term when referring to immigrants and international people groups.

9. CA-708—Creation, Indianapolis District Resolutions Committee, recommends that it be amended and adopted. The vote: 67 for the resolution as amended and 14 against the resolution as amended. (Amended and Adopted, see 191.)

903.8. Creation

The Church of the Nazarene believes in ~~GOD THE CREATOR AS REVEALED IN~~ the biblical account of creation {“In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth...”—Genesis 1:1.} We oppose any godless interpretation of the origin of the universe and of humankind. (HEBREWS 11:3) (2009) [~~However, the church accepts as valid all~~ scientifically verifiable discoveries in geology and other natural phenomena, for we firmly believe that God is the Creator. (Articles I. 1., V. 5.1, VII.)] ~~The biblical account states that God created the heavens and earth. (“In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth...” Genesis 1:1). Also, the biblical account explains: “For in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day” (Exodus 20:11a). And, Jesus taught: “...at the beginning of creation, God made them male and female” (Mark 10:6). The church affirms that the truth of God’s Word and the truth of all valid scientific evidences are the same truth. DISCOVERIES IN GEOLOGY AND OTHER NATURAL SCIENCES AS VERIFIABLE ACCORDING TO HUMAN OBSERVATION AND RESEARCH. AT THE SAME TIME, THE CHURCH OPPOSES ALL INTERPRETATIONS OF SUCH DISCOVERIES THAT BETRAY THE TRUTH OF GOD AS CREATOR AS REVEALED AND TAUGHT IN THE HOLY SCRIPTURES. (2005)~~

10. CA-709—Creation Care, Intermountain District Resolutions Committee, recommends that it be amended and adopted. The vote: 74 for the resolution as amended and 1 against the resolution as amended. (Adopted, see 195.)

RESOLVED that a new paragraph be added to the Manual as follows, and that subsequent paragraphs be renumbered accordingly:

903.9 Creation Care

With deep appreciation of God’s creation we believe we are to strive to exhibit the stewardship qualities that help preserve His work. We acknowledge verifiable scientific principles about natural phenomena as expressions of His creation that help us understand, monitor and predict our influence on the planet’s ecology. Recognizing we have been given a stake in sustaining the integrity of our surroundings, we accept the individual and collective responsibilities of doing so.

(Genesis 2:15, Psalms 8:3-9; 19:1-4; 148)

11. CA-710—Covenant Of Christian Conduct—Membership in Oath-Bound Secret Orders, Kansas District, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 59 for the resolution and 13 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 196.)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 34.3 be amended as follows:

34. We hold specifically that the following practices should be avoided:

34.3. Membership in oath-bound secret orders or societies including but not limited to those such as Freemasonry. The quasi-religious nature of such organizations dilutes the Christian’s commitment, and their secrecy contravenes the Christian’s open witness. This issue will be considered in conjunction with paragraph 112.1 regarding church membership.

(1 Corinthians 1:26-31; 2 Corinthians 6:14—7:1; Ephesians 5:11-16; James 4:4; 1 John 2:15-17)

12. CA-711—Conformity with Civil Law, Anaheim District Advisory Board, recommends that it be amended and adopted. The vote: 84 for the resolution as amended and 2 against the resolution as amended. (Adopted, see 199.)

RESOLVED that any decision or ruling of any elected or appointed official in the Church of the Nazarene, at the general, regional, district, or local levels, shall conform to civil law in the jurisdiction in which the decision or ruling is to be implemented UNLESS SUCH LAWS CONFLICT WITH SCRIPTURE OR THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST.

13. CA-712—Pornography, Reference Committee, recommends that this paragraph remain in the Manual and that it be adopted. The vote: 86 for the resolution and 0 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 200.)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 903.10 be reconsidered, and that a recommendation be made to include it as is in the 2009 Manual, or modify it, or eliminate it from the 2009 and succeeding Manuals, according to Manual paragraph 902.6.

Keep, Modify, or Eliminate?

903.10. Pornography

Pornography is an evil that is undermining the morals of society. Printed and visual materials that degrade the dignity of humankind and are contrary to the scriptural view of the sanctity of marriage and the wholesomeness of sex are to be abhorred.

We believe that we are created in the image of God and that pornography degrades, exploits, and abuses men, women, and children. The pornography industry is motivated by greed, is the enemy of family life, has led to crimes of violence, poisons minds, and defiles the body.

To honor God as Creator and Redeemer, we urge active opposition to pornography by every legitimate means and the making of positive efforts to reach for Christ those who are involved in this evil. (1997)

14. CA-713—Abuse of the Unempowered, Reference Committee, recommends that this paragraph remain in the Manual and that it be adopted. The vote: 86 for the resolution and 0 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 203.)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 903.3 be reconsidered, and that a recommendation be made to include it as is in the 2009 Manual, or modify it, or eliminate it from the 2009 and succeeding Manuals, according to Manual paragraph 902.6.

Keep, Modify, or Eliminate?

903.3. Abuse of the Unempowered

The Church of the Nazarene abhors abuse of any person of any age or sex and calls for increased public awareness through its publications and by providing appropriate educational information.

The Church of the Nazarene reaffirms its historical policy that all those who act under the authority of the Church are prohibited from sexual misconduct and other forms of abuse of the unempowered. When placing people in positions of trust or authority, the Church of the Nazarene will presume that past conduct is usually a reliable indicator of likely future behavior. The Church will withhold positions of authority from people who have previously used a position of trust or authority to engage in sexual misconduct or abuse of the unempowered, unless appropriate steps are taken to prevent future wrongful behavior. Expressions of remorse by a guilty person shall not be considered sufficient to overcome the presumption that future wrongful conduct is likely, unless the expressions of remorse are accompanied by an observable change of conduct for a sufficient length of time, to indicate that a repeat of the wrongful misconduct is unlikely. (1997)

15. CA-714—Dramatics, Reference Committee, recommends that this paragraph be deleted from the Manual and that it be adopted. The vote: 68 for the resolution and 10 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 204.)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 902.4 be reconsidered, and that a recommendation be made to include it as is in the 2009 Manual, or modify it, or eliminate it from the 2009 and succeeding Manuals, according to Manual paragraph 902.6.

Keep, Modify, or Eliminate?

902.4. Dramatics

~~Whereas, There is danger in the excessive use of dramatic productions in our schools and colleges; be it~~

~~Resolved, That this practice be carefully restricted and greater emphasis be placed on the spiritual exercise that leads to sound Christian experience. (1997)~~

16. CA-715—Value of Children and Youth, General Board and USA/Canada Mission/Evangelism Department, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 80 for the resolution and 1 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 205.)

RESOLVED that a new paragraph be added to the Manual as follows:

903.16. The Bible commands every Christian to, “Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute” (Proverbs 31:8). The Shema (Deuteronomy 6:4-7; 11:19) admonishes us to communicate God’s grace to our children. Psalm 78:4 declares, “We will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, his power, and the wonders he has done” Jesus affirms this in Luke 18:16, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.”

As a response to this biblical perspective, the Church of the Nazarene acknowledges that children are important to God and a priority in His kingdom. We believe God directed us to attend to all children – to love, nurture, protect, uphold, guide, and advocate for them. It is God’s plan that we introduce children to the life of salvation and growth in grace. Salvation, holiness, and discipleship are possible and imperative in the lives of children. We recognize that children are not a means to an end, but full participants in the Body of Christ. Children are disciples in training, not disciples in waiting.

Thus, holistic and transformational ministry to children and their families in every local church will be a priority as evidenced by:

- providing effective and empowering ministries to the whole child—physically, mentally, emotionally, socially, and spiritually;
- articulating Christian positions on current social justice issues that affect children;
- connecting children to the heart of the mission and ministry of the faith community;
- discipling children and training them to disciple others,
- equipping parents to nurture the spiritual formation of their children.

Since the church’s educational institutions (Bible schools, colleges, universities, and seminaries) prepare students for leadership, they play a crucial role in carrying out the vision and mission of communicating the value of children. They join local churches and families in taking responsibility to prepare clergy and laity to raise the next generation of children and youth to be biblically and theologically literate and to meet the known and unforeseen challenges for evangelizing, discipling, and transforming their societies.

The Church of the Nazarene envisions an intergenerational faith community where children and youth are loved and valued, where they are ministered to and incorporated into the Church family through a wide variety of means and methods, and where they have opportunities to minister to others in ways consistent with their ages, development, abilities, and spiritual gifts.

CHURCH PROGRAM COMMITTEE

FURTHER RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 805 be amended as follows:

805. Installation of Officers

Following the singing of an appropriate hymn, let the secretary read the names and positions of the officers to be installed. These may come forward and stand at the altar of the church, facing the minister. A covenant card should be provided for each. The minister shall then say:

Recognizing God's method of setting apart certain workers for specific areas of Christian service, we come to this moment of installation of these officers (and/or teachers) who have been duly chosen to serve in our church for the ensuing year. Let us consider God's instructions to us from His Holy Word.

"Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will" (Romans 12:1-2).

"Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15).

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, with gratitude in your hearts to God" (Colossians 3:16).

"Anyone who receives instruction in the word must share all good things with his instructor" (Galatians 6:6).

We now come to this important moment when you who stand before the altar are to take upon yourselves the task of caring for the affairs of the church and [its auxiliary organizations] NMI, NYI, and SDMI. May you look upon the assignments you now assume as special opportunities for service for our Lord, and may you find joy and spiritual blessing in the performance of your respective duties.

Yours is no light task, for the ongoing of the church and the destiny of souls are in your hands. The development of Christian character is your responsibility, and leading the unsaved to Jesus Christ is your highest objective. May God grant you wisdom and strength as you do His work for His glory.

You have been given a card on which is printed a covenant. We shall read it in unison, and as we do so, let us make it a personal commitment.

...Remainder of this ritual paragraph remains the same.

The District Administration Committee having had referred to it the following resolutions, which were presented to the assembly in two reports, recommends action as indicated:

1. DA-200—Elder Versus Ordained Minister Qualification (For a District Phase Change), Board of General Superintendents, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 127 for the resolution and 1 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 51.)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraphs 200.2-200.3 be amended as follows:

200.2. Work in the Church of the Nazarene may begin as a pioneer area and lead to the establishment of new districts and district assembly boundaries. Phase 3 districts may emerge as quickly as possible according to the following pattern:

Phase 1. A Phase 1 district shall be designated when opportunity for entry into a new area is presented, within guidelines for strategic development and evangelism. Requests may be made by a regional director, a district through the Regional Advisory Council, or the sponsoring district superintendent and/or District Advisory Board for final approvals by the general superintendent(s) in jurisdiction and the Board of General Superintendents. (200.1, #5)

A Phase 1 district superintendent in regions related to the World Mission Department shall be recommended by the regional director, in consultation with the department director, to the general superintendent having jurisdiction who shall appoint. The region shall give guidance to the Phase 1 district regarding resources available for development. In other regions, the district superintendent shall be appointed by the general superintendent in jurisdiction after consultation with the district superintendent(s) and Advisory Board(s) of the sponsoring district(s). (204.2)

When, in the opinion of the field strategy coordinator and regional director, a Phase 1 district in regions related to the World Mission Department, is in crisis—financial, morale or otherwise—and this crisis seriously affects the stability and future of the district, a district may be declared in crisis with the approval of the general superintendent in jurisdiction and in consultation with the World Mission Department director. The regional director, with the approval of the general superintendent in jurisdiction, may appoint an interim board for the management of the district and in lieu of all existing boards, until the next regularly scheduled district assembly. On those districts not served by a regional director and Regional Advisory Council, the general superintendent in jurisdiction, in consultation with the Board of General Superintendents, may make such determination.

Phase 2. A Phase 2 district may be designated when a sufficient number of fully organized churches and ordained [elders] ministers, and a district infrastructure of adequate maturity exists to recommend such designation.

Such designation will be by the Board of General Superintendents upon recommendation of the general superintendent in jurisdiction after consultation with the department director, regional director, and other individuals and boards involved in the appointment of the district superintendent. A district superintendent will be elected or appointed.

Quantifiable guidelines would be a minimum of 10 organized churches, 500 full members, and 5 ordained [elders] ministers, and a minimum of 50% of district administration expense shall be generated by district ministries fund income at the time of designation. A District Advisory Board or national board may request the general superintendent in jurisdiction for an exception to these criteria. (204.2)

When, in the opinion of the field strategy coordinator and regional director, a Phase 2 district in regions related to the World Mission Department, is in crisis—financial, morale or otherwise—and this crisis seriously affects the stability and future of the district, a district may be declared in crisis with the approval of the general superintendent in jurisdiction and in consultation with the World Mission Department director. The regional director, with the approval of the general superintendent in jurisdiction, may appoint an interim board for the management of the district and in lieu of all existing boards, until the next regularly scheduled district assembly. On those districts not served by a regional director and Regional Advisory Council, the general superintendent in jurisdiction, in consultation with the Board of General Superintendents, may make such determination.

Phase 3. A Phase 3 district may be declared when a sufficient number of fully organized churches, and ordained [elders] ministers, and members exist to warrant such designation. Leadership, infrastructure, budgetary responsibility, and doctrinal integrity must be demonstrated. A Phase 3 district must be able to shoulder these burdens and share the challenges of the Great Commission within the global scope of an international church. Such designation will be by the Board of General Superintendents upon recommendation of the general superintendent in jurisdiction after consultation with the department director, regional director, and other individuals and boards involved in the appointment of the district superintendent. (203.13) A district superintendent will be selected in accordance with Manual provisions.

Quantifiable criteria include a minimum of 20 organized churches, 1,000 full members, and 10 ordained [elders] ministers. A District Advisory Board or national board may request to the general superintendent in jurisdiction for an exception to these criteria.

A Phase 3 district must be 100% self-supporting in regard to district administration. The district superintendent shall be elected by the district assembly in accordance with Manual provisions.

Phase 3 districts are an integral part of their respective regions. In regions having a regional director, the general superintendent in jurisdiction may enlist the assistance of the regional director to facilitate communication with and supervision of the district.

When in the opinion of a general superintendent in jurisdiction, a district is in crisis—financial, morale, or otherwise—and this crisis seriously affects the stability and future of the district, a district may be declared in crisis with the approval of the Board of General Superintendents and the General Board Executive Committee. The general superintendent in jurisdiction, with approval of the Board of General Superintendents and the Executive Committee of the General Board may take the following action: (1) remove the district superintendent; (2) appoint an interim board for the management of the district in lieu of all existing boards, until the next regularly scheduled district assembly; and (3) initiate such special interventions as may be necessary to restore the district's health and mission effectiveness. (307.8, 322)

200.3. Criteria for District Division or District Boundary Changes. A proposal for district development or district boundary changes developed by a regional office, a national board, or a District Advisory Board may be presented to the general superintendent in jurisdiction. Such a plan should take into consideration:

1. That the proposed new districts have population centers that justify the creation of such districts;
  2. That lines of communication and transportation are available to facilitate the work of the districts;
  3. That a sufficient number of mature [elders] ordained ministers and lay leaders are available for the work of the district;
  4. That the sponsoring districts will have, wherever possible, sufficient district ministries fund income, sufficient membership and organized churches to maintain their Phase 3 district status;
2. DA-201—Missional Definition of a District, Eurasia Regional Advisory Council, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 126 for the resolution and 1 against the resolution. (Amended and Adopted, see 54 and 106.)

MINISTRY AND EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The Ministry and Education Committee having had referred to it the following resolutions, which were presented to the assembly in four reports (Note: Resolutions MED-524 through MED-529 were reported to the General Assembly by separate action from the Stewardship and Finance Committee as reassigned, but are listed here.), recommends action as indicated:

1. MED-500—Baptism—Apostles' Creed, East Ohio District General Assembly Delegation and Southwest Indiana District, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 42 for the resolution and 44 against the resolution. (Rejected, see 442.)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 800.1 be amended as follows:

800.1. The Baptism of Believers

Dearly Beloved: Baptism is the sign and seal of the new covenant of grace, the significance of which is attested by the apostle Paul in his letter to the Romans as follows:

“Or don’t you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death: in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life. If we have been united with him like this in his death, we will certainly also be united with him in his resurrection” (Romans 6:3-5).

The earliest and simplest statement of Christian belief, into which you now come to be baptized, is the Apostles’ Creed, which reads as follows:

“I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;

“And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

“I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic* Church [of Jesus Christ], the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.”

Will you be baptized into this faith? If so, answer, “I will.”

Response: I will.

Do you acknowledge Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, and do you realize that He saves you now?

Response: I do.

Will you obey God’s holy will and keep His commandments, walking in them all the days of your life?

Response: I will.

The minister, giving the full name of the person and using the preferred form of baptism—sprinkling, pouring, or immersion—shall say:

_____, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

801. The Organization of a Local Church

District Superintendent: Loved ones in Christ, we are gathered on this Lord’s Day for the special purpose of officially organizing the (name) Church of the Nazarene. Indeed you are already a church but today the life of this congregation moves to a new level as you embrace the rights, privileges, and responsibilities of a fully organized congregation in accordance with the Constitution and polity of the Church of the Nazarene.

On behalf of the global family of Nazarenes, I commend you for your vision, your faith, and your diligent labor as you have worked together hand in hand and heart to heart to be a community of faith that lives as an authentic expression of the kingdom of God in the world. By this act of organization, you declare your intention to share with the global family of Nazarenes in fulfilling our common mission: “To make Christlike disciples in the nations.”

Three core values guide us in this mission:

We are a Christian people. We stand with Christians everywhere in affirming the historic Trinitarian creeds, and we deeply value our particular heritage in the Wesleyan-holiness tradition. We look to the Bible as our primary source of truth as it proclaims Christ to us, and “all things necessary to our salvation.”

We are a Holiness people. We believe that the grace of God provides not only forgiveness for sins but also the cleansing of our hearts by faith. By this gracious act of the Holy Spirit, we are sanctified and empowered to live Christlike lives in the world.

We are a Missional people. We believe God calls us to participation in the kingdom mission of reconciliation. We do this by preaching the gospel, by acts of compassion and justice, and by making disciples after the pattern of Jesus.

District Superintendent to the pastor: Pastor, would you please now present those who will be the charter members of (name) Church of the Nazarene?

Pastor: (name of district superintendent), it is my honor to present to you the charter members of this congregation. I commend them to you as brothers and sisters in Christ who are committed to our common mission as members of the Church of the Nazarene.

(Pastor reads the names or introduces each member or family.)

District Superintendent: Brothers and Sisters, I ask you now to reaffirm your membership vows.

Do you acknowledge Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, and do you realize that He saves you now?

Response: I do.

Do you affirm the Agreed Statement of Belief of the Church of the Nazarene?

Response: I do.

Do you covenant to give yourself to the fellowship and work of God in connection with the Church of the Nazarene as set forth in the Covenant of Christian Character and the Covenant of Christian Conduct? Will you endeavor in every way to glorify God, by a humble walk, godly conversation, and holy service; by devotedly giving of your means; by faithful attendance upon the means of grace; and, abstaining from all evil, will you seek earnestly to perfect holiness of heart and life in the fear of the Lord?

Response: I will.

District Superintendent: Therefore, by the authority entrusted to me as superintendent of the (name) District Church of the Nazarene, I hereby declare the official organization of the (name) Church of the Nazarene. Welcome to the global family of Nazarene congregations. May the Lord in His great mercy equip you daily with everything good for doing His will. And may the peace of Christ be with you.

10. MED-509—Unified Order of the Clergy, Reference Committee and Northeastern Indiana District, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 39 for the resolution and 50 against the resolution. (Referred, see .)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 403 be amended as follows:

B. Ministry of the Clergy

403. The Church of the Nazarene recognizes only one order of the [preaching ministry] ordained clergy, that of the elder. It also recognizes that the member of the clergy may serve the church in various capacities. Christ has called “some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to prepare God’s people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up” (Ephesians 4:11-12). The church recognizes the following categories of service in which a district assembly may place an elder, [deacon,] or, as circumstances warrant, a licensed minister: pastor, evangelist, missionary, teacher, administrator, chaplain, and special service. Service within these categories that qualifies as being an “assigned minister” would include that service for which ministerial training and ordination are normally required, or greatly desired. The Sourcebook on Ordination shall provide guidelines for each category of ministry that will aid district boards in identifying the qualifications necessary for consideration to be an assigned minister. Only assigned ministers shall be voting members of the district assembly.

FURTHER RESOLVED that section C. The Deacon, paragraphs 428–428.4 be deleted from the Manual as follows:

[C. The Deacon

428. A deacon is a minister whose call of God to Christian ministry, gifts, and usefulness have been demonstrated and enhanced by proper training and experience, who has been separated to the service of Christ by a vote of a district assembly and by the solemn act of ordination, and who has been invested to perform certain functions of Christian ministry.

428.1. The deacon does not witness to a specific call to preach. The church recognizes, on the basis of Scripture and experience, that God calls individuals to lifetime ministry who do not witness to such a specific call, and believes that individuals so called to such ministries should be recognized and confirmed by the church and should meet requirements, and be granted responsibilities, established by the church. This is a permanent order of ministry.

428.2. The deacon must meet the requirements of the order for education, exhibit the appropriate gifts and graces, and be recognized and confirmed by the church. The deacon shall be vested with the authority to administer the sacraments of baptism and the Lord’s Supper, and to officiate at marriages where the laws of the state do not prohibit, and on occasion to conduct worship and to preach. It is understood that the Lord and the church may use this person’s gifts and graces in various associate ministries. As a symbol of the servant ministry of the Body of Christ, the deacon may also use his or her gifts in roles outside the institutional church. (34.5, 35.2)

428.3. One who is called of God to this ministry, and who has fulfilled all the requirements of the church for the same, who has successfully completed a validated course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination as deacon, who has been a district licensed minister for not less than four years and recommended for renewal of district license by the church board of the local church in which he or she holds membership or by the District Advisory Board, and has been carefully considered and favorably reported by the Ministerial Credentials Board to the district assembly, may be elected to the order of deacon by two-thirds vote of the district assembly; provided he or she has been an assigned minister not less than four consecutive years; and provided further that the candidate must currently be serving in a ministry assignment. In the case of part-time associate ministers, it should be understood that there should be an extension of the consecutive years of in-service time, depending on their level of involvement in local church ministry, and that their testimony and service demonstrate that their call to ministry is primary to all other pursuits. Further, any disqualification that may have been imposed by a district assembly has been removed in writing by the district superintendent and District Advisory Board of said district; and provided further that his or her marriage relationship does not render him or her ineligible for ordination. (35.1-35.3, 203.6, 320, 424)

428.4. If in the pursuance of his or her ministry, the ordained deacon feels called to the preaching ministry, he or she may be ordained elder upon completion of the requirements for that credential and the return of the deacon credential.]

FURTHER RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 429 be amended as follows:

[D] C. The Elder

429. An elder is a minister whose call of God to [preach] proclaim the gospel, gifts, and usefulness have been demonstrated and enhanced by proper training and experience, and who has been separated to the service of Christ through His church by the vote of a district assembly and by the solemn act of ordination, and thus has been fully invested to perform all functions of the Christian ministry.

FURTHER RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 429.1 be amended as follows:

429.1. We recognize but one order of [preaching ministry] the ordained clergy—that of elder. This is a permanent order in the church. The elder is to rule well in the church, to preach the Word, to administer the sacraments of baptism and the Lord’s Supper, and to solemnize matrimony, all in the name of, and in subjection to, Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church. (34.5, 35.2, 412-13.3, 413.11, 433.12)

FURTHER RESOLVED that a new paragraph be added to the Manual as follows:

429.4. Ministers who were previously ordained deacons may request to be credentialed as elders and be granted an elder credential upon the return of their deacon credential to the office of the general secretary.

FURTHER RESOLVED that the Manual Editing Committee be authorized to remove all remaining references to the deacon order.

14. MED-513—Licensed Minister Requirements, Oregon Pacific District Resolutions Committee, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 2 for the resolution and 102 against the resolution. (Rejected, see 454.)

RESOLVED that Manual 427.1 be amended as follows:

427.1. RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 424.1 be amended as follows:

424.1. Fulfillment of Educational Foundations for Ordained Ministry. A variety of educational institutions and programs are provided around the world by the Church of the Nazarene. The resources of some world areas allow more than one program to be developed to provide the educational foundations for ministry. The normal expectation is that each student will take advantage of the most appropriate validated course of study provided by the Church in his or her area of the world. In some instances the particular circumstances of the student may make the ideal impossible. The Church will utilize as much flexibility in delivery systems as is feasible to make adequate preparation available to every person called by God to ministry in the Church. A validated course of study, directed and supervised by the District Ministerial Studies Board, and college/seminary programs, developed by the educational institutions, may be used. They should cover the same general standards as outlined in the International Sourcebook on Developmental Standards for Ordination and the regional Sourcebook on Ordination. ~~Licensed ministers shall be graduated and the school shall issue a certificate of graduation from a validated course of study when they have satisfactorily completed a validated course of study leading toward ordination by Bible, theological, and liberal arts colleges/universities and seminaries, whose ordination programs have been validated by the Regional Course of Study Advisory Committee, recommended by the International Course of Study Advisory Committee through Clergy Development, for adoption by the General Board and approval by the Board of General Superintendents. The District Ministerial Studies Board shall accept graduation from a validated program as fulfillment of the Educational Foundations for Ordained Ministry, and shall record the candidate's graduation in their report to the following district assembly.~~ WHEN A LICENSED MINISTER SATISFACTORILY COMPLETES A VALIDATED COURSE OF STUDY, THE EDUCATION PROVIDER SHALL ISSUE A CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION TO THE LICENSED MINISTER. THE LICENSED MINISTER SHALL PRESENT THE CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION TO THE DISTRICT MINISTERIAL STUDIES BOARD RESPONSIBLE FOR CONSIDERING RECOMMENDATION TO THE DISTRICT ASSEMBLY FOR GRADUATION FROM A VALIDATED COURSE OF STUDY.

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 800.2 be amended as follows:

800.2. The Baptism of Infants or Young Children

When the sponsors shall have presented themselves with the child (or children) the minister shall say:

Dearly Beloved: [While we do not hold that baptism imparts the regenerating grace of God, we do believe that Christ gave this holy sacrament as a sign and seal of the new covenant. Christian baptism signifies for this young child God's gracious acceptance on the basis of His prevenient grace in Christ, and points forward to his (her) personal appropriation of the benefits of the Atonement when he (she) reaches the age of moral accountability and exercises conscious saving faith in Jesus Christ.] The sacrament of baptism was given by Christ as a sign and seal of the new covenant of grace. Christian baptism signifies for this young child God's gracious acceptance, and points forward to his (her) personal confession of faith when he (she) reaches the age of moral accountability and exercises conscious saving faith in Jesus Christ.

In presenting this child for baptism you are hereby witnessing to your own personal Christian faith and to your purpose to guide him (her) early in life to a knowledge of Christ as Savior. To this end it is your duty to teach him (her), as soon as he (she) shall be able to learn, the nature and end of this holy sacrament; to watch over his (her) education, that he (she) may not be led astray; to direct his (her) feet to the sanctuary; to restrain him (her) from evil associates and habits; and as much as in you lies, to bring him (her) up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Will you endeavor to do so by the help of God? If so, answer, "I will."

The minister may then ask the parents or guardians to name the child, and shall then baptize the child, repeating his (her) full name and saying:

_____, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The minister may then offer the following prayer or may use an extemporary prayer.

Heavenly Father, we humbly pray that Thou wilt take this child into Thy loving care. Abundantly enrich him (her) with Thy heavenly grace; bring him (her) safely through the perils of childhood; deliver him (her) from the temptations of youth; lead him (her) to a personal knowledge of Christ as Savior; help him (her) to grow in wisdom, and in stature, and in favor with God and man, and to persevere therein to the end. Uphold the parents with loving care, that with wise counsel and holy example they may faithfully discharge their responsibilities to both this child and to Thee. In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

25. MED-523a—Baptism of Infants or Young Children, Board of General Superintendents, recommends that it be amended and adopted. The vote: 88 for the resolution as amended and 0 against the resolution as amended. (Adopted, see 463.)

800.2 The Baptism of Infants or Young Children

When the sponsors shall have presented themselves with the child (or children) the minister shall say:

DEARLY BELOVED: The sacrament of baptism is the sign and seal of the new covenant of grace. While we do not hold that baptism imparts the regenerating grace of God, we do believe that [Christ gave this holy sacrament as a sign and seal of the new covenant.] Christian baptism signifies for this young child God's [gracious] acceptance within the community of CHRISTIAN faith on the basis of [His] prevenient grace, [in Christ, and points forward to his (her) personal appropriation of the benefits of the Atonement when he (she) reaches the age of moral accountability and exercises conscious saving] It anticipates his/her personal confession of faith in Jesus Christ.

...Remainder of existing paragraph remains the same.

FURTHER RESOLVED that the following also be added to this Ritual as a new paragraph before the prayer:

Pastor: Baptism also signifies the acceptance of this child into the community of CHRISTIAN faith. I now ask you, the congregation; will you commit yourself as the Body of Christ to support and encourage these parents as they endeavor to fulfill their responsibilities to this child and to assist by nurturing his (her) growth toward spiritual maturity?

413.11. Pastor: I will, God being my helper.

Superintendent: In describing His own ministry Jesus declared, "the Spirit of the Lord is upon me" (Luke 4:18). Any elder or deacon who for two consecutive years does not submit the annual report to his or her district assembly [either in person or by letter] shall, if the district assembly so elect, [cease to be a member thereof] be dropped from the roll of elders. Should a local church board or a majority of voting members refuse to submit the annual report to the district assembly for two consecutive years, it shall be considered a withdrawal as a body from the Church of the Nazarene. (30, 104.3-104.4, 106-106.5, 201, 203.3, 418, 431.1)

FURTHER RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 228.6 be amended as follows:

228.6. 31. MED-529—Call and Qualifications of the Minister—Rearrange Order of Paragraphs, Board of General Superintendents, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 72 for the resolution and 1 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 427.)

RESOLVED that the order of Manual paragraphs 401-401.6 be rearranged as follows:

[401] 401.1 The perpetuity and efficiency of the Church of the Nazarene depend largely upon the spiritual qualifications, the character, and the manner of life of its ministers. (433.14)

[401.1] 401.2. The minister of Christ is to be in all things a pattern to the flock—in punctuality, discretion, diligence, earnestness; “in purity, understanding, patience and kindness; in the Holy Spirit and in sincere love; in truthful speech and in the power of God; with weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left” (2 Corinthians 6:6-7).

[401.2] 401.3. The minister of the gospel in the Church of the Nazarene must have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, and be sanctified wholly by the baptism with the Holy Spirit. The minister must have a deep sense of the fact that souls for whom Christ died are perishing, and that he or she is called of God to proclaim or make known to them the glad tidings of salvation.

[401.3] 401.4. The minister must likewise have a deep sense of the necessity of believers going on to perfection and developing the Christian graces in practical living, that their “love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight” (Philippians 1:9). One who would minister in the Church of the Nazarene must have a strong appreciation of both salvation and Christian ethics.

[401.4] 401.6. The minister must have gifts, as well as graces, for the work. He or she will have a thirst for knowledge, especially of the Word of God, and must have sound judgment, good understanding, and clear views concerning the plan of redemption and salvation as revealed in the Scriptures. Saints will be edified and sinners converted through his or her ministry. Further, the minister of the gospel in the Church of the Nazarene must be an example in prayer.

401.5. The minister should respond to opportunities to mentor future ministers and to nurture the call to ministry of those who have obvious gifts and graces for ministry or who are hearing the call of God to Christian ministry.

[401.6] 401. Theology of Ordination. While affirming the scriptural tenet of the universal priesthood and ministry of all believers, ordination reflects the biblical belief that God calls out and gifts certain men and women for ministerial leadership in His Church. Ordination is the authenticating, authorizing act of the Church, which recognizes and confirms God's call to ministerial leadership as stewards and proclaimers of both the gospel and the Church of Jesus Christ. Consequently, ordination bears witness to the Church universal and the world at large that this candidate evidences an exemplary life of holiness, possesses gifts and graces for public ministry, and has a thirst for knowledge, especially for the Word of God, and has the capacity to clearly communicate sound doctrine.

(Acts 13:1-3; 20:28; Romans 1:1-2; 1 Timothy 4:11-16; 5:22; 2 Timothy 1:6-7; 2:22)

The rearranged order with new numbering would be listed as follows:

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Stewardship and Finance Committee having had referred to it the following resolutions, which were presented to the assembly in two reports (Note: One of these reports included resolutions that were reassigned from the Ministry and Education Committee, but which are reported under the latter committee.), recommends action as indicated:

1. SF-600—Funding the Denominational Missional Partnership, Metro New York District General Assembly Resolutions Committee, Pittsburgh and Virginia Districts, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 4 for the resolution and 79 against the resolution. (Rejected, see 227.)

RESOLVED that a simple and biblical plan for the funding of the missional plan of the Church of the Nazarene be provided. The plan, which is referred to here as the Denominational Missional Partnership Funding Plan, celebrates the simplicity and the integrity of the biblical mandate of tithes and offerings—a method which is a significant improvement over the complexity of our current budgeting system. The new plan provides a method by which all congregations of the Church of the Nazarene everywhere can participate. Every church partners with and participates in the greater work of the church through a district and a region (and has an associated regional college/university/or training school). To this end all churches are part of the global mission of the church everywhere.

The Denominational Missional Partnership Funding Plan is simply for every local church to follow the biblical mandate of a tithe and offerings as its way of participating in the greater work of the Church of the Nazarene.

Specifically, the church will, on a monthly basis, contribute a tithe of its local church contribution income through the district of which it is a part. The district will in turn disburse funds to the region and the general church as per the Denominational Missional Partnership Funding Plan.

The tithe from a local church shall be divided into the following ministries at the following percentages for the missional work of the church:

45% for the Global Ministries and Evangelism Fund (formerly World Evangelism Fund)

35% for the District Missional Fund

20% for the Regional Educational Institution Fund

The calculation of the tithe shall be based on “Local Church Contribution Income,” defined as all income to the local church with the exception of: (1) proceeds from the sale of property already owned by the local church; (2) love offerings for specifically approved denominational ministries; (3) rental income; (4) day care, day school, schools, retirement homes, nursing home income; (5) direct proceeds from wills, bequests, estates that do not involve a third party; and (6) borrowed funds (with District Advisory Board approval).

Basic Plan and Example:

- A local church raises $241,453 in local church contribution income.
- 10% tithe of the local church contribution income is $24,145. This amount is to be contributed based on monthly income and in monthly increments.
- USA only (Pensions & Benefits fiduciary responsibility 1.55% of income or $3,743) contributed throughout the year in monthly increments.*
- A total of $24,145 plus $3,743 is sent to the district. The district then forwards funds monthly in accordance with the plan.
  - 45% or $10,865 would be given toward Global Ministries and Evangelism Fund
  - 35% or $8,451 would be retained toward District Ministries Fund
  - 20% or $4,830 would be given toward Regional Educational Institution Fund or to Global Ministries and Evangelism Fund if no Regional Educational Institution Fund is applicable
  - In the USA, only an additional $3,743 (or 1.55%) for Pensions & Benefits USA fiduciary and legal responsibility

Challenges:

There is not one single paragraph in the Manual which addresses the issue of denominational budgets. Since the eight regions in the United States are the only ones who pay into the Pensions & Benefits (P&B) Fund, the particular fund associated with it does not properly belong in the 10% Tithing Plan, if the church is truly global in its perspective. The P&B Fund is not currently mentioned in the Manual with any particular reference. Therefore, in the USA, where a Pensions and Benefits Fund for employees of the church is already established, into which USA churches have already significantly contributed, churches will also be assessed a reasonable contribution apportionment of 1.55% of the local church contribution income to fulfill the current and future fiduciary and legal responsibilities associated with such a Pensions & Benefits Fund.*

*Item to be referred to the USA Caucus.

FURTHER RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 130 be amended as follows:

130. The church board, together with the pastor, shall follow plans adopted by the General Assembly [and agreed to by the district assembly for raising World Evangelism Fund and District Ministries Fund apportionments made to the local church, and shall raise and regularly pay these apportionments.] for the local church's role in funding the denominational missional partnership in its various forms. FURTHER RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 801 be amended as follows:

801. The Reception of Church Members

The prospective members having come forward to stand before the altar of the church, the pastor shall address them as follows:

Dearly Beloved: The privileges and blessings that we have in association together in the Church of Jesus Christ are very sacred and precious. There is in it such hallowed fellowship as cannot otherwise be known.

There is such helpfulness with brotherly watch care and counsel as can be found only in the Church.

There is the godly care of pastors, with the teachings of the Word; and the helpful inspiration of social worship. And there is cooperation in service, accomplishing that which cannot otherwise be done. The doctrines upon which the church rests as essential to Christian experience are brief.

Note: The minister may choose one of the following creedal options.

Option 1:

We believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We especially emphasize the deity of Jesus Christ and the personality of the Holy Spirit.

We believe that human beings are born in sin; that they need the work of forgiveness through Christ and the new birth by the Holy Spirit; that subsequent to this there is the deeper work of heart cleansing or entire sanctification through the infilling of the Holy Spirit, and that to each of these works of grace the Holy Spirit gives witness.

We believe that our Lord will return, the dead shall be raised, and that all shall come to final judgment with its rewards and punishments.

Do you heartily believe these truths? If so, answer, "I do."

Having experienced THE SACRAMENT OF Christian baptism, [D]do you acknowledge Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, and do you realize that He saves you now?

Response: I do.

Desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, do you covenant to give yourself to the fellowship and work of God in connection with it, as set forth in the Covenant of Christian Character and the Covenant of Christian Conduct of the Church of the Nazarene? Will you endeavor in every way to glorify God, by a humble walk, godly conversation, and holy service; by devotedly giving of your means; by faithful attendance upon the means of grace; and, abstaining from all evil, will you seek earnestly to perfect holiness of heart and life in the fear of the Lord?

Response: I will.

The minister shall then say to the person or persons:

I welcome you into this church, to its sacred fellowship, responsibilities, and privileges. May the great Head of the Church bless and keep you, and enable you to be faithful in all good works, that your life and witness may be effective in leading others to Christ.

The minister shall then take each one by the hand, and with appropriate words of personal greeting welcome each into the church.

(Alternate form for members joining by letter of transfer:)

_____, formerly a member (members) of the Church of the Nazarene _____, comes (come) to join the fellowship of this local congregation.

Taking each by the hand, or speaking to the group, the minister shall say:

It gives me pleasure on behalf of this church to welcome you into our membership. We trust that we will be a source of encouragement and strength to you and that you, in turn, will be a source of blessing and help to us. May the Lord richly bless you in the salvation of souls and in the advancement of His kingdom.

Option 2:

We believe: In one God—the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

That the Old and New Testament Scriptures, given by plenary inspiration, contain all truth necessary to faith and Christian living.

That man is born with a fallen nature, and is, therefore, inclined to evil, and that continually.

That the finally impenitent are hopelessly and eternally lost.

That the atonement through Jesus Christ is for the whole human race; and that whosoever repents and believes on the Lord Jesus Christ is justified and regenerated and saved from the dominion of sin.

That believers are to be sanctified wholly, subsequent to regeneration, through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

That the Holy Spirit bears witness to the new birth, and also to the entire sanctification of believers.

That our Lord will return, the dead will be raised, and the final judgment will take place. (paragraphs 26.1-26.8)

Do you heartily believe these truths? If so, answer, “I do.”

Having experienced THE SACRAMENT OF Christian baptism, [D]do you acknowledge Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, and do you realize that He saves you now?

Response: I do.

Desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, do you covenant to give yourself to the fellowship and work of God in connection with it, as set forth in the Covenant of Christian Character and the Covenant of Christian Conduct of the Church of the Nazarene? Will you endeavor in every way to glorify God, by a humble walk, godly conversation, and holy service; by devotedly giving of your means; by faithful attendance upon the means of grace; and, abstaining from all evil, will you seek earnestly to perfect holiness of heart and life in the fear of the Lord?

Response: I will.

The minister shall then say to the person or persons:

I welcome you into this church, to its sacred fellowship, responsibilities, and privileges. May the great Head of the Church bless and keep you, and enable you to be faithful in all good works, that your life and witness may be effective in leading others to Christ.

The minister shall then take each one by the hand, and with appropriate words of personal greeting welcome each into the church.

May the Lord richly bless you in the salvation of souls and in the advancement of His kingdom.

The God who is holy love and light [that He, as God,] is Triune in essential being, revealed as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

(Genesis 1; Leviticus 19:2; Deuteronomy 6:4-5; Isaiah 5:16; 6:1-7; 40:18-31; Matthew 3:16-17; 28:19-20; John 14:6-27; 1 Corinthians 8:6; 2 Corinthians 13:14; Galatians 4:4-6; Ephesians 2:13-18; 1 John 1:5; 4:8)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 15 be amended as follows:

XI. The Church

15. We believe in the Church, the community that confesses Jesus Christ as Lord, the covenant people of God made new in Christ, the Body of Christ called together by the Holy Spirit through the Word.

God calls the Church to express its life in the unity and fellowship of the Spirit; in worship through the preaching of the Word, observance of the sacraments, and ministry in His name; by obedience to Christ, holy living and mutual accountability.

The mission of the Church in the world is to [continue] share in the redemptive and reconciling ministry [work] of Christ in the power of the Spirit [through holy living, evangelism, discipleship, and service]. The Church fulfills its mission by making disciples through evangelism, EDUCATION, showing compassion, working for justice, and bearing witness to the kingdom of God.

The Church is a historical reality, which organizes itself in culturally conditioned forms, exists both as local congregations and as a universal body; sets apart persons called of God for specific ministries. God calls the Church to live under His rule in anticipation of the consummation at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

19. JUD-815—Article of Faith VII—Prevenient Grace, Board of General Superintendents, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 16 for the resolution and 1 against the resolution. This resolution was withdrawn by the presenter at the General Assembly.

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 7 be amended as follows:

VII. Prevenient Grace and Free Will

7. We believe that God created the human race[’s creation in Godlikeness included] to have free will—the ability to choose between right and wrong, and that [thus] therefore human beings were made morally responsible; that through the fall of Adam they became depraved so that they cannot now, [turn and prepare themselves] by their own natural strength and works, turn to faith and call[ing] upon God.

7.1. [But w]We also believe that the prevenient grace of God through Jesus Christ is freely bestowed upon all people, enabling all who will to turn from sin to righteousness, believe on Jesus Christ for pardon and cleansing from sin, and follow good works pleasing and acceptable in His sight.

7.2. We believe that all persons, though in possession of the experience of regeneration and entire sanctification, may turn away from and reject grace, and apostatize. Unless they repent of their sins, they will be hopelessly and eternally lost.

20. JUD-816—Article of Faith VI—Atonement, Board of General Superintendents, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 14 for the resolution and 0 against the resolution. (Referred, see .)

RESOLVED that a comprehensive study of this Article of Faith on Atonement, (Manual paragraph 6), be authorized prior to the next General Assembly, with particular attention being given to including, within the article, references to the love of God as a motivating factor in the atonement (John 3:16) and broader references to other aspects of the atonement. We further recommend that the Board of General Superintendents be empowered to refer this to a Study Committee.

VI. Atonement

6. We believe that Jesus Christ, by His sufferings, by the shedding of His own blood, and by His death on the Cross, made a full atonement for all human sin, and that this Atonement is the only ground of salvation, and that it is sufficient for every individual of Adam's race. The Atonement is graciously efficacious for the salvation of the irresponsible and for the children in innocency but is efficacious for the salvation of those who reach the age of responsibility only when they repent and believe.

(Isaiah 53:5-6, 11; Mark 10:45; Luke 24:46-48; John 1:29; 3:14-17; Acts 4:10-12; Romans 3:21-26; 4:17-25; 5:6-21; 1 Corinthians 6:20; 2 Corinthians 5:14-21; Galatians 1:3-4; 3:13-14; Colossians 1:19-23; 1 Timothy 2:3-6; Titus 2:11-14; Hebrews 2:9; 9:11-14; 13:12; 1 Peter 1:18-21; 2:19-25; 1 John 2:1-2)

REFERRED TO THE BOARD OF GENERAL SUPERINTENDENTS

21. JUD-817—Article of Faith X—Entire Sanctification, Board of General Superintendents, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 18 for the resolution and 0 against the resolution. (Amended and Adopted, see 293.)

X. Christian Holiness and Entire Sanctification

13. We believe that [entire] sanctification is [that] the [act] work of God[, subsequent to regeneration, by] which transforms believers into the likeness of Christ. It is wrought by God's grace through the Holy Spirit in initial sanctification, or regeneration (simultaneous with justification), entire sanctification, and the continued perfecting work of the Holy Spirit culminating in glorification. In glorification we are fully conformed to the image of the Son.

We believe that entire sanctification is that act of God, subsequent to regeneration, by which believers are made free from original sin, or depravity, and brought into a state of entire devotion to God, and the holy obedience of love made perfect.

It is wrought by the baptism WITH or infilling [with] of the Holy Spirit, and comprehends in one experience the cleansing of the heart from sin and the abiding, indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, empowering the believer for life and service.

Entire sanctification is provided by the blood of Jesus, is wrought instantaneously by grace through faith, preceded by entire consecration; and to this work and state of grace the Holy Spirit bears witness.

This experience is also known by various terms representing its different phases, such as "Christian perfection," "perfect love," "heart purity," "the baptism with the Holy Spirit," "the fullness of the blessing." and "Christian holiness."

14. We believe that there is a marked distinction between a pure heart and a mature character. The former is obtained in an instant, the result of entire sanctification; the latter is the result of growth in grace.

We believe that the grace of entire sanctification includes the divine impulse to grow in grace as a Christlike disciple. However, this impulse must be consciously nurtured, and careful attention given to the requisites and processes of spiritual development and improvement in Christlikeness of character and personality. Without such purposeful endeavor, one's witness may be impaired and the grace itself frustrated and ultimately lost.

Participating in the means of grace, especially the fellowship, disciplines, and sacraments of the Church, believers grow in grace and in wholehearted love to God and neighbor.

38.2. Fund-raising and Distribution. In the light of the scriptural teaching concerning the giving of tithes and offerings for the support of the gospel, and for the erection of church buildings, no Nazarene church should engage in any method of fund-raising that would detract from these principles, hinder the gospel message, sully the name of the church, discriminate against the poor, or misdirect the people's energies from promoting the gospel.

In disbursing to meet the requirements of the local, district, educational, and general programs of the Church of the Nazarene, local churches are urged to adopt and practice a financial apportionment plan, and to pay general, educational, and district apportionments monthly. (130, 154, 155-55.2, 413.21)

Be it resolved, with the goal that all allocations be 10% of total monies raised apart from direct gifts to building fund, debt reduction, compassionate ministries, World Mission Special Projects, and other special projects, that the Budget Allocations for the year 2009-10 be 13%, the year 2010-11 be 12%, 2011-12 be 11%, and 2012-13 be 10% and thereafter be 10% of total monies raised. 4. USA-901—Retirement Funding for USA Clergy, Board of Pensions and Benefits USA, recommends that it be adopted. The vote: 44 for the resolution and 14 against the resolution. (Adopted, see 23.)

RESOLVED that the U.S.A. Regional Caucus of the General Assembly adopt the following resolutions:

1. The Church of the Nazarene in the USA is committed to keeping the promises made to those covered by the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Plan.
2. While the Church of the Nazarene in the USA has had a recent history of commitment to a system of collectively sharing the responsibility for funding of certain basic levels of life insurance, disability insurance and retirement protection for qualifying ministers serving local congregations and districts, it is time to reexamine and determine whether that level of shared responsibility remains sustainable.
3. In recognition that the basic benefits funded by the P&B Fund are only a small portion of a pastor's total compensation, the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA be directed to present a report in two years to the USA National Board. The report would be the result of input from and dialog with the Board of General Superintendents, pastoral representatives, district superintendents, and lay leaders, and would address the following questions:
  - a. What responsibilities are held by each body of the church—local, district, and USA organizations—both individually and collectively in providing for the total compensation of local church pastors?

- b. What benchmarks should be referenced in determining the adequacy of support for USA local church pastors?
- c. What means of accountability would be appropriate to assure that mutually agreed upon levels of compensation adequacy are being referenced by local churches, districts and the USA church?

Any implementing legislation, if necessary, will also be recommended in the report.

2. USACAN-970a—Nominations for Boards of Trustees—Nazarene Bible College (CO, U.S.A.) and Nazarene Theological Seminary (MO, U.S.A.), Nazarene Bible College Executive Committee, recommends that it be referred to the USA/Canada Council of Education. The vote: 57 for the referral of the resolution and 0 against the referral of the resolution. (Referred, see .)

RESOLVED that Manual paragraph 305.8 be amended by adding a section as follows:

305.8. To elect boards of control for educational institutions serving multiregional areas, to serve until their successors are elected and qualified and in accordance with the following provisions:

- a. The boards of control shall be comprised of persons from the respective areas served by the institution.
- b. In instances where the institution serves a multiregional area, election of that board shall be conducted in the General Assembly regional caucus(es) composed of delegates from the regions primarily served by the schools.
- c. In the case of two USA schools, Nazarene Bible College and Nazarene Theological Seminary, the nomination of board members will be by nominating committees appointed by each institution in accordance with their bylaws. The nominating committees will adopt a process that includes consultation with the president and board chairperson of the institution and the district superintendents from each region. The nominating committees will ensure no duplication of nominees between the institutions, and will obtain permission of the nominees for their names to appear on the ballot. The election of board members will then take place in the General Assembly regional caucuses comprised of the delegates from each corresponding USA/Canada educational region/zone, who will elect the appropriate number of board members from their educational region/zone as called for in the bylaws of each institution.

USA/Canada – Stewardship and Finance

1. USACAN-950—Apportionments—Pensions, Chicago Central District, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 4 for the resolution and 79 against the resolution. (Rejected, see 5.)

RESOLVED that a consistent apportionment formula be applicable to all churches and districts functioning in monetary societies.

FURTHER RESOLVED that such formula include a percentage to be given in support of the World Evangelism Fund, the District Ministries, and the regional educational ministries, but not a pensions element.

FURTHER RESOLVED that such a formula use a base which begins with "Total Raised" but excludes funds raised for capital projects and for missions giving.

FURTHER RESOLVED that apportionments be figured at 12% of the base, with the encouragement that additional voluntary missions offering be raised to meet a goal of giving 10% of the base annually for approved World Evangelism projects.

FURTHER RESOLVED that the 12% apportionment mark be phased in over a four-year period, allowing current systems to be adjusted without creating too much instability. This would allow for the CAP to be dropped 2% each year, and any established minimums to be raised to the 12% over the same four year period.

FURTHER RESOLVED that the 12% apportionment be distributed as follows: 2% Educational Fund, 4% District Ministries, 6% World Evangelism Fund, and that systems be contextualized regionally for collection of the funds from local churches and distribution to the various funds.

2. USACAN-950a—Allocation of Budgets, West Texas District General Assembly Delegation, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 0 for the resolution and 91 against the resolution. (Rejected, rule 49.)

RESOLVED that funding allocations be based on the present fiscal year, and will exempt all “designated funds.” No church's funding allocations will exceed more than 20% of the base, nor will any church's funding allocation increase more than 5% over the previous year.

3. USACAN-951—Pastors’ and Associates’ Tithe Exclusion Allowance from Budget Base, Reference Committee and North Central Ohio District General Assembly Delegation, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 0 for the resolution and 76 against the resolution. (Rejected, rule 49.)

RESOLVED that if the current budget-base structure is maintained, we propose that “Pastors’ and Associates’ Tithe Exclusion Allowance” considered as a deduction to the Total Paid on Local Interests in calculating allocations (similar to 1a. Buildings and Capital Expenditures/Equipment, 1b. Pastors’ Actual Cash Housing, 1c. Health and Hospitalization Exclusion Allowance, and 2. Indebtedness on Property.)

4. USACAN-952—Budget Proposal Regarding Staff Ministry, Metro New York District General Assembly Resolutions Committee and Mid-Atlantic District, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 2 for the resolution and 72 against the resolution. (Rejected, see 7.)

RESOLVED that the following deduction shall be added to the recommended General Board formula:

That each local church shall be able to deduct from the local church budget base the salary and benefits of their first and any new additional paid ministry staff position (full-time or part-time), as defined below:

- A. Each church that adds a ministry staff person shall deduct 50% of the salary and benefits the first full year of his or her ministry and 25% of the salary and benefits the second year through the fourth year. From the fifth year on, there are no deductions.
- B. If a church has a staff person who resigns, having fulfilled the time element of "A.", a new staff person who fills the position will not receive the deduction regardless of the ministry designation. If, however, the church has been without a paid ministry staff associate for two years or more, this position may be considered new.
- C. The pastor shall report 50% of the associate pastor's salary and benefits on lines 4a and 4b and 50% on line 13 of the pastor's annual report during the first full year. In the second year through the fourth years, 75% of the salary and benefits are to be listed on lines 4a and 4b and 25% on line 13. From the fifth year on, 100% of the associate pastor's salary and benefits should be listed on lines 4a and 4b as specified.

5. USACAN-953—Finance, Alaska District Advisory Board, recommends that it be rejected. The vote: 0 for the resolution and 76 against the resolution. (Rejected, rule 49.)

RESOLVED that the current method of calculation of the fund assessments be amended to provide exemptions for utility expenditures from the "church dollar," or budget base. This would be added to the current exemptions: 1a – Buildings and Capital Expenditures/Equipment, 1b – Pastor's Actual Cash Housing, 1c – Health and Hospitalization Exclusion Allowance, and 2 – Indebtedness on Property. This utility exemption would only cover heating/air conditioning, electricity, and water/sewer expenditures.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE COMMITTEE

Paul G. Cunningham, James H. Diehl, Nina G. Gunter, Jesse C. Middendorf, Jerry D. Porter, J. K. Warrick, Louie Bustle, Tanya Cantarella, D. Ray Cook, Gustavo Crocker, Eugenio Duarte, E. ### INTRODUCTION

After nearly four years of discussion, research and deliberation, the International Church Committee (ICC) has concluded from its charge in ICC-2, (2005 General Assembly resolution, which requested a review of Manual paragraphs 100- 384), that the pressing need is for a fundamental constitutional review and redesign of the Church of the Nazarene's official Manual.

Anything less fails to meet the demands of a growing church body and a complex denominational system.

A new and better future for the global church is what we are seeking. In order for this to be achieved, at least in terms of vision, mission, beliefs, and core values, the Manual requires re-thinking in terms of its purpose, clarity, and cultural expressions.

At the beginning, Jesse C. Middendorf, jurisdictional general superintendent, sent each member of the ICC a letter outlining the thoughts of the Board of General Superintendents. General Superintendent Middendorf raised three questions to guide the ICC's work:

- How can we improve the effectiveness of local church ministry?
- How do we continue developing as a global church?
- How can we build on our strengths?

All three questions are addressed in the idea of a redesigned Manual by:

1. Reducing and simplifying structure
2. Beginning from the premise of an international church
3. Keeping in place the doctrines and tenets which make us “Nazarene” and are transferable across cultures and time

Any attempts to “edit” or “revise” the Manual in piecemeal fashion, the way it has been done in the past, would lend itself to further building on a North American framework from the Church of the Nazarene's first century.

A comprehensive survey of the ICC members and others shows that while there are many similarities around the world inside the current Manual, further “editing” would not be as beneficial as a redesign.

The results of an ICC survey conducted among leadership groups could serve as the basis for improvements in content and clarity, and were considered as part of the ICC’s final report.

The ICC recognizes the importance of the past. The church would not be where it is today without the dedication and sacrifice of countless numbers who faithfully served Jesus Christ through the Church of the Nazarene.

However, these visionaries and Christlike disciples would want the church to keep moving forward as opposed to being satisfied with the status quo.

A new kind of missional and ecclesiastical infrastructure that builds on the past needs to be put into place if the church is ever to fulfill its original vision of becoming an international community of faith in the Wesleyan-holiness tradition.

As the church enters its second century, the ICC is recommending the denomination take the next quadrennium, 2009- 2013, to carefully create a new kind of Manual. The central idea is to strengthen its voice in mission for a global church while at the same time allowing the Manual to perform its unique role in governance.

This approach would unite the church around the central tenets of the faith while moving most prescriptive practices of ministry into the local realm.

The over-arching goal is to clarify for a new generation those things essential to being the Church of the Nazarene by simplifying the Manual for understanding and use.

HOW DID WE ARRIVE AT THIS CONCLUSION?

The ICC created and followed a plan based on its charge from the 2005 General Assembly (GA):

Charge to ICC

- ICC-2, 2005 GA The purpose of the ICC and Sub- Committee is to study the structure of the Church of the Nazarene, namely MANUAL paragraphs 100-384.
- SR-750, 2005 GA (“Considered for all” by the Special Resolutions Committee)
  - Being missional in structure.
  - Looking at leadership models for the future:
    - As the ICC began its work, the Board of General Superintendents (BGS) initiated a study of the Headquarters (now Global Ministry Center) structure.

In March 2008, the BGS adopted a single jurisdiction for the Headquarters (now Global Ministry Center) and Nazarene Publishing House. The chairperson for the BGS now provides oversight of these entities on behalf of the Board of General Superintendents. This change reflects the intent of some resolutions to provide singular leadership from within the BGS in certain administrative areas.

- Themes from other resolutions folded into SR-750, 2005 GA:
  - Effectiveness of the system in the coming century throughout the world. (SR-750a, 2005 GA)
  - Simplification of denominational structure so that the church might focus more on mission. (SR-755, 2005 GA)
  - Connection, clarity, flexibility in the district and local church in keeping with the Articles of Faith. (SR-756, 2005 GA)

Then we looked at some basic assumptions:

- The development of an international church is on- going
- Some parts of the denominational structure may need outright change
- Restructure and redesign should not be seen as a panacea for revitalization and growth
- That the resolutions seek to align the denominational structure to meet the stated mission of being an international church
- There are limited financial resources to conduct the ICC work

The ICC expanded its approach by reaching beyond the committee for participation and ideas:

- At the beginning we requested direction from the Board of General Superintendents

- Developed a uniform discussion guide provided to all ICC members and others for the study process
- Conducted interviews with several resolution sponsors to clarify their objectives (sponsors along with some pastors were also included in the ICC survey)
- Designed ICC sub-committee break-out groups for in- depth discussions
- Formed an ICC task force for follow-up in between the three regular meetings
- Worked with the Board of General Superintendents’ “Thought Partners” group
- Created an email address for ICC communication (icc@nazarene.org)

THE CASE FOR CHANGE

The resolutions submitted to the 2005 General Assembly share some things in common:

- All are from USA districts
- All are concerned about the lack of clarity inside the denominational system
- All believe there is too much structure inhibiting growth and development of the church
- All see a need to make significant changes for the sake of mission

The ICC took into consideration the resolution sponsors’ desire to do something that will make a difference over time.

WHY REDESIGN THE MANUAL?

There are several reasons for considering a redesign:

1. The Manual is the basis for shared belief, mission, and being a “connectional church.” A redesign would improve its clarity on mission, not just governance.
2. Culturally and especially in terms of language, the Manual is still essentially North American bound. A redesign would move it in a different direction.

3. All regions, including the USA and Canada, would have more input for context affecting their respective areas in this proposed process.
4. The right redesign allows the Manual to have greater flexibility when it comes to reflecting the global character of the Church of the Nazarene, while retaining shared belief, mission, and responsibility.
5. The timing is right. A new century Manual would fit well with the Board of General Superintendents' revisioning of the Global Ministry Center.
6. All structure has a cost. There may be parts of the Manual the church can no longer afford. With the denomination impacted by the current global economic crisis, the expense of the entire system needs to be reconsidered.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Principles for Manual redesign would:

1. Reaffirm the Articles of Faith, mission, and core values integral to the Church of the Nazarene's history and future. At the same time it would encourage innovation to the glory of God and the advancement of His kingdom.
2. Move toward simplification of local, district, regional, and global interests. Emphasizing mutual accountability, transparency, and sustainability as stewardship principles in all areas of church life.
3. Value people and ministry more than programs, when focusing on evangelism and discipleship through local church ministry.
4. Emphasize interdependence and connectedness, using information technology to create and strengthen relationships globally and reduce costs operationally.
5. Make inclusiveness of all Nazarenes a priority in leadership and administration of the global church, while adapting policies and practices regionally to meet the needs of various world areas.

RECOMMENDATIONS

To move Manual redesign from idea to reality, the ICC recommends:

1. Creating a global Manual including the Foreword, Parts I, II and III as follows:
  - a. Historical Statement (Part I)
  - b. Preamble (Part II)
  - c. Articles of Faith (Part II)
  - d. The Church (including the Covenant of Christian Character) (Part II)
  - e. Articles of Organization and Government (Part II)
2. Adapting or creating sections in a Global Manual including:
  - a. Vision.

“To be a disciple-making church, an international community of faith, in the Wesleyan-holiness tradition”
  - b. Mission.

“To make Christlike disciples in the nations”
  - c. Core Values.
    - “A Christian church”
    - “A holiness church”
    - “A missional church”
  - d. Global sections 100, 200, and 300 edited and streamlined, retaining universally appropriate polity and principles.
3. Criteria for content to be kept in 100, 200, and 300 in order to create a global Manual:
  - i. Whatever deals directly with Nazarene theology, mission, and identity
  - ii. Those things that cross cultures, economies, and geographical boundaries
  - iii. That which speaks to structure, systems, and accountability, without focusing on a particular area of the world or its language

- iv. What remains would apply, with editing, re-writing, and ICC survey results, to the international Church of the Nazarene.
4. Establish local, district, and regional accountability to the larger denomination, while defining programs and structures that are contextually appropriate.
5. Holistically redesign the entire Manual for clarity, simplification, elimination of redundancy, and size.
6. Charge regional leadership from all world areas to bring back to the 2013 General Assembly suggested changes for a proposed “regional Manual policy handbook” such as the International Course of Study Advisory Committee (ICOSAC) has done for ministerial education. This could include the development of a “Covenant of Christian Conduct” in a contextualized regional handbook. All subject to centralized review and approval.
7. That there be a continuation of a global commission, balancing lay and clergy voting members, appointed by the Board of General Superintendents and that it be:

Voting Members

- One person from each of the six world mission areas
- One person from Canada
- Two persons from the United States
- Two persons at-large Non-voting members
- A general superintendent, the general secretary, and two additional representatives from the Global Ministry Center

Note: Limiting the size of the group makes it easier to schedule meetings and reduces the cost of the commission.

8. In addition to the appointment of a new commission and as a next step in the internationalization process, the ICC recommends establishing a Global Manual Advisory Council (GMAC) to coordinate the work required among the Global Ministry Center, regions, districts, churches, educational institutions, and others in regards to Manual contextualization and redesign.

A part- or full-time project manager should be considered to coordinate this task under the auspices of the next commission, general secretary and Board of General Superintendents.

SUMMARY

In the original ICC-2 (2005 General Assembly resolution), there are two reasons given for a study of the structure of the Church of the Nazarene—Manual paragraphs 100-384:

- The government sections of the Manual should be rewritten from a global perspective with mission rather than institutional valuations
- The government sections should facilitate the local church, eliminating structure that unduly restricts flexibility, promoting an acceptable structure for large, medium, and small congregations

It is our belief that the work of the ICC in this quadrennium (2005-2009) fulfills the spirit and letter of these suggested guidelines.

Our thanks to:

- Members of the ICC for their time and effort;
- Jurisdictional General Superintendent Jesse C. Middendorf;
- The Board of General Superintendents for attending the meetings and giving invaluable feedback along the way.

Special appreciation to:

- The ICC task force made up of Yvette Gill, Anita Henck, and E. LeBron Fairbanks. These individuals spent many hours working with the chair and secretary in between annual meetings to process the findings and serve as an editorial advisory group.

We wish to acknowledge:

- General Secretary David P. Wilson for making it possible to have additional personnel to guide the process. Those contributing in administration include Diane Miller, Esther Okerson, Shirley Marvin, Jolyn Stark, and Judy Veigl. Historical understandings were provided by Stan Ingersol, manager of Nazarene Archives at the Global Ministry Center.

You cannot be an international committee without interpretation/translation services. Our thanks to those involved with these essential services.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE REQUIRING RESOLUTIONS TO THE 2009 GENERAL ASSEMBLY FOR MANUAL CHANGES

The International Church Committee (ICC) recommends the following, which require changes to the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene, and are presented as individual resolutions to the 2009 General Assembly, through the legislative committees:

NOTE: LEGISLATIVE REFERENCES ARE LISTED IN BOLD TYPE BESIDE EACH RECOMMENDATION AND ARE REFERRED TO THE RESPECTIVE COMMITTEES.

ICC RECOMMENDATION #1

1. Creation of a Global Manual (ICC-1—General Administration Committee)

Resolved that in order to move the Manual redesign from idea to reality, the following be implemented:

Create a global Manual including the Foreword, Parts I, II and III of the 2005-2009 Manual as follows:

Historical Statement (Part I) Preamble (Part II)

Articles of Faith (Part II)

The Church (including the Covenant of Christian Character) (Part II)

Articles of Organization and Government (Part II)

(For proposed action on Covenant of Christian Conduct see Resolution ICC-3.)

Be it further resolved that Manual paragraph 38 (Christian Stewardship) be strengthened to include a statement on denominational financial accountability in all areas.

REASONS:

1. In the original ICC-2 (2005 General Assembly) are two reasons given for a study of the structure of the Church of the Nazarene—Manual paragraphs 100-384:
  - a. The government sections of the Manual should be rewritten from a global perspective with mission rather than institutional valuations.
  - b. The government sections should facilitate the local church, eliminating structure that unduly restricts flexibility, promoting an acceptable structure for large, medium, and small congregations.
2. The Manual is the basis for shared belief, mission, and being a “connectional church.” A redesign would improve its clarity on mission, not just governance.
3. The right redesign allows the Manual to have greater flexibility when it comes to reflecting the global character of the Church of the Nazarene, while retaining shared beliefs, mission, and responsibility.
4. A new century Manual would fit well with the Board of General Superintendents’ revisioning of the Global Ministry Center.
5. While affirming the essentials of our faith and life, a redesigned Manual would encourage innovation to the glory of God and the advancement of His kingdom.

6. Emphasizes financial accountability, transparency, and sustainability as stewardship principles in all areas of church life.

ICC RECOMMENDATION #2

- Global Manual—Statements on Vision, Mission, and Core Values. (ICC-2—

General Administration Committee) Resolved that the global

Manual include in the Foreword, the statements of vision, mission, and core values of the Church of the Nazarene.

Vision: To be a disciple-making church, an International community of faith, in the Wesleyan-holiness tradition.

Mission: To make Christlike disciples in the nations.

Core Values:

A Christian church

A holiness church

A missional church

REASON:

1. The denominational statements of vision, mission, and core values are not presently included in the Manual.

ICC RECOMMENDATION #3

3. Global Manual—Content/Paragraphs to be Included from 2005- 2009 Manual (ICC-3—General Administration Committee) Resolved that the global Manual include the paragraphs in the 2005-2009 Manual sections 100, 200, and 300 that are global in scope, retaining the universally appropriate polity and principles.

Criteria for content to be kept in the 100, 200, and 300 sections in order to create a global Manual:

- Whatever deals directly with Nazarene theology, mission, and identity
- Those things that cross cultures, economics, and geographical boundaries
- That which speaks to structure, systems, and accountability without focusing on a particular area of the world or its language

Be it further resolved that the remaining paragraphs in the 2005-2009 Manual sections 100, 200, and 300 be referred to regional leadership from all world areas to bring to the 2013 General Assembly suggested changes for a proposed “regional Manual policy handbook” such as the International Course of Study Advisory Committee (ICOSAC) has done for ministerial education. This should include the further development of a “Covenant of Christian Conduct” in a contextualized regional handbook. (See 2005-2009 Manual Part III) The regional Manual policy handbook is subject to centralized review and approval. Be it further resolved that local, district, and regional accountability be established to the General Board and General Assembly, while defining programs and structures that are contextually appropriate.

REASONS:

1. Culturally and linguistically, the Manual is still essentially North American bound. A redesign would move it in a different direction.
2. All regions, including the USA and Canada, would have more input for context affecting their respective areas in this proposed process.
3. A new century Manual would fit well with the Board of General Superintendents’ revisioning of the Global Ministry Center.
4. Values people and ministry more than programs, when focusing on evangelism and discipleship through local church ministry.
5. Makes inclusiveness of all Nazarenes a priority in leadership and administration of the global church, while adopting policies and practices regionally for meeting the needs of the various world areas.

ICC RECOMMENDATION #4

4. Global Manual Redesign (ICC-4—General Administration Committee)

Resolved that the entire global Manual be redesigned holistically for clarity, simplification, elimination of redundancy, and size.

REASONS:

1. To move toward simplification of local, district, regional, and global interests. Emphasize interdependence and connectedness, using information technology to create and strengthen relationships globally and reduce costs operationally.

RECOMMENDATIONS NOT REQUIRING MANUAL CHANGES

NOTE: LEGISLATIVE REFERENCES ARE LISTED IN BOLD TYPE BESIDE EACH RECOMMENDATION AND ARE REFERRED TO THE RESPECTIVE COMMITTEES.

ICC RECOMMENDATION #5

1. Global Church Commission to continue the work of International Church Committee (ICC-5—Special Resolutions Committee)

Resolved that a commission be appointed by the Board of General Superintendents to continue the work of the International Church Committee and report to the 2013 General Assembly.

Be it further resolved that the commission members include the following:

- One person from each of the six world mission areas
- One person from Canada
- Two persons from the United States
- Two persons at large

A general superintendent, the general secretary, and two additional representatives from the Global Ministry Center to serve as non-voting members

REASON:

1. A large group is too difficult to schedule and manage, as well as being too costly.

ICC RECOMMENDATION #6

2. Global Manual Advisory Council (ICC-6—General Administration Committee)

Resolved that a Global Manual Advisory Council (GMAC) be established to coordinate the work required by the Global Ministry Center, regions, districts, churches, educational institutions, and others in regard to Manual contextualization and redesign.

REASON:

1. The GMAC is the next step in the internationalization process, and will require a part- or full-time program manager to conduct this task under a global commission appointed by the Board of General Superintendents, and under the auspices of the general secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

INTERNATIONAL CHURCH

COMMITTEE

Loren Gresham, Chairperson

Linda Seaman, Secretary

QUADRENNIAL ADDRESS BOARD OF GENERAL SUPERINTENDENTS

“THE NAZARENE FUTURE—MAKING CHRISTLIKE DISCIPLES”

Introduction

On behalf of my colleagues on the Board of General Superintendents I greet you in the name of the Resurrected Savior, our Lord Jesus Christ. We extend a warm welcome to our delegates, to our distinguished guests, to Nazarenes from around the world, and to all others who join us in this second plenary session of the 27th General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene.

On Sunday morning, we gathered around the Table of the Lord as we heard the profound challenge issued by my colleague, Paul G. Cunningham. That service is, by Manual provision, the initial session of a General Assembly. We begin our work in worship!

We have experienced the blessings of the Lord during the global conventions and the uplifting worship services each evening and throughout the weekend. We were especially challenged and encouraged by the messages delivered by my colleagues on the Board of General Superintendents.

We celebrate God’s presence among us today. And this is our confidence: While organizational and legislative issues require our attention this week, nothing is more needed than a deep and pervasive awareness that the Holy Spirit is present, guiding our deliberations and decisions and directing us as we select leadership for the mission before us.

As we enter into our “centennial” General Assembly, we anticipate His continued presence in our sessions.

Everything we do should be seen through the lens of our mission as a church in the Wesleyan-Holiness tradition. We must prepare ourselves to be passionately engaged in the work of “making Christlike disciples in the nations.”

We express our deep appreciation to the people of Orlando, Florida, USA, for your gracious hospitality during this historic gathering. Thank you for your kindness to us.

We give thanks to God for watching over our people who have come, literally from the four corners of the earth, to be together as part of the Nazarene family. If this is your first general assembly as a delegate or visitor, we trust you are enjoying the privilege of international fellowship. For those watching via the Internet, we are glad you have joined us as well.

Our Board wishes to express special appreciation to General Secretary David Wilson and his staff for the outstanding job they have done in preparation for this great event. We are indebted to you for your commitment to excellence.

A Storied Past (Psalm 16:6)

The general assemblies of our church have an interesting history. In this Centennial year, one is especially worth noting:

The merger in October of 1908 at Pilot Point, Texas, USA, which added the Holiness Church of Christ to the Church of the Nazarene and the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America, took place during the “general assembly.” The sessions were held under a large tent with a seating capacity of 1,000.

It was decided Phineas Bresee should be given responsibility to chair the historic meeting.

In that general assembly, Phineas Bresee and H. F. Reynolds were reelected to the general superintendency, and E. P. Ellyson, president of Texas Holiness University, was elected general superintendent.

At this occasion, Dr. Bresee observed:

It has been said that “there is no timepiece to strike the passing from one era to another.” When history is being made and great things are coming to pass, those who are in the often hard and difficult places, struggling for the birth of the greater things, are so taken up with the burden of toil ... that they little realize new heights which are being won. ... But they whom God leads build better than they know.

So over ten decades, Nazarenes—through prayer, the leading of the Holy Spirit, generous and sacrificial giving, trial and error, and hard work—have built better than they know. The real legacy of previous generations is the things they have made possible for future generations. We offer our deep appreciation, admiration, and respect for those who have faithfully gone before to make the church what it is today.

While it may be true that there is no timepiece to precisely mark the passing of an epoch, in a sense the 27th General Assembly brings to an end one era, for a new era is already under way in the Church of the Nazarene. Even our setting and schedule in Orlando contributes to a feeling of change.

As we complete our first century as a denomination, a global and multicultural future has already arrived, even if it has not yet presented itself evenly over the denomination. It is essential at this juncture that the church both clarify and communicate its foundational beliefs, its core values, and its mission while embracing the demographic realities and evangelistic opportunities that come with a new day.

As we do so, may we embrace once again the promise of God to Joshua: “As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you or forsake you” (Joshua 1:5b).

General assembly convenes as the denomination is working its way through a global economic crisis. In the first three months of 2009 major economies fell sharply.

In Mexico, the Gross Domestic Product (GDP) declined by 21 percent; in Japan the GDP fell 15 percent; in Germany, 14 percent; and in the USA the economy declined by 6 percent compared to the last three months of 2008. By every measure, these are harsh and staggering figures. No nation has been exempt, and there are no promises of a quick or predictable recovery. “Normal” is moving to a new location.

This financial turmoil is being felt by local churches, districts, educational institutions, compassionate ministry centers, missionaries, the Global Ministry Center, and the regional offices. Around the world, hundreds of Nazarenes have lost jobs and homes. Churches and Nazarene Compassionate Ministries are working diligently to try to address these needs, even as they must also wrestle with new economic realities themselves.

Out of this crisis a different financial landscape is emerging and with it an altered church economy. This will impact our denomination for an unknown period of time.

But let’s be very clear about this: The mission of God is not at risk! Some of our plans, programs, and structures will need to be reconsidered, altered, or abandoned. But the mission to make Christlike disciples in the nations will continue because God is no respecter of economic indicators. The leadership of the Church of the Nazarene at every level is determined to work through this with the guidance of the Holy Spirit in order that we may continue to advance the mission—to the glory of God.

Recession notwithstanding, this general assembly has the possibility of being a “watershed moment” in the life of the church. We are at a juncture where several things crucial to our future are converging at the same time. This is all the more reason to pray that the Lord’s will be done in our deliberations as a legislative body.

For all that is going on—and there is a lot going on—the church’s sense of purpose and direction put in place by Phineas Bresee, H. F. Reynolds, and many others 100 years ago remains:

- Called to holiness and holy living
- Called to evangelize the world
- Called to be and to make Christlike disciples
- Called to compassionate care for others
- Called to value education and its vital role in mission

One Church—Many Members

The newly-merged Church of the Nazarene in 1908 began with 10,034 members, 228 congregations, 11 districts, and 19 missionaries, according to historical records. The total amount raised by those 228 churches was $140,000 (USD), with $12,000 (USD) going to what was then termed “foreign missions.”

It was obvious from the beginning that the Lord was blessing the young denomination. As the widely scattered groups continued to come together to form one new body of people, they were committed to the doctrine and experience of entire sanctification and to the evangelization of the world.

They joined forces and were connected for the sake of the message and mission. Combining made it possible to take advantage of greater talent and economies of scale. These holiness churches did more together than they ever could have done by themselves. It is the same for us today.

It was their vision of an “international holiness communion” that launched us into a century of astounding accomplishment.

So, what does the Church of the Nazarene look like as it leans into its second century?

In the decade from 1998 to 2008 the church experienced significant gains in all five categories of the Centennial goals. Each region found in the general secretary’s report —Africa, Asia-Pacific, Canada, Caribbean, Eurasia, Mexico and Central America, South America, and the USA—contributed something unique and important to the Kingdom.

According to the latest statistics, 95 percent of the Centennial goals have been met.

All World Areas	Centennial Goal	Percent	Achieved
Membership goal	2,000,000	92%
Worship goal	2,000,000	65%
Churches	18,000	121%
New Nazarenes	1,000,000	112%
Sunday School	1,000,000	86%

As the Centennial goals were launched in 1998 there were 1.3 million members. In 2008, membership stood at 1.8 million, a gain of a half-million.

For perspective, go back with me to the 1964 General Assembly in Portland, Oregon, USA. That is 45 years ago, about half our lifetime as a church. Membership then was just over 400,000, 82 percent of whom were in the USA. Now there are more than 1 million members in countries other than the United States.

At the same time, the USA is the single largest reporting region with 645,000 members. For the past 40 years, the Church of the Nazarene in the USA has been adding 25,000 to 35,000 new members annually. That is an encouraging statistic. However, it still sobers us to realize that membership growth has barely kept pace with population growth in recent years.

All our older mission fields, including the USA, tend to plateau over time due to turnover in membership, the closing and merging of churches, and the natural tendency to concentrate more on retention than on outreach. However, the exciting reality is that we are experiencing awakenings of amazing proportions in many other world areas.

The increase in those areas can be a source of great encouragement to the USA church. Even with a drastically-changed culture, there are evangelistic and disciple-making opportunities in the USA, one of the three largest mission fields in the world.

In addition to the increase in a harvest of souls, our giving to the World Evangelism Fund and Mission Specials during the Centennial period grew from $53.1 million (USD) in 1998 to $84.2 million (USD) in 2008, an increase of approximately $31.1 million (USD) in the decade.

Did you know that we are in 36 of the 66 countries in the 10/40 window, the least evangelized countries of our world? Did you know that our mission corps is made up of missionaries who originate from 41 countries?

This is not the report of a dying church. This is the report of a blessed and generous church. For that we again give praise to God!

But what is the deeper meaning of our emphasis on the Centennial goals?

1. Each number represents a person for whom Christ died on the Cross. We rejoice over every man, woman, teenager, boy, and girl reached by the gospel of Jesus Christ through the Church of the Nazarene.
2. These individuals need discipling, assimilating, and befriending. Who will take personal responsibility for follow-up? Who will teach them to expect and to experience the cleansing and transforming work of the Holy Spirit in His sanctifying power? How will the church conserve the gains and equip the people to serve the mission of the Church?
3. The Centennial goals are a reminder of how God calls ordinary people to do His work. This harvest was from the Lord. It was accomplished through the witness of Spirit-filled and Spirit-led individuals in local churches around the world, people who are salt and light.

It was pastors, evangelists, the laity, missionaries, chaplains, and volunteers in countless ministries. It was professors and teachers, district superintendents and field strategy coordinators. They are the church. And they are the ones who have carried out this task of evangelism and discipleship. Accept our gratitude for all you do in the name of Jesus.

We give God the glory for what has been done leading up to the Centennial—and for what He is going to do in the days ahead. We trust Him for our future while remaining faithful to our core values of being Christian, holiness, and missional.

The Mission of the Church of the Nazarene

With some of the biggest changes in 60 years facing the church, our Board felt it was time to update the language used to define the Church of the Nazarene's mission. With this in mind, and after careful review over several years, we unanimously adopted in December 2006 the following as the Statement of Mission for the Church of the Nazarene:

To Make Christlike Disciples in the Nations

While the primary motive of the church is to glorify God, we are also called to actively participate in His mission—reconciling the world to Himself.

This is the mission of Jesus, and it must be our mission as well. It is in fulfillment of this mission that we engage in the ministries of evangelism, discipleship, and compassion. This is what it means to be like Christ. This is the essence of holiness.

The Statement of Mission needs to be understood in the fuller context of our unique sense of purpose. This includes:

- Making known to all peoples the transforming grace of God, made available to every person by grace through faith. This is the experience of redemption and reconciliation made possible for us through the sufferings, by the shedding of His own blood, and by the death of Jesus Christ on the cross of Calvary.
- Proclaiming the doctrine and experience of entire sanctification to every believer, encouraging and nurturing them in Christian community toward a surrender of their will to the will and purposes of God. This, too, is available to every person, by grace through faith. This message defines the church, and our mission focuses the church. Without this message we have no mission—without the mission we have no message.
- Incorporating believers into the fellowship and membership of congregational life.
- Equipping for ministry all who respond in faith, and
- Deploying Christlike disciples for the sake of the mission.

We are blessed with a mighty host of dedicated disciples. Our goal is to build on this strength. Our mission is to make disciples in and through externally-focused local churches around the world.

We are reminded, in the second Preamble found in the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene, that:

“...the local church, the Body of Christ, is the representation of our faith and mission” (Manual “Preamble” to Local Government).

“Church”—it is the first word in our name.

Single Jurisdiction General Superintendent

Effective on 1 March 2008, the Board of General Superintendents put in place a new method of carrying out our responsibility in overseeing and coordinating the work of the Global Ministry Center. Whereas in the past each member of the Board was in jurisdiction with one of the various departments at the Global Ministry Center, it seemed wise to us to initiate a new process of oversight.

As of that date, the chair of the Board of General Superintendents assumed responsibility for serving as the jurisdictional superintendent for all of the GMC and NPH. The other general superintendents are invited and encouraged to participate whenever possible. The chairman maintains regular communication with the BGS on the work of the Global Ministry Center and Nazarene Publishing House.

It has been my responsibility and privilege to serve first in this new role, and I will continue through 2009. Since our Board has seen fit to rotate jurisdictional responsibilities every two years, General Superintendent J. K. Warrick, currently Board secretary, will assume the single jurisdiction mantle on 1 January 2010.

Relocating to the Global Ministry Center

As of 15 September 2008, the Church of the Nazarene is operating its administrative offices for worldwide ministries from the Global Ministry Center (GMC) in Lenexa, Kansas, USA.

On opening day employees were welcomed by the Board of General Superintendents. Members of the Board led the group in a time of worship, giving thanks for God's blessing on the work and vision that led to the creation and occupancy of the GMC.

In February 2009, during the annual meeting of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene, our representatives from around the world participated in the dedication of the Global Ministry Center. It was a day of special joy blessed with a sense of God's presence.

We are discovering new and unexpected levels of collaboration and communication. GMC employees are sharing resources, including personnel, and are finding the new environment a source of creative and enjoyable interaction. And our Board is thankful for their labor of ministry on the church's behalf.

One of the five buildings of the former International Headquarters complex has been sold and the money received. The other facilities are currently being marketed, with hopes that a sale will be completed in the near term.

Celebrating the Centennial

Today we culminate the Centennial Celebration of the Church of the Nazarene.

From founding heroes of the faith in India, Cape Verde, Guatemala, Cuba, Canada, Mexico, and Japan ... to those pioneers in the newest nations entered just this year—Guinea Conakry, Moldova, Niger, and Norway—we have been, and are, a people consumed with a missional heritage and passion.

The Centennial gave us reason to reexamine our message. On Centennial Sunday around the globe in 24 time zones, local churches in 151 nations read from the same scripture in 1 Peter 2:9–10: “You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God.”

The Centennial gave us reason to reexamine our diversity of languages, nationalities, cultures, and worship styles. We celebrated our one purpose in global evangelism and our one message in holiness of heart and life. We joined in unity around the world through the commonality of the cup and the bread as over 21,000 local congregations participated in the Lord's Supper together.

The Centennial gave us reason to communicate our Articles of Faith, baptize new believers, receive new Nazarenes into church membership, organize new churches, and reach out to our communities in ministry and service. The Centennial gave us reason to celebrate, and celebrate we did!

Our Board of General Superintendents was honored to join in the celebration from Ethiopia to Kansas, USA to New Zealand, knowing that Nazarenes everywhere were uniting with us in a joyous spirit of celebration.

I was privileged to be in New Zealand for the largest Nazarene worship service ever conducted in that nation. Churches combined for a multicultural worship celebration with music presented by Samoan, Korean, and Indian groups. Young people from 18 nations proudly brought their flags to the front of the auditorium. The scripture was read in 13 languages.

What an international representation in New Zealand of what was taking place around the world! Truly out of many, we are one; out of one, we are many.

We owe a debt of gratitude to Gay Leonard, director of the Centennial Celebration, and her capable team of international coordinators as well as NPH and America's Christian Credit Union for their generous contributions to help underwrite the Centennial.

Praise God for 100 years of His faithfulness to the Church of the Nazarene and for the bright future He is promising as we enter into our next century, recommitted with new passion "to make Christlike disciples in the nations."

Global Ministry Center Assessment

As the global financial crisis began spreading in the fall of 2008, the Board of General Superintendents, working with General Secretary David Wilson and General Treasurer Marilyn McCool, conducted the initial phase of a situation assessment of the work of the Global Ministry Center.

Three things are influencing revenue forecasting and expense budgeting for our mission:

- The decline of the global economy and a possible prolonged recovery
- Changes in the denomination's unified giving formula and its anticipated reduction in revenue
- Restructuring at the Global Ministry Center and regional offices around mission priorities, a more efficient administrative system, and reduced staffing levels

Internally the Global Ministry Center is facing:

- Decreasing revenue
- Decreasing reserves
- Funding only essential ministry commitments
- The responsibility for managing the $25 million GMC debt liability—without resorting to WEF sources

Here is the latest information:

The goal of a mid-year 2009 operational budget reduction of approximately 10 percent has been achieved. Quarterly reviews will be done to monitor actual expenses against the reduction goal.

- The projected operational budget reductions are as follows:
  - 2010 Fiscal Year—an additional -5.0 percent GMC budget reduction
    - based on WEF projected receipts of $44.4 million
  - 2011 Fiscal Year—an additional 6.7 percent GMC budget reductions
    - based on WEF projected receipts of $41.3 million

Additionally, we are determined to conserve and build operational reserves for contingencies, to continue actively marketing the Paseo Property for a fair market value sale, and to keep raising funds for GMC debt retirement.

The Board announced the following expense reductions in February of this year:

- The General officers, along with the Board of General Superintendents, will see salaries rolled back to 2007 fiscal year levels-effective 1 July 2009.
- The Global Ministry Center is under a hiring freeze.
- Travel expenses for the Global Ministry Center are being reduced.
- There is a rollback on salary increases among all GMC employees, and a salary freeze is projected for the next three years.

A major part of the budget review process is the employment issue at the GMC and regional offices. At the highest level of personnel in 1988, there were 323 people employed at the former International Headquarters. As of the end of May 2009, there are 210 total employees at the Global Ministry Center. Of those 210 employees, 178 are funded by the World Evangelism Fund. The others are funded by different sources, such as the Pension Department, Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, and the USA Church Loan Fund.

At the end of the fiscal year, 30 September 2009, the target is 154 employees funded by WEF, a reduction in force of 24 people, or a 13 percent drop from May of this year. This is being done to make it possible for us to keep our mission to the world as the highest priority of the church.

It is the determination of the Board of General Superintendents and the Global Mission Department that we will do everything in our power to avoid bringing any missionaries home from the field due to the economic crisis. There are times when missionaries return home from their sending country for various reasons. This is already happening and is a normal part of Global Mission operations.

But what we are saying is this—only as a last resort and because of a lack of funds will missionaries come off the field. This happened once before in the late 1920s during a time of “retrenchment.” Our intent is that it will not happen again.

I would like for the delegates and friends gathered here in Orlando for the 27th General Assembly to send a message to our missionaries around the world in loud and clear tones. Let’s tell them: “We are still committed to global missions; we are still committed to your ministry. We will support you. We will encourage you. And we will pray for you!”

General Board Structure

The Board of General Superintendents voted in December 2008 to recommend major changes in the structure of the General Board. These proposals were adopted by the General Board in February 2009. They will be effective with the newly-elected General Board following this general assembly and will be in place at the February 2010 meeting.

The new structure will focus the General Board on global policy and accountability supportive of the church’s mission in the following areas:

- Global Mission Committee

This committee will give oversight to the global mission strategies of the Church of the Nazarene.

- Global Ministries and Services Committee

This committee will give oversight to Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries International, Nazarene Youth International, and Nazarene Missions International, as well as Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, and Global Nazarene Publications.

- Global Education and Clergy Development Committee

This committee will give oversight to the global educational enterprise, working with the International Board of Education, to clergy preparation, clergy development, and other such interests related to education and ministry.

- Global Administration and Finance Committee

The General Secretary and General Treasurer and their departments will work with this committee establishing effective policies and procedures.

The Board of General Superintendents and the General Board studied the referral from the 2005 General Assembly (GA-310) recommending the merger of the World Mission and USA/Canada Mission/Evangelism Departments. We decided the creation of a new, single Global Mission Committee and department along with a comprehensive reorganization of the General Board is a better solution.

As a part of this comprehensive reorganization of the Global Ministry Center, the USA/Canada office will be located in the Global Ministry Center, with responsibility for resourcing pastors, local churches, districts, and district superintendents in the United States and Canada. The USA/Canada office is under the leadership of Robert Broadbooks.

Now the real work begins. Our Board, working with the General Board, the Global Ministry Center team, regional offices, districts, and churches, has to focus attention on implementing these decisions.

The Funding Formula

The Board of General Superintendents also voted in December 2008 to recommend a new World Evangelism Fund allocation formula of 5.5 percent of current local income for Churches of the Nazarene around the world. It is our plan to create greater global ownership, participation, and support of the World Evangelism Fund and our global mission.

This new global formula, approved by the 2009 General Board, will take effect with the 2010 district assemblies. The formula is based on current-year income.

The BGS recommended and the USA National Board and General Board also approved the following United States formula:

Approved USA Funding Formula

World Evangelism Fund (WEF)	5.5%
Pensions & Benefits (P&B) Fund	2.0%
Education Fund	2.5%

The USA formula also takes effect with the 2010 district assemblies. It, too, is based on current-year income.

District budgets in the United States, which are a vital part of the mission funding of the church, would be in addition to these categories and percentages. Each district sets its own budget based on district missional priorities. It should be noted that, by Manual provision, the Board of General Superintendents does not have authority to determine district budgets.

These four funds—WEF, P&B, Education, and District—form the core of local church mission and connectional giving in the United States.

The Board's recommendation is based on the work of the Budget Allocation Committee chaired by Bob Brower, president of Point Loma Nazarene University, and in consultation with the committee. This committee was established at the 2005 General Assembly.

There is a perception among some that the Global Ministry Center keeps asking for more money for the World Evangelism Fund. In fact, the formula changes since 1980 have consistently lowered, never raised, the amount requested from local churches. If the 1980 formula had been in place for the 2007–2008 assembly year, WEF allocations would have been nearly $68 million, instead of the $48 million actually allocated.

Over the past 20 years, there has been a significant reduction in the amount of money given to the WEF as a percentage of local church income. The new formula once again asks for a lesser percentage.

One objective in this proposed change has been to have more money available to our local churches for their mission and ministry.

A comprehensive implementation plan for the new formula is currently being developed and will soon be communicated to the global church.

In interviews with pastors and lay leaders we are hearing a strong voice saying, "let's renew the spirit of giving in the Church of the Nazarene." This is our goal.

Summarizing the Quadrennium and Centennial Decade

Some other highlights include:

- A new regional director in Africa—Eugenio Duarte
- A new regional director in South America—Christian Sarmiento
- A new regional director in Mexico and Central America—Carlos Saenz
- A new general secretary—David Wilson
- A new Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries director—Woodie Stevens
- A new IBOE commissioner—LeBron Fairbanks
- A new USA/Canada director—Robert Broadbooks

But the most important thing accomplished was reaching a half-million people for Christ through the Centennial effort.

Orville Jenkins, Raymond Hurn, John A. Knight—Friends and Colleagues

As we look back over the quadrennium we note the loss of three former general superintendents: Orville Jenkins, Raymond Hurn and John A. Knight. All three served faithfully and made important contributions to the Kingdom and the Church of the Nazarene.

We know with certainty that they have heard the welcome words from the Savior: “Well done, good and faithful servant!”

A Dynamic Present (John 5:17)

Suffice it to say the Church of the Nazarene is in transition. However, we don't want to look back with nostalgia or ahead with anticipation and miss the present—the only moment we have for sure. This is where we live, do ministry, and make decisions about our future.

How can we better understand the moment? Here is an assessment:

The Movements of God

A New Testament movement of God's Spirit continues unabated, reaching scores of non-Christians in nine countries that we have chosen not to identify in this setting for security reasons. A bountiful and diverse harvest in certain areas is also the result of a century of prayer, fasting, sacrificial giving, and hard work. While this current movement of God is concentrated geographically, churches experiencing increases in professions of faith can be found throughout the world.

Noted historian Philip Jenkins reminds us that Christianity moves from one area to another, and it recedes in areas where it has been stronger. When Christianity is at its weakest in one area, new opportunities open elsewhere.

At the end of September 2008, USA Nazarenes composed 35 percent of the church's membership, while African Nazarenes composed 22 percent and Latin American and Caribbean Nazarenes composed 28 percent. The last year in which United States and Canadian membership combined equaled one-half of the worldwide membership was 1997. The tipping year was 1998.

In just one decade international districts' “share” of global membership has grown from 50 percent to 64 percent. This is part of a wider story of Christianity's plateau in America, African Christianity's growth across an entire century, and Latin America's growing shift toward Evangelical Protestant faith communities, which has been underway for a half-century.

This is an African emergence similar to Latin America and Asia. Simply put, the Christian churches in twentieth-century Africa saw a dynamic at work similar to an American church experience that ended about 1965. This movement in Africa will likely continue well into the twenty-first century.

That earlier time was America's moment of great harvest. This is Africa's moment—in many respects made possible, at least initially, by the missionary passion of the churches of the United Kingdom and America.

This underscores the importance of working together, in Christ, through His church. “Each of us did the work the Lord gave us. My job was to plant the seed in your hearts, and Apollos watered it, but it was God, not we, who made it grow” (1 Corinthians 3:6 NLT).

Rapid expansion is also taking place where small churches are considered “normal.” House churches, “organic” churches, and other forms of churches are emerging around the world as the Spirit of God awakens sinners to His love and mercy.

New church evangelism is playing a central role in this development. In many places pastors are often recent converts, a reality which points up a growing demand for theological education and training in many creative and non-traditional formats.

All God's movements are original works! Some movements are observable while others are not. Nonetheless, God is always at work.

The Articles of Faith

While there is a continuing need for clarity on those things the Church of the Nazarene deems essential to its theology and mission, it is vital that we think carefully about major changes to the Articles of Faith, especially Article X—the “Doctrine of Entire Sanctification.”

At the founding of Nazarene Theological Seminary in 1945, the late general superintendent J. B. Chapman spoke these words:

The doctrine of holiness is like the hub of the wheel in Bible truth, and as such one cannot dispose of it without materially affecting the whole wheel ... Doctrine is not a goal within itself. The goal is God and right relations to Him and state before Him. But doctrine is like a highway that leads to the goal. It may be possible to reach the goal by way of bypaths, but more will reach it if the road is well-marked.

The Church of the Nazarene is committed to the doctrine and experience of entire sanctification. We do not hold this commitment in a narrow sense but for the universal hunger that exists for it, even though a global church is not monolithic in its experience of holiness.

The church is not defending a doctrine. The church is proclaiming Scriptural truth. The goal is not to promote a doctrine but to improve the communication and understanding of what the doctrine means.

Another general superintendent, the late Samuel Young, expressed it this way:

Doctrine affords the signposts to God and Christian experience, but correct doctrine of itself does not constitute the life of God in the souls of individuals.

But if we would direct a great multitude to God we must have sound and pure doctrine.

The second century of the Church of the Nazarene will likely surpass the first one, especially in terms of evangelism and membership growth.

In our church there are places where the passion for holiness as a way of life, made possible by the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, has created awakenings of such proportion that no man or woman can take credit for it. In some places we are seeing entire nations influenced by the passion for preaching and living out the message of entire sanctification.

At a time like this, it is absolutely necessary that we retain our passion for the doctrine and experience of entire sanctification.

It is the desire of the Board of General Superintendents that at this Centennial General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene we reaffirm in the strongest possible terms our commitment to and our appreciation for the distinguishing tenet of the Church of the Nazarene. We are a church formed in a revival and awakening of great spiritual power.

We are at our best when we remember that our mission is not to maintain the status quo. Our mission is to take the world for Jesus Christ. And we are convinced that in an era of cynicism and distrust of Christian institutions, especially the Church, the only adequate antidote for the destructiveness of sin is the purification of the heart.

To that end, we are proposing that the 27th General Assembly reaffirm our commitment to Article X in the Articles of Faith of the Church of the Nazarene.

Our Board has undertaken a careful study of this central tenet of faith. We have consulted with faculty members of Nazarene Theological Seminary in Kansas City and members of the faculty of other Nazarene colleges and universities, both in the United States and around the world. In 2006, the Global Theology Conference in the Netherlands extensively studied this doctrine.

Following up on this effort, we are proposing a review of Article X, with a series of adjustments in language that we believe give strength and clarification to this vital doctrine. We do not seek a comprehensive rewrite of the article; we seek a refinement and an articulation that we believe will give this vital truth fresh insight for our people around the world.

Let's make one thing very clear. The Sixteen Articles of Faith of the Church of the Nazarene are a distillation of our theological identity. They are not a negotiable commodity. No one, including the Board of General Superintendents, has the right to arbitrarily reject, alter, or diminish these Articles of Faith. They are the expression of our understanding of the teachings of the Holy Bible. They are the focus of our beliefs, the motive behind our mission.

As all of us are aware, any change in the Articles of Faith requires approval by a two-thirds majority vote of the General Assembly delegates present and voting. In addition, it requires that any changes approved in the General Assembly must be ratified by two-thirds of the Phase 2 and Phase 3 districts in the Church of the Nazarene around the world.

Change in these vital doctrinal statements is not easy, nor should it be. Any changes made must have the support of the church around the world. Therefore, let's be sure that our efforts to adjust these Articles are carefully considered, biblically coherent, and theologically sound.

Funding the Mission

While distinct financial challenges face our church, let's remember that a generous and loving God has made possible, by His grace, a generous and loving people called Nazarenes. We express our gratitude for the sacrificial generosity of our people throughout our first century.

Money follows mission, and over the past 100 years Nazarenes have given just over one billion dollars (USD) to what is now the World Evangelism Fund. This number increases to $1.5 billion (USD) if Mission Specials of all categories are included in the grand total.

This sacrificial giving came from individuals who often gave up the basic necessities of food and clothing to help spread the gospel of Jesus Christ. Our Board is grateful to God for those who place such a high priority on giving to others.

Funding our global mission has evolved over ten decades. The base of support for mission continues to be the tithes and offerings given by generous Nazarenes through their local churches. In addition to their tithe, our people are encouraged to give to Easter and Thanksgiving offerings and Faith Promise as fundamental sources of the World Evangelism Fund.

The past decade has seen the incorporation of field partnerships—JESUS Film/Harvest Partners, point-to-point cash, and the Nazarene Foundation—into its methods of funding. The expanded list of mission specials, including Alabaster and Work & Witness, is now equal to 73 percent of giving to the World Evangelism Fund.

As a result, WEF has become focused on providing the necessary support systems in order that the dollars given to the mission specials could go directly to the ministry or designated project. Therefore, focusing only on the World Evangelism Fund (WEF), the lifeline of missions support, may be giving an incomplete picture of the church's generosity.

It is very important that we acknowledge the value of the total "mission dollar," as well as the significant and essential role of the World Evangelism Fund. But in doing so, we must not forget that the World Evangelism Fund is the critical lifeline for our global mission. That is the source of the salaries and benefits for our missionaries, the means by which they can give their full attention to the work of the mission.

What is the source of funding for our vital ministries to children, youth, and adults? How are we able to have Nazarene Youth International, Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries International, and Nazarene Missions International? It is WEF that makes it possible.

A Connectional Church

From the beginning, we were and have continued to be a connectional church. We are not a loose affiliation of independent churches, nor are we merely an association of churches having some commonality of belief and purpose but no real and organic relationship. We are unapologetically connectional.

By that we mean we are an interdependent body of local churches organized into districts in order to carry out our mutual mission of "making Christlike disciples in the nations." We commit ourselves to accountability to one another for the sake of the mission and for the sake of the integrity of our commonly-held beliefs.

At this stage in our journey we face the risk that our connectional vitality may diminish and our mutual accountability may be resisted or ignored. Interdependence, which is required for an overwhelming task, could give way to independence. Being "connectional" can be linked, in the minds of some, to "budgets" and "Manual regulation" instead of a larger work for God—one in which we join hands and resources for the sake of a wider mission.

After 26 general assemblies and thousands of resolutions, mission can be overtaken by the perceived need to keep things "under control." The unintended consequence of these decisions is a lessening of emotional energy and ownership of the global mission.

Having been a pastor, district superintendent, and general superintendent, I can attest that it is sometimes hard to look ahead when you are looking over your shoulder. The general assembly needs to find a way to improve the balance between mission and governance. If there is mistrust or a lack of trust it must be restored. No trust—no relationships. No relationships—no church.

As a connectional church we:

- Share belief
- Share mission
- Share values, and

- Share responsibility

This is what it means to be Nazarene!

We are not just another organization. The church, from its founding vision, is an “international holiness communion.”

Even congregations wanting to become more directly involved in missions will benefit from the connections, scope, and depth of experience the Church of the Nazarene can provide.

We need to see clearly how the parts of the church are connected to the whole and vice versa. Let’s celebrate who we are and build on the strengths of existing relationships, fostering a strong and healthy climate for the next generation.

Remember, it is the Holy Spirit who keeps us together—this is our true connection with one another.

More Mission—Less Structure

The pressing need for a twenty-first-century church is more mission and less structure. As one person keenly observed, “The Church of the Nazarene has built a system it can no longer afford.”

When we speak about having less structure and more mission this should not be interpreted as having no structure. Our founders were visionaries, and they put in place a denominational system designed to hold the church together, especially when it came to spiritual and administrative leadership.

The idea of advancing the mission while contracting portions of the structure begins with the Global Ministry Center and regional offices. As indicated earlier, we have taken steps to substantially reduce the number of personnel in the Global Ministry Center.

In light of the mission, growth, and technology, we must re-examine the ministries and services provided by the Global Ministry Center. Some activities and services will continue; others will likely be reduced or repositioned within the church; yet others must be eliminated. This requires careful evaluation.

What is true for the Global Ministry Center and regional offices of the church is just as true for districts, educational institutions, and our local churches. We must find ways to be better stewards of the finances entrusted to all of us.

As we look ahead, the structure the denomination decides to have should be right for this next phase of its life—increasingly focused on ministry through the local church and appropriate ecclesiastical guidance for the development of a global church experiencing rapid expansion.

What structure remains should be:

- Missional
- Connectional
- Relational
- Flexible
- Affordable, and
- Accountable

The global recession offers an opportunity to reprioritize for mission. This window to rethink the design of our system will not last forever. Our Board is using this moment to move the Global Ministry Center and regional offices into a better position to resource churches, districts, and missionaries.

The BGS has studied the resolutions proposing to reduce the number of general superintendents. With a denomination heading toward 3 million members by 2030 or sooner, careful thought should be given to the nature and scope of leadership and administration.

The core of unity is declared in the Articles of Faith of the Manual. “This is the golden strand that is woven into the fabric of all we are and do as Nazarenes” (Manual “Preamble” to Local Government).

Additionally, the Manual says that the “General Assembly is the supreme doctrine-formulating, lawmaking, and elective authority of the Church of the Nazarene. A second reflection is the international General Board, which represents the entire church. A third reflection is the Board of General of Superintendents, who may interpret the Manual, approve cultural adaptations, and ordain to the ministry.”

A major change in the “third reflection of unity,” the BGS, is reason to pause before acting. We strongly recommend the general assembly make this kind of decision about its ecclesiology on an informed basis and only after careful study.

Our Board is calling for such a study on the Nazarene future, which includes a thoughtful examination of the general superintendency and the unique role it has spiritually, theologically, and administratively in a global church. We are recommending a BGS-appointed committee. This committee will bring its recommendations to the Board of General Superintendents, who will then make recommendations to the General Board in time for the next general assembly.

While other items could easily be added to this assessment, the current movements of God, the Articles of Faith, funding the mission, being a connectional church, mission and structure cascade over everything we do. Together, these issues have wide-ranging ramifications for the denomination and its mission as we move forward into our second 100 years.

A Hopeful Future (Jeremiah 29:11)

Turning Vision into Reality

What is the vision for the Church of the Nazarene?

It is to be a disciple-making church, an international community of faith, in the Wesleyan-holiness tradition. This vision, cast in the beginning days of our church, serves as a guiding light for all as we move into our next century.

Making vision a reality does not come about by waiting to see if something will happen. While not getting ahead of God, we must, by His grace and the power of the Holy Spirit, intend the vision to be realized.

A decision is made by each generation to fulfill or carry through with the original purpose of the church. Each generation places its own imprint on the founding vision and mission.

A Different World

What is the most important thing to know about the context of mission in our second 100 years? We know that we are facing staggering demographic transitions across the globe. Everything else is impacted to one degree or another from these trends, including the mission of the church. Consider:

- 8,700 people every hour and 145 people every minute are now being added to our global population.
- One person in five—1.3 billion globally—is between the ages of 10 and 19 and part of the largest youth generation in history. One-fourth of this youth cohort lives on less than $1 a day.
- 87 percent of young people, ages 10–19, live in the developing world.
- Between 2007 and 2025, the population of the developed world is expected to grow 3 percent, while the population of the developing world is expected to grow 49 percent.
- Nine countries—India, Pakistan, Nigeria, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Bangladesh, Uganda, the United States, Ethiopia, and China—will account for one-half of all world population growth through 2050.

A different world is in the making. What does this mean for the Church of the Nazarene?

Externally Focused

In 2009 the General Board approved a recommendation by the Board of General Superintendents to create a new, single-mission framework centering on developing and equipping externally-focused Churches of the Nazarene. These churches must be driven by mission. We dare not resort to mere maintenance in a world expanding so rapidly that we cannot keep up.

The ministry of Jesus was externally focused. The Bible says, “For the Son of Man came to seek and save that which is lost” (Luke 19:10).

“Seek” is an active verb. As someone rightly observed, “the mission field is the ground beneath our feet.”

And these churches must be driven by a coherent theological vision. Ours is a denomination in the Wesleyan-Holiness, Wesleyan-Arminian tradition. We are a people who believe that Christ died for the redemption of the whole world. We believe strongly that the prevenient grace of God is currently at work everywhere. He is seeking to call all humanity to Himself.

We believe God not only desires to redeem us, but He desires to transform us. He can not only save us, He can sanctify us entirely and set us on fire with holy love for a lost and broken world.

These externally-focused churches need room to be flexible in methodology.

There is no one single Nazarene “model” for how we “do church.” We are found in cities, in villages, and in the countrysides. We have large churches and small ones. We worship in magnificent buildings with stained glass windows and in mud huts or out under the trees—and everything in between.

We are in wealthy suburbs and in blighted ghettos. We are in places where war is common and no one is safe and in places where peace and security prevail. We are rural, and we are urban. We are rich, and we are poor.

And there are lost people in all of these settings. There is no single method for reaching out in fulfillment of the mission. Undoubtedly more churches will blog, text message, and twitter their way into the future just as a previous generation wrote letters, sent telegrams to missionaries, and talked on a landline phone.

Even with changes in generations and technology, we are to be about the same mission—completing the work of Jesus Christ.

While not neglecting legitimate internal needs in the life of the church, we encourage more of our pastors and laity to become externally focused—this is your future.

In the recent decision by the General Board to approve our new Global Mission Department, we have put the leaders of all of the world areas—including the USA and Canada—in the same room, at the same table. We are going to work together with a single global focus, with a single passion, to reach out to and win the lost, and to disciple those to be like Jesus.

While it will take time to put things in place, there will no longer be two missions; just one.

Finally, we must baptize this mission in prayer and fasting. Prayer is the one most common characteristic of all of the great movements of God we are experiencing across the globe. It must not be lost on us that when the church in Antioch (Acts 13) was worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit spoke to them and said, “Separate unto me Saul and Barnabas for the work to which I have called them.”

It was while they were worshipping and fasting that He spoke. Maybe one reason many are not hearing the compelling voice of the Spirit toward mission is that we are not passionately engaged in prayer and fasting.

But have you noticed that in this passage in Acts 13 before the disciples in Antioch would even obey the compelling voice of the Spirit, the writer of the Book of Acts says, “So after fasting and prayer, they laid their hands on them and sent them out.” The believers in Antioch were not even willing to obey the command of God without bathing their obedience in fasting and prayer.

My dear fellow Nazarenes, if we are to see a great move of God, not just in the isolated places around the globe but across the Church of the Nazarene everywhere, we must return to a continual engagement in fasting and prayer. It is the hearts cry of the Board of General Superintendents that as we move into our second century as a denomination we do so on our knees. We will never stand taller in our fulfillment of the mission than when we pray and fast!

Summary

As we mentioned at the beginning, this general assembly stands to be a critical turning point for our church.

If you followed the 2008 summer Olympics in China, you may remember seeing the men’s and women’s track relay races. In addition to fitness and endurance, a successful relay team practices handing off the baton. Even teams with great speed learn to adjust the pace at just the right moment so the baton can be given to the next runner.

One of the most poignant moments in those summer games was when one of the most capable relay teams, made up of world-record holders, a team predicted to win the gold medal, failed to pass the baton appropriately; as a result, they were disqualified.

In a similar vein, the church is in the process of handing over spiritual and administrative responsibility to a new generation; similar to what the apostle Paul did with Timothy. As in the relay race, there cannot be a successful organizational handoff without proximity to the next generation.

The Church of the Nazarene needs to focus on creating meaningful opportunities of service for new leaders throughout local, district, and general interests. The sooner qualified individuals, both men and women from all races and cultures, gain exposure to the wider ministry of the church and begin taking ownership for it, the better off we will be.

Some time ago, Leighton Ford, writing in World Vision, offered this counsel about generational change: Many of evangelism's senior leaders are retiring or coming to the end of their ministries. We are preparing to pass the baton to a new group of emerging leaders... We must identify these new leaders, networking and developing them as evangelists who will work in a world much different from ours.

And we must carefully avoid training them to fulfill only our visions, using only our methods, creating clones of ourselves. We must enable them to fulfill the visions God gives them.

What is the one piece of advice our generation could offer to future generations?

I believe it is the same advice Phineas Bresee and the other founders of the church would offer—take time to be holy.

Someone recently penned the following which expresses how one enters this holy realm:

- Make a conscientious decision to spend ample time in personal worship, in careful study of the Scriptures, and in prayer.
- Work toward a disciplined life that reflects the very character of Jesus. Avoid those things that will rob you of your peace and your health. Walk worthy of the calling you have received.
- Cultivate healthy relationships—both giving and taking—that add value to each human encounter. The connection with God is in the context of community, not in isolation and on our own.
- Engage the larger world to serve and seek justice and mercy for those weaker than you.

*Take time to be holy; Speak oft with thy Lord.
Abide in Him always, And feed on His Word.
Make friends with God's children; Help those who are weak, Forgetting in nothing His blessing to seek.*

With the Lord's help...

- ✓ The Church of the Nazarene will make it through the economic downturn—coming out stronger and more focused on the other side.
- ✓ The church will continue preaching God's sanctifying grace.
- ✓ The church will continue evangelizing and making disciples.
- ✓ The church will continue sending missionaries.
- ✓ The church will continue starting churches.
- ✓ The church will continue helping those in need.

Yet it is only by taking time to be holy and seeking a deeper work of God in our life that our mission can be sustained.

Herein lies the Nazarene future—making Christlike disciples in the nations by the power of the Holy Spirit. May a fresh anointing of the Spirit of God for this supernatural task come to His church this very day.

GENERAL SECRETARY / GMC OPERATIONS OFFICER

To the Board of General Superintendents and delegates of the 27th General Assembly:

The 2009 general Assembly marks the first world-wide gathering of Nazarenes in the second century of its existence. On 5 October 2008, the Church of the Nazarene celebrated its 100th anniversary in local churches around the world. Many joined in the sacraments of communion and baptism and highlighted the day by receiving new members.

The festivities were more of an exercise in looking to the future than they were gazing nostalgically at the past. The statement of mission for the denomination, “To make Christlike disciples in the nations,” was a focal point for the activities of the day. Articulated by the Board of General Superintendents at the 2007 General Board, the statement of mission defines for the global church three critical priorities:

1. “To make” – Disciples are made not born. The Holy Spirit has been given to every follower of Jesus to be both Guide and Teacher. The Church cooperates with the Spirit in helping to shape and develop new believers.
2. “Christlike disciples” - The goal of the Church is more than helping people become morally sound, good citizens. The objective of the Church’s labors is to assist individuals in becoming imitators of Christ. Jesus Christ is both Model and Mediator for those desiring relationship with God. “Christlikeness” is holiness.
3. “In the nations” – The Church of the Nazarene continues to be a missionary church. The command of Christ to “Go and make disciples of all nations” (Matt. 28:19) is taken seriously in this denomination.

As the Church of the Nazarene moves forward into its second century, this statement of mission will be its guiding light.

After more than 50 years of being located at 6401 The Paseo in Kansas City, Missouri, the International Headquarters for the Church of the Nazarene moved to the “Global Ministry Center” (GMC) in Lenexa, Kansas, in September 2008. More than just a physical change, the move represents a shift in philosophy in at least two ways. The building was constructed to provide maximum flexibility for cooperation among individuals and departments. Since all ministries are in one building, just a few steps away from each other, it is much easier to connect and work together on projects. The greatest shift in thinking has been toward “one message and one mission” for all of the GMC rather than solely promoting departmental agenda.

Led by the Board of General Superintendents, the work of the Global Ministry Center is to resource and network with local churches world-wide through regions and districts. Not all programs and ministries for the denomination emanate from the GMC. Regions, districts, and local churches work in concert with the staff at the Global Ministry Center to resource the church. Leadership at the GMC continues to refine the role it plays in the ever-changing landscape of the denomination.

The office of the General Secretary/GMC Operations Officer is at the heart of GMC life and the nerve center for the denomination world-wide. The work done there is not glamorous, and the office cannot boast any life-changing stories; but when the General Secretary and Operations staff does its job well, kingdom-impacting ministries are enhanced, and, in some cases, made possible. The staff provides support:

1. at the general level of the church by:
  - facilitating the work of the quadrennial General Assembly and Conventions
  - facilitating the business and arrangements for the annual General Board meetings
  - assisting the Board of General Superintendents and GMC leaders in carrying out their assignments
2. at the regional and district level of the church by:
  - providing supplies, developing and resourcing leaders
  - maintaining statistics
3. at the local level of the church by:

- maintaining ministerial records and local church statistics
- collecting and recording historical documents and memorabilia
- communicating news and denominational doctrine through Holiness Today and NCN News
- providing data and demographic information through the Research staff

The General Secretary and Operations staff also assists in the work done at the Global Ministry Center through the Arrangements Office, Business Center, Human Resources, and Information Technology.

For the Record

The Global Church of the Nazarene has reason to feel hope as records are evaluated. Church membership has reached 1,837,393 – a quadrennial gain of 341,097. A record 575,961 New Nazarenes were received. New churches organized were 2,537. There are now 16,209 organized churches of the Nazarene globally.

Nazarenes increased their giving to $3,621,235,294. The number of new elders ordained was 2,447, deacons ordained 168, and an additional 122 ministers had their credentials recognized from other denominations. There are 433 districts around the world. Of these, 174 are Phase 3; 85 are Phase 2; 141 are Phase 1; and 33 are pioneer areas.

Archives

Nazarene Archives moved over 4,000 cubic feet of materials to the Global Ministry Center and special housing in a secured site within one mile of the GMC. This storage facility provides much improved care for valuable historical documents.

The Archives staff has received 707 new accessions in the past four years, including private papers, photos, and other memorabilia from former general superintendents R.T. Williams, Jim Bond and W. Talmadge Johnson; theologians Delbert Gish and J. Kenneth Grider; missionaries Roger Winans and Paul Dayhoff; and other former church leaders. In addition, they processed 2,625 research requests and hosted 366 visiting researchers. They were instrumental in providing significant assistance to churches and districts as they prepared their Centennial Celebrations.

The Archives staff began a major microfilm project during the quadrennium processing tens of thousands pages from mini-journals from the 1970's to the present time. This project is on-going.

The Archives manager represents the denomination at the annual Wesley Theological Society meetings and participates in the World Methodist council meetings.

Business Center

The Business Center was instrumental in the move from Kansas City to Lenexa. At the Paseo location, the operation was scattered throughout two buildings. In the GMC, all Business Center services originate from one location.

Mail Services: The mail center staff retrieves mail from the Post Office, sorts the incoming mail and processing various types of outgoing mail. They are responsible for staying current with US Postal Service regulations and attend educational seminars for this purpose throughout the year.

Telecommunications: This office assisted with installation and on-going maintenance of a new phone system using Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) technology. Two operators work from the reception desk, greeting callers and incoming guests. Since the move to Lenexa, an average of 35 guests per day have visited, for meetings or tours. Telecommunications also provides cell phone assistance for numerous employees at the GMC.

Transportation: The Business Center operates two shuttle vans that provide airport transportation services to employees, committee members, and guests traveling for GMC business. Over 7,000 trips servicing nearly 9,000 individuals were accomplished by the transportation team during this quadrennium.

Document Center: Previously known as Word Processing, the staff of this office continues to support other entities with a variety of services, reducing labor and outsourcing costs. Current services include data entry; mail merge; printing letters and forms in mass quantity; final preparation of letters, periodicals, and publications; reports; minutes; folding, inserting, stuffing, and sealing mailings; proofing and editorial services, and transcription from multiple media sources/devices.

Corporate Affairs

General Board official instruments processed for the various departments and agencies included contracts, deeds, and other documents.

Auditors' reports for the General Board and Nazarene Publishing House were received and filed. Report forms and fees were filed for the General Board and subsidiary corporations where such filings were required.

In consultation with the General Treasurer/GMC Financial Officer, the entire corporate insurance portfolio is managed by the General Secretary's office. In addition, legal and corporate risk issues are assigned to the General Secretary/GMC Operations Officer.

Church and Public Relations

The general secretary is officially charged with the responsibility to serve as director of public relations, but many others participate in this important function. The Board of General Superintendents, NCN News, and Holiness Today are involved in disseminating information to constituents and fraternal associates. The Church of the Nazarene is a vital part of the National Association of Evangelicals. The GMC is a member of the Lenexa Chamber of Commerce and has internal organizations that seek to minister to the needs of the Johnson county community.

Holiness Today* and NCN News

Holiness Today continues to serve as the primary magazine for the international Church of the Nazarene. Throughout the denomination's history, its members have relied on church publications to keep them connected and informed of regional and general church events, and to proclaim the holiness message geared towards an ever-changing audience.

Currently, through the web and blogs, Holiness Today has even more of a presence, providing a forum for discussion about issues facing Nazarenes, corporately and personally.

NCN News plays a growing role as a global communications conduit for the Church of the Nazarene. Each week, nearly 20,000 visitors access the web site, www.ncnnews.com. The eNewsletter – NCN Global News Summary – boasts a subscription list of more than 9,000. The quantity of submissions from global regions, ministry fields, districts, leadership, and laypeople continues to rise as well.

Human Resources, Insurance, and Legal Matters

The Human Resources Office gives direction to slightly more than 200 full and part-time members of the Global Ministry Center Staff. Approximately 15% of these individuals are funded by resources other than the World Evangelism Fund. This office provides services including government compliance, employee benefits administration, and employee relations.

In addition, the Human Resources staff assists with the administration of corporate insurance policies as well as the day-to-day detail of GMC and general church legal matters.

Information Technology

Information Technology integrates information systems technology into the ministries of the Global ministry Center, allowing secure access to information from any authorized location. At the heart of this strategy is the OPAL system, the primary knowledge repository of the GMC and the key delivery system to support global ministry operations.

The personnel of this office provides support services for users on campus, offering help desk functions and training, providing direct user support and guidance, and assistance with technology planning. They also install, document, and maintain the physical network data infrastructure required for meeting established service level agreements.

The Information Technology team is working toward globalization of information technology, resulting in closer relationships with ministry partners, greater flexibility in sourcing ministry services, and improved constituent satisfaction.

Research and Centennial Projects

The Research Center provides the latest statistical and analytical data to the Church of the Nazarene world-wide. This office has been instrumental in developing, distributing, and analyzing data from surveys that provide much-needed information for shaping on-going ministries throughout the church. In-depth studies are provided districts and local churches. The Research Center has been instrumental in planning and hosting the annual meeting of the Association of Nazarene Sociologists and Researchers for the past 27 years.

In preparation for the Centennial Celebration, the Research staff worked with Gay Leonard to coordinate materials for the world-wide local church. Reports of the October 2008 festivities are posted on-line, with appropriate translations.

The Research staff works to look ahead and foresee future needs, preparing data and reports proactively for the Board of General Superintendents, various GMC ministries, and for the denomination.

Web Development

The Web Development office is making the web an indispensable tool for the GMC. With corporate solutions like the Nazarene MediaLibrary, the web is also becoming a cost-saving resource. In the past year alone, the Nazarene.org home page increased traffic by 50,000 unique IP addresses, nearly all new users. Subscriptions to the Nazarene MediaLibrary exceed 3,000 (at the time of this writing).

The core objectives of the Web Development Office are:

- Differentiation – Providing a denominational web presence that represents the unique characteristics of the Global Church of the Nazarene to the local community.
- Demonstrability – Providing a denominational web presence that demonstrates how the Church of the Nazarene has been effective in its mission of making Christlike disciples in the nations.
- Sustainability – Providing a local web presence that represents the sustainability of the Church of the Nazarene, both world-wide and in the local community.

Conclusion

A new day has dawned in the Church of the Nazarene. Growing global membership, the Global Ministry Center, and the beginning of the second hundred years have all contributed to this grand moment. With great passion, the Church of the Nazarene moves forward, determined, with God's help, to seize the opportunity "to make Christlike disciples in the nations."

Respectfully submitted,
DAVID P. WILSON

GENERAL TREASURER / FINANCIAL OFFICER

To the Board of General Superintendents and Delegates of the 27th General Assembly:

On behalf of the directors and administrators of the General Treasurer/Financial Office, it is my privilege to present our 2009 quadrennial report.

God's blessings were abundant to the Church of the Nazarene the past four years. Nazarenes gave faithfully to the World Evangelism Fund and Mission Specials. In addition, they compassionately and generously gave millions of dollars in response to the needs of people during the many devastating disasters of the period. The sacrificial gifts of Nazarenes continue to bring life and hope to people all over the world.

The major initiative during the last four years has been planning for the relocation of Headquarters and the construction of a new Global Ministry Center on 38 acres in Lenexa, Kansas. The goal was to relocate the people and operations from Headquarters to the new Global Ministry Center by the denomination's centennial in October of 2008. The first day of work in the Global Ministry Center was September 15, 2008. The project came in ahead of time and within budget.

The $25 million, 20-year tax-exempt bond issued by the City of Lenexa, was purchased and held by Bank of America. Twenty million was locked in at a low fixed rate of 3.86 percent plus 75 basis points (0.75 percent). The remaining $5.0 million floated with the Bond Market Association rate (BMA) with no penalty for early repayment. Over $2.0 million was earned on interest from bond and gift investments during construction.

During the major donor event, Focus on the Future, two $1.0 million dollar matching gifts were given as well as another $2.0 million in pledges and gifts. Approximately $2.0 million has been received against pledges of over $7.0 million.

The Guaranteed Maximum Price contract protected the building project in an environment of rising costs. The construction cost of the building was $18.7 million, site preparation $4.2 million, and professional consulting and fees $3.4 million. No World Evangelism Funds will be used for debt servicing.

The Brookside Day and Charter School purchased the Paseo Ministries Building. The General Board received net proceeds of $500,000. The remainder of the Paseo campus remains on the market with Zimmer Real Estate during this economic recession.

The General Board gifted the Nazarene Commons and the King Conference Center to Nazarene Theological Seminary and also sold the Woodland homes to NTS for $300,000.

The General Board's new independent auditing firm's international offices assisted with audits of regional offices. A consistent accounting system was purchased and installed in the regional offices for integration with the General Board accounting system, with the goal of consolidated regional audits with the General Board financial statements.

In an effort to enhance financial accountability to donors, the General Board also was approved as a fully accredited member of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA). Annual financial summary information is now accessible online at the ECFA website, ecfa.org, and at nazarene.org.

The USA Church Loan Fund fully repaid all investors, thereby completely eliminating fund liabilities in full compliance with U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. This program is self-funded, but an approved line of credit from Bank of America is available during periods of high loan demand.

Continuous improvement of customer service and processes was a four year focus. Such initiatives were: document imaging and records management, 24/7 bank lockbox processing of donor gifts, on-line giving options for individuals and churches, and on-line corporate credit card management.

The Church of the Nazarene Foundation, founded last quadrennium, continued to grow in assets and services under the leadership of inaugural president Mel McCullough, distributing millions of dollars to Nazarene ministries, educational institutions, districts and churches.

A major Budget Allocation study commissioned by the 2005 General Assembly, chaired by Dr. Bob Brower, made recommendations and provided counsel to the Board of General Superintendents leading to the approval of a new Mission Funding methodology. Most notable was the Global WEF goals of 5.5 percent of income with no deductions and 2.0 percent for Pensions & Benefits USA.

The advent of the global financial crises, which is appearing to be deep and protracted, has affected every segment of the economy, including loss of asset value and employment. The proactive response by the Board of General Superintendents to the possible impact on giving called for an initial ten percent reduction in the current GMC departmental budgets, along with salary and hiring freezes and suspension of selected benefits. Mission critical jobs are being prioritized to ensure maximum use of available resources. Quarterly financial reviews have been implemented. Operational budgets and revenue projections for 2010 and 2011 have been adjusted downward to be positioned for unknown contingencies.

Our Financial Services leaders are faithful servants who accomplish their goals with a high degree of professionalism and commitment to the ministry. You will enjoy learning more about their initiatives and service to constituents over the past four years in their detailed reports.

Our directors and administrators are:

Don Walter – Director of Pensions & Benefits USA and International

Mark Lail – Director of Stewardship Ministries

Kathleen Kruse – Controller and Administrative Director of Global Treasury Services

Raymond Moore – Administrative Director of Financial Services and Manager of Donor Services

Mark Wessels – Administrator of the USA Church of the Nazarene Loan Fund

David Najarian – Administrative Coordinator of Building Support Services

Melvin McCullough – President of the Church of the Nazarene Foundation

PENSIONS AND BENEFITS USA, Don Walter, *Director

The 2005-2008 quadrennium was blessed with challenges. Economic headlines were dominated by news of home foreclosures, corporate bankruptcies and bailouts, escalating unemployment and health care costs, skyrocketing fuel prices, and a rollercoaster stock market. All of this combined to create an atmosphere of apprehension which prompted many to wonder, “What’s next?”

The Church was not immune to these events, and those of us in Pensions and Benefits watched with trepidation as recession took a toll on retirees, pastors, and churches, as well as P&B investment assets. Hard-hit congregations suffered from diminished giving, which, in turn, affected contributions to the Pensions and Benefits Fund. Despite the erratic economy, however, the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA and the P&B staff worked with other ministry and financial partners to “Honor the Trust” of providing retirement benefits and other services for both active and retired constituents.

This report is our way of remaining accountable to the church for the Pensions and Benefits contributions made by Nazarenes across the United States.

P&B Fund Giving

Contributions to the Pensions and Benefits Fund by churches and districts are the main source of funding for basic benefit programs administered by Pensions and Benefits USA. It is the source of the Annual Pension Supplement contributions to the 403(b) accounts of thousands of eligible ministers, associate ministers, evangelists, and district superintendents; it provides resources for Basic Pension Plan payments to approximately 4,800 retired ministers and widowed spouses; it pays the premiums for the Pastors Life Insurance Plan, the Pensioners Death Benefit Plan, and the Basic Disability Plan; and makes it possible for us to underwrite five benevolence programs.

From 2005 through 2008, giving to the Pensions and Benefits Fund reached just over $49 million. This compares to nearly $46 million during the previous quadrennium. This is an approximate 7 percent increase for this quadrennium over the prior quadrennium.

The final year of the quadrennium marked the first time since the beginning of the Basic Pension Plan in 1971 that we have experienced a decrease in Pensions and Benefits Fund income over the prior year’s receipts. Payments to the fund in 2008 totaled $12.4 million—down from $12.5 million in 2007. A study of giving reports indicated that in 2008 nearly 18 percent of our congregations paid nothing into the fund. At the same time, almost 90 percent of our dollars came from just 40 percent of our churches. This undoubtedly reflected difficulties faced by local congregations and districts throughout the United States. This reduction in income, however, along with historic declines in invested asset values, has created pressures requiring unique responses.

The variety of “formulas” used by districts to determine what will be provided for this ministry, and recent actions to move P&B Fund contributions to a current year income base, required us to recognize the need to review the practice of basing benefits on a percentage of apportionment paid. In order to continue to “Honor the Trust” of promises made to retired and soon-to-be-retired ministers, it will also be necessary to limit coverage of basic programs for those who do not support them. Consequently, deliberation by the Board of Pensions necessitated a change in the method of calculating Annual Pension Supplements to 403(b) Retirement Plan accounts for 2009. (Details are available at pbusa.org.) As asset levels recover, and if giving were to increase, it could be possible to return to earlier models for these contributions.

How Your Money Was Used

The total of ministers (active and retired) served by Pensions and Benefits USA during this quadrennium remained relatively constant from the past one with about 14,000 participants. The various plans under our administration paid out more than $142.5 million in benefits (about $22 million more than in the previous quadrennium).

Retirement Plans

The number of retired ministers and widowed spouses served by the Basic Pension Plan grew by about 200 to around 4,800 over the past four years. During this time, we paid more than $61 million to these retired ministers and widowed spouses. This compares to slightly more than $57 million between 2001 and 2005.

We paid about $21 million dollars in Annual Pension Supplements to the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan accounts of eligible pastors, full-time associates, evangelists, and district superintendents. During the same time, almost $47.5 million were paid out in distributions from these accounts. The average balance of 403(b) accounts was almost $21K. This average fell by almost $5k between 2007 and 2008, mostly the result of declines in the stock markets. The single largest source of contributions to these accounts remains individual salary reductions by participants.

Distributions from the Nazarene Individual Retirement Annuity (IRA) Plan totaled nearly $3 million.

Insurance and Benevolence Payments

Pensions and Benefits USA provides a basic level of life insurance for eligible U.S. ministers and their families. We also offer additional life and death and disability plans, all of which feature affordable premiums and offer valuable protection to eligible Nazarene participants.

During the quadrennium, we paid more than $7 million from the P&B Fund to make available our insurance and benevolence programs. Approximately $28 million were paid out in claims for those on various insurance plans offered through Pensions and Benefits USA. Another $1.2 million were distributed to help meet the needs of those qualifying for assistance from P&B benevolence programs.

During the quadrennium, we undertook a major project to review all of our life, disability, and accident insurance plans. As a result, we transitioned to Aetna Life Insurance Company which promises to improve services and reduce costs.

Other Activity

In 2008, we invested many hours in a compliance effort for the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan. Our legal counsel, the resource team at Fidelity Investments, and a seemingly tireless staff of P&B associates completed one of the greatest administrative undertakings for plan compliance ever faced. Of course, this activity was not unique to the Church of the Nazarene. Our involvement in this project was the result of a massive venture by the Internal Revenue Service regarding a change in regulations affecting nearly all 403(b) plans in the nation. The failure to comply with these changes would have been devastating for our plan participants.

Relocation

The relocation of our offices from the historic Kansas City, Missouri, address of “6401 The Paseo” to the new Global Ministry Center in Lenexa, Kansas, was one more change requiring some adaptation. To my knowledge, no loss of P&B service occurred as a result of this move. While we are still in the process of acclimating to a new work environment, the focus on the mission remains clear. We are here to “Serve Those Who Serve.” We are committed more than ever to “Honoring the Trust” of our constituents. This trust involves continuing to provide a tradition of service that the servants of the church have come to expect and deserve.

Miscellaneous

During the quadrennium, Pensions and Benefits staff members represented our office at events such as Prime Time retreats, activities sponsored by the Association of Retired Ministers and Missionaries, National Black Nazarene Conferences, Haitian pastors meeting, children’s pastors summit, district seminars, M7, and other events as requested by district leaders. The director was privileged to serve a second two-year term as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Church Benefits Association during the quadrennium. We remain very active in this organization and gain much useable information from these meetings with other denominational benefits colleagues.

As usual, the Pensions and Benefits office distributed income tax resources to church employees, church treasurers, and district offices. These included memos and income tax guides by income tax and church law professionals.

Strategic Partnerships

The goals of Pensions and Benefits USA cannot be accomplished in isolation. During this quadrennium, Pensions and Benefits USA continued its partnership with many entities, and forged alliances with others.

Of utmost importance is the ongoing partnership with the members of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA, the Investment Committee, the Board of General Superintendents, the U.S. district superintendents, and the Pensions and Benefits office staff. During this quadrennium we joined with a group of retired district superintendents who assist us (and pastors) by contacting active ministers to encourage involvement in setting aside money for retirement through the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

Conclusion

The economic ups and downs which occurred during the past quadrennium and which will probably continue for a while may be cause for unsettledness, but the Church is the Lord’s and He always provides. In fact, it is in such times that the miraculous power of God is most markedly manifested. In the meantime, we rest on the promises of God’s Word:

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:6-7 TNIV).

As we seek to honor the promises made over the years to each other, we trust in the Lord to provide as He always does. The men and women of Pensions and Benefits USA remain optimistic and ready to serve Christ and His Church.

PENSIONS AND BENEFITS–INTERNATIONAL, Don Walter, *Director

The Mission

Pensions and Benefits–International operates as a resource partner for pension and benefit services for those who serve the Church of the Nazarene within the greater global community; particularly those who are members of non-U.S. districts and who are working in international areas. To accomplish this, Pensions and Benefits–International works alongside the World Mission Department and the regional offices. The following represent the focus of the past quadrennium (2005-2008).

The International Contributory Retirement Program

The International Contributory Retirement Program (ICRP) is offered to the Nazarene ministers of the six world regions. It served participants in over 50 countries and geographic areas. At the end of the quadrennium, total enrollment exceeded 800, and the cash value of the plan had grown to nearly $2 million. Distributions during the quadrennium totaled about $450,000. This program is a resource for world areas which do not have other appropriate options readily available.

Other International Pension Plans

Pensions and Benefits–International continued to request, receive, review, and retain annual reports from 45 international pension plans in the Church of the Nazarene. Email and the P&B–International web site have facilitated this work and its communications. Pensions and Benefits–International remains available to provide consultation services to representatives of any of these plans and makes resources available via the Web.

Key Concepts

Two key concepts continue to be promoted as opportunity allows: every local church must joyfully accept the stewardship issue of providing sufficient pastoral compensation; and, every church employer and every church employee must be engaged with the stewardship issue of personal participation in preparing for the future.

STEWARDSHIP MINISTRIES, Mark Lail, *Director

Biblical Stewardship has been central to the mission of the Church of the Nazarene for 100 years. This past year, with the retirement of Dr. Steve Weber and my election, the Stewardship Ministries team reaffirmed its role in the ministry of the church by developing a new mission statement: to make generous disciples that accomplish the mission of the Church of the Nazarene. The Stewardship Ministries team is committed to carrying out this mission through resourcing, partnering, and inspiring.

Resourcing

Our goal is to provide effective and timely resources to help pastors and church leaders carry out the mission of the Church of the Nazarene. This requires a willingness and ability to read the trends and respond accordingly. A dramatic shift has taken place in the way people get their information. We have moved beyond a single reliance on the printed word and electronic communications are now the norm.

As such, Stewardship Ministries has established two new communication and resourcing tools. These include (dot)Stewardship, an e-newsletter, and Wholly Stewardship, a blog with information and thoughts about stewardship in our changing world. As we create new resources, our commitment is to provide them free to everyone through our website: www.nazarene.org/stewardship.

Even with the growth of electronic media, there is still the need for face-to-face training. Last year, Stewardship Ministries introduced the new School of Stewardship: Training for Treasurers. This seminar includes a variety of workshops covering topics of interest to pastors and church treasurers and is available to all districts. In addition to the practical themes, there is also a clear focus on the issue of financial integrity.

Inspiring

Inspiration involves telling the story of our mission and equipping pastors to inspire their people to fund the mission. The answer to, “Why the World Evangelism Fund?” is the same answer as, “Why a denomination?” The local church now looks beyond the rhetoric of “giving to God’s work” or “reaching the world” and asks, “How effectively is the money given in the name of the Lord actually utilized by the church in the accomplishment of our mission?” Stewardship Ministries is excited to tell this story and show God’s church at its best.

Giving to the World Evangelism Fund remains central to carrying out the Great Commission by the Church of the Nazarene. Along with Nazarene Missions International (NMI), Stewardship Ministries is responsible for promoting giving to this “lifeline” of the church.

Partnering

There is a new spirit of cooperation at the Global Ministry Center and the Stewardship Ministries team is actively building partnerships both in and beyond the GMC as a way of promoting and teaching biblical stewardship. Stewardship Ministries is working directly with various entities at the GMC including NMI, NYI, NCM, Children's Ministries, the Hispanic Strategy Committee, World Mission, and others.

One of our most active partnerships involves the area of online giving. In this age of "designated giving," the World Evangelism Fund must remain prominent in our giving campaigns. Stewardship Ministries has taken a lead role in the management of online giving opportunities on the denomination's website. We are working with various entities at the GMC to provide a clear, seamless, and simple channel for online giving for those donors who prefer electronic fund transfers.

In addition to partnerships within the GMC, Stewardship Ministries continues to work with others who provide helpful stewardship resources. This is the sixth year of our popular Stewardship Month Resource Kit, developed in partnership with Dr. Stan Toler. Abundant Living continues to provide quality personal finance training resources and seminars. While the development phase of Abundant Living has ended, it remains a quality, personal finance program, written from a Wesleyan perspective and discounted for Nazarene churches.

Stewardship Ministries continues to operate the Ten Percent for World Mission award program. At the end of this quadrennium, seventeen churches have achieved fifty or more continuous years on the Stewardship Honor Roll. Six of those outstanding churches have been on the roll for all sixty-one years of the program's existence.

Conclusion

On a regular basis, I thank the Lord for the opportunity to serve the Church of the Nazarene as the Director of Stewardship Ministries, for the capable leadership of Dr. Marilyn McCool and the General Superintendents and for the dedication and expertise of the Stewardship Ministries team. I consider my job to be a genuine blessing that flows from the generosity of my Lord. Thank you for the opportunity to serve.

GENERAL TREASURER'S OFFICE, Kathleen Kruse, *Controller and Administrative Director

Mission

The Mission of Global Treasury Services is to provide timely, reliable and relevant financial information to support management decision making and to demonstrate fiscal responsibility to the General Church's internal and external constituents.

Goals

Our goals are to process funds as designated; serve as liaison between donors and "doers"; record financial transactions accurately; protect and account for resources; provide financial information and analysis for decision-making; collect revenue and control costs; and fulfill financial obligations through payroll and accounts payable.

Changes

We continue to increase our electronic giving capabilities through a product powered by Convio. ACH payment options have been expanded. On-line credit card transaction processing is being implemented. Document Imaging systems are being used for record retention. We are exploring ways of using electronic workflow processes to streamline the information flow between our office and other GMC offices. The nature of our functions can be paper intensive and we are working to find better ways of managing the paper. Internet banking for US accounts has been provided for all regions through Bank of America. Development of a budget tool to improve the budgeting process has been started.

Challenges

We are constantly challenged to be more efficient in our processes and continue to strive toward that goal. There are many opportunities for improvement and we hope you will pray with us that we choose

DONOR SERVICES, Raymond Moore, Manager

On March 19, 2007, the cash receipts processing function emerged from the accounting group as a unit named Donor Services, a distinct service arm of Global Treasury Services. The development of Donor Services was intended as the cornerstone of a strategic plan to create and implement donor-focused initiatives to integrate technical processing with new service programs. It has been my privilege to assume the responsibilities of Donor Services manager as an enhancement to my role as Administrative Director of Nazarene Financial Services.

The Donor Services' team has participated in the mission of the Church of the Nazarene by carefully handling the receiving and depositing of ministry dollars, accounting for these dollars accurately, providing timely receipts and reports to donors, and responding with excellence to constituent inquiries.

Since March 2007, over half a million individual gift and fee transactions have been handled and processed by Donor Services' staff. Nearly half of these transactions were processed on behalf of global Nazarene Compassionate Ministries' initiatives.

For over two years, individuals and local churches have had the opportunity to process gifts on-line. We have seen explosive growth in on-line giving as $4.0 million in 7,948 separate transactions were processed during the fiscal year ending September 30, 2008 compared with $233,160 in 1,446 separate transactions the prior fiscal year.

In December 2008, we began employing the services of a bank who is providing to us state-of-the-art lockbox and imaging services. This relationship helps to ensure more timely deposits, enhances security and audit controls, improves accuracy, and helps reduce our overall operating cost.

The Donor Services budget has been carefully managed in an effort to be good stewards of the monies entrusted to our care. In the fiscal year ending September 30, 2008, we ended the year nearly 21% under budget.

Significant efforts have been undertaken to treat every donor with professionalism and respect. Several thousand phone calls and e-mails have been personally handled by staff in an effort to provide ready, responsive, and reliable service.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation for the excellent efforts of the Donor Services' team. They are committed and faithful servants of the Lord devoted to the global mission of the Church of the Nazarene.

Thank you for the opportunity to be of service.

USA CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE LOAN FUND, Mark Wessels, *Administrator

The USA Church of the Nazarene Loan Fund is a separate revolving fund that has grown from $62,000 in 1955 to $28.6 million in total assets at the end of the 2008 fiscal year. The purpose of the loan fund has remained the same over the years: to provide mortgage loans to qualified new and small Nazarene churches in the USA, especially churches that are unable to obtain financing from a local bank or other lending institution. This quadrennium, UCLF provided 99 churches with mortgage loans totaling over $16.6 million. At the end of the 2008 fiscal year, UCLF had $26.5 million loaned out to 203 churches.

The goal of eliminating General Board Certificates, as a source of funding, was accomplished this quadrennium. In May of 2008 the last certificate was paid off permitting the loan fund to be in compliance with the current laws and regulations involving securities. This is a wonderful accomplishment from both a legal and operational perspective. UCLF is now totally self-funded. It depends on the timely repayment of the participating churches' monthly principal and interest payments in order to make more loans. In addition, a bank line of credit loan was secured to handle cash flow needs if they arise. We expect UCLF to remain financially strong as it continues to provide support to the mission of the church through the granting of mortgage loans for new and small Nazarene churches.

BUILDINGS SUPPORT SERVICES, David Najarian, *Administrative Coordinator

The past four years have been busy and exciting ones for our staff. Below are the key numbers related to the services we provide:

- 9,999 people lodged at the King Conference Center
- 80,038 people fed through the use of the Nazarene Commons
- 19,489 supply requisitions processed
- 586 service calls made
- 8,116 work orders processed
- 318 purchase orders processed

Additionally, our staff was involved in getting the old campus ready to move to the Global Ministry Center.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE FOUNDATION, Melvin McCullough, *President

"There was a boy who had five barley loaves and two fish." The question was "But what are they among so many people?" The generosity of an unknown boy 2,000 years ago was the living illustration Jesus used to teach us that our gifts for God's work will always be multiplied "abundantly above all that we ask or think."

The Church of the Nazarene, through its outstanding mission and infrastructure and hundreds of linked ministries around the world, speaks loudly and clearly that Nazarenes take the Great Commission seriously and actively pursue lives of holiness.

None of this happens without our "loaves and fish"... our financial support. The Church of the Nazarene Foundation (CNF) was established in 2004 as the planned and deferred giving resource of the denomination to supplement regular tithes and offerings with additional ministry dollars.

In simple terms, our church family gives to Christian ministries because of an inner passion to see Christ save and change human lives. With that purpose in mind, I have some positive news in these challenging times:

It was the goal after the 2-year start-up phase to have total cumulative assets of $18,500,000 by 2008. The CNF is the steward of ministry funds for the future that now total $33,322,496.

These cumulative assets include:

- Endowments, which total $2,065,778.
- Charitable Gift Annuities, which enable donors to receive a generous income and tax benefit and then leave a gift to ministry after their death, now total $3,807,712 (including $1,829,012 written on behalf of the General Board)

Church of the Nazarene Foundation Resources Distributed for Ministry

	*Distributions	Estate Distributions	Total Distributions
2004	$ 265,060	$ -	$ 265,060
2005	$ 1,879,120	$ 872,592	$ 2,751,712

Teamwork enhances planned giving.

The effectiveness of the Body of Christ is dependent on every member utilizing their gifts and relationships to accomplish the mission – which in the case of the CNF is the linking of vision and resources with gift planning.

The challenges ahead will be the best of times as our CNF Board of Directors, led by D. Ray Cook, and all church entities partner through websites, publications, newsletters, and brochures to open doors of opportunity.

I am blessed to have a well-equipped staff with loving hearts for people, for Christ, and for the Church of the Nazarene. Their names and titles are as follows:

- Kenneth R. Roney, JD* Executive Vice President
- Harold E. Henderson, CEF* Vice President of Gift Planning
- Daniel Jones* Vice President of Gift Planning
- Robert Crew, CFA, CFP* Director of Legacy Ministries
- Catherine Jay, CPA* Accounting and Human Resource Manager
- Sheila Bird, MBA, MAOA* Office Manager and Donor Relations
- Stephanie Conner* Accounting Assistant

Everyone in our church family can be a partner! Our newsletter, Nazarene Legacy Partners, is mailed to approximately 3,000 Nazarene leaders and donors each quarter. Those who have created an endowment or deferred gift to the many local, district, national, and international ministries connected to the Church of the Nazarene are a part of our Nazarene Legacy Partners (NLP). We honor our NLP members with a commemorative display in the Foundation office in Olathe, Kansas. Visit the Foundation exhibit at the General Assembly in Orlando, Florida to view that list of 737 dedicated partners.

What Legacy Will We Leave?

In recent months we have reflected on the legacy that was left by those who marched around the now famous tent in the dusty Texas soil in a small railhead town of Pilot Point, Texas. As we complete this 101st year of our history, we can't help but ask what impact our legacy will be for our children and our children's children. First and foremost, we must leave the remembrance of a holy, Christlike life, core values based on God's Word, and an unconditional love that reminds our family and friends of Jesus.

The Foundation desires to partner with all of our people who want to consider giving back to the ministries that have made a difference in their lives. Realizing that a significant number of Americans do not have a last will and testament, the Foundation is building a direct link (Legacy Ministry) to local churches through a comprehensive educational effort and assisting people in finding a professional advisor to help them prepare a will or trust which will reflect their hopes and dreams for the Church they love. On the Foundation website at www.nazarenefoundation.org donors will find useful information to help them plan their estate.

GENERAL TREASURER'S SUMMARY

In planning for the future, let us remember Dr. Hardy Powers' address to the 1949 General Board; "we must let God again be part of our resources in all the plans that we make for the future. Count God in! Let's not forget to do it!"

At the writing of this report, the economy of our world is in a state of decline and uncertainty. News headlines seem to indicate that everything is falling apart with no recovery point in site, with the worst yet to come.

Through all of this, we can be assured that God is in control. Let's count Him in. He is able to provide all of our needs. It is a time for greater dependence on Him to give us wisdom. The work of the church has endured hardships in the past, but faithful Nazarenes continued to give. The work of Christ went forward and grew. With God's help, we can do it again.

During this quadrennium I traveled to South Africa, Manila and Guatemala. The people and the work of the church in these countries blessed me. It is a high calling to work together – making Christlike disciples in the nations and taking the good news of salvation to all people.

Our Financial Services ministry team is committed to partner with you in service. We want to facilitate the work of the local church around the world. We want to earn your respect and confidence.

Thank you for your continued support as we work together with you in ministry to the nations.

Respectfully submitted,

Consolidated Financial Statements and Report of Independent Certified Public Accountants

September 30, 2005 and 2004

Accountants and Business Advisors

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT
CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

General Board of the Church of the Nazarene

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statement of financial position of The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as of September 30, 2005, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for, the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the General Board's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. The financial statements of the General Board as of and for the year ended September 30, 2004 were audited by other auditors whose report dated February 8, 2005 expressed an unqualified opinion on those statements.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the General Board's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as of September 30, 2005, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE A - NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

The Church of the Nazarene exists to serve as an instrument for advancing the kingdom of God through the preaching and teaching of the gospel throughout the world. The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board) shall encourage and expect all national, regional, district, and local boards to fulfill the mission of the Church of the Nazarene (the Church). The General Board shall promote the financial and material affairs of all the departments of the Church, subject to such instructions as may be given by the General Assembly. It shall coordinate, correlate, and unify the plans and activities of the several constituent departments so that a unified policy may be established by and in all the activities of the Church.

The objectives of the General Board are to advance the cause of Christian holiness:

- by fostering growth in the Church
- by the production and distribution of print and nonprint media for the various services; to awaken and strengthen interest throughout the Church in the value and proper use of contemporary media resources
- by articulating the philosophy of Christian education, enhancing the role of Sunday School, strengthening other training in the Church, and emphasizing the importance of ministry to home and family as a task of the Church
- throughout the world in accordance with the Great Commission
- by strengthening the bonds between the educational institutions and the Church at large (and to provide information and services as appropriate); to serve Nazarene educational institutions worldwide; and to encourage them to be all they can be in quality, achievement, and service to Christ

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the significant accounting policies consistently applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements follows.

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements present the activities and operations of the General Board, including amounts transferred to the World Mission regions. Also included in the consolidated financial statements are transactions for Church of the Nazarene Foundation and Harvest Partners, Inc. Each of these entities is a 501(c)(3) corporation organized as a 509(a)(3) supporting organization. Individual congregations and related service corporations are not included herein, nor are the activities and operations of the individual World Mission regions included. These financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. All significant interentity balances and transactions have been eliminated.

2. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include only funds and overnight investments held in banks for operating purposes. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of the financial institutions in which deposits are maintained. As of September 30, 2005 and 2004, cash in banks in excess of federally insured limits was approximately $3,976,464 and $3,971,016 in the United States and $370,427 and $247,314 in Canada, respectively.

3. Contributions

Contributions received, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenues when the donor's commitment is received. All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless restricted by the donor for specific purposes outside the general nature of the organization. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes outside the general nature of the organization are reported as temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support which increases those net asset classes. However, if a restriction is generally fulfilled in the same time period in which the contribution is received, the General Board reports the support as unrestricted.

The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

3. Contributions - Continued

The General Board reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets are to be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the General Board reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed into service.

4. Investments

Investments are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices for those or similar investments, with gains and losses, to the extent they accrue to the benefit of the General Board, included in the consolidated statements of activities. Certain investments are held in trust for others or pursuant to deferred gift agreements. Gains and losses associated with such investments are reflected as increases or decreases in the associated liability amounts. Cost approximates fair value for temporary investments.

5. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the depreciable assets (4-50 years).

The General Board periodically reviews long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of carrying amount or fair value, less cost to sell.

6. Deferred Gift/Planned Giving Agreements

The General Board is a party to various deferred gift and planned giving agreements, including gift annuity, unitrusts, life income, and revocable and irrevocable trusts, whereby the General Board receives funds or assets for which it has fiduciary responsibility for the safekeeping, investment management, and distribution of funds to donor-designated beneficiaries.

6. Deferred Gift/Planned Giving Agreements - Continued

The General Board recognizes an asset and a liability for funds or assets received pursuant to revocable and irrevocable deferred gift agreements for which the General Board is not the donor-designated beneficiary. In certain cases, the General Board is the donor-designated beneficiary and recognizes the receipt of funds or assets as temporarily restricted revenues.

Certain of the agreements contain an annuity feature, whereby the General Board will pay a fixed annuity to the donor or donor's beneficiary over specified periods of time. At the inception of the agreement, the General Board recognizes a liability equal to the present value of the expected annuity obligation, at the current discount rate, over the remaining expected life of the annuitant based on established mortality tables. The excess of the value of the funds or assets received over the present value of the annuity obligation is recognized as temporarily restricted net assets of the General Board if the General Board is the designated recipient of the corpus remaining upon the death of the annuitant. The annuity obligation is recalculated on an annual basis to take into consideration changes in the discount period (due to the passage of time) and mortality rates.

7. Income Taxes

The General Board is exempt from federal and state income taxes on its principal operations, although the General Board would be subject to federal income taxes on the net income from certain operations if such operations generated unrelated business income.

8. Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates included in the consolidated financial statements are the valuations of pension and postretirement benefit obligations and deferred gift agreements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

8. Use of Estimates - Continued

The General Board invests in various securities which may include U.S. Government obligations, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

NOTE F - NOTES PAYABLE - USA CHURCH LOAN FUND

Notes payable consist of borrowed funds from individual members, churches, and certain districts of the Church. The funds are used to make loans to small churches for the purpose of acquiring real Church property (see Note D).

The notes payable bear interest rates ranging from 3.30% to 6.25% with terms of one, two, or five years. A decision was made at the 2003 General Board meeting to eliminate General Board notes in anticipation of a self-funded program. All notes are scheduled to mature by June 2008.

Future maturities on the notes payable are as follows:

Year ending September 30,	Amount
2006	$ 1,142,874
2007	1,539,412
2008	801,263

NOTE G - DEFERRED LIABILITIES

1. *Deferred Gift Agreements Outstanding

Deferred gift agreements outstanding represent the liability for various planned giving and revocable trust instruments for which the General Board has fiduciary responsibility for the safekeeping, investment management, and distribution of such funds to donor-designated Church ministries at the termination of such instruments.

2. Other Long-Term Debt on Real Property

Debt in the amount of $1,186,706 and $1,301,731 was outstanding on real property related to the worldwide missionary and Church growth programs as of September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The General Board was the guarantor on $832,171 and $892,330 of this debt, with the remaining $354,535 and $409,401 considered a contingent liability as of September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The General Board believes it has a moral obligation to repay this contingent liability in the event of default to support the two programs, although it is not legally obligated to do so. All of the debt is collateralized by real property, for which management estimates the fair value to approximate $11,000,000 as of September 30, 2005. The debt and related property are excluded from the General Board's financial statements.

NOTE H - FUNDS HELD IN TRUST

Funds held in trust consist of deposits made with the General Board by affiliated organizations for investment purposes and other miscellaneous deposits. Income earned from the investment of these deposits serves to increase the funds held in trust.

NOTE I - NET ASSETS

Temporarily restricted net assets were available for the following purposes or periods as of September 30,

NOTE K - NAZARENE HEALTH AND HOSPITALIZATION PROGRAM

The Nazarene Health and Hospitalization- Program (the NHHP) was established to provide health care benefits. The NHHP includes coverage under two separate plan documents identified as the Missionary Medical Plan (the Missionary Plan) and the General Church Medical Plan (the General Church Plan). The plans are administered by the Board of Pensions on behalf of the General Board.

Not less than one-half of the contributions for participant coverage are paid by the respective employers. All medical and dental benefits of the two plans are self-funded through specific and aggregate reinsurance policies.

The General Board contributed $2,172,292 and $1,819,363 to the Missionary Plan and $2,591,133 and $2,455,559 to the General Church Plan for the years ended September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

The assets of the NHHP are included in separate financial statements.

NOTE L - PENSION AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS

1. World Mission Pension Plan

The General Board maintains a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan covering substantially all missionaries under contract with the General Board. The benefits are based on years of service. The General Board's funding policy is to contribute annually the amount needed to provide not only for benefits for service to date, but also for those expected to be earned in the future. New participation was frozen such that there will be no new entrants after December 31, 1997. For new missionaries under contract after December 31, 1997, retirement benefits are provided by the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

2. Postretirement Benefits

In conjunction with the NHHP, the General Board has plans that provide postretirement health care benefits for certain groups of retired employees. The General Board's postretirement benefit health care plans are not currently funded.

Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

The Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan have been previously merged to form the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan (the Single Benefit Plan), and no new entrants were admitted into the plan after December 31, 1995. Participants in the plan have been grandfathered in so that no one having years of service under the predecessor plans will receive less under the Single Benefit Plan than what would have been paid under the predecessor plans had they continued unchanged. The Single Benefit Plan is a multiemployer plan that provides retirement benefits at age 65 to qualified full-time employees, pastors, evangelists, and district-licensed laypersons serving organized churches. The Single Benefit Plan is a defined benefit plan and is administered by the Board of Pensions on behalf of the General Board. The assets are held in trust by the Board of Pensions and separate financial statements are prepared for the Single Benefit Plan. No contributions were made by the employers to the Single Benefit Plan for the years ended September 30, 2005 or 2004.

Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

The Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan [the 403(b) Plan] was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as for general church employees. The annual pension supplement amount contributed from the Pensions and Benefits Fund receipts or agency funds is determined annually by the Board of Pension. Ministerial employees may receive a bonus if their local church or district pays 100% of their allocated Pensions and Benefits Fund. The bonus amount is determined annually by the Board of Pensions.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

NOTE L - PENSION AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS - Continued

For each of the years ended September 30, 2005 and 2004, the annual pension supplement amount was $500 per participant and the bonus amount was $500. Local church/agency employers are encouraged to establish policies to match amounts of voluntary salary reduction contributions up to at least a percentage [as determined by the 403(b) Plan Administrator] of salary.

The total cost of contributions made to the plan through the Pensions and Benefits Fund was $4,211,819 and $5,685,831 for the years ended September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The cash value of all participant accounts was $237,974,250 and $203,574,930 as of September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

NOTE M - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Included in revenue are amounts totaling $1,749,951 and $1,973,532 for the years ended September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively, received from the Nazarene Publishing House (NPH), an affiliated organization, for certain editorial services provided by the General Board. The General Board also owed NPH approximately $61,362 and $67,369 as of September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Certain affiliated organizations deposit excess funds with the General Board for investment purposes. As of September 30, 2005 and 2004, total funds held in trust totaled $28,735,550 and $22,699,626, respectively. See Note H.

NOTE N - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The General Board is a party to various legal actions arising in the ordinary course of its operations. In management's opinion, the General Board has adequate legal defenses and/or insurance coverage respecting each of these actions and does not believe that they will materially affect the General Board's financial position, changes in net assets, or cash flows.

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE 0 - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments which potentially subject the General Board to significant concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of church mortgages and loans and related notes payable.

Church Mortgages and Loans - USA Church Loan Fund

The General Board extends credit for real estate mortgage loans to individual churches. The General Board evaluates creditworthiness on a loan-by-loan basis and generally requires collateral in the form of mortgages on the related property and guarantees by the applicable regional District Advisory Board. The loans are expected to be repaid from operations and/or contributions to borrowers. The General Board also controls credit risk through regular evaluations and monitoring procedures.

Notes Payable - USA Church Loan Fund

The General Board accepted deposits from individual members, churches, and certain districts of the Church. The deposits are in the form of notes payable with various interest rates and maturity terms for the purpose of funding mortgage loans. The General Board controlled risk by accepting deposits with interest and repayment terms that can be met from cash flows generated by mortgage loans with similar interest rates and maturities. A decision was made at the 2003 General Board meeting to eliminate the General Board notes in anticipation of a self-funded loan program.

NOTE P - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 107, Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments, the fair value of each class of financial instruments is being disclosed. Fair value is the estimated amount at which financial assets, or liabilities could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. Because no market exists for certain of these financial instruments, the fair values of certain of these instruments have been calculated by discounting expected cash flows, which involves the significant exercise of judgment by management.

NOTE P - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS - Continued

Investments

The fair values of investments are based on quoted market prices for those or similar securities and amounted to $120,372,242 and $99,696,772 as of September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Church Mortgages and Loans - USA Church Loan Fund

The fair values for church mortgages and loans receivable are estimated by discounting the expected future cash flows using the current rates at which similar loans would be made by the General Board to borrowers with similar credit ratings and for the same remaining maturities. Loans with similar maturities are aggregated for purposes of the calculations. The fair value of church mortgages and loans receivable approximated $21,206,543 and $19,24,202 as of September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Notes Payable - USA Church Loan Fund

The carrying amounts of the notes payable approximate their fair values due to the short maturities and variable interest rates on the notes payable.

Funds Held in Trust

The carrying amount of funds held in trust approximates fair value because investment income (both realized and unrealized) is credited to such funds as earned and because such funds can be withdrawn on a demand basis.

NOTE Q - FUNCTIONAL EXPENSES

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the consolidated statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the corresponding program and support services. Fund-raising costs approximated $2,646,000 and $3,000,000 for the years ended September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE R - OPERATING LEASES

The General Board leases office space under a noncancelable operating lease that expires January 2010. The General Board also leases office equipment under noncancelable operating leases with maturity dates ranging from May 2006 to August 2010.

Minimum lease commitments are as follows:

Year ending September 30,	Amount
2006	$ 141,566
2007	72,541
2008	68,036
2009	64,127
2010	34,340
	$ 380,610

Total lease expense was $127,071 for 2005 and $88,657 for 2004.

We were engaged to audit the financial statements of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan as of September 30, 2005, and for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Other auditors were engaged to audit the financial statements of the Plan for the year ended September 30, 2004. Those auditors expressed a disclaimed opinion on those financial statements in their report dated February 8, 2005

The plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note E, which was set forth in trustee statements provided to the plan administrator by Fidelity Management Trust Company, the custodian of the Plan, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the 2005 financial statements. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the custodian holds the Plan's assets and executes investment transactions.

Because of the significance of the information in the Plan's 2005 financial statements that we did not audit, we are unable to, and do not, express an opinion on the accompanying financial statements and schedules taken as a whole. The form and content of the information included in the financial statements and schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustee, have been audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance on the basis of accounting described in Note B.

As described in Note B, these financial statements were prepared on a modified cash basis, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Retirement Savings Plan

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board) 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

1. General

The Plan is for the benefit of all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as general church employees. The Plan is a defined contribution plan, established under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). Lay or ministerial employees of Nazarene churches or church-controlled agencies and registered Nazarene chaplains may participate in the Plan. Nazarene churches or church-controlled agencies include the General Board, the Nazarene Publishing House, Church of the Nazarene Foundation, Nazarene Theological Seminary, Nazarene Bible College, Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, Inc., or the subsidiaries of these entities, including Nazarene-affiliated colleges or universities. The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA serves as the Administrator and trustee (the Administrator and/or the Trustee) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). Fidelity Management Trust Company serves as the custodian of the Plan.

2. Contributions

Contributions are made through either an employer-funded arrangement or a voluntary salary-reduction agreement with each participant's employer. Voluntary salary-reduction contributions cannot exceed annual IRC limitations on an annual basis. Employers participating in the Plan are encouraged to match at least up to, but not limited to 3% of the employee's voluntary salary-reduction contribution amount.

September 30, 2005 and 2004

3. Contributions for Ministerial Employees

The annual contributions are determined annually by the Administrator. The annual pension supplement (APS) contribution is deposited into individual accounts for each eligible U.S. clergy and layperson from the pensions and benefits fund (the Fund) receipts or agency funds, depending upon the participant's employer. An additional bonus amount is deposited for eligible participants whose local congregation pays 100% of their Fund amount or whose district pays 100% of their Fund amounts. The APS contribution for 2005 and 2004 was $500, with an additional bonus amount of $500 paid to eligible participants.

4. Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's and participating employer's contributions, as applicable, and allocations of (a) pensions and benefits fund or agency fund contributions and (b) Plan earnings. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's account.

5. Vesting and Forfeitures

Participants are immediately vested in all contributions, plus actual earnings thereon.

6. Investment Options

Upon enrollment in the Plan, a participant may direct contributions to any of the following investment options.

7. Loans to Participants

Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000, up to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their account balance. Loan terms range from 1 to 5 years. The loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at prime plus 1%. Principal and interest are paid ratably through monthly or quarterly installments.

8. Administrative Expenses

The pensions and benefits fund pays plan level administrative expenses, which amounted to approximately $251,000 and $248,400 for the years ended September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting. Under this basis, interest, dividends, and contributions are recognized when collected rather than when earned, and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred. Investments are reported at fair value or contract value. Consequently, contributions receivable and accrued interest and dividend receivables are not included in the financial statements.

2. Valuation of Investments

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value, except for its investment contract with Fidelity, which is stated at contract value (Note C), based on quoted prices with gains and losses included in the statement of activities. Separate account investments are Valued based on the net asset value of the underlying shares of the mutual funds held in the accounts. Loans to participants are recorded at cost, which approximates fair value.

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - Continued

3. Investment Risks

The Plan invests in mutual funds, which hold various securities that may include U.S. Government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

4. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

NOTE C - INVESTMENT CONTRACT WITH FIDELITY

The Plan follows the provisions of Statement of Position 94-4, Reporting of Investment Contracts Held by Health and Welfare Benefit Plans and Defined Contribution Pension Plans (SOP 94-4). SOP 94-4 requires a defined contribution plan to report investment contracts at fair value unless such contract is fully benefit-responsive. The contract for this Plan has been deemed to be fully benefit-responsive according to the provisions of SOP 94-4. As such, the contract is presented at contract value on the statement of net assets available for benefits. The fair value of the contract was approximately $102,296,298 and $115,511,000 at September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The average yield for the years ended September 30, 2005 and 2004 was 3.96% and 4.28%, respectively. The crediting interest rate as of September 30, 2005 and 2004 was 3.84% and 4.10%, respectively. The crediting interest rate is reset each quarter.

NOTE D - TAX STATUS

The Plan is not subject to Federal and state income taxes since the Plan's administrator believes that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC under Section 403(b).

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene
Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits and accumulated plan benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan as of September 30, 2005, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and accumulated plan benefits for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. The financial statements of the Plans as of and for the year ended September 30, 2004 were audited by other auditors. Those auditors expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements in their report dated February 8, 2005.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits and accumulated plan benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan as of September 30, 2005, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

1. General

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan (the Plan), established in 1996, combined the assets while retaining the benefit formulas of the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan (collectively, the Predecessor Plans), which were both multiemployer plans. The Plan is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Plan is a qualified church plan which has not elected to be governed by the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and is not subject to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation insurance coverage.

New participation was frozen such that there were no new entrants into either of the Predecessor Plans. Participants in those plans have been grandfathered in so that no one having years of service under those plans will receive less under the Plan than what would have been paid under the Predecessor Plans had they continued unchanged.

Also, effective January 1, 1996, the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan [the 403(b) Plan, previously known as the Single Defined Contribution or TSA Plan] was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as general church employees.

The following brief description of the Plan is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to their respective Plan documents for more complete information.

Prior Basic Pension Plan participants

The Basic Pension Plan (the Basic Plan) was a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan. The Basic Plan provided retirement benefits at age 65 to full-time pastors, evangelists, and district-credentialed layperson serving organized churches in the U.S. and Canadian districts participating in the Pensions and Benefits Fund. The Basic Plan was funded by contributions from participating local churches with no employee contributions.

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN - Continued

1. General - Continued

Basic Plan participants are entitled to pension benefits beginning at normal retirement age (65) or later after 10 or more years of vesting service in a monthly amount equal to a pension for each year of pension service (to a maximum of 50), including continued accrual of service credits after December 31, 1995 of $10.75 increased by .5% for each year of service in excess of 10 (up to 40 excess years). Effective January 1, 2005, the monthly Pension was increase by $0.25, from $10.75 to $11.00, for those participants receiving benefit payments as of January 1, 2005, and those commencing receipt of pension benefit payments prior to January 1, 2006.

The Basic Plan permits early retirement at ages 62 through 64. If employees terminate before rendering 10 years of service, they forfeit the right to receive the value of their accumulated plan benefits. Upon retirement, participants may elect to receive the value of their accumulated plan benefits as a life annuity with a 50% survivor benefit, or a reduced life annuity with a 100% survivor benefit.

If an active employee dies after rendering 10 or more years of service, a death benefit equal to 60% of the value of the employee's accumulated plan benefits is paid to the employee's beneficiary. Active employees who become totally disabled after rendering five or more years of service receive annual disability benefits based on years of service to the date of disability, plus a half-year of service credit for each year from the disability date to the retirement date.

Prior General Church Pension Plan Participants

The General Church Pension Plan (the General Church Plan) was a contributory defined benefit pension plan that provided retirement benefits to participating full-time employees of the General Board (excluding missionaries), Nazarene Theological Seminary, and Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, Inc.

Prior General Church Pension Plan Participants - Continued

General Church Plan participants are entitled to pension benefits beginning at normal retirement age (65) equal to (a) minus (b), where (a) is the higher of (1) the monthly pension provided by the amount in the participant's account under the 403(b) Plan derived from contributions from the Pensions and Benefits Fund on or after January 1, 1996, plus earnings thereon accruing on or after January 1, 1996 or (2) a monthly pension equal to 2% of average monthly pay multiplied by years of credited service under the Plan; and (b) is the monthly pension provided in (1) above [the 403(b) offset].

Prior General Church Pension Plan Participants

The General Church Plan permits early retirement at ages 60 through 64. Employees may elect to receive their pension benefits in the form of a life and survivor annuity. If employees terminate before rendering seven years of service, they forfeit the right to receive a portion of their accumulated plan benefits attributable to the participating employer's contributions, which are 20% vested after three years of service and increase in 20% increments for each year thereafter, for a total of 100%.

If an active employee dies prior to his or her retirement date, a death benefit equal to the value of the employee's accumulated plan benefits is paid to the employee's beneficiary.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - Continued

2. Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices. The Plan's investment contract with Principal Life Insurance Company (Principal) is valued at estimated fair value by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable duration.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

3. Payment of Benefits

Benefits to participants are recorded when paid.

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits

Accumulated plan benefits are those future periodic payments, including lump-sum distributions that are attributable under the respective Predecessor Plans' provisions for the service employees have rendered. Accumulated plan benefits include benefits expected to be paid to the following: (a) retired or terminated employees or their beneficiaries, (b) beneficiaries of employees who have died, and (c) present employees or their beneficiaries. Benefits payable under all circumstances such as retirement, death, and termination of employment are included, to the extent they are deemed attributable to employee service rendered to the valuation date. Benefits to be provided via annuity contracts excluded from Plan assets are excluded from accumulated plan benefits.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits - Continued

The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits for the Plan is determined by actuaries from Watson Wyatt and is that amount which results from applying actuarial assumptions to adjust the accumulated plan benefits to reflect the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as for death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment. The significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations as of October 1, 2005 and 2004 were: (a) life expectancy of participants (based on the 1994 Group Annuity Mortality Table in 2005 and the 1971 Individual Annuity Mortality Table and 1983 Group Annuity Mortality Table in 2004), (b) retirement age assumptions (the assumed average retirement age was 65), and (c) investment return. The valuations from the actuary assumed an average rate of return of 7%, a discount rate of 7% for 2005 and 2004, respectively, and an assumed salary increase of 3% for both 2005 and 2004 (General Church Plan only). The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. Were the Plan to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits.

5. Administrative Expenses

Certain directly related administrative, accounting, legal, and actuarial expenses are allocated to the Plan by the Administrator. All other expenses are borne by the Pensions and Benefits Fund

6. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

7. Investment Risks

The Plan invests in a Pension Trust Investment Pool that holds various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, mutual funds, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

NOTE C - FUNDING POLICY

1. Basic Pension Plan

The allocation of the total Pensions and Benefits Fund contributions received from local churches in 2005 and 2004, including net amounts contributed to the Pensions and Benefits Fund and the 403(b) Plan was as follows. Separate financial statements are provided for the Pensions and Benefits Fund and the 403(b) Plan.

2. General Church Pension Plan

As a condition of participation, employees are required to contribute 3% of their salary to the General Church Plan. Employees are immediately 100% vested in their contributions, plus interest credited thereon. For the Plan calendar year beginning January 1, 1997, no annual contributions were required from the participating employers to support the present benefit levels under the General Church Plan's actuarial cost method. Beginning in 2003 an amount was deposited with Principal Financial Group, which distributes benefit payments, in an amount sufficient to maintain the asset level above the benefit floor rider minimum.

3. Combined Plan

The participating employers' funding policy is to make annual contributions to the Plan in amounts such that all participants' benefits will be fully provided for by the time they retire. For the Plan calendar years beginning January 1, 2005 and 2004, the net annual contributions required from the participating employers to support the present benefit level's under the Plan's actuarial cost method totaled $5,000,000 for each year based on asset. at market value.

The following table presents the Plan's unfunded liability as of September 30,

NOTE D - INVESTMENTS

The funds of the Plan and the World Mission Pension Plans are combined for collective investment purposes (the Pension Trust Investment Pool). Separate accounting records are maintained for each plan in order to properly reflect each participant's accumulated benefits. The net investment income from the Pension Trust Investment Pool is allocated on a pro rata basis between the Plans. The allocation of securities held in the Pension Trust Investment Pool is based on a percentage of total fair value.

NOTE E - CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE COMPANY

The Administrator has entered into a flexible pension investment (FPI) contract with Principal. The contract provides that Principal will create a benefit floor within the unallocated General Investment Fund to guarantee benefit payments. The floor equals the present value of benefits to be paid based on FPI purchase rates. As long as the General Investment Fund is greater than the floor, benefits are charged directly to the General Investment Fund. However, if the General Investment Fund falls below the floor amount, guaranteed annuities will be purchased.

Principal maintains the contributions in an unallocated fund to which it adds the earnings of the underlying investments and subtracts benefit payments and administrative expenses. The FPI contract is included in the net assets of the Plan as part of the Pension Trust Investment Pool at fair value as determined by Principal.

NOTE F - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE G - PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of the Plan document and the Merger Agreement. Should the Plan terminate at some future time, a particular participant's accumulated plan benefits will be dependent on the priority of those benefits at that time as set forth in the Plan document and the Merger Agreement.

NOTE H - INCOME TAX STATUS

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Administrator by a letter that the Basic Pension Plan, the General Church Pension Plan, and the related trusts were designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). There have been amendments since receiving those determination letters; however, the Administrator believes that the Plan, which encompasses both the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan, is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PENSIONS AND BENEFITS FUND

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) provides various benevolence, retirement, and insurance programs to Nazarene ministers, their spouses, and surviving family members. All of the programs are self-funded through contributions made by the local churches. The Fund is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Fund provides administrative services and certain specific funding amounts as determined by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA to the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan and the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

Benevolence programs - The Fund provides benevolence programs, including emergency medical assistance, temporary monthly disability assistance, administrative benefit adjustment, and funeral assistance. These programs provide various kinds of benevolence assistance payments to ministers, their spouses, and surviving family members upon the recommendation of their district advisory boards. A more comprehensive description of the Fund's benevolence programs is contained in the Benefits Summary Brochure.

Pastors Life Insurance Plan - The Pastors Life Insurance Plan is a group term life insurance plan for district-licensed and ordained clergy or district-credentialed laypersons who are currently serving in U.S. districts in qualified assignments and who have not begun receiving retirement benefits.

Pensioners Death Benefit Plan - The Pensioners Death Benefit Plan provides death benefits to district-licensed and ordained ministers who are currently receiving a monthly benefit from the Basic Pension Plan portion of the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan based on years of service or, alternatively, who are vested Plan participants aged 70 1/2 or older and who have not chosen to begin receiving a monthly retirement benefit.

Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan - Effective January 1, 1996, the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan were merged to form the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan (the Single Benefit Plan). After January 1, 1996, there were no new entrants in the Basic Pension Plan or the General Church Pension Plan. Participants in both plans were grandfathered in so that no one who had been credited with years of service under the predecessor plans would receive less under the Single Defined Benefit Plan than what would have been paid under the former defined benefit plans had membership in those plans continued unchanged.

403(b) Retirement Savings Plan - Effective January 1, 1996, the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan (the 403(b) Plan) was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as for general church employees. In prior years, a percentage (as determined by the Administrator) of the average pastor's cash salary reported for all US Nazarene pastors was contributed to the 403(b) Plan for all active eligible participants from Fund receipts or agency funds, depending on the participant's employer. This amount was increased by a 10% bonus amount for ministers or districts paying 100% of their Fund apportionment. Effective January 1, 2002, the 403(b) Plan was amended such that these contributions were no longer linked to the average pastor's cash salary, and the bonus amount is no longer calculated as 10% of the base amount. The amounts are now determined annually by the Administrator. The annual pension supplement (APS) contribution is deposited into individual accounts for each eligible U.S. clergy member and layperson from Fund receipts or agency funds, depending upon the participant's employer. An additional bonus amount is deposited for eligible participants whose local congregation pays 100% of their Fund amount or whose district pays 100% of their Fund amount. The APS amount for 2005 and 2004 was $500, with an additional $500 bonus amount paid to eligible participants.

Employees may elect to participate in the 403 (b) Plan through salary-reduction contributions. Employers make matching contributions to their respective participating employees' accounts. Local church/agency employers are encouraged to establish policies to match amounts of voluntary salary reduction contributions up to at least 3% of salary. Contributions are made directly to Fidelity Investments. The cash value of all participant accounts that were not included in the Fund was $236,290,570 and $206,325,231 as of September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Revenue Recognition

3. Equipment

Equipment is carried at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method and is provided in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives, which range from four to eight years.

4. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

5. Life Insurance Dividends

Life insurance dividends are recognized as revenue of the Fund to offset the expense of providing the life insurance plans.

6. Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLANS

The following brief description of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans, consisting of the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan and the World Mission Pension Plan (collectively, the Plans) is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan documents for more complete information.

New participation was frozen such that there were no new entrants after December 31, 1997. For new missionaries under contract after December 31, 1997, retirement benefits are provided by the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

1. General

The Plans are noncontributory defined benefit pension plans administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Plans provide retirement benefits at age 65 to missionaries under contract with the General Board. The Plans are church plans that have not elected to be governed by the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and are not subject to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation insurance coverage.

The World Mission Pension Plan "the qualified plan" integrates its benefit formula with that of the total pension benefit provided by the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan. All benefits under the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan are offset by any benefits that can be paid under the World Mission Pension Plan (qualified plan).

2. Pension Benefits - World Mission Pension Plan

Missionaries with 10 or more years of service are entitled to pension benefits beginning at the normal retirement age of 65. The pension benefits are calculated at an amount equal to the greater of (a) and (b) minus (c), where (a) is the sum of (1) $2.50 per month for each year of service (to a maximum of 50 years) plus (2) $100 per month for participants with 25 or more years of service, or $75 per month for participants with 20, but less than 25, years of service; and (b) is $4.875 per month (previously $4.50 per month) for each year of service with a bonus of .5% for each year of service in excess of 10; and (c) is the pension provided by the amount in the participant's 403(b) plan derived from deposits equal to an amount determined each Plan year by the Plan's Trustee.

the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLANS - Continued

2. Pension Benefits - World Mission Qualified Pension Plan - Continued

Effective January 1, 2005, pension benefits shall be the greater of (1) the pension payable as described above or (2) $5 per month for each year of service, with a bonus of one-half of one percent for each year of service greater than 10. For purposes of determining the bonus amount, and only for such purpose, years of service credited under the Church of the Nazarene's Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan's grandfathered Basic Pension Plan provisions shall be included in the calculation of Years of Service under this plan.

3. World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan

Missionaries with 10 or more years of service are entitled to pension benefits beginning at the normal retirement age of 65. The pension benefits are calculated at an amount equal to the greater of (a) and (b) minus (c), where (a) is the sum of (1) $5 per month for each year of service (to a maximum of 50 years) for married or unmarried (single) participants plus (2) $200 per month for married participants and $140 per month for single participants, widows, or widowers with 25 or more years of missionary service, or $150 or $100, per month, respectively, with 20, but less than 25, years of missionary service or $0 with less than 20 years of missionary service; (b) is $9.75 per month for each year of service with a bonus of .5% for each year of service in excess of 10; (c) is the pension provided by the amount in the participant's 403(b) plan derived from deposits equal to an amount determined each Plan year by the Plan's Trustee. This pension plan is also reduced by the extent of any payments made under the World Mission Pension Plan.

Effective January 1, 2005, pension benefits shall be the greater of (1) the pension payable as described above or (2) $10 per month for each year of service with a bonus of one-half of one percent for each year of service greater than 10. For purposes of determining the bonus amount, and only for such purposes, all years of service credited under this plan and under the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan grandfathered Basic Pension Plan provisions will be included.

4. Disability Benefits

Active missionaries with five or more years of service who become totally disabled receive annual disability benefits based on years of service to the date of disability, an additional year of service credit for each two years between the date of disability and the normal retirement date.

Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices. The Plans' investment contract with Principal Life Insurance Company (Principal) is valued at estimated fair value by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable durations.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

3. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits

Accumulated plan benefits are those future periodic payments that are attributable under the Plans' provisions to the service employees have rendered. Accumulated plan benefits include benefits expected to be paid to the following: (a) retired or terminated employees or their beneficiaries; (b) beneficiaries of employees who have died; or (c) current employees or their beneficiaries. Benefits payable under all circumstances (retirement, death, disability, or termination of employment) are included to the extent they are deemed attributable to employee service rendered to the valuation date.

CONTINUED

September 30, 2005 and 2004

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits - Continued

The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits is determined by actuaries from Watson Wyatt and is that amount which results from applying actuarial assumptions to adjust the accumulated plan benefits to reflect the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment. The significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations as of September 30, 2005 and 2004 were: (a) life expectancy of participants (based on the 1994 Group Annuity Mortality Table and 1971 Individual Annuity Mortality Table, respectively); (b) retirement age assumptions (the assumed retirement age ranges from 65 to 70); and (c) investment return. The valuations from the actuary assumed an average rate of return of 7%, compounded annually, and a discount rate of 7% in 2005 and in 2004. The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plans will continue. Were the Plans to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits.

5. Administrative Expenses

Certain directly related administrative, accounting, legal, and actuarial expenses are allocated to the Plans by the Administrator. All other expenses are borne by the Pensions and Benefits Fund.

6. Investment Risks

The Plans invest in a Pension Trust Investment Pool that holds various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain, investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the value of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amount reported in the financial statements.

Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE C - FUNDING POLICY

The General Board's funding policy is to make annual contributions to the Plans in amounts such that all participants' benefits will be fully provided for by the time they retire. For the Plans' calendar years beginning January 1, 2005 and 2004, the net annual contributions required from the General Board to support the present benefit levels under the Plans' actuarial cost method ranged from $456,450 to $749,617 in 2005 and $393,234 to $607,656 in 2004.

Net assets available for benefits	$ 6,323,775	$ 6,067,726
Actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits	(10,735,653)	(10,211,725)
Funded status	$ (4,411,878)	$ (4,143,999)

NOTE D - INVESTMENTS

The funds of the Plans and the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan are combined for collective investment purposes (the Pension Trust Investment Pool). Separate accounting records are maintained for each plan in order to properly reflect each participant's accumulated plan benefits. The net investment income from the Pension Trust Investment Pool is allocated on a pro rata basis between the Plans. The allocation of securities held in the Pension Trust Investment Pool is based on a percentage of total fair value.

During 2005 and 2004, the Plans' investments, including gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held, during the year appreciated in value of $583,816 and $298,480, respectively, as follows:

Net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value
Investments, at fair value as determined by quoted market prices	$ 592,833	$ 300,529
Investments, at estimated fair value	(9,017)	(2,049)

NOTE E - CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE COMPANY

The Administrator entered into a flexible pension investment (FPI) contract with Principal. Principal maintains the contributions in an unallocated fund to which it adds the earnings of the underlying investments and subtracts benefit payments and administrative expenses. As part of the Pension Trust Investment Pool, the FPI contract is included in the net assets of the Plans at fair value as determined by Principal.

NOTE F - CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE G - PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plans subject to the provisions of the Plan documents. Should the Plans terminate at some future time, a particular participant's accumulated plan benefits will be dependent on the priority of those benefits at that time, as set forth in the Plan documents.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE H - TAX STATUS

The Administrator has received a letter from the Internal Revenue Service dated September 4, 2002, which states that the World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan) and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). The World Mission Pension Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter; however, the Administrator believes that both of the Plans are designed and are currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the RC.

Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAM

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program (the Program) administers medical, dental, and vision benefits under two separate Plan documents identified as the General Church Medical Plan and the Missionary Medical Plan (collectively, the Plans). The Program is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). These financial statements present the fiduciary activities of the Program's Administrator and do not purport to present the financial status of the Plans. These statements do not contain certain information on benefit obligations and other disclosures necessary for a fair presentation of the financial status of the Plans in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Benefits

The Program administers the provision of medical, dental, and vision benefits to full-time employees (working at least 30 hours per week) of the General Board and related employers and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents (the General Church Medical Plan) and to missionaries under contract with the General Board and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents (the Missionary Medical Plan). Medical and dental benefits in excess of Medicare coverage may also be extended to retired participants and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents pursuant to the provisions of each Plan's document and/or the policies of the participating employers.

The medical, dental, and vision benefits are similar under both Plans, which pay a major portion of medical, dental, and vision expense after the satisfaction of a calendar-year deductible.

Medical and vision claims of active and retired participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed by Principal Life Insurance Company. Dental claims of active and retired participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed by Delta Dental Company. The responsibility for administration of payments to participants and providers is retained by the Administrator.

Participants should refer to the Plan documents for a complete description of the Plans' provisions.

of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

2. Contributions

Not less than one-half of the contributions for participant coverage are paid by General Board-related employers. The Program is self-funded with specific and aggregate reinsurance limits.

3. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right under the Plans to modify the benefits provided to active participants, to discontinue contributions at any time, and to terminate the Plans subject to the Plans' provisions.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Marketable Securities

Marketable securities are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices for those or similar securities, with realized and unrealized gains and losses reflected in the statements of activities.

3. Claims Incurred But Not Reported

Other obligations for current benefit coverage at September 30, 2005 and 2004, include IBNR amounts, which represent estimated medical and dental costs for services performed in the Plan year that have not yet been submitted for payment by Plan participants. The IBNR amounts are estimated based on historical lag factors between date of service and date of payment.

4. Administrative Expenses

Directly related administrative and other expenses of the Administrator are allocated to the Program.

Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2005 and 2004

5. Investment Risks

The Program invests in funds that hold various securities which may include U.S. Government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

6. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE C - CONCENTRATION OF RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE D - INCOME TAX STATUS

The Program is exempt from federal and state income taxes since it is an entity organized under the General Board, which holds a group exemption. The Administrator has not obtained a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service for the Plans. However, the Administrator believes the Plans are designed and are currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2005 and 2004

NOTE E - MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Program's marketable securities consist of equity securities maintained in a pooled investment fund (PIF) administered by the General Board. At September 30, 2005 and 2004, equity securities were reported at a fair value of $2,195,154 and $2,170,954, respectively. Equity securities had a cost basis of $2,118,229 and $2,201,070 at September 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. Investment income for the years ended September 30, 2005 and 2004 consisted of $92,009 and $1,341 of allocated income from the PIF and $13,219 and $116,481 of unrealized gains, respectively. Income is allocated from the PIF to reflect the Program's share of realized gains and losses, interest, and dividend income computed on a monthly basis.

General Board of the Church of the Nazarene

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position of The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the General Board's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the General Board's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE A - NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

The Church of the Nazarene exists to serve as an instrument for advancing the kingdom of God through the preaching and teaching of the gospel throughout the world. The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board) shall encourage and expect all national, regional, district, and local boards to fulfill the mission of the Church of the Nazarene (the Church). The General Board shall promote the financial and material affairs of all the departments of the Church, subject to such instructions as may be given by the General Assembly. It shall coordinate, correlate, and unify the plans and activities of the several constituent departments so that a unified policy may be established by and in all the activities of the Church.

The objectives of the General Board are to advance the cause of Christian holiness:

- by fostering growth in the Church
- by the production and distribution of print and nonprint media for the various services; to awaken and strengthen interest throughout the Church in the value and proper use of contemporary media resources
- by articulating the philosophy of Christian education, enhancing the role of Sunday School, strengthening other training in the Church, and emphasizing the importance of ministry to home and family as a task of the Church throughout the world in accordance with the Great Commission
- by strengthening the bonds between the educational institutions and the Church at large (and to provide information and services as appropriate); to serve Nazarene educational institutions worldwide; and to encourage them to be all they can be in quality, achievement, and service to Christ

Church of the Nazarene

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the significant accounting policies consistently applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements follows.

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements present the activities and operations of the General Board, including amounts transferred to the World Mission regions. Also included in the consolidated financial statements are transactions for Church of the Nazarene Foundation and Harvest Partners, Inc. Each of these entities is a 501(c)(3) corporation organized as a 509(a)(3) supporting organization. Individual congregations and related service corporations are not included herein, nor are the activities and operations of the individual World Mission regions included. These financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. All significant interentity balances and transactions have been eliminated.

2. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include only funds and overnight investments held in banks for operating purposes. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of the financial institutions in which deposits are maintained. As of September 30, 2006 and 2005, cash in banks in excess of federally insured limits was approximately $905,341 and $3,976,464 in the United States and $803,371 and $370,427 in Canada, respectively.

3. Contributions

Contributions received, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenues when the donor's commitment is received. All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless restricted by the donor for specific purposes outside the general nature of the organization. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes outside the general nature of the organization are reported as temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support which increases those net asset classes. However, if a restriction is generally fulfilled in the same time period in which the contribution is received, the General Board reports the support as unrestricted.

Church of the Nazarene

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

3. Contributions - Continued

The General Board reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets are to be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the General Board reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed into service.

4. Investments

Investments are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices for those or similar investments, with gains and losses, to the extent they accrue to the benefit of the General Board, included in the consolidated statements of activities. Certain investments are held in trust for others or pursuant to deferred gift agreements. Gains and losses associated with such investments are reflected as increases or decreases in the associated liability amounts. Cost approximates fair value for temporary investments.

5. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the depreciable assets. Estimated useful lives of property and equipment are as follows:

Buildings	10-50years
Equipment	4-8 years

The General Board periodically reviews long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of carrying amount or fair value, less cost to sell.

Church of the Nazarene

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

6. Deferred Gift/Planned Giving Agreements

The General Board is a party to various deferred gift and planned giving agreements, including gift annuities, unitrusts, and revocable and irrevocable trusts, whereby the General Board receives funds or assets for which it has fiduciary responsibility for the safekeeping, investment management, and distribution of funds to donor-designated beneficiaries.

The General Board recognizes an asset and a liability for funds or assets received pursuant to revocable and irrevocable deferred gift agreements for which the General Board is not the donor-designated beneficiary. In certain cases, the General Board is the donor-designated beneficiary and recognizes the receipt of funds or assets as temporarily restricted revenues.

Certain of the agreements contain an annuity feature, whereby the General Board will pay a fixed annuity to the donor or donor's beneficiary over specified periods of time. At the inception of the agreement, the General Board recognizes a liability equal to the present value of the expected annuity obligation, at the current discount rate, over the remaining expected life of the annuitant based on established mortality tables. The excess of the value of the funds or assets received over the present value of the annuity obligation is recognized as temporarily restricted net assets of the General Board if the General Board is the designated recipient of the corpus remaining upon the death of the annuitant. The annuity obligation is recalculated on an annual basis to take into consideration changes in the discount period (due to the passage of time) and mortality rates.

7. Income Taxes

The General Board is exempt from federal and state income taxes on its principal operations, although the General Board would be subject to federal income taxes on the net income from certain operations if such operations generated unrelated business income.

Church of the Nazarene

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

8. Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates included in the consolidated financial statements are the valuations of pension and postretirement benefit obligations and deferred gift agreements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The General Board invests in various securities which may include U.S. government obligations, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

9. Reclassifications

During 2006, the General Board reevaluated the nature of certain contributions it held in net assets to verify they were recorded in compliance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 136 (SFAS 136), Transfers of Net Assets to a Not-for-Profit Organization or Charitable Trust that Raises or Holds Contributions for Others. It was determined that these contributions should have been classified as a liability. Therefore, the General Board reduced the beginning net assets for 2005 and increased deferred gift agreements by $1,011,893. During 2006, temporarily restricted net assets were reduced by $231,586, and permanently restricted net assets were reduced by $114,203.

NOTE M - PENSION AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS

1. World Mission Pension Plan

The General Board maintains a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan covering substantially all missionaries under contract with the General Board. The benefits are based on years of service. The General Board's funding policy is to contribute annually the amount needed to provide not only for benefits for service to date, but also for those expected to be earned in the future. New participation was frozen such that there were no new entrants after December 31, 1997. For new missionaries under contract after December 31, 1997, retirement benefits are provided by the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

2. Postretirement Benefits

In conjunction with the NHHP, the General Board has plans that provide postretirement health care benefits for certain groups of retired employees. The General Board's postretirement benefit health care plans are not currently funded.

Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

The Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan have been merged to form the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan (the Single Benefit Plan), and no new entrants were admitted into the plan after December 31, 1995. Participants in the plan have been grandfathered in so that no one having years of service under the predecessor plans will receive less under the Single Benefit Plan than what would have been paid under the predecessor plans had they continued unchanged. The Single Benefit Plan is a multiemployer plan that provides retirement benefits at age 65 to qualified full-time employees, pastors, evangelists, and district-licensed laypersons serving organized churches. The Single Benefit Plan is a defined benefit plan and is administered by the Board of Pensions on behalf of the General Board. The assets are held in trust by the Board of Pensions, and separate financial statements are prepared for the Single Benefit Plan. No contributions were made by the employers to the Single Benefit Plan for the years ended September 30, 2006 or 2005.

Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

The Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan [the 403(b) Plan] was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as for general church employees. The annual pension supplement amount contributed from the Pensions and Benefits Fund receipts or agency funds is determined annually by the Board of Pensions. Ministerial employees may receive a bonus if their local church or district pays 100% of their allocated Pensions and Benefits Fund. The bonus amount is determined annually by the Board of Pensions.

For each of the years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, the annual pension supplement amount was $500 per participant and the bonus amount was $500. Local church/agency employers are encouraged to establish policies to match amounts of voluntary salary reduction contributions up to at least 3% of salary.

The total cost of contributions made to the 403(b) Plan through the Pensions and Benefits Fund was $5,099,635 and $4,211,819 for the years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. The cash value of all participant accounts was $237,680,634 and $237,974,250 as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

NOTE N - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The General Board owed NPH approximately $129,746 and $61,362 as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Certain affiliated organizations deposit excess funds with the General Board for investment purposes. As of September 30, 2006 and 2005, total funds held in trust totaled $36,532,176 and $28,735,550, respectively. See Note I.

As of September 30, 2006 and 2005, the General Board owed $246,995 and $196,790, respectively, to the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plan. As of September 30, 2006 and 2005, the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene . Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan owed $118,514 and $32,152, respectively to the General Board.

NOTE O - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The General Board is a party to various legal actions arising in the ordinary course of its operations. In management's opinion, the General Board has adequate legal defenses and/or insurance coverage respecting each of these actions and does not believe that they will materially affect the General Board's financial position, changes in net assets, or cash flows.

NOTE P - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments which potentially subject the General Board to significant concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of church mortgages and loans and related notes payable.

Church Mortgages and Loans - USA Church Loan Fund

The General Board extends credit for real estate mortgage loans to individual churches. The General Board evaluates creditworthiness on a loan-by-loan basis and generally requires collateral in the form of mortgages on the related property and guarantees by the applicable District Advisory Board. The loans are expected to be repaid from operations and/or contributions to borrowers. The General Board also controls credit risk through regular evaluations and monitoring procedures.

Church of the Nazarene

September 30, 2006 and 2005

Notes Payable - USA Church Loan Fund

Prior to 2003, the General Board accepted deposits from individual members, churches, and certain districts of the Church. The deposits were in the form of notes payable with various interest rates and maturity terms for the purpose of funding mortgage loans. The General Board controlled risk by accepting deposits with interest and repayment terms that could be met from cash flows generated by mortgage loans with similar interest rates and maturities. A decision was made at the 2003 General Board meeting to eliminate the General Board notes in anticipation of a self-funded loan program.

NOTE Q - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 107, Disclosures About Fair Value of Financial Instruments, the fair value of each class of financial instruments is being disclosed. Fair value is the estimated amount at which financial assets or liabilities could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. Because no market exists for certain of these financial instruments, the fair values of these instruments have been calculated by discounting expected cash flows, which involves the significant exercise of judgment by management.

Investments

The fair values of investments are based on quoted market prices for those or similar securities and amounted to $126,168,276 and $120,372,242 as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Church Mortgages and Loans - USA Church Loan Fund

The fair values for church mortgages and loans receivable are estimated by discounting the expected future cash flows using the current rates at which similar loans would be made by the General Board to borrowers with similar credit ratings and for the same remaining maturities. Loans with similar maturities are aggregated for purposes of the calculations. The fair value of church mortgages and loans receivable approximated $23,495,932 and $21,206,543 as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE Q - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS - Continued

Notes Payable - USA Church Loan Fund

The carrying amounts of the notes payable approximate their fair values due to the short maturities and variable interest rates on the notes payable.

Funds Held in Trust

The carrying amount of funds held in trust approximates fair value because investment income (both realized and unrealized) is credited to such funds as earned and because such funds can be withdrawn on a demand basis.

NOTE R - FUNCTIONAL EXPENSES

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the consolidated statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the corresponding program and support services. Fund-raising costs approximated $2,046,000 and $2,646,000 for the years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

NOTE S - OPERATING LEASES

The General Board leases office space under a noncancelable operating lease that expires January 2010. The General Board also leases office equipment under noncancelable operating leases with maturity dates ranging from March 2007 to August 2010.

Minimum lease commitments are as follows:

Year ending September 30,	Amount
2007	$ 105,330
2008	84,370
2009	70,810
2010	34,801
	$ 295,311

Total lease expense was $143,032 for 2006 and $127,071 for 2005.

NOTE T - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene
403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits (modified cash basis) of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits (modified cash basis) for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

Except as explained in the following paragraph, we conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

For the scope of our audit of the Plan's 2005 financial statements, the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note E, which was set forth in trustee statements provided to the plan administrator by Fidelity Management Trust Company, the custodian of the Plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the 2005 financial statements. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the custodian holds the Plan's assets and executes investment transactions.

Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we were unable to, and do not, express an opinion on the accompanying financial statements and schedules as of and for the year ended September 30, 2005. The form and content of the information included in the 2005 financial statements, other than that derived from the information certified by the custodian, have been audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the basis of accounting described in Note B.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan as of September 30, 2006, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note B.

As described in Note B, these financial statements were prepared on a modified cash basis, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board) 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

I. General

The Plan is for the benefit of all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as general church employees. The Plan is a defined contribution plan established under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). Lay or ministerial employees of Nazarene churches or church-controlled agencies and registered Nazarene chaplains may participate in the Plan. Nazarene churches or church-controlled agencies include the General Board, the Nazarene Publishing House, Church of the Nazarene Foundation, Nazarene Theological Seminary, Nazarene Bible College, Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, Inc., or the subsidiaries of these entities, including Nazarene-affiliated colleges or universities. The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA serves as the administrator and trustee (the Administrator and/or the Trustee) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). Fidelity Management Trust Company (Fidelity) serves as the custodian of the Plan.

2. Contributions

Contributions are made through either an employer-funded arrangement or a voluntary salary-reduction agreement with each participant's employer. Voluntary salary-reduction contributions cannot exceed annual IRC limitations on an annual basis. Employers participating in the Plan are encouraged to match at least up to, but not limited to, 3% of the employee's voluntary salary-reduction contribution amount.

Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

September 30, 2006 and 2005

3. Contributions for Ministerial Employees

Annual contributions for ministerial employees are determined by the Administrator. The annual pension supplement (APS) contribution is deposited into individual accounts for each eligible U.S. clergy and layperson from Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) receipts or agency funds, depending upon the participant's employer. An additional bonus amount is deposited for eligible participants whose local congregation pays 100% of their Fund amounts or whose district pays 100% of their Fund amounts. The APS contribution for 2006 and 2005 was $500, with an additional bonus amount of $500 paid to eligible participants.

4. Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's and participating employer's contributions, as applicable, and allocations of (a) Pensions and Benefits Fund or agency fund contributions and (b) Plan earnings. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's account.

5. Vesting and Forfeitures

Participants are immediately vested in all contributions, plus actual earnings thereon.

6. Investment Options

Upon enrollment in the Plan, a participant may direct contributions to any of the following investment options.

7. Participant Loans

Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000, up to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their account balance. Loan terms range from 1 to 5 years. The loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at prime plus 1%. Principal and interest are paid ratably through monthly or quarterly installments.

8. Administrative Expenses

The Pensions and Benefits Fund, a related party, pays Plan-level administrative expenses, which amounted to approximately $260,000 and $251,000 for the years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting. Under this basis, interest, dividends, and contributions are recognized when collected rather than when earned, and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred. Investments are reported at fair value or contract value. Consequently, contributions receivable and accrued interest and dividend receivables are not included in the financial statements.

2. Valuation of Investments

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value, except for its investment contract with Fidelity. The investment contract is stated at contract value (Note C), based on quoted market prices, with gains and losses included in the statements of changes in assets available for benefits. Separate account investments are valued based on the net asset value of the underlying shares of the mutual funds held in the accounts. Loans to participants are recorded at cost, which approximates fair value.

Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan
September 30, 2006 and 2005

3. Investment Risks

The Plan invests in mutual funds, which hold various securities that may include U.S. Government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

4. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

5. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE C - INVESTMENT CONTRACT WITH FIDELITY

The Plan follows the provisions of Statement of Position 94-4, Reporting of Investment Contracts Held by Health and Welfare Benefit Plans and Defined Contribution Pension Plans (SOP 94-4). SOP 94-4 requires a defined contribution plan to report investment contracts at fair value unless such contract is fully benefit-responsive. The contract for the Plan has been deemed to be fully benefit-responsive according to the provisions of SOP 94-4. As such, the contract is presented at contract value on the statements of net assets available for benefits. The fair value of the contract was approximately $102,344,604 and $102,296,298 at September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. The average yield for the years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 was 4.03% and 3.96%, respectively. The crediting interest rate as of September 30, 2006 and 2005 was 4.01% and 3.84%, respectively. The crediting interest rate is reset each quarter.

September 30, 2006 and 2005

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene
Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits and accumulated plan benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and accumulated plan benefits for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits and accumulated plan benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits and accumulated plan benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

1. General

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan (the Plan), established in 1996, combined the assets while retaining the benefit formulas of the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan (collectively, the Predecessor Plans), which were both multiemployer plans. The Plan is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Plan is a qualified church plan which has not elected to be governed by the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and is not subject to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation insurance coverage.

New participation was frozen such that there were no new entrants into either of the Predecessor Plans. Participants in those plans have been grandfathered in so that no one having years of service under those plans will receive less under the Plan than what would have been paid under the Predecessor Plans had they continued unchanged.

Also, effective January 1, 1996, the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan [the 403(b) Plan, previously known as the Single Defined Contribution or TSA Plan] was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as general church employees.

The following brief description of the Plan is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to their respective Plan documents for more complete information.

Prior Basic Pension Plan Participants

The Basic Pension Plan (the Basic Plan) was a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan. The Basic Plan provided retirement benefits at age 65 to full-time pastors, evangelists, and district-credentialed laypersons serving organized churches in the U.S. and Canadian districts participating in the Pensions and Benefits Fund. The Basic Plan was funded by contributions from participating local churches with no employee contributions.

Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

Basic Plan participants are entitled to pension benefits beginning at normal retirement age (65) or later after 10 or more years of vesting service in a monthly amount equal to a pension for each year of pension service (to a maximum of 50), including continued accrual of service credits after December 31, 1995 of $10.75 increased by .5% for each year of service in excess of 10 (up to 40 excess years). Effective January 1, 2005, the monthly pension was increased by $0.25, from $10.75 to $11.00, for those participants receiving benefit payments as of January 1, 2005 and those commencing receipt of pension benefit payments prior to January 1, 2006.

The Basic Plan permits early retirement at ages 62 through 64. If employees terminate before rendering 10 years of service, they forfeit the right to receive the value of their accumulated plan benefits. Upon retirement, participants may elect to receive the value of their accumulated plan benefits as a life annuity with a 50% survivor benefit, or a reduced life annuity with a 100% survivor benefit.

If an active employee dies after rendering 10 or more years of service, a death benefit equal to 60% of the value of the employee's accumulated plan benefits is paid to the employee's beneficiary. Active employees who become totally disabled after rendering five or more years of service receive annual disability benefits based on years of service to the date of disability, plus a half-year of service credit for each year from the disability date to the retirement date.

Prior General Church Pension Plan Participants

The General Church Pension Plan (the General Church Plan) was a contributory defined benefit pension plan that provided retirement benefits to participating full-time employees of the General Board (excluding missionaries), Nazarene Theological Seminary, and Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, Inc.

Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

General Church Plan participants are entitled to pension benefits beginning at normal retirement age (65) equal to (a) minus (b), where (a) is the higher of (1) the monthly pension provided by the amount in the participant's account under the 403(b) Plan derived from contributions from the Pensions and Benefits Fund on or after January 1, 1996, plus earnings thereon accruing on or after January 1, 1996 or (2) a monthly pension equal to 2% of average monthly pay multiplied by years of credited service under the Plan; and (b) is the monthly pension provided in (1) above [the 403(b) offset].

The General Church Plan permits early retirement at ages 60 through 64. Employees may elect to receive their pension benefits in the form of a life and survivor annuity. If employees terminate before rendering seven years of service, they forfeit the right to receive a portion of their accumulated plan benefits attributable to the participating employer's contributions, which are 20% vested after three years of service and increase in 20% increments for each year thereafter, for a total of 100%.

If an active employee dies prior to his or her retirement date, a death benefit equal to the value of the employee's accumulated plan benefits is paid to the employee's beneficiary.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices. The Plan's investment contract with Principal Life Insurance Company (Principal) is valued at estimated fair value by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable duration.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - Continued

3. Payment of Benefits

Benefits to participants are recorded when paid.

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits

Accumulated plan benefits are those future periodic payments, including lump-sum distributions that are attributable under the respective Predecessor Plans' provisions for the service employees have rendered. Accumulated plan benefits include benefits expected to be paid to the following: (a) retired or terminated employees or their beneficiaries, (b) beneficiaries of employees who have died, and (c) present employees or their beneficiaries. Benefits payable under all circumstances such as retirement, death, and termination of employment are included, to the extent they are deemed attributable to employee service rendered to the valuation date. Benefits to be provided via annuity contracts excluded from Plan assets are excluded from accumulated plan benefits.

The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits for the Plan is determined by actuaries from Watson Wyatt and is that amount which results from applying actuarial assumptions to adjust the accumulated plan benefits to reflect the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment. The significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations as of January 1, 2006 and 2005 were as follows: (a) life expectancy of participants (based on the 1994 Group Annuity Mortality Table), (b) retirement age assumptions (the assumed average retirement age was 65), and (c) investment return. The valuations from the actuary assumed an average rate of return of 7%, a discount rate of 5.50% and 7% for 2006 and 2005, respectively, and an assumed salary increase of 3% for both 2006 and 2005 (General Church Plan only). The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. Were the Plan to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits.

5. Administrative Expenses

Certain directly related administrative, accounting, legal, and actuarial expenses are allocated to the Plan by the Administrator. All other expenses are borne by the Pensions and Benefits Fund.

Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

6. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

7. Investment Risks

The Plan invests in a Pension Trust Investment Pool that holds various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, mutual funds, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

NOTE C - FUNDING POLICY

1. Basic Pension Plan

The allocation of the total Pensions and Benefits Fund contributions received from local churches in 2006 and 2005, including net amounts contributed to the Pensions and Benefits Fund and the 403(b) Plan, was as follows. Separate financial statements are provided for the Pensions and Benefits Fund and the 403(b) Plan.

	2006	2005
Insurance and benevolence programs of the Pensions and Benefits Fund	$ 3,211,583	$ 2,980,127
403(b) Plan contributions	5,099,636	4,211,819
Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan contributions	4,000,000	5,000,000

Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

2. General Church Pension Plan

As a condition of participation, employees are required to contribute 3% of their salary to the General Church Plan. Employees are immediately 100% vested in their contributions, plus interest credited thereon. For the Plan calendar year beginning January 1, 1997, no annual contributions were required from the participating employers to support the present benefit levels under the General Church Plan's actuarial cost method. Beginning in 2003, an amount was deposited with Principal, which distributes benefit payments, in an amount sufficient to maintain the asset level above the benefit floor rider minimum.

3. Combined Plan

The participating employers' funding policy is to make annual contributions to the Plan in amounts such that all participants' benefits will be fully provided for by the time they retire. For the Plan calendar years beginning January 1, 2006 and 2005, the net annual contributions required from the participating employers to support the present benefit levels under the Plan's actuarial cost method totaled $5,553,904 in 2006 and $5,932,657 in 2005 based on assets at market value.

The following table presents the Plan's unfunded liability as of September 30,

Net assets available for benefits	$ 151,611,301	$ 154,884,775

	$ (45,640,043)	$ (51,462,712)

NOTE D - INVESTMENTS

The funds of the Plan and the World Mission Pension Plans are combined for collective investment purposes (the Pension Trust Investment Pool). Separate accounting records are maintained for each plan in order to properly reflect each participant's accumulated benefits. The net investment income from the Pension Trust Investment Pool is allocated on a pro rata basis between the plans. The allocation of securities held in the Pension Trust Investment Pool is based on a percentage of total fair value.

During 2006 and 2005, the Plan's investments, including gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year, appreciated in value by $5,398,531 and $14,540,636, respectively, as follows:

Investments, at fair value, as determined by quoted market prices	$ 4,485,480	$ 14,773,671
Investments, at estimated fair value	913,051	(233,035)

NOTE E - CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE COMPANY

The Administrator has entered into a flexible pension investment (FPI) contract with Principal. The contract provides that Principal will create a benefit floor within the unallocated General Investment Fund to guarantee benefit payments. The floor equals the present value of benefits to be paid based on FPI purchase rates. As long as the General Investment Fund is greater than the floor, benefits are charged directly to the General Investment Fund. However, if the General Investment Fund falls below the floor amount, guaranteed annuities will be purchased.

Principal maintains the contributions in an unallocated fund to which it adds the earnings of the underlying investments and subtracts benefit payments and administrative expenses. The FPI contract is included in the net assets of the Plan as part of the Pension Trust Investment Pool at fair value as determined by Principal.

Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE F - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE G - PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of the Plan document and the Merger Agreement. Should the Plan terminate at some future time, a particular participant's accumulated plan benefits will be dependent on the priority of those benefits at that time as set forth in the Plan document and the Merger Agreement.

NOTE H - INCOME TAX STATUS

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Administrator by a letter that the Basic Pension Plan, the General Church Pension Plan, and the related trusts were designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). There have been amendments since receiving those determination letters; however, the Administrator believes that the Plan, which encompasses both the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan, is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

NOTE I - SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Subsequent to year-end, the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA amended the Plan solely with respect to those participants, widows, and widowers receiving a benefit under the grandfathered Basic Plan and those participants receiving a benefit under the grandfathered General Church Plan. The amendment, effective as of December 1, 2006, provides an additional pension amount equal to one month's pension for those receiving benefits under the Basic Plan. The amendment also provides an additional one month's pension for those receiving benefits under the General Church Plan provided that such additional amount does not exceed the maximum additional amount paid to those receiving a benefit under the Basic Plan. The total additional benefit, which was paid in December 2006, amounted to approximately $1.2 million.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PENSIONS AND BENEFITS FUND

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) provides various benevolence, retirement, and insurance programs to Nazarene ministers, their spouses, and their surviving family members. All of the programs are self-funded through contributions made by the local churches. The Fund is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Fund provides administrative services and certain specific funding amounts as determined by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA to the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan and the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

Benevolence programs - The Fund provides benevolence programs, including emergency medical assistance, temporary monthly disability assistance, administrative benefit adjustment, and funeral assistance. These programs provide various kinds of benevolence assistance payments to ministers, their spouses, and their surviving family members upon the recommendation of their district advisory boards. A more comprehensive description of the Fund's benevolence programs is contained in the Benefits Summary Brochure.

Pastors Life Insurance Plan - The Pastors Life Insurance Plan is a group term life insurance plan for district-licensed and ordained clergy or district-credentialed laypersons who are currently serving in U.S. districts in qualified assignments and who have not begun receiving retirement benefits.

Pensioners Death Benefit Plan - The Pensioners Death Benefit Plan provides death benefits to district-licensed and ordained ministers who are currently receiving a monthly benefit from the Basic Pension Plan portion of the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan based on years of service or, alternatively, who are vested Plan participants aged 70 1/2 or older and who have not chosen to begin receiving a monthly retirement benefit.

Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan - Effective January 1, 1996, the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan were merged to form the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan. After January 1, 1996, there were no new entrants in the Basic Pension Plan or the General Church Pension Plan. Participants in both plans were grandfathered in so that no one who had been credited with years of service under the predecessor plans would receive less under the Single Defined Benefit Plan than what would have been paid under the former defined benefit plans had membership in those plans continued unchanged.

403(b) Retirement Savings Plan - Effective January 1, 1996, the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan [the 403(b) Plan] was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as for general church employees. In prior years, a percentage (as determined by the Administrator) of the average pastor's cash salary reported for all US Nazarene pastors was contributed to the 403(b) Plan for all active eligible participants from Fund receipts or agency funds, depending on the participant's employer. This amount was increased by a 10% bonus amount for ministers or districts paying 100% of their Fund apportionment. Effective January 1, 2002, the 403(b) Plan was amended such that these contributions were no longer linked to the average pastor's cash salary, and the bonus amount is no longer calculated as 10% of the base amount. The amounts are now determined annually by the Administrator. The annual pension supplement (APS) contribution is deposited into individual accounts for each eligible U.S. clergymember and layperson from Fund receipts or agency funds, depending upon the participant's employer. An additional bonus amount is deposited for eligible participants whose local congregation pays 100% of their Fund amount or whose district pays 100% of their Fund amount. The APS amount for 2006 and 2005 was $500, with an additional $500 bonus amount paid to eligible participants.

Employees may elect to participate in the 403(b) Plan through salary-reduction contributions. Employers make matching contributions to their respective participating employees' accounts. Local church and agency employers are encouraged to establish policies to match amounts of voluntary salary-reduction contributions up to at least 3% of salary. Contributions are made directly to Fidelity Investments. The cash value of all participant accounts that were not included in the Fund was $258,026,888 and $236,290,570 as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

3. Equipment

Equipment is carried at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method and is provided in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives, which range from four to eight years.

4. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

5. Life Insurance Dividends

Life insurance dividends are recognized as revenue of the Fund to offset the expense of providing the life insurance plans.

6. Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

7. Reclassification

Certain prior-period amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current-year presentation.

World Mission Pension Plans

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for plan benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for plan benefits for the years then ended and the accompanying statements of accumulated plan benefits and the related statements of changes in accumulated plan benefits as of and for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for plan benefits and accumulated plan benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the changes in net assets available for plan benefits and the changes in accumulated plan benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLANS

The following brief description of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans, consisting of the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan and the World Mission Pension Plan (collectively, the Plans) is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan documents for more complete information.

New participation was frozen such that there were no new entrants after December 31, 1997. For new missionaries under contract after December 31, 1997, retirement benefits are provided by the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

1. General

The Plans are noncontributory defined benefit pension plans administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Plans provide retirement benefits at age 65 to missionaries under contract with the General Board. The Plans are church plans that have not elected to be governed by the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and are not subject to Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation insurance coverage.

The World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan) integrates its benefit formula with that of the total pension benefit provided by the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan. All benefits under the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan are offset by any benefits that can be paid under the World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan).

2. Pension Benefits - World Mission Qualified Pension Plan

Missionaries with 10 or more years of service are entitled to pension benefits beginning at the normal retirement age of 65. The pension benefits are calculated at an amount equal to the greater of (a) and (b) minus (c), where (a) is the sum of (1) $2.50 per month for each year of service (to a maximum of 50 years) plus (2) $100 per month for participants with 25 or more years of service, or $75 per month for participants with 20, but less than 25, years of service; and (b) is $4.875 per month (previously $4.50 per month) for each year of service with a bonus of .5% for each year of service in excess of 10; and (c) is the pension provided by the amount in the participant's 403(b) plan derived from deposits equal to an amount determined each Plan year by the Plan's Trustee.

the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans

CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

2. Pension Benefits - World Mission Qualified Pension Plan - Continued

Effective January 1, 2005, pension benefits shall be the greater of (1) the pension payable as described above or (2) $5 per month for each year of service, with a bonus of one-half of one percent for each year of service greater than 10. For purposes of determining the bonus amount, and only for such purposes, years of service credited under the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan's grandfathered Basic Pension Plan provisions shall be included in the calculation of years of service under this plan.

3. Pension Benefits - World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan

Missionaries with 10 or more years of service are entitled to pension benefits beginning at the normal retirement age of 65. The pension benefits are calculated at an amount equal to the greater of (a) and (b) minus (c), where (a) is the sum of (1) $5 per month for each year of service (to a maximum of 50 years) for married or unmarried (single) participants plus (2) $200 per month for married participants and $140 per month for single participants, widows, or widowers with 25 or more years of missionary service, or $150 or $100 per month, respectively, with 20, but less than 25, years of missionary service or $0 with less than 20 years of missionary service; (b) is $9.75 per month for each year of service with a bonus of .5% for each year of service in excess of 10; and (c) is the pension provided by the amount in the participant's 403(b) plan derived from deposits equal to an amount determined each Plan year by the Plan's Trustee. This pension plan is also reduced by the extent of any payments made under the World Mission Pension Plan.

Effective January 1, 2005, pension benefits shall be the greater of (1) the pension payable as described above or (2) $10 per month for each year of service with a bonus of one-half of one percent for each year of service greater than 10. For purposes of determining the bonus amount, and only for such purposes, all years of service credited under this plan and under the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan's grandfathered Basic Pension Plan provisions will be included.

4. Disability Benefits

Active missionaries with five or more years of service who become totally disabled receive annual disability benefits based on years of service to the date of disability, plus an additional year of service credit for each two years between the date of disability and the normal retirement date.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices. The Plans' investment contract with Principal Life Insurance Company (Principal) is valued at estimated fair value by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable durations.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

3. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits

Accumulated plan benefits are those future periodic payments that are attributable under the Plans' provisions to the service employees have rendered. Accumulated plan benefits include benefits expected to be paid to the following: (a) retired or terminated employees or their beneficiaries; (b) beneficiaries of employees who have died; and (c) current employees or their beneficiaries. Benefits payable under all circumstances (retirement, death, disability, or termination of employment) are included to the extent they are deemed attributable to employee service rendered to the valuation date.

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits - Continued

The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits is determined by actuaries from Watson Wyatt and is that amount which results from applying actuarial assumptions to adjust the accumulated plan benefits to reflect the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment. The significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations as of January 1, 2006 and 2005 were as follows: (a) life expectancy of participants (based on the 1994 Group Annuity Mortality Table); (b) retirement age assumptions (the assumed retirement age ranges from 65 to 70); and (c) investment return. The valuations from the actuary assumed an average rate of return of 7%, compounded annually, and discount rates of 5.50% and 6% in 2006 and 2005, respectively. The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plans will continue. Were the Plans to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits.

5. Administrative Expenses

Certain directly related administrative, accounting, legal, and actuarial expenses are allocated to the Plans by the Administrator. All other expenses are borne by the Pensions and Benefits Fund.

6. Investment Risks

The Plans invest in a Pension Trust Investment Pool that holds various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the value of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE C - FUNDING POLICY

The General Board's funding policy is to make annual contributions to the Plans in amounts such that all participants' benefits will be fully provided for by the time they retire. For the Plans' calendar years beginning January 1, 2006 and 2005, the net annual contributions required from the General Board to support the present benefit levels under the Plans' actuarial cost method ranged from $449,495 to $799,422 in 2006 and $456,450 to $749,617 in 2005.

The following table shows the Plans' unfunded liability as of September 30,

	2006	2005
Net assets available for benefits	$ 6,218,466	$ 6,323,775

Funded status	$ (4,200,715)	$ (4,411,878)

NOTE D - INVESTMENTS

The funds of the Plans and the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan are combined for collective investment purposes (the Pension Trust Investment Pool). Separate accounting records are maintained for each plan in order to properly reflect each participant's accumulated plan benefits. The net investment income from that Pension Trust Investment Pool is allocated on a pro rata basis between the Plans. The allocation of securities held in the Pension Trust Investment Pool is based on a percentage of total fair value.

During 2006 and 2005, the Plans' investments, including gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held, during the year appreciated in value by $212,559 and $583,816, respectively, as follows:

The Administrator has entered into a flexible pension investment (FPI) contract with Principal. Principal maintains the contributions in an unallocated fund to which it adds the earnings of the underlying investments and subtracts benefit payments and administrative expenses. As part of the Pension Trust Investment Pool, the FPI contract is included in the net assets of the Plans at fair value as determined by Principal.

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE G - PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plans subject to the provisions of the Plan documents. Should the Plans terminate at some future time, a particular participant's accumulated plan benefits will be dependent on the priority of those benefits at that time, as set forth in the Plan documents.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE H - TAX STATUS

The Administrator has received a letter from the Internal Revenue Service dated September 4, 2002, which states that the World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan) and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). The World Mission Pension Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter; however, the Administrator believes that both of the Plans are designed and are currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

NOTE I - SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Subsequent to year-end, the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA amended the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan solely with respect to those participants, widows, and widowers receiving a benefit under the Plan. The amendment, effective December 1, 2006, provides an additional pension amount equal to one month's pension to be paid to such retirees. The benefits calculated under this amendment shall be reduced by all benefits payable to a missionary couple, an unmarried, single missionary, or a widow or widower of a missionary under the provisions of the Plan.

The World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan) was also amended. Participants, widows, and widowers receiving a benefit under the World Mission Pension Plan (qualified plan) as of December 1, 2006 shall receive an additional pension amount equal to one month's pension.

The additional benefits provided to the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan and the World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan) were paid in December 2006 and amounted to approximately $72,000.

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Program's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Program's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program as of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAM

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program (the Program) administers, on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board), medical, dental, and vision benefits under two separate Plans: the General Church Medical Plan and the Missionary Medical Plan (collectively, the Plans). These financial statements present the fiduciary activities of the Program's Administrator and do not purport to present the financial status of the Plans. These statements do not contain certain information regarding benefit obligations and other disclosures necessary for a fair presentation of the financial status of the Plans in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Benefits

The Program administers the provision of medical, dental, and vision benefits to full-time employees (working at least 30 hours per week) of the General Board and related employers and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents (the General Church Medical Plan) and to missionaries under contract with the General Board and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents (the Missionary Medical Plan). Medical and dental benefits in excess of Medicare coverage may also be extended to retired participants and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents pursuant to the provisions of each Plan's document and/or the policies of the participating employers.

The medical, dental, and vision benefits are similar under both Plans, which pay a major portion of medical, dental, and vision expense after the satisfaction of a calendar-year deductible.

Medical and vision claims of active and retired participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed by Principal Life Insurance Company. Dental claims of active and retired participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed by Delta Dental Company. The responsibility for administration of payments to participants and providers is retained by the Administrator.

Participants should refer to the Plan documents for a complete description of the Plans' provisions.

Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2006 and 2005

2. Contributions

Not less than one-half of the contributions for participant coverage are paid by General Board-related employers. The Program is self-funded with specific and aggregate reinsurance limits.

3. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right under the Plans to modify the benefits provided to active participants, to discontinue contributions at any time, and to terminate the Plans subject to the Plans' provisions.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Marketable Securities

Marketable securities are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices for those or similar securities, with realized and unrealized gains and losses reflected in the statements-of activities.

3. Claims Incurred but Not Reported

Other obligations for current benefit coverage at September 30, 2006 and 2005 include IBNR amounts, which represent estimated medical and dental costs for services performed in the Plan year that have not yet been submitted for payment by Plan participants. The IBNR amounts are estimated based on historical lag factors between the date of service and the date of payment.

4. Administrative Expenses

Directly related administrative and other expenses of the Administrator are allocated to the Program.

Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2006 and 2005

5. Investment Risks

The Program invests in funds that hold various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

6. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE C - CONCENTRATION OF RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE D - INCOME TAX STATUS

The Program is exempt from federal and state income taxes since it is an entity organized under the General Board, which holds a group exemption. The Administrator has not obtained a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service for the Plans. However, the Administrator believes the Plans are designed and are currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

Board of Pensions and Benefits. USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE E - MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Program's marketable securities consist of equity securities maintained in a pooled investment fund (the PIF) administered by the General Board. At September 30, 2006 and 2005, equity securities were reported at a fair value of $2,209,072 and $2,195,154, respectively. Equity securities had a cost basis of $2,118,229 at September 30, 2006 and 2005.

Investment income for the years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 consisted of $132,951 and $92,009 of allocated income from the PIF and $1,302 and $13,219 of unrealized gains, respectively. Income is allocated from the PIF to reflect the Program's share of realized gains and losses, interest, and dividend income computed on a monthly basis.

NOTE F - MEDICARE PRESCRIPTION DRUG, IMPROVEMENT, AND MODERNIZATION ACT OF 2003

In May 2004, the FASB issued Staff Position No. 106-2 (FAS FSP 106-2), Accounting and Disclosure Requirements Related to the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement, and Modernization Act of 2003, (the Act). FAS FSP 106-2 provides guidance on accounting for the effects of a subsidy available under the Act to companies that sponsor retiree medical programs with drug benefits which are at least actuarially equivalent to those available under Medicare. In addition to the direct benefit to a company from qualifying for and receiving the subsidy, the effects would include expected changes in retiree participation rates and changes in estimated health care costs that result from the Act.

The Administrator believes that its postretirement benefit plans currently provide prescription drug coverage which is at least actuarially equivalent to the new benefit available under Medicare, and it will therefore qualify for the subsidy for an initial period of time after the Act is implemented until actuarial equivalency changes as a result of existing limits on the Plans' cost of providing the benefit.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

General Board of the Church of the Nazarene

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position of The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the General Board's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We did not audit the financial statements of Church of the Nazarene Foundation, a 509(a) supporting organization, which financial statements reflected total assets of 17% and 14% and total revenues of 4% and 3% as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. Those statements were audited by other auditors, whose report thereon has been furnished to us, and our opinion, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for Church of the Nazarene Foundation, is based solely on the report of the other auditors.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the General Board's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits and the report of the other auditors provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the report of the other auditors, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As discussed in Note N to the financial statements, effective September 30, 2007, the General Board adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 158, Employers' Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans: an amendment of FASB Statements No. 87, 88, 106, and 132 (R).

NOTE A - NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

The Church of the Nazarene exists to serve as an instrument for advancing the kingdom of God through the preaching and teaching of the Gospel throughout the world. The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board) shall encourage and expect all national, regional, district, and local boards to fulfill the mission of the Church of the Nazarene (the Church). The General Board shall promote the financial and material affairs of all the departments of the Church, subject to such instructions as may be given by the General Assembly. It shall coordinate, correlate, and unify the plans and activities of the several constituent departments so that a unified policy may be established by and in all the activities of the Church.

The objectives of the General Board are to advance the cause of Christian holiness:

- by fostering growth in the Church
- by the production and distribution of print and nonprint media for the various services; to awaken and strengthen interest throughout the Church in the value and proper use of contemporary media resources
- by articulating the philosophy of Christian education, enhancing the role of Sunday School, strengthening other training in the Church, and emphasizing the importance of ministry to home and family as a task of the Church throughout the world in accordance with the Great Commission
- by strengthening the bonds between the educational institutions and the Church at large (and to provide information and services as appropriate); to serve Nazarene educational institutions worldwide; and to encourage them to be all they can be in quality, achievement, and service to Christ

A summary of the significant accounting policies consistently applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements follows.

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements present the activities and operations of the General Board, including amounts transferred to the World Mission regions. Also included in the consolidated financial statements are transactions for Church of the Nazarene Foundation and Harvest Partners, Inc. Each of these entities is a 501(c)(3) corporation organized as a 509(a) supporting organization. Individual congregations and related service corporations are not included herein, nor are the activities and operations of the individual World Mission regions included. These financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis, of accounting. All significant interentity balances and transactions have been eliminated.

2. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include only funds and overnight investments held in banks for operating purposes. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of the financial institutions in which deposits are maintained. As of September 30, 2007 and 2006, cash in banks in excess of federally insured limits was approximately $1,230,934 and $1,076,533 in the United States and $1,369,508 and $863,048 in Canada, respectively:

3. Investments Held from Bond Proceeds

Investments held from bond proceeds represent an unsecured investment in fixed-rate private-debt obligations. The investment earns interest at 5.071% per annum and matures on February 1, 2009.

The funds in this investment were generated from the issuance of bonds and are restricted for use toward the construction of the new global ministry center.

4. Contributions

Contributions received, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenues when the donor's commitment is received. All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless restricted by the donor for specific purposes outside the general nature of the organization. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes outside the general nature of the organization are reported as temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support which increases those net asset classes. However, if a restriction is generally fulfilled in the same time period in which the contribution is received, the General Board reports the support as unrestricted.

The General Board reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets are to be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the General Board reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed into service.

5. Investments

Investments are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices for those or similar investments, with gains and losses, to the extent they accrue to the benefit of the General Board, included in the consolidated statements of activities. Certain investments are held in trust for others or pursuant to deferred gift agreements. Gains and losses associated with such investments are reflected as increases or decreases in the associated liability amounts. Cost approximates fair value for temporary investments.

6. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the depreciable assets. Estimated useful lives of property and equipment are as follows:

Buildings	10-50 years
Equipment	4-8 years

Church of the Nazarene
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2007 and 2006

6. Property and Equipment - Continued

The General Board periodically reviews long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of carrying amount or fair value, less costs to sell.

Construction in progress is stated at cost, which includes the cost of construction and other direct costs attributable to the construction. No provision for depreciation is made on construction in progress until such time as the relevant assets are completed and put into use. Construction in progress at September 30, 2007 and 2006 represents construction costs relating to the new global ministry center.

7. Deferred Gift/Planned Giving Agreements

The General Board is a party to various deferred gift and planned giving agreements, including gift annuities, unitrusts, and revocable and irrevocable trusts, whereby the General Board receives funds or assets for which it has fiduciary responsibility for the safekeeping, investment management, and distribution of funds to donor-designated beneficiaries.

The General Board recognizes an asset and a liability for funds or assets received pursuant to revocable and irrevocable deferred gift agreements for which the General Board is not the donor-designated beneficiary. In certain cases, the General Board is the donor-designated beneficiary and recognizes the receipt of funds or assets as temporarily restricted revenues.

Certain of the agreements contain an annuity feature, whereby the General Board will pay a fixed annuity to the donor or donor's beneficiary over specified periods of time. At the inception of the agreement, the General Board recognizes a liability equal to the present value of the expected annuity obligation, at the current discount rate, over the remaining expected life of the annuitant based on established mortality tables. The excess of the value of the funds or assets received over the present value of the annuity obligation is recognized as temporarily restricted net assets of the General Board if the General Board is the designated recipient of the corpus remaining upon the death of the annuitant. The annuity obligation is recalculated on an annual basis to take into consideration changes in the discount period (due to the passage of time) and mortality rates.

of the Church of the Nazarene

8. Income Taxes

The General Board is exempt from federal and state income taxes on its principal operations, although the General Board would be subject to federal income taxes on the net income from certain operations if such operations generated unrelated business income.

9. Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates included in the consolidated financial statements are the valuations of pension and postretirement benefit obligations and deferred gift agreements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The General Board invests in various securities which may include U.S. government obligations, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

10. Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to estimated future net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. For purposes of determining impairment, the General Board groups assets by category. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value, less costs to sell. At September 30, 2007, assets in amounts totaling $421,008 were considered impaired and were charged to expense. This loss is allocated among several program and support services in the consolidated statements of activities. No impairment was considered necessary in 2006.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE F - NOTES PAYABLE -USA CHURCH LOAN FUND

Notes payable consist of borrowed funds from individual members, churches, and certain districts of the Church. The funds are used to make loans to small churches for the purpose of acquiring real Church property (see Note D).

The notes payable bear interest rates ranging from 3.30% to 4.5% with terms of one, two, or five years. A decision was made at the 2003 General Board meeting to eliminate the General Board notes in anticipation of a self-funded program. All notes are scheduled to mature by June 2008 in amounts totaling $429,929.

NOTE G - BONDS PAYABLE

Effective January 1, 2007, the General Board entered into a loan agreement for $25,000,000 of tax-exempt bonds for the construction of a new global ministry center. The bonds payable require monthly interest payments for the first two years, with interest payable at an adjusting rate that is calculated as the Bond Market Association Index plus .75% (4.59% at September 30, 2007). Thereafter, annual principal and monthly interest will be due on the bonds based upon a 20-year mortgage-style amortization. The bonds have a 20-year final maturity, with the bondholder retaining the option to "put" the bonds back to the General Board five years from the effective date of the loan agreement and annually thereafter. The bonds are collateralized by a mortgage and a negative pledge on the property and improvements of the new headquarters facility. The mortgage will not be filed unless there is an event of default under the bonds.

Future principal maturities relating to the bonds payable are as follows:

Yearending September 30,	Amount
2008	$
2009
2010	1,910,000
2011	1,955,000

NOTE G - BONDS PAYABLE - Continued

The bonds payable contain certain restrictive covenants, some of which require the maintenance of prescribed debt service and liquidity ratios. The General Board was in compliance with all financial covenants relating to the bonds payable as of September 30, 2007.

NOTE H - LINE OF CREDIT

In September 2006, the General Board entered into an agreement for a line of credit with available borrowings of $5,000,000. The line of credit is due March 2009 and is collateralized by church mortgages and loans - USA Church Loan Fund receivables. Interest is payable monthly at LIBOR (5.12% and 5.37% at September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively). There were no borrowings under the line of credit at September 30, 2007 and 2006.

NOTE I - DEFERRED LIABILITIES

1. Deferred Gift Agreements Outstanding

Deferred gift agreements outstanding represent the liability for various planned giving and revocable trust instruments for which the General Board has fiduciary responsibility for the safekeeping, investment management, and distribution of such funds to donor-designated Church ministries at the termination of such instruments.

2. Other Long-Term Debt on Real Property

Debt in the amount of $1,305,513 and $1,276,977 was outstanding on real property related to the worldwide missionary and Church growth programs as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The General Board was the guarantor on $906,076 and $940,905 of this debt, with the remaining $399,437 and $336,072 considered a contingent liability as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The General Board believes it has a moral obligation to repay this contingent liability in the event of default to support the two programs, although it is not legally obligated to do so. All of the debt is collateralized by real property for which management estimates the fair value to approximate $12,537,500 as of September 30, 2007. The debt and related property are excluded from the General Board's financial statements.

NOTE L - PENSIONS AND BENEFITS FUND

The Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) provides various retirement, insurance, and benevolence programs to ministers and their spouses or surviving family members. The Fund is funded by local churches participating in the programs. The Fund is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Board of Pensions) on behalf of the General Board. The assets of the Fund are included in separate financial statements.

NOTE M - NAZARENE HEALTH AND HOSPITALIZATION PROGRAM

The Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program (the NHHP) was established to provide health care benefits. The NHHP includes coverage under two separate plan documents identified as the Missionary Medical Plan (the Missionary Plan) and the General Church Medical Plan (the General Church Plan). The plans are administered by the Board of Pensions on behalf of the General Board.

Not less than one-half of the contributions for participant coverage are paid by the respective employers. All medical and dental benefits of the two plans are self-funded through specific and aggregate reinsurance policies.

The General Board contributed $1,839,382 and $1,838,539 to the Missionary Plan and $2,414,415 and $2,677,241 to the General Church Plan for the years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

The assets of the NHHP are included in separate financial statements.

NOTE N - PENSION AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS

1. World Mission Pension Plans

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the FASB) issued SFAS 158, Employers' Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans: an amendment of FASB Statements No. 87, 88, 106, and 132(R) (SFAS 158). SFAS 158 requires the General Board to recognize the funded status of its defined benefit pension plans and other postretirement benefits other than pensions in its statements of financial position. The funded status was previously disclosed in the notes to the General Board's financial statements, but that amount differed from the amount recognized in the statement of financial position. The application of SFAS 158 does not change the accounting for the General Board's defined contribution plan.

The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE N- PENSION AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS - Continued

1. World Mission Pension Plans - Continued

SFAS 158 also removes the existing option to use a plan measurement date that is up to 90 days prior to the date of the statements of financial position.

The recognition and disclosure provisions of SFAS 158 are effective for fiscal years ending after June 15, 2007 for nonpublic entities and are to be applied as of the end of the year of adoption. Retrospective application is not permitted. The General Board adopted the recognition and disclosure provisions of SFAS 158 effective September 30, 2007. The General Board uses a fiscal year-end measurement date for all of its plans; therefore, the measurement date provisions will not affect the General Board.

The General Board maintains a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan covering substantially all missionaries under contract with the General Board. The benefits are based on years of service. The General Board's funding policy is to contribute annually the amount needed to provide not only for benefits for service to date, but also for those benefits expected to be earned in the future. New participation was frozen such that there were no new entrants after December 31, 1997. For new missionaries under contract after December 31, 1997, retirement benefits are provided by the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

At September 30, 2007, the General Board's projected benefit obligation under the Plans exceeded the fair value of Plan assets by $4,498,872; therefore, the Plans are underfunded. The adoption of SFAS 158 for the Plans had the following effect on the General Board's statement of financial position as of September 30, 2007:

	Prior to adoption of SFAS 158	Effect of adopting SFAS 158	As adjusted
Pension intangible assets	$ 1,247,694	$ (1,247,694)	$
Liability for pension benefits	5,347,918	(849,046)	4,498,872

1. World Mission Pension Plans – Continued

The adoption of SFAS 158 for the Plans did not affect the General Board's statement of activities for the year ended September 30, 2007 or for any prior periods. Application of SFAS 158 will not change the calculation of change in net assets in future periods, but will affect the calculation of other comprehensive income.

The amounts recognized for the Plans in the General Board's accumulated other comprehensive loss at September 30, 2007 consisted of the following:

Transition obligation	$
Prior service cost	1,021,234
Net actuarial loss	913,214
	$ 1,934,448

The amounts for the Plans included in the General Board's accumulated other comprehensive loss at September 30, 2007 and expected to be amortized in net periodic pension cost for fiscal 2008 were as follows:

Transition obligation	$
Prior service cost (credit)	(294,481)

Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

The Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan have been merged to form the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan (the Single Benefit Plan), and no new entrants were admitted to the Single Defined Benefit Plan after December 31, 1995. Participants in the Single Defined Benefit Plan have been grandfathered in so that no one having years of service under the predecessor plans will receive less under the Single Benefit Plan than what would have been paid under the predecessor plans had they continued unchanged. The Single Benefit Plan is a multiemployer plan that provides retirement benefits at age 65 to qualified full-time employees, pastors, evangelists, and district-licensed laypersons serving organized churches. The Single Benefit Plan is a defined benefit plan and is administered by the Board of Pensions on behalf of the General Board. The assets are held in trust by the Board of Pensions, and separate financial statements are prepared for the Single Benefit Plan. No contributions were made by the employers to the Single Benefit Plan for the years ended September 30, 2007 or 2006.

Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

The Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan [the 403(b) Plan] was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as for general church employees. The annual pension supplement amount contributed from the Pensions and Benefits Fund receipts or agency funds is determined annually by the Board of Pensions. Ministerial employees may receive a bonus if their local church or district pays 100% of their allocated Pensions and Benefits Fund amounts. The bonus amount is determined annually by the Board of Pensions.

For each of the years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, the annual pension supplement amount was $500 per participant and the bonus amount was $500. Local church/agency employers are encouraged to establish policies to match amounts of voluntary salary reduction contributions up to at least 3% of salary.

The total cost of contributions made to the 403(b) Plan through the Pensions and Benefits Fund was $6,247,182 and $5,099,635 for the years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The cash value of all participant accounts was $262,244,134 and $237,679,015 as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE Q - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The General Board is a party to various legal actions arising in the ordinary course of its operations. In management's opinion, the General Board has adequate legal defenses and/or insurance coverage respecting each of these actions and does not believe that they will materially affect the General Board's financial position, changes in net assets, or cash flows.

NOTE R - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments which potentially subject the General Board to significant concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of church mortgages and loans and related notes payable.

Church Mortgages and Loans - USA Church Loan Fund

The General Board extends credit for real estate mortgage loans to individual churches. The General Board evaluates creditworthiness on a loan-by-loan basis and generally requires collateral in the form of mortgages on the related property and guarantees by the applicable District Advisory Board. The loans are expected to be repaid from operations and/or contributions to borrowers. The General Board also controls credit risk through regular evaluations and monitoring procedures.

Notes Payable - USA Church Loan Fund

Prior to 2003, the General Board accepted deposits from individual members, churches, and certain districts of the Church. The deposits were in the form of notes payable with various interest rates and maturity terms for the purpose of funding mortgage loans. The General Board controlled risk by accepting deposits with interest and repayment terms that could be met from cash flows generated by mortgage loans with similar interest rates and maturities. A decision was made at the 2003 General Board meeting to eliminate the General Board notes in anticipation of a self-funded loan program.

Church of the Nazarene

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE S - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In accordance with SFAS 107, Disclosures About Fair Value of Financial Instruments, the fair value of each class of financial instruments is being disclosed. Fair value is the estimated amount at which financial assets or liabilities can be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. Because no market exists for certain of these financial instruments, the fair values of these instruments have been calculated by discounting expected cash flows, which involves the significant exercise of judgment by management.

Investments Held from Bond Proceeds

The carrying amount of investments held from bond proceeds approximates fair value due to the short maturity.

Investments

The fair values of investments are based on quoted market prices for those or similar securities and amounted to $150,491,912 and $126,168,276 as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Church Mortgages and Loans - USA Church Loan Fund

The fair values for church mortgages and loans receivable are estimated by discounting their expected future cash flows using the current rates at which similar loans would be made by the General Board to borrowers with similar credit ratings and for the same remaining maturities. Loans with similar maturities are aggregated for calculation purposes. The fair values of church mortgages and loans receivable approximated $24,411,334 and $23,495,932 as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Notes Payable - USA Church Loan Fund

The carrying amounts of the notes payable approximate their fair values due to the short maturities and variable interest rates on the notes payable.

Church of the Nazarene

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE S - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS - Continued

Bonds Payable

The carrying amounts of the bonds payable approximate fair value due to their variable interest rates.

Funds Held in Trust

The carrying amount of funds held in trust approximates fair value because investment income (both realized and unrealized) is recognized when earned and because such funds can be withdrawn on demand.

NOTE T - FUNCTIONAL EXPENSES

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the consolidated statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the corresponding program and support services. Fund-raising costs approximated $1,820,713 and $2,046,000 for the years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

NOTE U - OPERATING LEASES

The General Board leases office space under a noncancelable operating lease expiring in January 2010. The General Board also leases office equipment under noncancelable operating leases with maturity dates ranging from February 2009 to March 2011.

Minimum lease commitments are as follows:

Year ending September 30,	Amount
2008	$ 94,979
2009	87,361
2010	51,394
2011	8,527

	$ 242,261

The International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene

Total lease expense was $120,572 for 2007 and $143,032 for 2006.

NOTE V - TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS HELD BY THIRD-PARTY TRUSTEES

During the year ended September 30, 2007, the General Board was informed of assets held by third-party trustees totaling $1,477,933 that donors had designated the General Board as the principal beneficiary of the charitable remainder. These assets are included in temporarily restricted net assets and are primarily invested in fixed money market accounts and land. Since the General Board does not know when conditions will be met for the collection of the charitable remainder, there were no plans for use of the assets as of September 30, 2007.

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note B.

As described in Note B, these financial statements were prepared on a modified cash basis, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board) 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

1. General

The Plan is for the benefit of all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as general church employees. The Plan is a defined contribution plan established under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). Lay or ministerial employees of Nazarene churches or church-controlled agencies and registered Nazarene chaplains may participate in the Plan. Nazarene churches or church-controlled agencies include the General Board, the Nazarene Publishing House, Church of the Nazarene Foundation, Nazarene Theological Seminary, Nazarene Bible College, Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, Inc., or the subsidiaries of these entities, including Nazarene-affiliated colleges or universities. The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA serves as the administrator and trustee (the Administrator and/or the Trustee) on behalf of the General Board. Fidelity Management Trust Company (Fidelity) serves as the custodian of the Plan.

2. Contributions

Contributions are made through either an employer-funded arrangement or a voluntary salary-reduction agreement with each participant's employer. Voluntary salary-reduction contributions are not permitted to exceed IRC limitations on an annual basis. Employers participating in the Plan are encouraged to match amounts totaling at least up to, but not limited to, 3% of the employee's voluntary salary-reduction contribution amounts.

3. Contributions for Ministerial Employees

Annual contributions for ministerial employees are determined by the Administrator. The annual pension supplement (APS) contribution is deposited into individual accounts for each eligible U.S. clergy member and layperson from Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) receipts or agency funds, depending upon the participant's employer. The APS contribution for 2007 and 2006 was $500. An additional bonus amount is deposited for eligible participants whose local congregation pays 100% of their Fund amounts or whose district pays 100% of their Fund amounts. The additional bonus amount for 2007 and 2006 was $500.

4. Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's and participating employer's contributions, as applicable, and allocations of (a) Pensions and Benefits Fund or agency fund contributions and (b) Plan earnings. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's account.

5. Vesting and Forfeitures

Participants are immediately vested in all contributions, plus actual earnings thereon.

6. Investment Options

Upon enrollment in the Plan, a participant may direct contributions to any of several investment options.

7. Participant Loans

Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000, up to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their account balance. Loan terms range from 1 to 5 years. The loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at prime plus 1%. Principal and interest are paid ratably through monthly or quarterly installments.

8. Administrative Expenses

The Fund, a related party, pays Plan-level administrative expenses, which amounted to approximately $265,150 and $260,000 for the years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a modified cash basis, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this basis, interest, dividends, and contributions are recognized when collected rather than when earned, and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred. Investments are reported at fair value or contract value. Consequently, contributions receivable and accrued interest and dividend receivables are not included in the financial statements.

2. Valuation of Investments

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value, except for its investment contract with Fidelity. The investment contract is stated at contract value (Note C), based on quoted market prices, with gains and losses included in the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits. Separate account investments are valued based on the net asset value of the underlying shares of the mutual funds held in the accounts. Loans to participants are recorded at cost, which approximates fair value.

Plan

September 30, 2007 and 2006

3. Investment Risks

The Plan invests in mutual funds, which hold various securities that may include U.S. Government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

4. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

5. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE C - STABLE VALUE FUND INVESTMENT CONTRACT WITH FIDELITY

The Plan follows the provisions of Statement of Position 94-4, Reporting of Investment Contracts Held by Health and Welfare Benefit Plans and Defined Contribution Pension Plans (SOP 94-4). SOP 94-4 requires a defined contribution plan to report investment contracts at fair value unless such contracts are fully benefit-responsive. The contract for the Plan has been deemed to be fully benefit-responsive according to the provisions of SOP 94-4. As such, the contract is presented at contract value on the statements of net assets available for benefits. The fair value of the contract was approximately $101,700,817 and $102,344,604 at September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The average yield for the years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 was 4.19% and 4.03%, respectively. The crediting interest rate as of September 30, 2007 and 2006 was 4.11% and 4.01%, respectively. The crediting interest rate is reset each quarter.

NOTE D - TAX STATUS

The Plan is not subject to federal or state income taxes, since the Administrator believes that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC under Section 403(b).

NOTE E - PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the terms of the Plan agreement. In the event of termination of the Plan, the Trustee shall pay and discharge all expenses and, unless the Administrator elects to continue the trust, all benefits will be payable as soon as is administratively feasible under the terms of the Plan.

The Trustee may either distribute the remaining assets of the Plan trust in kind or liquidate them and distribute the net proceeds to the participants in accordance with their respective account balances.

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene
Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for plan benefits and accumulated plan benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for plan benefits and accumulated plan benefits for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for plan benefits and accumulated plan benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the changes in its net assets available for plan benefits and accumulated plan benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

STATEMENTS

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

1. General

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan (the Plan), established in 1996, combined the assets while retaining the benefit formulas of the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan (collectively, the Predecessor Plans), which were both multiemployer plans. The Plan is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Plan is a qualified church plan which has not elected to be governed by the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and is not subject to Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation insurance coverage.

New participation was frozen effective January 1, 1996 and there were no new entrants into either of the Predecessor Plans. Participants in those plans have been grandfathered in so that no one having years of service under those plans will receive less under the Plan than what would have been paid under the Predecessor Plans had they continued unchanged.

Also, effective January 1, 1996, the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan. [the 403(b) Plan, previously known as the Single Defined Contribution or TSA Plan] was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as general church employees.

The following brief description of the Plan is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to their respective Plan documents for more complete information.

Prior Basic Pension Plan Participants

The Basic Pension Plan (the Basic Plan) was a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan. The Basic Plan provided retirement benefits at age 65 to full-time pastors, evangelists, and district-credentialed laypersons serving organized churches in the U.S. and Canadian districts participating in the Pensions and Benefits Fund. The Basic Plan was funded by contributions from participating local churches with no employee contributions.

Plan

September 30, 2007 and 2006

Basic Plan participants are entitled to pension benefits beginning at normal retirement age (65) or later after 10 or more years of vesting service in a monthly amount equal to a pension for each year of pension service (to a maximum of 50), including continued accrual of service credits after December 31, 1995 of $11.00 increased by .5% for each year of service in excess of 10 (up to 40 excess years).

The Basic Plan permits early retirement at ages 62 through 64. If employees terminate before rendering 10 years of service, they forfeit the right to receive the value of their accumulated plan benefits. Upon retirement, participants may elect to receive the value of their accumulated plan benefits as a life annuity with a 60% survivor benefit, or a reduced life annuity with a 100% survivor benefit.

If an active employee dies after rendering 10 or more years of service, a death benefit equal to 60% of the value of the employee's accumulated plan benefits is paid to the employee's beneficiary. Active employees who become totally disabled after rendering five or more years of service receive annual disability benefits based on years of service to the date of disability, plus a half-year of service credit for each year from the disability date to the retirement date.

Prior General Church Pension Plan Participants

The General Church Pension Plan (the General Church Plan) was a contributory defined benefit pension plan that provided retirement benefits to participating full-time employees of the General Board (excluding missionaries), Nazarene Theological Seminary, and Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, Inc.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

General Church Plan participants are entitled to pension benefits beginning at normal retirement age (65) equal to (a) minus (b), where (a) is the higher of (1) the monthly pension provided by the amount in the participant's account under the 403(b) Plan derived from contributions from the Pensions and Benefits Fund on or after January 1, 1996, plus earnings thereon accruing on or after January 1, 1996 or (2) a monthly pension equal to 2% of average monthly pay multiplied by years of credited service under the Plan; and (b) is the monthly pension provided in (1) above [the 403(b) offset].

The General Church Plan permits early retirement at ages 60 through 64. Employees may elect to receive their pension benefits in the form of a life and survivor annuity. If employees terminate before rendering seven years of service, they forfeit the right to receive a portion of their accumulated plan benefits attributable to the participating employer's contributions, which are 20% vested after three years of service and increase in 20% increments for each year thereafter, for a total of 100%.

If an active employee dies prior to his or her retirement date, a death benefit equal to the value of the employee's accumulated plan benefits is paid to the employee's beneficiary.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting .

2. Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices. The Plan's investment contract with Principal Life Insurance Company (Principal) is valued at estimated fair value by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable duration.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

September 30, 2007 and 2006

3. Payment of Benefits

- Benefits to participants are recorded when paid.

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits

Accumulated plan benefits are those future periodic payments, including lump-sum distributions that are attributable under the respective Predecessor Plans' provisions for the service employees have rendered. Accumulated plan benefits include benefits expected to be paid to the following: (a) retired or terminated employees or their beneficiaries, (b) beneficiaries of employees who have died, and (c) present employees or their beneficiaries. Benefits payable under all circumstances such as retirement, death, and termination of employment be included, to the extent they are deemed attributable to employee service rendered to the valuation date. Benefits to be provided via annuity contracts excluded from Plan assets are excluded from accumulated plan benefits.

The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits for the Plan is determined by actuaries from Watson Wyatt and is that amount which results from applying actuarial assumptions to adjust the accumulated plan benefits to reflect the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment. The significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations as of January 1, 2007 and 2006 were as follows: (a) life expectancy of participants (based on the 1994 Group Annuity Mortality Table), (b) retirement age assumptions (the assumed average retirement age was 65), and (c) investment return. The valuations from the actuary assumed an average rate of return of 7%; a discount rate of 7% and 5.50% for 2007 and 2006, respectively; and an assumed salary increase of 3% for both 2007 and 2006 (General Church Plan only). The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. Were the Plan to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits.

5. Administrative Expenses

Certain directly related administrative, accounting, legal, and actuarial expenses are allocated to the Plan -by the Administrator. All other expenses are borne by the Pensions and Benefits Fund.

6. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

7. Investment Risks

The Plan invests in a Pension Trust Investment Pool that holds various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, mutual funds, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

NOTE C - FUNDING POLICY

1. Basic Pension Plan

The allocation of the total Pensions and Benefits Fund contributions received from local churches in 2007 and 2006, including net amounts contributed to the Pensions and Benefits Fund and the 403(b) Plan, was as follows. Separate financial statements are provided for the Pensions and Benefits Fund and the 403(b) Plan.

	2007	2006
Insurance and benevolence programs of the Pensions and Benefits Fund	$ 3,698,808	$ 3,211,583

2. General Church Pension Plan

As a condition of participation, employees are required to contribute 3% of their salary to the General Church Plan. Employees are immediately 100% vested in their contributions, plus interest credited thereon. For the Plan calendar year beginning January 1, 1997, no annual contributions were required from the participating employers to support the present benefit levels under the General Church Plan's actuarial cost method. Beginning in 2003, an amount was deposited with Principal, which distributes benefit payments, in an amount sufficient to maintain the asset level above the benefit floor rider minimum.

3. Combined Plan

The participating employers' funding policy is to make annual contributions to the Plan in amounts such that all participants' benefits will be fully provided for by the time they retire. For the Plan calendar years beginning January 1, 2007 and 2006, the net annual contributions required from the participating employers to support the present benefit levels under the Plan's actuarial cost method totaled $5,738,370 in 2007 and $5,553,904 in 2006 based on assets at market-value.

The following table presents the Plan's unfunded liability as of September 30,

Net assets available for plan benefits	$ 157,269,391	$ 151,611,301
Actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits	(195,595,684)	(197,251,344)
	$ (38,326,293)	$ (45,640,043)

NOTE D - INVESTMENTS

The funds of the Plan and the World Mission Pension Plans are combined for collective investment purposes (the Pension Trust Investment Pool). Separate accounting records are maintained for each plan in order to properly reflect each participant's accumulated plan benefits. The net investment income from the Pension Trust Investment Pool is allocated on a pro rata basis between the plans. The allocation of securities held in the Pension Trust Investment Pool is based on a percentage of total fair value.

NOTE E - CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE COMPANY

The Administrator has entered into a flexible pension investment (FPI) contract with Principal. The contract provides that Principal will create a benefit floor Within the unallocated General Investment Fund to guarantee benefit payments. The floor equals the present value of benefits to be paid based on FPI purchase rates. As long as the General Investment Fund is greater than the floor, benefits are charged directly to the General Investment Fund. However, if the General Investment Fund falls below the floor amount, guaranteed annuities may be purchased.

Principal maintains the contributions in an unallocated fund to which it adds the earnings of the underlying investments and subtracts benefit payments and administrative expenses. The FPI contract is included in the net assets of the Plan as part of the Pension Trust Investment Pool at fair value as determined by Principal.

NOTE F - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE G- PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of the Plan document and the Merger Agreement. Should the Plan terminate at some future time, a particular participant's accumulated plan benefits will be dependent on the priority of those benefits at that time as set forth in the Plan document and the Merger Agreement.

NOTE H - INCOME TAX STATUS

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Administrator by letter that the Basic Pension Plan, the General Church Pension Plan, and the related trusts were designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). There have been amendments since the Administrator received those determination letters; however, the Administrator believes that the Plan, which encompasses both the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan, is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Pensions and Benefits Fund as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As discussed in Note F to the financial statements, an error resulting in the understatement of death benefit benevolence plan liability and overstatement of unrestricted net assets as of October 1, 2005 was discovered during the current year. Accordingly, adjustments have been made to the unrestricted net assets as of October 1, 2005 and to the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 death benefit benevolence plan liability included on the statement of financial position and benevolence payments expenses included in the statement of activities to correct this error.

STATEMENTS

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PENSIONS AND BENEFITS FUND

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) provides various benevolence, retirement, and insurance programs to Nazarene ministers, their spouses, and their surviving family members. All of the programs are self-funded through contributions made by the local churches. The Fund is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Fund provides administrative services and certain specific funding amounts as determined by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA to the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan and the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

Benevolence programs - The Fund provides benevolence programs, including death benefit benevolence, emergency medical assistance, temporary monthly disability assistance, administrative benefit adjustment, and funeral assistance. These programs provide various kinds of benevolence assistance payments to ministers, their spouses, and their surviving family members upon the recommendation of their district advisory boards. A more comprehensive description of the Fund's benevolence programs is contained in the Benefits Summary Brochure.

Pastors Life Insurance Plan - The Pastors Life Insurance Plan is a group term life insurance plan for district-licensed and ordained clergy or district-credentialed laypersons who are currently serving in U.S. districts in qualified assignments and who have not begun receiving retirement benefits.

Pensioners Death Benefit Plan - The Pensioners Death Benefit Plan provides death benefits to district-licensed and ordained ministers who are currently receiving a monthly benefit from the Basic Pension Plan portion of the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan based on years of service or, alternatively, who are vested Plan participants aged 70 1/2 or older and who have not chosen to begin receiving a monthly retirement benefit.

Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan - Effective January 1, 1996, the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan were merged to form the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan. After January 1, 1996, there were no new entrants in the Basic Pension Plan or the General Church Pension Plan. Participants in both plans were grandfathered in so that no one who had been credited with years of service under the predecessor plans would receive less under the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan than what would have been paid under the former defined benefit plans had membership in those plans continued unchanged.

403(b) Retirement Savings Plan - Effective January 1, 1996, the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan [the 403(b) Plan] was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as for general church employees. The annual pension supplement (APS) contribution is deposited into individual accounts for each eligible U.S. clergy member and layperson from Fund receipts or agency funds, depending upon the participant's employer. An additional bonus amount is deposited for eligible participants whose local congregation pays 100% of their Fund amount or whose district pays 100% of their Fund amount. The APS amount for 2007 and 2006 was $500, with an additional $500 bonus amount paid to eligible participants.

Employees may elect to participate in the 403(b) Plan through salary-reduction contributions. Employers make matching contributions to their respective participating employees' accounts. Local church and agency employers are encouraged to establish policies to match amounts of voluntary salary-reduction contributions up to at least 3% of salary. Contributions are made directly to Fidelity Investments. The cash value of all participant accounts that were not included in the Fund was $262,244,134 and $237,679,015 as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Revenue Recognition

Insurance premiums received are deferred and recognized as revenue ratably over the term of the insurance policy.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - Continued

3. Equipment

Equipment is carried at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method and is provided in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives, which range from four to eight years.

4. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid, except for the death benefit benevolence payments for which the liability is reduced when paid.

5. Life Insurance Dividends

Life insurance dividends are recognized as revenue of the Fund to offset the expense of providing the life insurance plans.

6. Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE C - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

NOTE E - INCOME TAX STATUS

The Fund is exempt from federal and state income taxes since it is an entity organized under the General Board, which holds a group exemption.

NOTE F - RESTATEMENT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The previously audited statement of financial position of the Fund as of September 30, 2006 did not include certain liabilities relating to a death benevolence benefit. During the year ended September 30, 2007, it was determined that the omission of this liability was erroneous. Accordingly, the Fund has restated its previously audited 2006 financial statements to properly reflect the omitted liability.

The Fund has restated its previously audited statement of financial position as of September 30, 2006 and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended for the misstatements discussed above. The misstatements had a cumulative effect on net assets as of October 1, 2005, since they occurred prior to 2005.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLANS

The following brief description of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans, consisting of the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan and the World Mission Pension Plan (collectively, the Plans) is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan documents for more complete information.

New participation was frozen such that there were no new entrants effective January 1, 1998. For new missionaries under contract as of January 1, 1998, retirement benefits are provided by the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

I. General

The Plans are noncontributory defined benefit pension plans administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Plans provide retirement benefits at age 65 to missionaries under contract with the General Board. The Plans are church plans that have not elected to be governed by the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and are not subject to Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation insurance coverage.

The World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan) integrates its benefit formula with that of the total pension benefit provided by the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan. All benefits under the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan are offset by any benefits that can be paid under the World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan).

2. Pension Benefits - World Mission Qualified Pension Plan

Missionaries with 10 or more years of service are entitled to pension benefits beginning at the normal retirement age of 65. The pension benefits are calculated at an amount equal to the greater of (a) and (b) minus (c), where (a) is the sum of (1) $2.50 per month for each year of service (to a maximum of 50 years) plus (2) $100 per month for participants with 25 or more years of service, or $75 per month for participants with 20, but less than 25, years of service; and (b) is $5.00 per month for each year of service with a bonus of .5% for each year of service in excess of 10; and (c) is the pension provided by the amount in the participant's 403(b) plan derived from deposits equal to an amount determined each Plan year by the Plan's Trustee.

the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2007 and 2006

2. Pension Benefits - World Mission Qualified Pension Plan - Continued

For purposes of determining the bonus amount, and only for such purposes, years of service credited under the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan's grandfathered Basic Pension Plan provisions shall be included in the calculation of years of service under this plan.

3. Pension Benefits - World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan

Missionaries with 10 or more years of service are entitled to pension benefits beginning at the normal retirement age of 65. The pension benefits are calculated at an amount equal to the greater of (a) and (b) minus (c), where (a) is the sum of (1) $5 per month for each year of service (to a maximum of 50 years) for married or unmarried (single) participants plus (2) $200 per month for married participants and $140 per month for single participants, widows, or widowers with 25 or more years of missionary service, or $150 or $100 per month, respectively, with at least 20, but less than 25, years of missionary service or $0 with less than 20 years of missionary service; (b) is $10.00 per month for each year of service with a bonus of .5% for each year of service in excess of 10; and (c) is the pension provided by the amount in the participant's 403(b) plan derived from deposits equal to an amount determined each Plan year by the Plan's Trustee. For purposes of determining the bonus amount, and only for such purposes, all years of service credited under this plan and under the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan's grandfathered Basic Pension Plan provisions will be included. This pension plan is also reduced by the extent of any payments made under the World Mission Pension Plan.

4. Disability Benefits

Active missionaries with five or more years of service who become totally disabled receive annual disability benefits based on years of service to the date of disability, plus an additional year of service credit for each two years between the date of disability and the normal retirement date.

Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1.. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices. The Plans' investment contract with Principal Life Insurance Company (Principal) is valued at estimated fair value by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable durations.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

3. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits

Accumulated plan benefits are those future periodic payments that are attributable under the Plans' provisions to the service employees have rendered. Accumulated plan benefits include benefits expected to be paid to the following: (a) retired or terminated employees or their beneficiaries; (b) beneficiaries of employees who have died; and (c) current employees or their beneficiaries. Benefits payable under all circumstances (retirement, death, disability, or termination of employment) are included to the extent they are deemed attributable to employee service rendered to the valuation date.

Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2007 and 2006

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits - Continued

The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits is determined by actuaries from Watson Wyatt and is that amount which results from applying actuarial assumptions to adjust the accumulated plan benefits to reflect the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment. The significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations as of January 1, 2006 and 2005 were as follows: (a) life expectancy of participants (based on the 1994 Group Annuity Mortality Table); (b) retirement age assumptions (the assumed retirement age ranges from 65 to 70); and (c) investment return. The valuations from the actuary assumed an average rate of return of 7%, compounded annually, and discount rates of 5.75% and 5.50% in 2007 and 2006, respectively. The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plans will continue. Were the Plans to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits.

5. Administrative Expenses

Certain directly related administrative, accounting, legal, and actuarial expenses are allocated to the Plans by the Administrator. All other expenses are borne by the Pensions and Benefits Fund.

6. Investment Risks

The Plans invest in a Pension Trust Investment Pool that holds various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the value of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE C - FUNDING POLICY

The General Board's funding policy is to make annual contributions to the Plans in amounts such that all participants' benefits will be fully provided for by the time they retire. For the Plans' calendar years beginning January 1, 2007 and 2006, the net annual contributions required from the General Board to support the present benefit levels under the Plans' actuarial cost method were $449,829 and $449,495 in 2007 and 2006, respectively.

The following table shows the Plans' unfunded liability as of September 30,

	2007	2006
Net assets available for benefits	$ 6,551,564	$ 6,218,466

Funded status	$ (3,673,339)	$ (4,200,715)

NOTE D - INVESTMENTS

The funds of the Plans and the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan are combined for collective investment purposes (the Pension Trust Investment Pool). Separate accounting records are maintained for each plan in order to properly reflect each participant's accumulated plan benefits. The net investment income from the Pension Trust Investment Pool is allocated on a pro rata basis between the Plans. The allocation of securities held in the Pension Trust Investment Pool is based on a percentage of total fair value.

During 2007 and 2006, the Plans' investments, including gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held, during the year appreciated in value by $705,017 and $212,559, respectively, as follows:

NOTE E - CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE COMPANY

The Administrator has entered into a flexible pension investment (FPI) contract with Principal. Principal maintains the contributions in an unallocated fund to which it adds the earnings of the underlying investments and subtracts benefit payments and administrative expenses. As part of the Pension Trust Investment Pool, the FPI contract is included in the net assets of the Plans at fair value as determined by Principal.

NOTE F - CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE G - PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plans subject to the provisions of the Plan documents. Should the Plans terminate at some future time, a particular participant's accumulated plan benefits will be dependent on the priority of those benefits at that time, as set forth in the Plan documents.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE H - TAX STATUS

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Administrator by letter that the World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified Plan) and the related trust were designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). There have been amendments since the Administrator received the determination letter; however, the Administrator believes that both of the Plans are designed and are currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Program's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Program's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAM

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program (the Program) administers, on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board), medical, dental, and vision benefits under two separate plans: the General Church Medical Plan and the Missionary Medical Plan (collectively, the Plans). These financial statements present the fiduciary activities of the Program's Administrator and do not purport to present the financial status of the Plans. These statements do not contain certain information regarding benefit obligations and other disclosures necessary for a fair presentation of the financial status of the Plans in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

I. Benefits

The Program administers the provision of medical, dental, and vision benefits to full-time employees (working at least 30 hours per week) of the General Board and related employers and their beneficiaries and covered dependents (the General Church Medical Plan) and to missionaries under contract with the General Board and their beneficiaries and covered dependents (the Missionary Medical Plan). Medical and dental benefits in excess of Medicare coverage may also be extended to retired participants and their beneficiaries and covered dependents pursuant to the provisions of each Plan's document and/or the policies of the participating employers.

The medical, dental, and vision benefits are similar under both Plans, which pay a major portion of medical, dental, and vision expense after the satisfaction of a calendar-year deductible.

Medical and vision claims of active and retired participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed by Principal Life Insurance Company. Dental claims of active and retired participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed by Delta Dental Company. The responsibility for administration of payments to participants and providers is retained by the Administrator.

Participants should refer to the Plan documents for a complete description of the Plans' provisions.

Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2007 and 2006

2. Contributions

Not less than one-half of the contributions for participant coverage are paid by General Board-related employers. The Program is self-funded with specific and aggregate reinsurance limits.

3. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right under the Plans to modify the benefits provided to active participants, to discontinue contributions at any time, and to terminate the Plans subject to the Plans' provisions.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Marketable Securities

Marketable securities are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices for those or similar securities, with realized and unrealized gains and losses reflected in the statements of activities.

3. Claims Incurred but Not Reported

Other obligations for current benefit coverage at September 30, 2007 and 2006 include IBNR amounts, which represent estimated medical and dental costs for services performed in the Plan year that have not yet been submitted for payment by Plan participants. The IBNR amounts are estimated based on historical lag factors between the date of service and the date of payment.

4. Administrative Expenses

Directly related administrative and other expenses of the Administrator are allocated to the Program.

Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2007 and 2006

5. Investment Risks

The Program invests in funds that hold various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

6. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE C - CONCENTRATION OF RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE D - INCOME TAX STATUS

The Program is exempt from federal and state income taxes since it is an entity organized under the General Board, which holds a group exemption. The Administrator has not obtained a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service for the Plans. However, the Administrator believes the Plans are designed and are currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

September 30, 2007 and 2006

NOTE E - MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Program's marketable securities consist of equity securities maintained in a pooled investment fund (the PIF) administered by the General Board. At September 30, 2007 and 2006, equity securities were reported at a fair value of $2,243,331 and $2,209,072, respectively. Equity securities had a cost basis of $2,214,070 and $2,118,229 at September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Investment income for the years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 consisted of $194,474 and $132,951 of allocated income from the PIF and $11,981 and $1,302 of unrealized gains, respectively. Income is allocated from the PIF to reflect the Program's share of realized gains and losses, interest, and dividend income computed on a monthly basis.

NOTE F - MEDICARE PRESCRIPTION DRUG, IMPROVEMENT, AND MODERNIZATION ACT OF 2003

In May 2004, the FASB issued Staff Position No. 106-2 (FAS FSP 106-2), Accounting and Disclosure Requirements Related to the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement, and Modernization Act of 2003 (the Act). FAS FSP 106-2 provides guidance on accounting for the effects of a subsidy available under the Act to companies that sponsor retiree medical programs with drug benefits which are at least actuarially equivalent to those available under Medicare. In addition to the direct benefit to a company from qualifying for and receiving the subsidy, the effects would include expected changes in retiree participation rates and changes in estimated health care costs that result from the Act.

The Administrator believes that its postretirement benefit plans currently provide prescription drug coverage which is at least actuarially equivalent to the new benefit available under Medicare and it will therefore qualify for the subsidy for an initial period of time after the Act is implemented until actuarial equivalency changes as a result of existing limits on the Plans' cost of providing the benefit.

REPORT of INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

General Board of the Church of the Nazarene

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position of The Global Ministry Center of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the General Board's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We did not audit the financial statements of Church of the Nazarene Foundation, a 509(a) supporting organization, which statements reflect total assets of 17% and 17% as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively, and total revenues and gains of 2% and 4%; respectively, for the years then ended. Those statements were audited by other auditors, whose report thereon has been furnished to us, and our opinion, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for Church of the Nazarene Foundation, is based solely on the report of the other auditors.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing-standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the General Board's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits and the report of the other auditors provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the report of the other auditors, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all respects, the financial position of The Global Ministry Center of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE A - NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

The Church of the Nazarene exists to serve as an instrument for advancing the kingdom of God through the preaching and teaching of the Gospel throughout the world. The Global Ministry Center of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board), previously known as the International Headquarters of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene, shall encourage and expect all national, regional, district, and local boards to fulfill the mission of the Church of the Nazarene (the Church). The General Board shall promote the financial and material affairs of all the departments of the Church, subject to such instructions as may be given by the General Assembly. It shall coordinate, coordinate, and unify the plans and activities of the several constituent departments so that a unified policy may be established by and in all the activities of the Church.

The objectives of the General Board are to advance the cause of Christian holiness:

- by fostering growth in the Church
- by the production and distribution of print and nonprint media for the various services; to awaken and strengthen interest throughout the Church in the value and proper use of contemporary media resources
- by articulate the philosophy of Christian education, enhancing the role of Sunday School, strengthening other training in the Church, and emphasizing the importance of ministry to home and family as a task of the Church throughout the world in accordance with the Great Commission
- by strengthening the bonds between the educational institutions and the Church at large (and to provide information and services as appropriate); to serve Nazarene educational institutions worldwide; and to encourage them to be all they can be in quality, achievement, and service to Christ

Nazarene NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS -

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the significant accounting policies consistently applied in the preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements follows.

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements present the activities and operations of the General Board, including amounts transferred to the World Mission regions. Also included in the consolidated financial statements are transactions for Church of the Nazarene Foundation and Harvest Partners, Inc. Each of these entities is a 501(c)(3) corporation organized as a 509(a) supporting organization. Individual congregations and related service corporations are not included herein, nor are the activities and operations of the individual World Mission regions included. These financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. All significant interentity balances and transactions have been eliminated.

2. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include only funds and overnight investments held in banks for operating purposes. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of the financial institutions in which deposits are maintained. As of September 30, 2008 and 2007, cash in banks in excess of federally insured limits was approximately $4,308,346 and $1,230,934, respectively. Foreign bank balances amounted to $962,950 and $1,429,996 as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

3. Investment Held From Bond Proceeds

Investment held from bond proceeds represents an unsecured investment in fixed-rate private-debt obligations. The investment earns interest at 5.071% per annum and matures on February 1, 2009.

The funds in this investment were generated from the issuance of bonds and are restricted for use toward the construction of the new global ministry center.

September 30, 2008 and 2007

4. Contributions

Contributions received, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenues when the donor's commitment is received. All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless restricted by the donor for specific purposes outside the general nature of the organization. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes outside the general nature of the organization are reported as temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support which increases those net asset classes. However, if a restriction is generally fulfilled in the same time period in which the contribution is received, the General Board reports the support as unrestricted.

The General Board reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets are to be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the General Board reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed into service.

5. Investments

Investments are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices for those or similar investments, with gains and losses, to the extent they accrue to the benefit of the General Board, included in the consolidated statements of activities. Certain investments are held in trust for others or pursuant to deferred gift agreements. Gains and losses associated with such investments are reflected as increases or decreases in the associated liability amounts.

6. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the depreciable assets. Estimated useful lives of property and equipment are as follows:

Building	10-50 years
Equipment	4-8 years

The Global Ministry Center of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS CONTINUED

September 30, 2008 and 2007

The General Board periodically reviews long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of carrying amount or fair value, less costs to sell.

Construction in progress is stated at cost, which includes the cost of construction and other direct costs attributable to the construction. No provision for depreciation is made on construction in progress until such time as the relevant assets are completed and put into use. There was no construction in progress at September 30, 2008. Construction in progress at September 30, 2007 represents construction costs relating to the new global ministry center.

7. Deferred Gift/Planned Giving Agreements

The General Board is a party to various deferred gift and planned giving agreements, including gift annuities, unitrusts, and revocable and irrevocable trusts, whereby the General Board receives funds or assets for which it has fiduciary responsibility for the safekeeping, investment management, and distribution of funds to donor-designated beneficiaries.

The General Board recognizes an asset and a liability for funds or assets received pursuant to revocable and irrevocable defined gift agreements for which the General Board is not the donor-designated beneficiary. In certain cases, the General Board is the donor-designated beneficiary and recognizes the receipt of funds or assets as temporarily restricted revenues.

Certain of the agreements contain an annuity feature, whereby the General Board will pay a fixed annuity to the donor or donor's beneficiary over specified periods of time. At the inception of the agreement, the General Board recognizes a liability equal to the present value of the expected annuity obligation, at the current discount rate, over the remaining expected life of the annuitant based on established mortality tables. The excess of the value of the funds or assets received over the present value of the annuity obligation is recognized as temporarily restricted net assets of the General Board if the General Board is the designated recipient of the corpus remaining upon the death of the annuitant. The annuity obligation is recalculated on an annual basis to take into consideration changes in the discount period (due to the passage of time) and mortality rates.

September 30, 2008 and 2007

8. Income Taxes

The General Board is exempt from federal and state income taxes on its principal operations, although the General Board would be subject to federal income taxes on the net income from certain operations if such operations generated unrelated business income. No such unrelated business income was earned during 2008 or 2007.

9. Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates included in the consolidated financial statements are the valuations of pension and postretirement benefit obligations and deferred gift agreements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The General Board invests in various securities which may include U.S. government obligations, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

10. Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset with estimated future net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. For purposes of determining impairment, the General Board groups assets by category. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value, less costs to sell. During the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, the General Board recognized $0 and $421,008, respectively, in impairment expense. This expense is allocated among several program and support services in the consolidated statements of activities.

Certain items in the 2007 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2008 presentation.

NOTE C - INVESTMENTS

September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE E - NOTES PAYABLE - USA CHURCH LOAN FUND

Notes payable consisted of funds borrowed from individual members, churches, and certain districts of the Church. The funds were used to make loans to small churches for the purpose of acquiring real Church property.

The notes Payable bore interest rates ranging from 3.30% to 4.5% with terms of one, two, or five years. A decision was made at the 2003 General Board meeting to eliminate the General Board notes in anticipation of a self-funded program. All remaining notes payable were paid in full during 2008.

NOTE F - BONDS PAYABLE

Effective January 1, 2007, the General Board entered into a loan agreement for $25,000,000 of tax-exempt bonds for the construction of a new global ministry center. The bonds payable require monthly interest payments for the first two years, with interest payable at an adjusting rate that is calculated at the Bond Market Association Index plus .75% (8.71% at September 30, 2008). Thereafter, annual principal and monthly interest will be due on the bonds based upon a 20-year mortgage-style amortization. The bonds have a 20-year final maturity, with the bondholder retaining the option to "put" the bonds back to the General Board five years from the effective date of the loan agreement and annually thereafter. The bonds are collateralized by a mortgage and a negative pledge on the property and improvements of the new global ministry facility. The mortgage will not be filed unless there is an event of default under the bonds.

For the year ended September 30, 2008, interest on the bonds payable totaled $827,209, of which $736,250 was capitalized relating to construction (see Note D) and $90,959 was expensed. For the year ended September 30, 2007, all interest on the bonds payable was capitalized relating to construction (see Note D).

Future principal maturities relating to the bonds payable are as follows:

Year ending September 30,	Amount
2009	$
2010	910,000
2011	955,000
2012	1,000,000
2013	1,045,000
Thereafter	21,090,000
	$ 25,000,000

The bonds payable contain certain restrictive covenants, some of which require the maintenance of prescribed debt service and liquidity ratios. The General Board was in compliance with all financial covenants relating to the bonds payable as of September 30, 2008 and 2007.

Effective February 1, 2007, the General Board entered into an interest rate-swap agreement to convert an initial aggregate notional amount of $20,000,000 of the floating-rate debt to fixed-rate debt. The nominal amount of the swap decreases throughout the term of the agreement, which ends January 1, 2027. The interest rate of the swap agreement is 3.93%. Interest expense of $271,199 and $34,079 was paid during the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

NOTE G - LINE OF CREDIT

In September 2006, the General Board entered into an agreement for a line of credit with available borrowings of $5,000,000. The line of credit is due March 2009 and is collateralized by church mortgages and loans - USA Church Loan Fund receivables. Interest is payable monthly at LIBOR (4.68% at September 30, 2008). There were no borrowings under the line of credit at September 30, 2008 or 2007.

NOTE H - DEFERRED GIFT AGREEMENTS OUTSTANDING

Deferred gift agreements outstanding represent the liability for various planned giving and revocable and irrevocable trust instruments for which the General Board has fiduciary responsibility for the safekeeping, investment management, and distribution of such funds to donor-designated Church ministries at the termination of such instruments.

NOTE I - FUNDS HELD IN TRUST

Funds held in trust consist of deposits made with the General Board by affiliated organizations for investment purposes and other miscellaneous deposits. Income earned from the investment of these deposits serves to increase the funds held in trust.

NOTE K - PENSIONS AND BENEFITS FUND

The Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) provides various retirement, insurance, and benevolence programs to ministers and their spouses or surviving family members. The Fund is funded by local churches participating in the programs. The Fund is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Board of Pensions) on behalf of the General Board. The assets of the Fund are included in separate financial statements.

NOTE L - NAZARENE HEALTH AND HOSPITALIZATION PROGRAM

The Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program (the NHHP) was established to provide health care benefits. The NHHP includes coverage under two separate plan documents identified as the Missionary Medical Plan (the Missionary Plan) and the General Church Medical Plan (the General Church Plan). The plans are administered by the Board of Pensions on behalf of the General Board.

Not less than one-half of the contributions for participant coverage are paid by the respective employers. All medical and dental benefits of the two plans are self-funded through specific and aggregate reinsurance policies.

The General Board contributed $2,003,578 and $1,839,382 to the Missionary Plan and $2,499,528 and $2,414,415 to the General Church Plan for the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

The assets of the NHHP are included in separate financial statements.

NOTE M - PENSION AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS

I. *World Mission Pension Plans

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the FASB) issued SPAS 158, Employers' Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans: An Amendment of FASB Statements No. 87, 88, 106, and 132(R) (SFAS 158). SFAS 158 requires the General Board to recognize the funded status of its defined benefit pension plans and other postretirement benefits other than pensions in its statements of financial position. The funded status was previously disclosed in the notes to the General Board's financial statements, but that amount differed from the amount recognized in the statements of financial position. The application of SFAS 158 does not change the accounting for the General Board's defined contribution plan.

NOTE M - PENSION AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS - Continued

1. World Mission Pension Plans - Continued

SFAS 158 also removes the existing option to use a plan measurement date that is up to 90 days prior to the date of the statements of financial position.

The recognition and disclosure provisions of SFAS 158 are effective for fiscal years ending after June 15, 2007 for nonpublic entities and are to be applied as of the end of the year of adoption. Retrospective application is not permitted. The General Board adopted the recognition and disclosure provisions of SFAS 158 effective September 30, 2007. The General Board uses a fiscal year-end measurement date for all of its plans; therefore, the measurement date provisions will not affect the General Board.

The General Board maintains a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan covering substantially all missionaries under contract with the General Board. The benefits are based on years of service. The General Board's funding policy is to contribute annually the amount needed to provide not only for benefits for service to date, but also for those benefits expected to be earned in the future. New participation was frozen such that there were no new entrants after December 31, 1997. For new missionaries under contract after December 31, 1997, retirement benefits are provided by the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

At September 30, 2008, the General Board's projected benefit obligation under the Plans exceeded the fair value of Plan assets by $4,601,802; therefore, the Plans are underfunded.

The adoption of SFAS 158 for the Plans did not affect the General Board's statement of activities for the year ended September 30, 2007 or for any prior periods. Application of SFAS 158 will not change the calculation of change in net assets in future periods, but such application will affect the calculation of the change in pension liability, net included in pension expense.

Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan

The Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan have been merged to form the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan (the Single Benefit Plan), and no new entrants were admitted into the Single Benefit Plan after December 31, 1995. Participants in the Single Benefit Plan have been grandfathered in so that no one having years of service under the predecessor plans will receive less under the Single Benefit Plan than what would have been paid under the predecessor plans had they continued unchanged. The Single Benefit Plan is a multiemployer plan that provides retirement benefits at age 65 to qualified full-time employees, pastors, evangelists, and district-licensed laypersons serving organized churches. The Single Benefit Plan is a defined benefit plan and is administered by the Board of Pensions on behalf of the General Board. The assets are held in trust by the Board of Pensions, and separate financial statements are prepared for the Single Benefit Plan. No contributions were made by the employers to the Single Benefit Plan for the years ended September 30, 2008 or 2007.

Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

The Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan [the 403(b) Plan] was established for all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as for general church employees. The annual pension supplement amount contributed from the Fund receipts or agency funds is determined annually by the Board of Pensions. Ministerial employees may receive a bonus if their local church or district pays 100% of their allocated Fund amounts. The bonus amount is determined annually by the Board of Pensions.

For each of the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, the annual pension supplement amount was $500 per participant and the bonus amount was $500. Local church/agency employers are encouraged to establish policies to match amounts of voluntary salary reduction contributions up to at least 3% of salary.

The total cost of contributions made to the 403(b) Plan through the Fund was $4,057,830 and $6,247,182 for the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively. The cash value of all participant accounts was $285,631,808 and $262,244,134 as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

NOTE P - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The General Board is a party to various legal actions arising in the ordinary course of its operations. In management's opinion, the General Board has adequate legal defenses and/or insurance coverage respecting each of these actions and does not believe that they will materially affect the General Board's financial position, changes in net assets, or cash flows.

Debt in the amount of $1,234,196 and $1,305,513 was outstanding on real property related to the worldwide missionary and Church growth programs as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively. The General Board was the guarantor on $916,047 and $906,076 of this debt, with the remaining $318,149 and $399,436 considered a contingent liability as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively. The General Board believes it has a moral obligation to repay this contingent liability in the event of default to support the two programs, although it is not legally obligated to do so. All of the debt is collateralized by real property, for which management estimates the fair value to approximate $12,982,629 as of September 30, 2008. The debt and related property are excluded from the General Board's financial statements.

NOTE Q - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Church Mortgages and Loans - USA Church Loan Fund

The General Board extends credit for real estate mortgage loans to individual churches. The General Board evaluates creditworthiness on a loan-by-loan basis and generally requires collateral in the form of mortgages on the related property and guarantees by the applicable District Advisory Board. The loans are expected to be repaid from operations and/or contributions to borrowers. The General Board also controls credit risk through regular evaluations and monitoring procedures.

Notes Payable - USA Church Loan Fund

Prior to 2003, the General Board accepted deposits from individual members, churches, and certain districts of the Church. The deposits were in the form of notes payable with various interest rates and maturity terms for the purpose of funding mortgage loans. The General Board controlled risk by accepting deposits with interest and repayment terms that could be met from cash flows generated by mortgage loans with similar interest rates and maturities. A decision was made at the 2003 General Board meeting to eliminate the General Board notes in anticipation of a self-funded loan program. All remaining notes payable were paid in full during 2008.

NOTE R - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In accordance with SFAS 107, Disclosures About Fair Value of Financial Instruments, the fair value of each class of financial instruments is being disclosed. Fair value is the estimated amount at which financial assets or liabilities can be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. Because no market exists for certain of these financial instruments, the fair values of these instruments have been calculated by discounting expected cash flows, which involves the significant exercise of judgment by management.

Investment Held From Bond Proceeds

The carrying amount of the investment held from bond proceeds approximates fair value due to its short maturity.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2008 and 2007

Investments

The fair values of investments are based on quoted market prices for those or similar securities and amounted to $128,284,231 and $150,757,074 as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Church Mortgages and Loans USA Church Loan Fund

During the current year, the General Board reassessed its methodology for determining the fair value of church mortgages and loans receivable. The fair values for church mortgages and loans receivable are estimated by discounting their expected future cash flows using the current rates at which the General Board would be able to obtain financing. In the prior year, the fair values for church mortgages and loans receivable were estimated by discounting their expected future cash flows using the current rates at which similar loans would be made by the General Board to borrowers with similar credit ratings and for the same remaining maturities. Loans with similar maturities are aggregated for calculation purposes. The fair values of church mortgages and loans receivable approximated $28,634,325 and $24,411,334 as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Notes Payable - USA Church Loan Fund

The carrying amounts of the notes payable approximated their fair values due to their short maturities and variable interest rates.

Bonds Payable

The carrying amounts of the bonds payable approximate fair value due to their variable interest rates.

Funds Held in Trust

The carrying amount of funds held in trust approximates fair value because investment income (both realized and unrealized) is recognized when earned and because such funds can be withdrawn on demand.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE S - FUNCTIONAL EXPENSES

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the consolidated statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the corresponding program and support services. Fundraising costs approximated $1,919,612 and $1,820,713 for the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

NOTE T - OPERATING LEASES

The General Board leases office space under a noncancelable operating lease expiring in January 2010. The General Board also leases office equipment under noncancelable operating leases with maturity dates ranging from February 2009 to September 2013.

Minimum lease commitments are as follows:

Year ending September 30,	Amount
2009	$ 88,071
2010	49,575
2011	24,892
2012	16,365
2013	16,365
	$ 195,268

Total lease expense was $94,047 for 2008 and $120,572 for 2007.

NOTE U - TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS HELD BY THIRD-PARTY TRUSTEES

During the year ended September 30, 2008, the General Board was informed that certain assets in amounts totaling $1,258,716 are being held on its behalf by third-party trustees. The donors of these asset have designated the General Board as the principal beneficiary of the charitable remainder. These assets are included in temporarily restricted net assets and are invested primarily in fixed money market accounts and land. Because the General Board does not know when conditions will be met for the collection of the charitable, remainder, there were no plans as of September 30, 2008 for use of the assets.

September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE V - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Market conditions subsequent to September 30, 2008 have resulted in an unusually high degree of volatility and increased the risk and associated short-term liquidity of certain investments held by the General Board. Subsequent to September 30, 2008, the General Board's investments and funds held in trust have incurred significant declines in fair values, consistent with the general decline in financial markets. However, because the values of individual investments fluctuate with market conditions, the amount of loss, if any, that will be recognized in subsequent periods, if any, cannot be determined.

General Board of the Church of the Nazarene

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole of The Global Ministry Center of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as of and for the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, which are presented in the preceding section of this report. The consolidating information as of and for the year ended September 30, 2008 is presented for purposes of additional analysis of the consolidated financial statements rather than to present the financial position, changes in net assets, and cash flows of the individual entities. The consolidating information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the consolidated financial statements and, in our opinion, which, insofar as it relates to Church of the Nazarene Foundation, is based on the report of other auditors, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits (modified cash basis) of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits (modified cash basis) for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note B, these financial statements were prepared on a modified cash basis, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note B

September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

1. General

The Plan is for the benefit of all U.S. ministers and laypersons serving local congregations and districts, as well as general church employees. The Plan is a defined contribution plan established under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). Lay or ministerial employees of Nazarene churches or church-controlled agencies and registered Nazarene chaplains may participate in the Plan. Nazarene churches or church-controlled agencies include the Global Ministry Center of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board), the Nazarene Publishing House, Church of the Nazarene Foundation, Nazarene Theological Seminary, Nazarene Bible College, Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, Inc., or the subsidiaries of these entities, including Nazarene-affiliated colleges or universities. The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA serves as the administrator and trustee (the Administrator and/or the Trustee) on behalf of the General Board. Fidelity Management Trust Company (Fidelity) serves as the custodian of the Plan.

The Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) provides administrative services and certain specific funding amounts as determined by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA to the Plan.

2. Plan Administration

The plan administrator is responsible for the day-to-day administration of the Plan. The plan administrator is also responsible for maintaining accurate and detailed records and accounts of employees and of their rights under the Plan and all investments, receipts, disbursements, and other transactions. The plan administrator is not responsible to determine that contributions made to the plan trust by an employer comply with the provisions of the Plan, nor does it have responsibility to collect or monitor the making or the accuracy of any contributions payable or made by an employer to the plan trust.

The plan administrator has the exclusive power and authority to control and manage the operation and administration of the Plan, including determining eligibility and participation in the Plan and overseeing claims procedures.

3. Contributions

Contributions are made through either an employer-funded arrangement or a voluntary salary-reduction agreement with each participant's employer. Voluntary salary-reduction contributions are not permitted to exceed IRC limitations on an annual basis. Employers participating in the Plan are encouraged to match amounts totaling at least up to, but not limited to, 3% of the employee's voluntary salary-reduction contribution amounts.

4. Contributions for Ministerial Employees

Annual contributions for ministerial employees are determined by the Administrator. The annual pension supplement (APS) contribution is deposited into individual accounts for each eligible U.S. clergy member and layperson from Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) receipts or agency funds, depending upon the participant's employer. The APS contribution for 2008 and 2007 was $500 per participant. An additional bonus amount is deposited for eligible participants whose local congregation pays 100% of their Fund amounts or whose district pays 100% of their Fund amounts. The additional bonus amount for 2008 and 2007 was $500. Total APS contributions amounted to $4,475,671 and $6,612,870 for the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

5. Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's and participating employer's contributions, as applicable, and allocations of (a) Pensions and Benefits Fund or agency fund contributions and (b) Plan earnings. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's account.

6. Vesting and Forfeitures

Participants are immediately vested in all contributions plus actual earnings thereon.

7. Investment Options

Upon enrollment in the Plan, a participant may direct contributions to any of several investment options.

8. Participant Loans

Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000, up to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their account balance. Loan terms range from 1 to 5 years. The loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at prime plus 1%. Interest rates for participant loans ranged from 5.00% to 9.25%. Principal and interest are paid ratably through monthly or quarterly installments.

9. Administrative Expenses

The Fund, a related party, pays Plan-level administrative expenses, which amounted to $272,354 and $265,150 for the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a modified cash basis, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this basis, interest, dividends, and contributions are recognized when collected rather than when earned, and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred. Investments are reported at fair value. Consequently, contributions receivable and accrued interest and dividend receivables are not included in the financial statements.

2. Valuation of Investments

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value, except for its investment contract with Fidelity. The investment contract is stated at contract value (Note C) based on quoted market prices, with gains and losses included in the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits. Separate account investments are valued based on the net asset value of the underlying shares of the mutual funds held in the accounts. Participant loans are recorded at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2008 and 2007

3. Investment Risks

The Plan invests in mutual funds, which hold various securities that may include U.S. Government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

4. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

5. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE C - STABLE VALUE FUND INVESTMENT CONTRACT WITH FIDELITY

The Plan follows the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Staff Position FSP AAG INV-1 and SOP 94-4-1, Reporting of Fully Benefit-Responsive Investment Contracts Held by Certain Investment Companies Subject to the AICPA Investment Company Guide and Defined-Contribution Health and Welfare and Pension Plans (the FSP), wherein investment contracts held by a defined contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the plan. The Plan invests in investment contracts through Fidelity Fixed Fund. As is required by the FSP, the statements of net assets available for benefits present the fair value of the investment, as well as the adjustment of the investment in the collective trusts from fair value to contract value. The statement of changes in net assets available for benefits is prepared on a contract-value basis.

of the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan

CONTINUED

September 30, 2008 and 2007

Continued

Investments in the Fidelity Managed Fixed Fund consist principally of guaranteed interest contracts, which are included at fair value as determined by Fidelity Management Trust Company based on discounted cash flows using current market interest rates with a maximum estimated fair value compounded at a rate of 3.76% at September 30, 2008 and 4.11% at September 30, 2007. The average yield earned by the trust with an adjustment to reflect the actual interest rate credited to participants in the fully benefit-responsive investment contract was 4.35% at September 30, 2008 and 4.19% at September 30, 2007.

NOTE D - TAX STATUS

The Plan is not subject to federal or state income taxes, since the Administrator and legal counsel believe that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC under Section 403(b)

NOTE E - PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the terms of the Plan agreement. In the event of termination of the Plan, the Trustee shall pay and discharge all expenses and, unless the Administrator elects to continue the trust, all benefits will be payable as soon as is administratively feasible under the terms of the Plan.

The Trustee may either distribute the remaining assets of the Plan trust in kind or liquidate them and distribute the net proceeds to the participants in accordance with their respective account balances.

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE F - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Plan policies regarding APS contributions were amended effective January 1, 2009 as follows:

The 2009 APS contribution for eligible senior pastors and associates will be established using an agreed-upon schedule to be based on the amounts paid to the Fund by eligible participants' local congregations during 2008 and 2009.

The 2009 APS contribution for eligible district superintendents, district assigned, and evangelists will be $1,000.

Market conditions subsequent to September 30, 2008 have resulted in an unusually high degree of volatility and increased the risk and associated short-term liquidity with certain investments held by the Plan. Subsequent to year-end, the Plan's investment portfolio has incurred a significant decline in fair value, consistent with the general decline in financial markets. However, because the values of individual investments fluctuate with market conditions, the amount of loss that will be recognized in subsequent periods, if any, cannot be determined.

Nazarene Pensions and Benefits Fund
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PENSIONS AND BENEFITS FUND

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Pensions and Benefits Fund (the Fund) provides various benevolence, retirement, and insurance programs to Nazarene ministers, their spouses, and their surviving family members. All of the programs are self-funded through contributions made QY the local churches. The Fund is administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Fund provides administrative services and certain specific funding amounts as determined by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA to the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan and the 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

Benevolence programs - The Fund provides benevolence programs, including death benefit benevolence, emergency medical assistance, temporary monthly disability assistance, administrative benefit adjustment, and funeral assistance. These programs provide various kinds of benevolence assistance payments to ministers, their spouses, and their surviving family members upon the recommendation of their district advisory boards. A more comprehensive description of the Fund's benevolence programs is contained in the Benefits Summary Brochure.

Pastors Life Insurance Plan - The Pastors Life Insurance Plan is a group term life insurance plan for district-licensed and ordained clergy or district-credentialed laypersons who are currently serving in U.S. districts in qualified assignments and who have not begun receiving retirement benefits.

Pensioners Death Benefit Plan - The Pensioners Death Benefit Plan provides death benefits to district-licensed and ordained ministers who are currently receiving a monthly benefit from the Basic Pension Plan portion of the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan based on years of service or, alternatively, who are vested Plan participants aged 70 1/2 or older and who have not chosen to begin receiving a monthly retirement benefit.

Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan - Effective January 1, 1996, the Basic Pension Plan and the General Church Pension Plan were merged to form the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan. After January 1, 1996, there were no new entrants in the Basic Pension Plan or the General Church Pension Plan. Participants in both plans were grandfathered in so that no one who had been credited with years of service under the predecessor plans would receive less under the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan than what would have been paid under the former defined benefit plans had membership in those plans continued unchanged.

The annual pension supplement (APS) contribution is deposited into individual accounts for each eligible U.S. clergymember and layperson from Fund receipts or agency funds, depending upon the participant's employer. An additional bonus amount is deposited for eligible participants whose local congregation pays 100% of their Fund amount or whose district pays 100% of their Fund amount. The APS amount for 2008 and 2007 was $500, with an additional $500 bonus amount paid to eligible participants.

Employees may elect to participate in the 403(b). Plan through salary-reduction contributions. Employers make matching contributions to their respective participating employees' accounts. Local church and agency employers are encouraged to establish policies to match amounts of voluntary salary-reduction contributions up to at least 3% of salary. NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLANS

The following brief description of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans, consisting of the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan and the World Mission Pension Plan (collectively, the Plans), is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan documents for more complete information.

New participation was frozen such that there were no new entrants effective January 1, 1998. For new missionaries under contract as of January 1, 1998, retirement benefits are provided by the Nazarene 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan.

1. General

The Plans are noncontributory defined benefit pension plans administered by the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board). The Plans provide retirement benefits at age 65 to missionaries under contract with the General Board. The Plans are church plans that have not elected to be governed by the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and are not subject to Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation insurance coverage.

The World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan) integrates its benefit formula with that of the total pension benefit provided by the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan. All benefits payable under the World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan are offset by any benefits paid under the World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan).

2. Pension Benefits - World Mission Qualified Pension Plan

Missionaries with 10 or more years of service are entitled to pension benefits beginning at the normal retirement age of 65. The pension benefits are calculated at an amount equal to the greater of (a) and (b) minus (c), where (a) is the sum of (1) $2.50 per month for each year of service (to a maximum of 50 years) plus (2) $100 per month for participants with 25 or more years of service, or $75 per month for participants with 20, but less than 25, years of service; (b) is $5.00 per month for each year of service with a bonus of .5% for each year of service in excess of 10; and (c) is the pension provided by the amount in the participant's 403(b) plan derived from deposits equal to an amount determined each Plan year by the Plan's Trustee.

Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans

2. Pension Benefits - World Mission Qualified Pension Plan - Continued

For purposes of determining the bonus amount, and only for such purposes, years of service credited under the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan's grandfathered Basic Pension Plan provisions shall be included in the calculation of years of service under this plan.

3. Pension Benefits - World Mission Non-Qualified Pension Plan

Missionaries with 10 or more years of service are entitled to pension benefits' beginning at the normal retirement age of 65. The pension benefits are calculated at an amount equal to the greater of (a) and (b) minus (c), where (a) is the sum of (1) $5 per month for each year of service (to a maximum of 50 years) for married or unmarried (single) participants plus (2) $200 per month for married participants and $140 per month for single participants, widows, or widowers with 25 or more years of missionary service, or $150 or $100 per month, respectively, with at least 20, but less than 25, years of missionary service or $0 with less than 20 years of missionary service; (b) is $10.00 per month for each year of service with a bonus of .5% for each year of service in excess of 10; and (c) is the pension provided by the amount in the participant's 403(b) plan derived from deposits equal to an amount determined each Plan year by the Plan's Trustee. For purposes of determining the bonus amount, and only for such purposes, all years of service credited under this plan and under the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan's grandfathered Basic Pension Plan provisions shall be included. Amounts payable under this pension plan are also reduced by the extent of any payments made under the World Mission Pension Plan.

4. Disability Benefits

Active missionaries with five or more years of service who become totally disabled receive annual disability benefits based on years of service to the date of disability, plus an additional year of service credit for each two years between the date of disability and the normal retirement date.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. *Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. *Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

3. *Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

4. *Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits

Accumulated plan benefits are those future periodic payments that are attributable under the Plans' provisions to the service employees have rendered. Accumulated plan benefits include benefits expected to be paid to the following: (a) retired or terminated employees or their beneficiaries; (b) beneficiaries of employees who have died; and (c) current employees or their beneficiaries. Benefits payable under all circumstances (retirement, death, disability, or termination of employment) are included to the extent they are deemed attributable to employee service rendered to the valuation date.

September 30, 2008 and 2007

4. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits - Continued

The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits is determined by actuaries from Watson Wyatt and is that amount which results from applying actuarial assumptions to adjust the accumulated plan benefits to reflect the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment. The significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations as of January 1, 2008 and 2007 were as follows: (a) life expectancy of participants (based on the 1994 Group Annuity Mortality Table); (b) retirement age assumptions (the assumed retirement age ranges from 65 to 70); and (c) investment return. The valuations from the actuary assumed an average rate of return of 7%, compounded annually, and discount rates of 6.00% and 5.75% in 2008 and 2007, respectively. The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plans will continue. Were the Plans to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits.

5. Administrative Expenses

Certain directly related administrative, accounting, legal, and actuarial expenses are allocated to the Plans by the Administrator. All other expenses are borne by the Pensions and Benefits Fund.

6. Investment Risks

The Plans invest in a Pension Trust Investment Pool that holds various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the value of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Church of the Nazarene World Mission Pension Plans

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE C - FUNDING POLICY

The General Board's funding policy is to make annual contributions to the Plans in amounts such that all participants' benefits will be fully provided for by the time they retire. For the Plans' calendar years beginning January 1, 2008 and 2007, the net annual contributions required from the General Board to support the present benefit levels under the Plans' actuarial cost method were $438,428 and $449,829 in 2008 and 2007, respectively.

The following table shows the Plans' unfunded liability as of September 30,

	2008	2007
Net assets available for Plan benefits	$ 5,078,109	$ 6,551,564

Funded status	$ (5,059,048)	$ (3,673,339)

NOTE D - INVESTMENTS

The funds of the Plans and the Single Defined Benefit Pension Plan are combined for collective investment purposes (the Pension Trust Investment Pool). Separate accounting records are maintained for each plan in order to properly reflect each participant's accumulated plan benefits. The net investment income (loss) from the Pension Trust Investment Pool is allocated on a pro rata basis between the Plans. The allocation of securities held in the Pension Trust Investment Pool is based on a percentage of total fair value.

During 2008 and 2007, the Plans' investments, including gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held, during the year depreciated in value by $1,153,305 and appreciated in value by $705,017, respectively, as follows:

NOTE E - CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE COMPANY

Prior to April 2008, the Plan maintained a flexible pension investment (FPI) contract with Principal facilitating payments to retired participants grandfathered under the prior General Church Pension Plan. No participants of this Plan maintained an FPL. The investment was maintained as a pro-rata allocation of pension pool investments. The contract also provided certain payment guarantees to those General Church Pension Plan participants who retired prior to 1996. During 2008, the exit provisions of that contract were executed, which resulted in a liquidation of the investment contract with Principal and the purchase of individual annuities for those retirees whose benefits were initiated prior to 1996. The corresponding assets and accumulated plan benefit relating to the participants were transferred from the Plan to Principal via the purchase of an annuity contract.

NOTE F - CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene
World Mission Pension Plans

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - COTINUED

September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE G - PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plans subject to the provisions of the Plan documents. Should the Plans terminate at some future time, a particular participant's accumulated plan benefits will be dependent on the priority of those benefits at that time, as set forth in the Plan documents.

NOTE H - TAX STATUS

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Administrator by a letter that the World Mission Pension Plan (the qualified plan) and the related trust were designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). There have been amendments since the Administrator received the determination letter; however, the Administrator believes that the Plans are designed and are currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

NOTE I - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Market conditions subsequent to September 30, 2008 have resulted in an unusually high degree of volatility and increased the risk and associated short-term liquidity with certain investments held by the Plan. Subsequent to year-end, the Plan's investment portfolio has incurred a significant decline in fair value, consistent with the general decline in financial markets. However, because the values of individual investments fluctuate with market conditions, the amount of loss that will be recognized in subsequent periods, if any, cannot be determined.

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Program's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Program's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Board of Pensions and Benefits USA of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program as of September 30, 2008 and 2007, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Health and Hospitalization Program
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAM

The Board of Pensions and Benefits USA (the Administrator) of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene Health and Hospitalization Program (the Program) administers, on behalf of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene (the General Board), medical, dental, and vision benefits under two separate plans: the General Church Medical Plan and the Missionary Medical Plan (collectively, the Plans). These financial statements present the fiduciary activities of the Program's Administrator and do not purport to present the financial status of the Plans. These statements do not contain certain information regarding benefit obligations and other disclosures necessary for a fair presentation of the financial status of the Plans in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Benefits

The Program administers the provision of medical, dental, and vision benefits to full-time employees (defined as those working at least 30 hours per week) of the General Board and related employers and their beneficiaries and covered dependents (the General Church Medical Plan) and to missionaries under contract with the General Board and their beneficiaries and covered dependents (the Missionary Medical Plan). Medical and dental benefits in excess of Medicare coverage may also be extended to retired participants and their beneficiaries and covered dependents pursuant to the provisions of each Plan's document and/or the policies of the participating employers.

The medical, dental, and vision benefits are similar under both Plans, which pay a major portion of medical, dental, and vision expense after the satisfaction of a calendar-year deductible.

Medical and vision claims of active and retired participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed by Principal Life Insurance Company. Dental claims of active and retired participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed by Delta Dental Company. The responsibility for administration of payments to participants and providers is retained by the Administrator.

Participants should refer to the Plan documents for a complete description of the Plans' provisions.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED
September 30, 2008 and 2007

2. Contributions

Not less than one-half of the contributions for participant coverage are paid by General Board-related employers. The Program is self-funded with specific and aggregate reinsurance limits.

3. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Administrator has the right under the Plans to modify the benefits provided to active participants, to discontinue contributions at any time, and to terminate the Plans subject to the Plans' provisions.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

2. Marketable Securities

Marketable securities are carried at fair value based on .quoted market prices for those or similar securities, with realized and unrealized gains and losses reflected in the statements of activities.

3. Claims Incurred but Not Reported

Other obligations for current benefit coverage at September 30, 2008 and 2007 include IBNR amounts, which represent estimated medical and dental costs for services performed in the Plan year that have not yet been submitted for payment by Plan participants. The IBNR amounts are estimated based on historical lag factors between the date of service and the date of payment.

4. Administrative Expenses

Directly related administrative and other expenses of the Administrator are allocated to the Program.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2008 and 2007

5. Investment Risks

The Program invests in funds that hold various securities which may include U.S. government securities, corporate debt instruments, and corporate stocks. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

6. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE C - CONCENTRATION OF RISK

Deposits in excess of federally insured limits are maintained in financial institutions. Bank rating services are regularly monitored for the ongoing safety ratings of financial institutions in which deposits are maintained.

NOTE D - INCOME TAX STATUS

The Program is exempt from federal and state income taxes because it is an entity organized under the General Board, which holds a group exemption. The Administrator has not obtained a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service for the Plans. However, the Administrator believes the Plans are designed and are currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONTINUED

September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE E - MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Program's marketable securities consist of equity securities maintained in a pooled investment fund (the PIF) administered by the General Board. At September 30, 2008 and 2007, equity securities were reported at a fair value of $2,201,425 and $2,243,331, respectively. Equity securities had a cost basis of $2,225,631 and $2,214,070 at September 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Investment income (loss) for the year ended September 30, 2008 consisted of $140,718 of allocated income from the PIF and $54,418 of unrealized loss. Investment income for the year ended September 30, 2007 consisted of $194,474 of allocated income from the PIF and $11,981 of unrealized gain.

NOTE F - MEDICARE PRESCRIPTION DRUG, IMPROVEMENT, AND MODERNIZATION ACT OF 2003

In May 2004, the FASB issued Staff Position No. 106-2 (FAS FSP 106-2), Accounting and Disclosure Requirements Related to the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement, and Modernization Act of 2003 (the Act). FAS FSP 106-2 provides guidance on accounting for the effects of a subsidy available under the Act to companies that sponsor retiree medical programs with drug benefits which are at least actuarially equivalent to those available under Medicare. In addition to the direct benefit to a company from qualifying for and receiving the subsidy, the effects would include expected changes in retiree participation rates and changes in estimated health care costs that result from the Act.

The Administrator believes that its postretirement benefit plans currently provide prescription drug coverage which is at least actuarially equivalent to the new benefit available under Medicare and it will therefore qualify for the subsidy for an initial period of time after the Act is implemented until actuarial equivalency changes as a result of existing limits on the Plans' cost of providing the benefit.

September 30, 2008 and 2007

NOTE G - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Market conditions subsequent to September 30, 2008 have resulted in an unusually high degree of volatility and increased the risk and associated short-term liquidity with certain investments held by the Plan. Subsequent to year-end, the Plan's investment portfolio has incurred a significant decline in fair value, consistent with the general decline in financial markets. However, because the values of individual investments fluctuate with market conditions, the amount of loss that will be recognized in subsequent periods, if any, cannot be determined.

Sunday School & Discipleship Ministries International

To the Board of General Superintendents and Delegates of the 27th General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene:

Sunday School and all the related discipleship ministries that flow through the Sunday School & Discipleship Ministries International (SDMI) Department pursue the assignment of carrying out the Great Commission to children, youth, and adults in preparation for a lifetime of Christian holiness.

Many people say Sunday School is dead or passé but what we are discovering is Sunday Schools work when we work the Sunday School. Areva Barnes lives in Parkside, Florida, and teaches a Sunday School class of children every week. Angel, one of her students who has grown up to be an effective teacher of serious disciples, remembers how she was saved.

I grew up next-door to Mrs. Barnes, who invited me to Sunday School. She and her husband would go out on Saturdays and invite kids to Church. If their parents said it was OK, they would pick them up and take them to Sunday School. It was in her class, I came to believe in Jesus and I was saved by the grace of God. As I grew spiritually, Mrs. Barnes got me involved. At first it was just inviting kids to VBS, then it was helping in classes, and then eventually leading my own Sunday School class. That's how I got my training in making disciples. I just did like Mrs. Barnes.

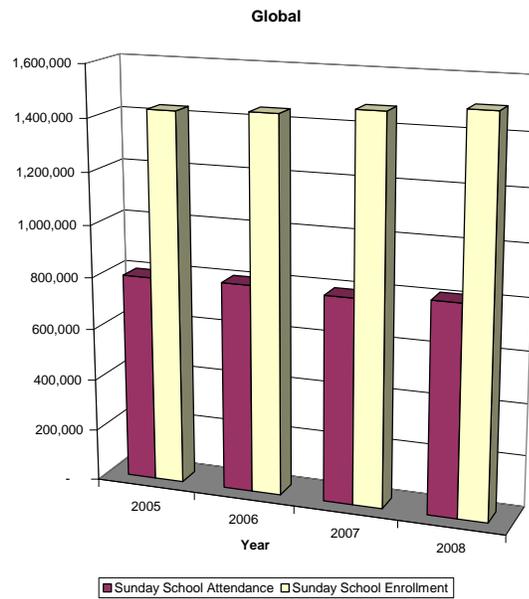

If you visit the Church of the Nazarene where Areva attends, you will meet dozens of people she has influenced through her love and selfless service. David was divorced, unemployed, homeless, living in his truck. But Mrs. Barnes found him a place to live, got him meals to eat, and talked to him about Jesus. Today, David is the greeter at Parkside Church of the Nazarene. Areva invests her days in the spiritual lives of her neighbors, praying for them, caring about them. The people she meets in her community become her friends and she invites their little ones to attend her Sunday School class.

This Sunday, Grandma Barnes, age 87, will be teaching a class of kindergartners. She will be reaching out to their parents, helping them, praying for them, loving them. She will be inviting lonely people to her home, feeding them, and talking to them about Jesus. This Sunday, Angel and her husband, Dan, will be influencing others to walk with Jesus. Angel will teach young women how to intercede in prayer and Dan will lead a men's Bible study. It all started with an invitation to Sunday School. This Sunday Areva's grandson, Todd and his wife, Christina, will be in Sunday School looking forward to leading the Vacation Bible School program again this year. This Sunday they will intentionally help young lives become faithful followers of Jesus. They learned how to follow Jesus from Grandma Barnes.

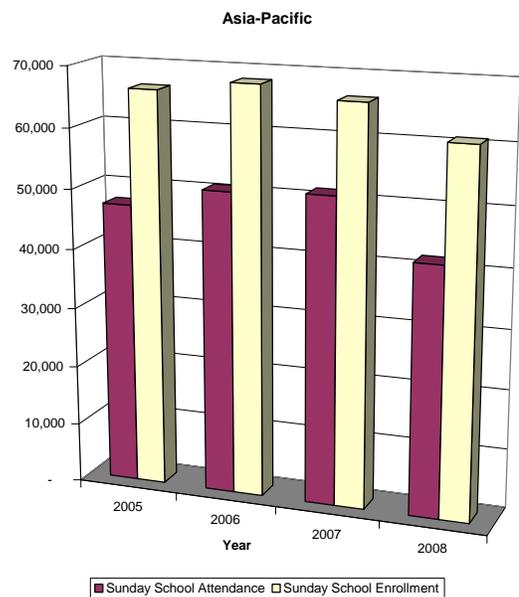

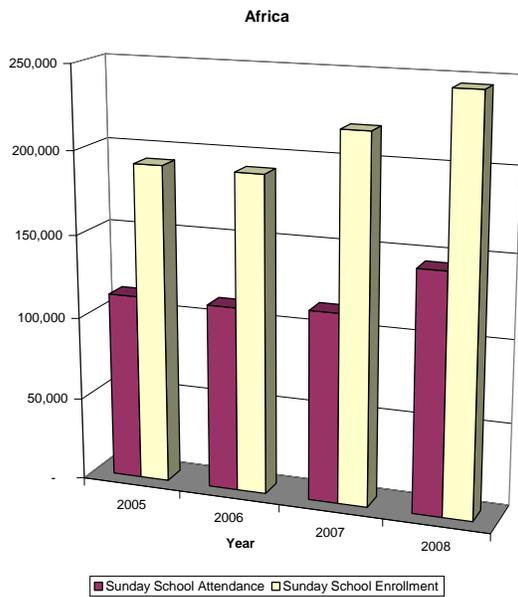

This is Sunday School at its best; helping your family and friends know and obey Jesus. Nazarenes invest the love of God in others, win them to Christ, and teach them how to live a holy life. Then we teach them how they can also invest the love of God so others will know Christ and His holy life and reproduce it in others as well. When we do it right it changes our world. Making Christlike disciples is making a difference.

The Responsibility List, the enrollment of children, youth, and adults in Sunday School, is directly connected to effective, life-transforming ministries in the local church. This list of people should be the largest number in the denomination. It is people we are ministering to not only on Sunday but throughout the week. The larger the Responsibility List the greater the impact a local church tends to have in the community.

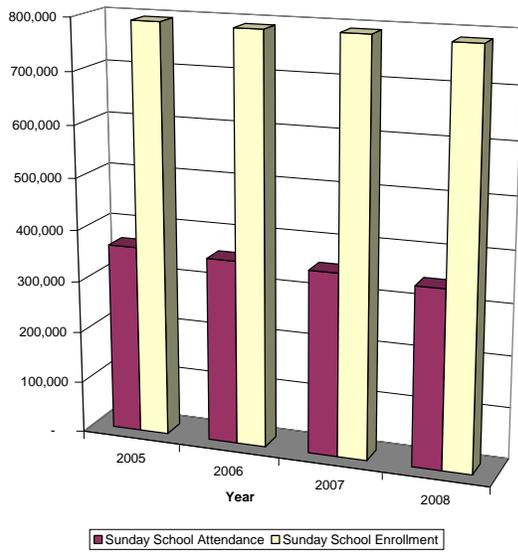

The chart below illustrates progress we are making toward our goal of expanding the global Responsibility List. We do this so that we might experience more impact on the hearts and minds of precious men and women, boys and girls to follow Jesus.

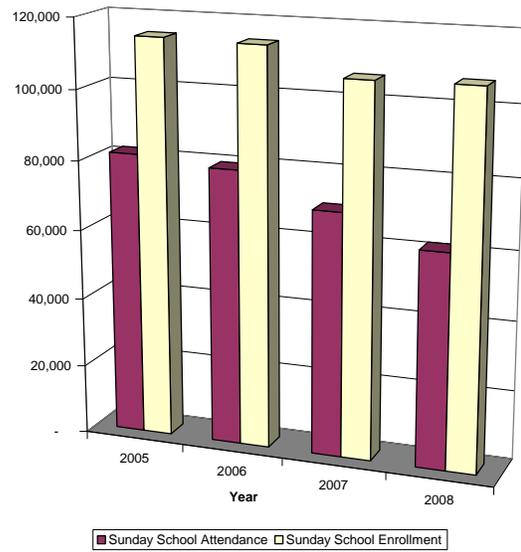

I am happy to report significant growth in this list and anticipate even greater advances as we intentionally touch more lives with the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ all around the world.

We Nazarenes have reason to celebrate after 100 years of Sunday School. The statistics collected by General Secretary David Wilson from districts all over the world reveal outreach, evangelism, small groups, discipleship, and the study of God’s Word positively drives the Sunday School attendance and the effective organizing of laity in ministry.

The 2005-2009 quadrennium began with a strong emphasis on Reaching Every Available Household for Christ. REACH seminars were held on over 60 districts. Pastors and local leaders were trained and resourced with materials equipping laity in actively reaching out to the unchurched, connecting with them through prayer, leading them to Christ, and teaching them of the holy life. Positive reports have been received of the strong impact this program on local churches. REACH, like any program, must be intentionally promoted and diligently pursued in order to see successful growth.

In the fall of 2006, the Sunday School Ministries department and General Board elected me as director. As I prayed about accepting the assignment, I asked my 80-year-old father what he thought about expanding Sunday School Ministries with small groups, Adult Bible fellowships, and Discipleship Ministries. With some anxiety, Dad replied, “You’re not going to change Sunday School are you, Son?”

“No, Dad,” I said, “We are not going to change Sunday School. But can we expand it? Can we increase its influence? Can we turbo-charge its reach and influence with small groups, Bible fellowships, discipleship ministries, and can we go global?”

“Now, that might be all right,” Dad affirmed.

So with Dad’s blessing and the leadership of the Lord, I accepted the assignment. Two months later at the 2007 General Board meeting, the department’s name was expanded to Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries International (SDMI). The name expansion was in response to the 2005 action of the General Assembly in response to the international committee’s recommendation that the name Sunday School Ministries be changed to reflect a more global understanding of the necessity of conserving our converts. Small groups, Sunday School classes, Bible fellowships, and discipleship ministries are essential tools preserving the fruit of our labors and can be adapted to any culture. In a complex world, methods need to be flexible and responsive to a fast-changing world. Expanding Sunday School ministries provides more connecting points for the Church to fulfill her mission.

For several quadrennia, our department has sponsored teaching training events around the world. TEACH conference have been held every four years. The attendance at the TEACH conferences declined over the years due to several mitigating factors, including changing cultural values and priorities. In response the 2008 TEACH/Discipleship Summits resulted in a global webcast released on November 1. Nearly 5,000 unique users from 30 world areas have gone to discipleship.nazarene.org and participated on-line in a discipleship summit. In English or Spanish, web users are empowered to download videos of the general superintendents defining discipleship and encouraging and challenging the pursuit of our global mission, “to make Christlike disciples in the nations.”

In addition to this significant shift, at the time of my election there was also a transition for the responsibility of Sunday School curriculum. The editors for all English curriculum were transferred from the SSM(SDMI) department to NPH/WordAction Publishing. Personnel adjustments have been made as Nazarene Publishing House, WordAction Publishing, Children’s Ministries International, Adult Ministries International, and Curriculum participate in a team-based approach for providing a rich array of resources embedded with the convictions and commitments of the Church of the Nazarene around the world.

Children’s Ministries International, Lynda T. Boardman, Director

The Decadal Emphasis on Children and Youth, “Connecting a New Generation,” launched in January 2002, is now in its eighth year. In December 2007, the Board of General Superintendents approved dropping the words, decadal emphasis, and adding “Foundation for a Lifetime” beginning with the 2009 General Assembly. This denomination-wide emphasis is coordinated by a global task force with representation from the six world regions and the USA/Canada. Resources and information are available on-line at (connecting.nazarene.org).

Zachary Crenshaw, the 2001 “Connecting a New Generation” poster boy, is now 14 and in the eighth grade. He is active in his church in Moscow, Idaho. He enjoys sports, computers, reading, and playing drums in the school band. He also likes to spend time with his friends and even his parents! “Connecting a New Generation” is making a difference.

At the 2005 Sunday School Ministries General Convention, Children’s Ministries announced “Kidz First—connecting a new generation with Jesus Christ giving children HOPE and WHOLENESS and opportunities for WORSHIP and MINISTRY” as the quadrennial theme.

“Kidz First” and “Connecting a New Generation” were presented in Belize, Canada, Dominican Republic, England, South Africa, and the United States. In each country, the Church of the Nazarene was challenged to incorporate children as full participants in the Body of Christ.

Partnerships

Compassionate Ministries USA/Canada and Children's Ministries partner in a joint effort to encourage local churches to address the specific needs of children and youth in their communities. In 2008, 18 Touch-a-Life centers received $80,000 in matching grants from the children's VBS offering.

Nazarene International Education Association proposed and supported legislation adopted by the 2005 General Assembly for the following Manual change regarding Christian Schools. Each time Nazarene Daycare/K-12 Schools appears, it will now read Nazarene Childcare/Schools (Birth through Secondary).

At ignite 2007, Nazarene Children's Pastors' Association and Children's Ministries presented a check for $10,000.00 to Amy Hall, daughter of Miriam Hall, the first Children's Ministries director for the Church of the Nazarene, and to Dean Blevins of Nazarene Theological Seminary. This will fund the Miriam J. Hall endowment at NTS. The first lecture in the Hall Lectureship Series was on April 14, 2009, at NTS. Dr. Catherine Stonehouse was the speaker.

In October 2004, the Course of Study Advisory Committee (COSAC) approved a deacon track with a Children's Ministries emphasis. Developing a Children's Ministries module, a series of twenty lessons, is now available. It was written for anyone with an interest in Children's Ministries or for those pursuing ordination with a Children's Ministries emphasis.

Projects

Children celebrated the Centennial with the following resources. The lessons and video are translated into French, Korean, Portuguese, and Spanish.

- Lessons. Four early childhood and four elementary lessons based on the core values of the Church of the Nazarene were written for the celebration Sunday and the three preceding Sundays. Downloadable activity sheets and PowerPoints accompany these eight lessons.
- Centennial Connections. A four-page, full color, interactive booklet presents interesting facts about the Church of the Nazarene. This is available as a free downloadable piece.
- Video. An 11-minute video, "More Than a Story—the First 100 Years," tells the past, present, and future story of the Church of the Nazarene. This fun, animated video gives children a greater understanding of their legacy.

Kids Reaching Kids, Vacation Bible School mission offering project, challenged children to give a total for the quadrennium of $1,300,272. Each year a portion of these offerings has funded VBS materials for NewStart and marginalized churches and sponsored international pastors' children as well as the following annual projects: 2005—Mission H2O; 2006—Action Africa; 2007—TumbleREAD Project; 2008—Operation Proclamation.

Children's Ministries conducted a workshop, "Discipleship Sails on Seven Cs" for children's workers at the seventeen 2008 Discipleship Summits in the USA/Canada.

Children's Ministries World Events included:

- 2005 Kidz World Quiz. 2,182 children quizzed in Indianapolis before approximately 10,000 spectators. Twenty children from the British Isles North District participated in the first World Quiz outside the USA for a total of 2,202 quizzers.
- "Connecting a New Generation" Children's Choir. A 450-voice children's choir opened the 2005 General Assembly Saturday evening Sunday School Ministries' dome service. Choir t-shirts were donated by New Life Industries. The children premiered "Lighthouse in the Night," a Lillenas production.

- NazJam 2006, a children’s camp for all ages, was held at the beautiful Laurelville Mennonite Church Center just outside Mt. Pleasant, Pennsylvania. Highlights include:
  - Great services with Kim Bobb, Grove City children’s pastor, and the Straight and Narrow Band.
  - Skill sessions for campers included archery, water sports, compassionate ministries, crafts, team building, and missions. Children grades 1-6 had fun while learning important skills in each session.
  - Informative sessions for adults as well as special activities for teens and early childhood children.
  - Action Africa offering totaled $500.00.
  - Each child received a “ball of many colors,” a multi-colored soccer ball to help them tell others about Jesus.
- Africa. Dr. Eugénio Duarte, Regional Director, challenged leaders regarding the importance of children to the church and the need to evangelize, disciple, take them into full membership, and involve them in the mission and activities of the church. This resulted in the first Children’s Ministries Summit held in Johannesburg, South Africa, December 2008. Representatives from the seven fields focused on field interaction, networking, and coordination.
- Asia-Pacific. The Holistic Child Development course at APNTS is a partnership with Compassion International, NCM, APNTS, and Asia-Pacific “Connecting a New Generation.” Twenty-five students are enrolled. APNTS organized a Holistic Child Development Conference attended by pastors and leaders from different churches and organizations all over Luzon.
- Caribbean. During the school year, 2007-2008, USA Nazarene Christian schools raised $6,859.60 for “Backpacks for Belize,” a fundraiser for school supplies and equipment for the nine Belize Nazarene schools. In November 2008, a Work and Education team witnessed the distribution of the supplies, proved a teacher-training event, visited seven of the schools, electrically wired the Western High School, and did painting in two schools in San Ignacio.
- Eurasia. At the regional conference, each field gave a ministry report and presentation. In each one, children and/or youth was highlighted. “Will You Make a Difference?” DVD produced with grant funds from Connecting a New Generation was shown and made available for distribution.
- Mexico and Central America. A work and witness team in Honduras held VBS and painted a trade school. Nazarenes have worked with the city to build cement block homes for people who had lived in a dump. Children’s pastoral care, quizzing, and teacher training were held in Honduras, Guatemala, and El Salvador.
- South America. Project TOBI TV, a children’s television program, has the potential to reach over 600 million people. It is a first class TV program to be aired on 184 television stations. Also a new children’s discipleship curriculum has been produced and released.
- USA/Canada. Greg Nash, Children’s Pastor, and the children from Gallatin, TN raised $3,060.62 to purchase EvangeBalls for the 2010 GOL project. In 2010,

Nazarenes around the world will sponsor soccer camps to evangelize communities using the EvangeBall.

Programs

Cradle Roll, an evangelistic outreach to families with babies and young children, has 6,022 enrolled in USA/Canada.

There are approximately 348 Nazarene-sponsored child care centers and 95 primary through secondary Christian schools in USA/Canada serving 36,776 children and approximately 560 schools globally. The Church of the Nazarene ministers to approximately 105,776 children around the world in these schools.

There are 54,067 children registered in Caravan ministries around the world. This includes Africa (11,859), Asia-Pacific (2,677), Canada (410), Caribbean (2,653), Eurasia (735), Mexico and Central America (3,680), South America (2,567), and United States (29,486). Over the last four years, 1,450 children have earned the Bresee award.

The worldwide VBS enrollment is 424,599. This includes: Africa (23,879), Asia-Pacific (19,812), Canada (2,542), Caribbean (26,784), Eurasia (16,995), Mexico and Central America (64,555), South America (53,510), and United States (216,522). The 2008 General Board approved the addition of International to Children's Ministries' name. Children's Ministries International's mission is to partner with those around the world who minister with children, by ENCOURAGING, EDUCATING, and EQUIPPING.

Adult Ministries International, Larry Morris, Director

The mission of Adult Ministries is to prepare, challenge, and inspire women and men to a life of Christian discipleship. It is our desire and mission that every adult become a full and fulfilled disciple of Jesus Christ, and that each person will have a passion for Christian service, whether it is across the street or around the globe.

This mission is accomplished through the dedicated ministry of the Adult Ministries staff: Dr. Linda Hardin, Young Adult, Single Adult, and Women's Ministries coordinator, Rev. Derl Keefer, Prime Time and Adult Development Ministries coordinator, Dr. Jim Pettitt, Marriage and Family Life Ministries coordinator, Rev. John Comstock, Continuing Lay Training coordinator, and Wm. Marshall Duke, Men's Ministries coordinator. As modern day disciples, their tireless efforts brought life and substance to each ministry program and initiative.

This quadrennium, the Adult Ministries team has made it a priority to re-evaluate ministry programs, products, and initiatives, making sure each one is doctrinally true, relevant, and culturally transferable. In addition, Adult Ministries has taken steps toward becoming a more effective international ministry partner. What has become clear is the process will take perseverance and patience.

Lay education and ministry is an essential part of the Christian Church and a vital part of the Church of the Nazarene. It is through proper training and mobilization of laity that the growth of God's kingdom is assured. Continuing Lay Training (CLT) is proud to be a vital and official part of this ministry effort.

CLT has experienced growth in every area including the crucial assignment of providing resources to the global church. CLT's expansion, improvements, and successes in the last four years is reflected in that nearly 100,000 CLT credits have been awarded to lay men and women around the world. Documentation confirms CLT studies have been utilized in some form by people in over 80 countries/territories beyond North America.

CLT provides leadership training in 19 specific Ministry Areas through book-driven studies. Each study is annually reviewed by ministry leaders so that doctrinal integrity is maintained. Many of these studies are now available online at the CLT web site.

In partnership with NPH, CLT offers a Denomination-Wide Study designed for small groups. Each annual study is enhanced by free, downloadable leader's guides, handouts, and PowerPoint presentations.

CLT has dedicated significant time and resources to the development of the Certificate of Lay Ministry program. The Certificate of Lay Ministry program is designed to prepare men and women for a high level of ministry leadership in the local church. The curriculum was created in partnership with Clergy Development and was adapted from the COSAC educational modules. The completed modules, one in Spanish, are available on the CLT web site.

CLT is committed to translating approved on-line resources to languages other than English. Translated resources currently include: The Gospel of John (Spanish); Centennial Lessons (Spanish, French, Portuguese, Korean); Making a Marriage (Spanish); Exploring Nazarene History and Polity (Spanish). In addition, selected Lay Ministry Certificate modules were delivered to Dr. Eugénio Duarte for evaluation and possible utilization in the African region.

The Department of Research at Global Ministries Center reports senior adults are the fastest growing age group in the Church of the Nazarene in North America. Within the next few years senior adult membership will outnumber teenagers and children combined. These statistics are especially significant in light of the fact senior adults give more per capita than any other age group and are the greatest provider of volunteer ministry services to the local Church. For these reasons alone it is crucial we support our senior adult population with significant ministry care and opportunities. Failure to do so may lead to decline in support and will have a catastrophic impact upon the present and future of the church.

Prime Time Ministries continues to recognize the tremendous contribution mature adults have made during their lifetime. A primary goal of Prime Time is to keep senior adults engaged in the ministry of the Church of the Nazarene. This goal is achieved by supporting seniors through special events, education, networking, and ministry opportunities.

Prime Time Ministries continues to be an effective resourcing arm of the Church of the Nazarene which helps the local, district, and regional church minister to and with senior adults by providing information and resources to students, pastors, and church leaders. Prime Time resources include: a handbook for directors; articles pertinent to the discipling of seniors; a quarterly newsletter; and a monthly e-mail which provides ideas for ministry.

In less than a decade, those graduating from our colleges and universities will be in positions of significant leadership and influence. The alarming fact is that a high percentage of our young adults are leaving the Church. It is essential we do a better job of retaining young adults. We must involve them in the life and leadership of the Church. That is why Single Adult Ministries continues to work with NYI and Campus Ministries to understand, confront, and address this problem.

Through strategic action and expanded partnerships, Single Adult Ministries is beginning a new chapter in ministry. This new chapter includes renewing a focus upon the younger adult while ministering to the mature single. Two significant steps in this transition process are:

1. Creation of the Nazarene Fellowship of Single Adults (NFSA). Formed in 2008 by previous directors of SoloCon retreats, NFSA will continue to support the creation and development of ministries to address the unique needs of single adults.
2. Creation of Fusion '08, a special mentoring event for young adults. This event was designed to use intentional communication, targeted support, and personal mentoring as a means to promote spiritual and professional growth within young adults in the Church of the Nazarene. For five days over 60 individuals participated in worship, small groups, and shared events in Breckenridge, Colorado. Throughout the weekend, participants were challenged to consider the depth of their commitment to God and His church. Contact between participating young adults and mentors will continue through September 2009. At that time a full evaluation of the program will take place.

Women have played a vital role in Church history and the holiness movement. How many churches, missions, and ministries have found leadership and consistent support in the words, actions, and prayers of women from around the world? Because of the importance of women to the life and mission of the Church of the Nazarene, your Women's Ministries council continues to partner with other ministries in the creation and promotion of events, products, and resources for women as they serve God and His church. Two are mentioned here.

Women's Ministries continues to support and work with Come to the Fire Ministries. This annual conference on holiness has been effective in reaching thousands of women of all ages, nationalities, and denominational backgrounds with the message of full surrender to God.

At the request of the Board of General Superintendents, the Women's Ministries council is working with the National Coalition for the Protection of Children and Families to increase awareness of the dangers that exposure to pornographic materials has for children. More information about current ministry projects is available on the adult ministries web site.

Family Life Ministries recognizes the family is a primary channel through which Christian discipleship occurs. Therefore, it is vital we maintain strong family ministries programming in our denomination. Currently, Family Life Ministries encompasses all aspects of family life discipleship (premarital preparation, marriage, parenting, intergenerational support) and seeks to encourage family development through inspiration, education, and the provision of tools and resources.

Since the completion of the 2005 marriage poll, the Nazarene Strategic Marriage Initiative has continued to gain momentum and interest. Three elements of that initiative are highlighted below.

Many districts have participated in the training of pastors in Premarital Preparation programs. A partnership with Prepare & Enrich has provided an international instrument and training process that enables our pastors to do premarital counseling with confidence and professionalism.

Nazarene Marriage Enrichment (NME) was tested internationally in Belize, Central America. Twenty couples, including the district superintendent and his wife, participated in NME small group leadership training and certification. The district superintendent reported the NME materials translated well into their culture (Spanish, Creole, Maya Indian). Three district NME trainers were certified to train small group leaders on their district.

The 2007 Denomination-Wide Study, Making a Marriage, continues to be used in small group studies and adult Sunday School classes. In 2008, in partnership with World Mission Literature, the book was translated into Spanish and made available online at the CLT web site.

In October 2006, Wm. Marshall Duke assumed responsibilities as the ministry coordinator for Men's Ministries. Since that time, Men's Ministries has addressed several common ministry needs of men in the Church of the Nazarene; established a network of Nazarene Men's Ministries leaders; helped organize Nazarene Motorcycle Fellowship (NMF); and is publishing a men's devotional book, On the Road, which features over 100 devotionals addressing issues men face as they travel.

Nazarene Motorcycle Fellowship (NMF) has seen significant growth since organizing in February, 2008. Evidence of that growth will be seen at General Assembly and at the organizational rally at the Rockledge Church of the Nazarene. At the rally, NMF will present their mission which is to reach motorcycle riders and their families through lifestyle evangelism and discipleship in North America and around the world.

I am continually humbled by the opportunity to serve God through the Sunday School and Discipleship department of the Church of the Nazarene. It is a great privilege to minister with an excellent team of dedicated people who have a deep love for God and a passion for kingdom service. I am thankful for the leadership of Dr. Woodie J. Stevens, and the partnership with Lynda Boardman, Children's Ministries director. I also am indebted to my executive assistant, Shirley Smith, whose professional skill and Christian grace lightens the load of everyone around her. Above all, I thank God for His steadfast love, ever present guidance, and abundant care.

Curriculum, Merritt Nielson, Director

"21st Century Bible Study for Lifelong Discipleship"

Among the many tasks undertaken by the Church of the Nazarene, curriculum development and publication ranks as one of the most theologically strategic and spiritually influential in fulfilling the denominational mission "to make Christlike disciples in the nations." Our curriculum resources for Bible study in Sunday Schools, spiritual formation groups, and other small, church-related communities are informed by our core values: thoroughly Christian, distinctively Wesleyan-holiness, and educationally and evangelistically missional.

Producing age-appropriate and doctrinally precise religious education products has been an historic priority in the Church of the Nazarene. In 2006, the curriculum functions of Sunday School Ministries (now SDMI, or Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries International) moved from what was the Church of the Nazarene Headquarters to the Nazarene Publishing House. Today, the WordAction business unit of NPH partners with SDMI as the most prolific publisher of Wesleyan-holiness Sunday School publications in the world.

The editorial group supervised by the director of Curriculum includes a staff of 20 editors and assistants. Three editorial teams within the group (one for children, one for youth, and one for adults) bear responsibility for all Sunday School publications and other specialized curriculum resources. They produce scores of age-specific products for use in the Sunday Schools of local Nazarene congregations and many denominations who share our Wesleyan-holiness heritage.

Local church leaders continue to expect their publishing house to produce biblically sound, yet contemporary curriculum materials that meet their Christian education needs. WordAction continues to rise to the challenge with its strong line of Faith Connections Sunday School resources, as well as related materials for small groups, Vacation Bible Schools, and a variety of mid-week and specialized ministries.

All Faith Connections Sunday School curriculum products have been completely revised during the past quadrennium. The release points for the various age groups have been, or will be, as follows:

- Toddlers, Two's and Babies, too    Fall 2006
- Preschool/Kindergarten            Fall 2007
- Early Elementary                      Fall 2008
- Middle Elementary                    Fall 2009
- Preteen                                  Fall 2010
- Youth                                      Fall 2010

A new curriculum product to help preteens make a successful transition into early adolescence has been in development during the last two years of the quadrennium. Wired, a three module, 12 week course for sixth graders, covers topics like identity, spiritual disciplines, character, and decision-making. Wired will have its own web presence at www.wiredpreteen.com with a variety of on-line resources for both teacher and student.

Among other specialized products for children introduced in the last three years is the Young Believer's Discipleship Series:

- “So . . . Who is a Disciple-maker?”
- “So . . . You Want to Share Jesus?”
- “So . . . You Want to Give to God?”
- “So . . . You Want to Talk to God?”
- “So . . . What are Your Spiritual Gifts?”

As a further demonstration of our ongoing commitment to the discipling of children, our editorial team created a new, enhanced quizzing curriculum:

- 2006 Acts
- 2007 Genesis – All New
- 2008 Exodus – All New
- 2009 Joshua, Judges, Ruth – All New

Currently under development is the 2010 quizzing material, I and II Samuel.

VBS curricula like J-Force, First Action Heroes, Tumbleweed Gulch, and Custom Garage continued to set a high standard of biblically and theologically sound resources for Vacation Bible Schools. Additionally, new books and lesson plans for children's missionary education resources have been released in each year of the quadrennium.

The Adult Faith Connections (AFC) themed scope and sequence, the Highway of Holiness, introduced in 2005, concludes in the summer of 2009. Another 4-year AFC scope and sequence will debut in the fall of 2009. The current on-line teaching resource mastertoolkit.com is undergoing several changes and will be reintroduced as sundayteacher.com in the summer of 2009. The existing complement of student and teacher resources is included in the newly developed series: Adult Faith Connections Leader, Student, Illustrated Bible Life, Standard, and Reflecting God.

In 2011, WordAction will introduce an entirely new ensemble of adult curriculum products. This new Christian education model for adult spiritual formation and discipleship will meet the expanding expectations of congregations who seek relevant Bible study options for both Sunday School classes and small groups.

In the meantime, the adult editorial team has released the Christian Beliefs Series: three, stand-alone modules for either Sunday School or small group use. Its purpose is to ground new believers in the faith and enable Nazarenes to understand better the doctrines and beliefs that bind us together in a global denominational family:

- Christianity 101: Basic Beliefs of the Faith in easy to understand language.
- Growing in Faith: Intentional Christian Living in an approachable guide to developing life-long habits for spiritual growth.
- Articles of Faith: What Nazarenes Believe helps church members understand the uniqueness of our denomination in the Body of Christ.

These resources are beginning to roll off the presses as an intentional response to our denominational mission “to make Christlike disciples in the nations.”

In 2008, IBM released its Enterprise of the Future report. Among the results of its global survey of business leaders was the confirmation that executives foresee significant change ahead and wonder how they will fare in an increasingly chaotic business environment. Not surprisingly, the issue for them, of course, is not the “if” of change, but whether or not they can master its accelerating pace.

One significant finding: change did not hinge primarily on technology. Instead, the IBM research found, success depends largely on people; people who understand the upcoming complexities and follow through with actions to address them; people who know what they need to accomplish and how to get there; people who are able to take limited resources and leverage them to achieve what we would call the missional expectations of their leaders; and people who know what percentage of those resources are required to invest for the greatest benefit.

At WordAction, we recognize and value the irreplaceable talent and spiritual dedication of the men and women who spend countless hours creating the resources that enable the Church of the Nazarene to fulfill its mission of making Christlike disciples in the nations. To all of them, we owe a special debt of gratitude:

Adult Curriculum: Everett Leadingham, Senior Editor; William Manning, Judi King, Michael Wonch, Charlie Yourdon, and Duane Brush.

Youth Curriculum: Stephanie Wilson

Elementary Curriculum: Donna Fillmore, Senior Editor;

Virginia Folsom, Donna Manning, Ryan Pettit, Kimberly Adams, and Laura Lohberger

Early Childhood Curriculum: Melissa Hammer, Senior Editor; Abby Self, Julie Smith, Bill Rolfe, and Danielle Broadbooks

Word Processing: Ruth Ann Campbell and Darl McCready

With profound gratitude to the Lord, and appreciation to my colleagues Hardy Weathers and Eric Bryant at Nazarene Publishing House and the SDMI staff at the Global Ministry Center, I submit this, my second quadrennial report to the Board of General Superintendents and the Delegates of the 27th General Assembly.

Conclusion

To God be the glory for 100 years of His faithful fruitfulness in Sunday School ministries. Praise God for every pastor, Sunday School teacher, leader, and worker. Praise God for every Nazarene who has invested God’s love intentionally into the life of someone else so they in turn could lead someone else to Jesus. Praise God after 100 years, we have 1.5 million enrolled in Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries around the world. Praise God for the someone or some ones who discipled you or you most likely wouldn't be reading this report. Praise God we have done some things right in order for us to be at this point in our church. Now just imagine the amazing future God has in store for the Church of the Nazarene. Imagine God's preferred future for us as every Nazarene faithfully fulfills our God assigned task, to be and make Christlike disciples.

USA/CANADA MISSION EVANGELISM (UCME) DEPARTMENT

To the Board of General Superintendents and Delegates of the 27th General Assembly:

The quadrennium 2005-2009 began and ended in a whirlwind. The first whirlwind was called Hurricane Katrina and the more recent whirlwind continues to swirl. Our whole world is being buffeted by the worst financial collapse of many decades. Katrina caused billions of dollars of damage to the Gulf Coast of the United States. Nazarenes responded with Christlike generosity giving millions of dollars of aid. The full negative impact of this recent financial storm is not yet known. What is known is that faithful Nazarenes will respond generously and meet the challenge as they always have. What is also known is that the God we serve is not limited by world financial crises. He is not nervous or chagrined. He can see the way through and He knows the end. Nazarenes serve a God who knows no shortage. He is a powerful God who has stilled many storms with the simple words, "Peace, be still."

Winds of change have wafted through the USA/Canada Mission/Evangelism (UCME) Department during the last four years. After serving a total of fifteen years in the department and as director, Tom Nees retired in September 2008. Tom gave bold leadership and will be fondly remembered for his work among the least and lost of our world through compassionate ministries. He championed collaboration and conversation among us. He continues to serve in the tradition of our Savior. In October 2008 I was elected to fill this position, after having served for 20 years as pastor and 12 years as a district superintendent. It has been a privilege to serve the last few months as the quadrennium draws to a close.

Another change in the department was the election of Dan Copp, former pastor and district superintendent, to serve as the Clergy Development Director.

Mid-Quadrennial Conference on Mission and Evangelism

Among the many conferences and training programs provided by the department, the single largest denominational event is the Mid-Quadrennial Conference on Mission and Evangelism. The "M7" or Mission 2007 Conference was held in Kansas City in February of 2007. Approximately 4,000 people attended and enjoyed many powerful services, over 225 instructive workshops, and increased connection with the Nazarene family. Over 500 college and university students participated in luncheon discussions with denominational leaders. The book, Listening Inside Out: Conversations with Twentysomethings about Faith, Culture, and the Church, emerged out of those discussions. The text is a compilation of additional interviews and findings from these candid conversations. M7 also included a successful One Heart Many Hands work project.

The Harvest

We rejoice in a wonderful harvest. 132,178 new Nazarenes joined the Church of the Nazarene in the United States and Canada in this quadrennium. This increases our membership numbers. We now have 658,402 full and associate members in the United States and Canada. In 2008, an average of 518,661 worshiped with us each Sunday.

We also rejoice with progress made on the Northern Michigan and Southwest Latin American Districts. During this quadrennium Northern Michigan advanced from a Phase 2 to a Phase 3 district. The Southwest Latin American District advanced from a Phase 1 to a Phase 2 district.

Almost 10 years ago, our Board of General Superintendents challenged the church with the Centennial Goals to be reached by October 2009. With one statistical year left, we discover that we are making good progress.

Membership Goal—88%
New Nazarenes—86%
Total Churches—84%
Worship Average—86%
Sunday School—98%

One area of the harvest that pays rich dividends is the starting of new churches. During the 1960's, 70's, and 80's the starting of new churches slowed greatly. But through the emphasis of NewStart and the help of God, we are starting many new churches. Over 540 new churches were started in this quadrennium. For this we praise God. The challenge is before us. As many of our churches age, it is natural that some will die. We pray that God will help us to start at least 150 new churches a year. This will ultimately produce a net increase.

Clergy Development, Dan Copp, Director

The work of Clergy Development includes Clergy Education, Clergy Resources and Chaplaincy Services.

Clergy Education

Clergy Education is our effort to resource the education process towards ordination and continued education opportunities necessary for the lifelong learning of our clergy. Mike Vail has provided outstanding service as our Clergy Education Coordinator, recently resigning to accept a position at Trevecca Nazarene University.

The International Course of Study Advisory Committee (ICOSAC) met four times during the quadrennium as it works to fulfill responsibilities for resourcing clergy education for the global Church. Working closely with the Course of Study Advisory Committee for each world region (RCOSAC), ICOSAC has now reviewed and approved a Sourcebook for Ministry Development for each world region and over 100 educational programs as validated curriculum for ordination. These validated programs now represent all of our world regions and nearly all of our global educational institutions.

In USA and Canada during the quadrennium, 1,348 were ordained (144 deacons, 1,204 elders) and 2,633 received new district licenses. In USA and Canada there are presently a total of 14,100 credentialed ministers (district licensed or ordained), with an additional 3,655 local licensed ministers. Each of the last four years there have been approximately 6,500 individuals participating in the USA and Canada course of study programs. We continue working with our schools and districts to enhance resources for the ordination process.

The Modular Course of Study is intended to replace the "Independent Study Program" as a "threshold" curriculum for ordination preparation. There are a total of twenty-four modules (plus specialized), and nearly all translated into Spanish. We are beginning to translate core modules into French, Korean, Portuguese, and Mandarin (simple characters). As they are translated they are made available for download online at www.nazarenepastor.org. They are also available on CD.

Partnering with our USA and Canada districts and schools, we continue to resource continuing education for our clergy. During the quadrennium we facilitated numerous continuing education events: Nazarene Pastors Conferences, Leadership Equipping Summits, Regional Prayer Summits, Clergy Assessment Summits, Regional StrengthsFinder Summits, etc. Plans are well underway for PALCON 2010 taking place during the summer on each of our USA and Canada college/university campuses.

Clergy Resources

Clergy Resources is our effort to connect our clergy with valuable resources to enhance their life and ministry. Mike Stipp is the coordinator for Clergy Resources. Our website, www.nazarenepastor.org, has become a central distribution point for many of our clergy resources. Here is a sampling of what you find:

- Clergy Calling and Education. This web resource provides support to those responding to God's call and to those engaged in supporting them. You will find many valuable helps, including the Modular Course of Study.
- The Nazarene Job Board. Candidates seeking a ministry position can upload their resume, a photo and even a YouTube video! Candidates can view available ministry positions and contact pastors directly. Pastors and district superintendents can post positions and view all posted resumes.
- Preachers Magazine. A web link is provided to current issues of Preachers Magazine as well as a new link to the archives where every issue is available for viewing, downloading and searching.
- Soul Care. An electronic newsletter that brings daily devotional resources and regular equipping information to nearly 3,000 of our clergy.
- Preaching Helps. Links to Nazarene Pastors' sermon resources and other websites that nurture the holiness preacher.

In addition to our web resources, we continue to develop systems and resources to better serve our various groups of underserved clergy (bivocational, associates, women, retirees, etc).

Chaplaincy Services

Chaplaincy Services is our effort to resource the endorsement and support of our clergy called into chaplaincy ministries. Dwight Jennings is the Administrative Director for Chaplaincy Services. Chaplaincy Services continues to support almost 900 Nazarene chaplains around the world. During the quadrennium, they had pastoral contact with 2,643,906 people in hundreds of different work settings.

Chaplaincy Services made its first global thrust by conducting chaplaincy training in 2008 for 38 pastors and lay leaders from the Puerto Rico West District. Other world areas are witnessing chaplaincy growth and Chaplaincy Services is developing strategies to support this dynamic movement of God.

During the quadrennium, Nazarene chaplains administered communion to 587,236 believers, baptized 5,762 new Christians, performed 9,696 funerals, conducted 2,164 weddings, and were instrumental in bringing 33,052 people to faith. Were it not for the dedicated ministry of a Nazarene chaplain, many of these would not have received pastoral care.

Since the last quadrennial report, the total number of Nazarene chaplains grew from 837 to 893; and the number of full-time chaplains grew from 289 to 297. Currently, the following are the categories and number of chaplains: Healthcare - 233; Retired - 141; Military - 114; Workplace - 96; Law Enforcement - 86; Correctional - 62; Volunteer - 39; Chaplain Candidates - 37; International - 18; Veteran's Affairs - 18; Civil Air Patrol - 15; Fire Department - 15; Campus - 9; Counseling - 9; and Director of Religious Education - 1.

Nazarene chaplains extend the ministry of local Nazarene churches, serving as an expression of the church at work in the world. Because they serve, thousands each year come to a saving knowledge of Christ Jesus.

Evangelism Ministries, Jim Dorsey, Director

Evangelism Ministries continues the mission of starting and growing Nazarene churches in the USA and Canada through making Christ-like disciples of the nations.

NewStart

For the sixth consecutive year, over a hundred new Nazarene churches have been started in the USA and Canada. That annual total reflects an increase of two to three times the yearly averages over the previous several decades. The success rate for these new churches has also dramatically improved, from less than 10% to over 80%. The objectives for evaluating their success have been a threefold goal: becoming self-governing, self-propagating and self-funding.

Having just come through the Centennial Celebration and the special goals set for this past year, our denominational family rallied to meet and surpass the Centennial Goal for starting new churches. Across our 82 districts, local churches partnered to sponsor 1,544 new churches by the end of our 100th anniversary.

This has been an incredible turnaround from just a few decades ago. Hundreds of faith-filled sponsoring pastors and churches have joined with visionary district leadership and the General Church to make this goal a reality.

But we dare not stop now. The challenge for continuing to move forward in new church evangelism must remain a high priority for our denominational family. We cannot leave hundreds of new communities without a holiness witness. New churches must be started, in every receptive location. The growth in major population centers continues to outpace the number of existing and new Nazarene churches.

Several new efforts are being launched in the coming months to help encourage starting more new churches:

On-line Leadership University

A new on-line training tool called “Leadership University” has been under construction for the past twelve months. The purpose of this new site is to provide free training and networking for an unlimited number of new church leaders.

New Sponsorship Resources

Local church sponsors remain the key to unlocking our potential for reaching people through new congregations. Many sponsoring churches have already mothered several new congregations. Multiple new churches have become sponsoring churches themselves. Every Nazarene congregation can become significantly involved in sponsoring a new church.

Research confirms in communities where one Nazarene congregation exists, the church tends to struggle more. Where multiple Nazarene congregations minister near each other, they seem to do much better. Isolation from other sister churches is far more deadly to our churches than collaborating together to sponsor new ones.

Regional Training Events

Regional Accelerate Conferences will be launched in some of our strongest new Nazarene churches as practical training events. Potential new church pastors and sponsors, and launch teams, can experience a weekend in a high impact new church ministry. These efforts have proven very effective.

Some have seen new churches only as an expense, just taking from their districts or the sponsoring churches. But the reports again this year show the support new churches are adding to our mission as a denominational family.

The following statistics reflect the updated reports from new churches up to 2007-2008. From the new Nazarene churches reporting statistics since 1994, the following summary reveals some of their ministry impact:

- 1,544 Nazarene churches started in USA and Canada
- $11,778,324 invested toward district ministries
- $4,093,377 contributed to educational institutions

- $15,408,447 given to General Church ministries
- $211,809,984 in total support since 1994
- $180,529,836 increase in total property assets
- 48,353 new members added by profession of faith

Thank you again as denominational leaders for your encouragement and support for these ministries of evangelism and new churches.

A closing faith factor: your church might sponsor one of the strongest new Nazarene churches in the USA and Canada.

Mission Strategy, Oliver Phillips, Director

This ministry entity continues to resource our denomination in areas of demographic and cultural opportunities. As we witness dramatic changes in the population and multicultural landscape of the United States and Canada it becomes imperative that Mission Strategy develop resources to equip districts and churches to reach new neighborhoods with the holiness message.

Multicultural Ministries

Multicultural Ministries recognizes the challenge that is eminent by the continuing immigrant influx. This entity is committed to helping our denomination become a racially just, culturally diverse, spiritually vibrant and growing church in the USA and Canada, a church that gives expression to the richness of its faith, heritage and experiences. It is a ministry that embraces the challenge of including all Nazarenes as partners in ministry at all levels of its corporate structure. It is our prayer that changes may be seen as an opportunity to become the church that God intended.

Strategic Readiness Teams comprising 21 specific focus challenges, give excellent leadership in both awareness and impetus to reaching the often marginalized corners of the nation. A multiplicity of approaches, including accelerated course of study templates, leadership development, retreats, conferences, etc. all adds to the critical mass of evangelism.

Hispanic Ministries

Roberto Hodgson continues to render exceptional leadership to the Hispanic ministry efforts. The 24-modular course of study has been translated into Spanish. ENTE (Specialized Nazarene Theological Education) continues to provide ministerial preparation for ordination in various locations with 48 students enrolled.

Compassionate Ministries

Compassionate Ministries (NCM) under the leadership of Althea Taylor has forged a model initiative of capacity building and maintenance to assist Compassionate Ministry Centers in their mandate to provide comprehensive care to the poor and underprivileged. NCM USA and Canada supports approximately 175 Compassionate Ministry Centers (CMCs) and numerous churches throughout the United States and Canada, with resources for organizational strength and health. Resources provided assist member organizations in meeting the needs of those served in their community. The ministry continues to seek ways of encouraging and promoting churches to incorporate compassion as a lifestyle throughout the life of the church.

Hurricane Katrina hit the shores of the Gulf Coast of the United States on August 29, 2005, followed by Hurricane Rita on September 24, 2005. Nazarenes from across the country united in their efforts to support recovery for the devastated areas in a response that aptly became known as “Restoring Hope.” More than 140,000 Crisis Care Kits were sent to the area, and cash donations totaled over $4,000,000. An unprecedented number of people—as many as 4,611—travelled to the disaster sites as volunteers and gave 156,082 hours of service, “mucking” and gutting in Louisiana, “dry and tight” basic securing in Mississippi, and rehabilitating homes in Alabama. More than 1,000 homes were serviced by Nazarene Disaster Response teams. Other volunteers rendered medical, social work, attorney, and counseling services.

Urban Ministries

Urban Ministries with limited exposure and funding is creating through Web presence, print and video media the awareness of the need for a renaissance of the historic inheritance of the denomination to reach and care for the cities. The urbanization of the population will, for the foreseeable future, present our denomination with new opportunities for evangelism.

During the past quadrennium, Mission Strategy created three signal resource materials for the denomination: (1) Missio Dei— a video and workbook designed to help congregations optimize strategies to reach new neighborhoods, (2) E Pluribus Unum—a written resource book that explicates the opportunities and challenges in multicultural ministry, and (3) Who Moved my Church?—A booklet that provides congregations with information to start new missional curves to reach the shifting neighborhoods.

Revivalism Ministries, Chuck Millhuff, Coordinator

With this report, I end my tenure as the International Revivalism Coordinator. I will now go back into full-time evangelism, the call of my life.

In 2005, there were 2,595 Revival events. In 2008, there were 2,983 Revival events. We rejoice in this increase in revivals given the challenges evangelists and local churches face today. Make no mistake. God is still on the throne, and the revival meeting still works in saving, sanctifying, and healing grace.

During this Quadrennium, we have had many wonderful things take place:

- We have paid in full for The Gathering every December, an unheard-of idea eight years ago. 130 Evangelists attend this event. This retreat is a time of refreshing and renewal for all who come.
- This year we reached $33,750 in the matching fund called The Revival Fund to help the smaller churches to have revivals. There is a long list of churches waiting for help right now if funds were available.
- The Perspective Magazine was sent out regularly. This magazine is in many ways the evangelists' best promotional tool.
- The Revivalism Handbook was finished and approved by the General Superintendents. This small book gives the evangelist and those for whom he or she works rules to abide by in all issues of finance and contracts.
- To say the least, the revivals themselves have innumerable stories of fantastic victories.

It is my prayer that the revival meeting will become a powerful event for the church again. The Church of the Nazarene must continue to find platforms for our God-called evangelists and our leadership must believe in the importance of their work and ministry.

Communications Center, Bryon McLaughlin, Coordinator

The UCME Communications Center primarily serves the Web, print, audio, and video needs of those within the department. Other responsibilities include the editing of Mission Strategy.Org Magazine, and department (print and electronic) newsletters, and book and curriculum projects.

Print and Electronic Productions

The Communications Center is involved with the layout and production of print materials for the department's leadership training programs and other events. A major project during the last four years has been M7, the Mid-quadrennial Conference on Missions and Evangelism, which required the development of old and new media to publicize the event and provide attendees and others with helpful content for ongoing clergy education and equipping.

Two major projects for 2008 have been working with local vendors to render over 50 years worth of Preacher's Magazine and 12 years of GROW Magazine into digital format. Each of these magazines will be shared online and also distributed at the 2009 General Assembly.

Best Practices of Growing Churches

With the publication of Tom Nees' book, Best Practices of Growing Churches: Profiles and Conversations with Ministry Leaders (Beacon Hill Press), the Communications Center took on a major role in developing an accompanying audio book, a 40-page leader's guide, further interviews, and other audio pieces to complement the book and the idea of "best practices" (a discipline of observing and learning that leads to innovative adaptation). This project recognized that Nazarene clergy desire peer-to-peer learning opportunities that emphasize collaboration, mentoring, and coaching.

Web Site Development

The UCME home page, www.usamission.org and www.usacanadamission.org, continues to expand and has over 5,000 pages of information, including audio and video offerings. The Internet continues to be the primary means of the department for communicating and distributing electronic, print and video resources, as well as soliciting feedback.

Two forms of social media were developed in 2008 as a means of collecting information on denominational restructure. An online forum focused on denominational re-visioning and asked pastors to respond to a series of questions aimed at restructure at the local, district, and global level. An executive summary detailing responses was shared with denominational leaders. In July 2008, Tom Nees, former UCME Director, moderated an open online chat with pastors in the U.S. and Canada on denominational restructure. These comments were also shared with denominational leadership.

Blogging Community

In an effort to develop online communications which invite church-wide dialogue and discussion, the Communications Center developed a free online blogging community for pastors, ministry practitioners, and church leaders affiliated with the Church of the Nazarene. Its purpose is to increase ministry effectiveness, stimulate theological and missional reflection, and promote healthy conversation and dialogue about faith and ministry-related issues among Nazarenes. Several blogs have been started by various Global Ministry Center departments, pastors, and other church leaders.

E-Newsletters

The Communications Center helps distribute daily, monthly, and quarterly e-newsletters to clergy and ministry practitioners. Many are user-managed subscribe/unsubscribe campaigns, such as New Every Morning (a daily Scripture, quote, and prayer with over 3,200 subscribers), Iron Sharpens Iron (a twice-monthly pastoral-helps e-newsletter with over 3,300 subscribers), New Horizons (a twice-yearly publication for women in ministry with over 900 subscribers), One-on-One (a monthly evangelism e-newsletter with over 1,900 subscribers), and Mission Strategy (a bi-monthly e-newsletter on urban, multicultural, and compassionate ministries with over 1,300 subscribers). Other campaigns include the Chaplaincy e-newsletter, an e-newsletter for district superintendents (DSLDP), a campaign to send e-mail to all pastors, and a campaign to send e-mail to all associates. The Communications Center also developed Destination Orlando, the 2009 general assembly e-newsletter.

In October 2008, Rich Houseal left the department after 20 years of service to take a position as the Research Center Manager at the Global Ministries Center. Rich's leadership and able work as a layout and design expert will be sorely missed, but in his present assignment he will provide consultative services to the UCME Department.

Conclusion

As we begin a new quadrennium, I wish to thank Tom Nees for his support and encouragement during this transition. Each of the members of the UCME staff has been helpful, especially Loretta Cloud, my administrative coordinator. I am excited about the possibilities for the future as we attempt to help the church evangelize and disciple lost people into the Kingdom. Our message of heart holiness is exactly what people need in order to experience “righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit” (Rom. 14:17).

It is with confidence in our God that we enter the new quadrennium. We are not naïve. Other whirlwinds will probably roar around us in the coming years. But our experience with our God and our knowledge of His Word will continue to place in our hearts a peace that passes all understanding. We will not panic or despair for God has charge over His children and all the winds that would buffet them.

Jesus slept peacefully in the stern of the ship while the disciples panicked. They awoke Him and said, “Teacher, don’t you care if we drown?” He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Peace! Be still!” The wind died down and it was completely calm. The disciples were terrified and they asked each other, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!” (Mark 4:35-41).

Who is this, indeed. This is our Jesus! He made the wind in the first place and He can control any wild whirlwind that can come against His children. Although it is human to be nervous in the storm, it is just like our Jesus to place a superhuman calm in our blustery hearts. And He does just that in these difficult challenging times. So we begin a new quadrennium praying and believing that this Jesus will blow the winds of renewal into the heart of every Nazarene in the United States and Canada.

WORLD MISSION

To the Board of General Superintendents and delegates of the 27th General Assembly:

“Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness! Tremble before Him, all the earth. Say among the nations, ‘The LORD reigns; The world also is firmly established, It shall not be moved; He shall judge the peoples righteously.’”

Psalm 96: 9-10 NKJV

At the heart of our church is the holiness message. We are seeing the results of the proclamation of this message in our world areas. Nazarene church leaders throughout the world are continuing to make it a priority to teach, preach, and demonstrate holiness. This vital truth is being proclaimed with a passion, very much like the early days of the Church of the Nazarene when it began as a holiness movement.

I have been encouraging our field leadership to hold holiness conferences, which they have done. Significant life changes and spiritual deepening are the results from these events. One of the great movements of God in the Church of the Nazarene today is in the Horn of Africa. The JESUS Film evangelism and church planting emphases have resulted in tens of thousands coming to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. The Horn of Africa leaders are instituting leadership development, discipleship, and are teaching a lifestyle of holiness. What a phenomenal experience it has been for me to be at some of the Holiness Conference events! One particular highlight was hearing the praises sung by a group of converts in Africa who had previously been religious leaders in a Gospel-resistant people group. They sang their familiar chants but changed the words to give God the glory for their true salvation and to celebrate what Jesus had done in their hearts.

At an Ethiopia Holiness Conference there was an emphasis on spiritual formation. This included discussions about stewardship, tapping available resources, and the importance of church planting. During the evening sessions pastors were encouraged to seek a renewed sense of God and to reach an understanding of holiness. For many, this event introduced them to sanctification.

Remarkably, a pastor arrived in Ethiopia from Sudan to attend one of these Holiness Conferences after traveling on foot for 13 days and nights. Although his journey was arduous, while in route to the event he took time to evangelize and planted two churches.

Also, he reported that there are now more than 500 Nazarene churches on his zone.

My experiences in Ethiopia reminded me of another country that I visited in one of our creative access areas, where a great movement of God is taking place. A church leader told me, "We don't need money, and we don't need buildings, that would just slow us down. If you want to help us, teach us about holiness."

One of the Holiness Conferences was held on the South Pacific Field in Fiji. Participants focused on how they can be part of the church planting efforts across the South Pacific. The evening sessions were devoted to the emphasis of holiness. As the conference progressed, God's presence moved in the hearts of the people with many professing sanctification through the infilling of the Holy Spirit. When our church leaders experience such power, it flows into their fields and churches. One group returned home with great enthusiasm and repeated the essence of the workshops on church planting and the holiness crusade in their area. Our field leaders visited this area four months following the original conference in Fiji and learned that new church plants were spreading throughout this area. By God's grace, they are now impacting others and the multiplying effects are seemingly unstoppable.

The World Mission Department facilitates, for the whole denomination, fulfilling the mandate of Jesus to spread the Gospel into world areas by evangelizing and saturating the world with the message of Christ. As the Church of the Nazarene is experiencing a Holiness movement in many places like that of the early church, the Gospel is being shared through 794 missionaries and over 24,000 credentialed and district licensed national leaders. This growth in our regional areas is due to God moving through our church leaders who have a passion for the lost to find a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. These leaders are obeying the Holy Spirit, advancing the Gospel and promoting the holiness message.

World Mission Statistics

The Africa region received 138,234 members in this quadrennium. The regions total membership now stands at 410,816, a net gain of 50.7 percent. There were 793 new churches organized in these four years, bringing the total of organized churches to 2,893. The Africa region currently has 3,463 church type missions.

New World Areas

This quadrennium the Church entered Iraq and Zanzibar in 2006. We continue to do everything possible to impact the world for Jesus Christ.

10/40 Window

From West Africa to East Asia, from ten degrees north to forty degrees north of the equator, lies a key mission target, the 10/40 Window. Within this area lives the largest population of non-Christians in the world. Of the 60 plus countries in the 10/40 Window, World Mission is currently present in more than half.

Theological Education

While thousands are finding Christ as their personal Savior, we are also making it a priority to prepare leaders who will guide our churches in evangelizing the lost. In order to prepare those who God is calling into the ministry, we have focused on establishing both residential and extension systems of theological education. We are amazed at what the Lord is doing, and are challenged by the increasing numbers of leaders who are needed to expand God's work. The development of Education by Extension has enabled us to multiply the number of trained leaders, helping us to fulfill the Great Commission.

Thirty nine Bible colleges and seminaries, two liberal arts universities, and five vocational and training colleges operate on the six regions. Currently, these institutions train 30,564 residential and 14,539 extension students.

Country of Origin

During this past quadrennium the focus continued on the entire world as the sending church.

As we become a more global church, we recognize that God calls missionaries from every area of the world. Currently the Church of the Nazarene has missionaries originating from 34 different countries:

Argentina	Guatemala	Philippines
Australia	Ireland	Portugal
Barbados	Japan	Swaziland
Bolivia	Kenya	Switzerland
Brazil	Korea, South	South Africa
Canada	Mexico	Trinidad/Tabago
Cape Verde	Mozambique	United Kingdom
Costa Rica	Netherlands	United States
Ethiopia	Nicaragua	Zambia
England	Panama	Zimbabwe
France	Paraguay
Germany	Peru

Ministry Areas

I am thankful for the group of leaders that God has given to us to work in the World Mission office. My Focus Team consists of Dave Anderson, Larry Bollinger, David Hayse, Brian Helstrom, Marty Hoskins, Daniel Ketchum, Dan Schafer, and Michael Thompson. These individuals give insightful leadership and support to the ongoing mission work of the church.

JESUS Film Harvest Partners

This quadrennium, in 2008, the JESUS Film ministry reached a milestone of 50 million people viewing the JESUS Film by Nazarene JESUS Film teams. Each encounter, each evangelistic contact, each face-to-face meeting, is by God who is battling for the eternal destiny of one of His beloved. We celebrate each one of these divine encounters.

JESUS Film Harvest Partners began for the World Mission Department in 1998. The cumulative totals are staggering. Since 1998, these teams have used the film in 273 language translations and have worked in 101 world areas. JESUS Film teams reported a cumulative total of 50,576,397 evangelistic contacts. Of these contacts, 8,963,161 (17.7 percent) indicated decisions for Christ, and 2,944,075 (32.8 percent of decisions) participated in initial discipleship follow-up. Additionally, 17,700 new mission type churches have been started. In this quadrennium, a new ministry was launched, "Youth Reaching Youth". These teams evangelize the "young world" and this is a report from the Philippines.

"Our church has been struggling for the past few years," reports a church member in the Philippines. "We have experienced a serious decrease in the number of people who attend our youth group. The young people had developed an unhealthy attitude and were no longer attending. But praise God after a recent JESUS Film showing, God sent 22 young people to our church who are now faithfully attending. They have started a choir group and many of them are signed up for guitar lessons. The guitar lessons are offered by our pastor as an outreach to young people and his classes have become very popular. About 15 additional youth have asked to come to his classes and twelve more signed up to attend a three-day youth camp to learn more about Christ.”

I am thankful for the ministry of Brian Helstrom and his leadership with the JESUS Film Harvest Partners office. I am also grateful for the Harvest Partners Board of Directors with whom I have the privilege to work. They not only give leadership, direction, and resources, but also lead with integrity and God-given strength.

Harvest Partners works with approximately 5,000 donors. These individuals, families, churches, organizations, and groups have been faithful to pray and give beyond all expectations. Many of these partners are not a part of the Church of the Nazarene, and we celebrate the diversity of people who support this ministry, including Presbyterians, Baptists, Methodists, Church of the Brethren, Catholics, Assembly of God, Lutherans, Mormons, and non-believers, to name a few.

Mission Personnel

I am thankful for a church that has a vision for involving Nazarenes at all levels. God is blessing the ministry of developing individuals who receive a call to missionary service. This may come through full-time service or volunteer ministries.

This ministry is able to meet the needs of potential missionary candidates from a young age to adults. Over the years we have taken the word development seriously and have invested in people of all ages to help them better understand how they need to prepare themselves for mission involvement.

This ministry area involves volunteers, youth missions, mission candidate opportunities, and global mission development.

Youth In Mission

God continues to use Youth In Mission to develop and impact young church leaders. For example, this last year, Youth In Mission sent 94 participants to 28 world areas. Of this group, 34 of the Youth In Mission students were from three of our regional areas.

Mission Corps

This ministry provides vital support to the mission strategy of the church. These volunteers greatly assist our missionary personnel. Significant increases in involvement during this quadrennium have been through this ministry. We are thankful for the faithful Nazarenes that are willing to sacrificially give of themselves to make an impact around the world. In these four years, we have had 2,001 individual that gave of themselves and served on the field as a volunteer.

YouthServe connects Nazarene youth with opportunities to serve in each of the world areas and partners with over 35 Compassionate Ministry Centers in the United States and Canada.

Thousands of Nazarene youth have participated in YouthServe related projects in this quadrennium. This ministry is a tremendous benefit to our missionary personnel and national workers.

Work and Witness

Since its inception in 1974, Work and Witness has provided life changing moments both for those who give and those who receive. In these 36 years, 196,060 participants have given 13,246,196 labor hours which equal 6,564 years of labor. There were a total of 53,087 participants in the Work and Witness ministry in these four years.

Mission Services

The Mission Services arm continues the connection with Mission personnel throughout their service career. Mission Services provides assistance in the following areas.

- Pre-field Training
- Intern Training
- Human Resources Services
- Support to the Regional Personnel Coordinators
- Policy Development
- Pastoral Care
- MemberCare
- Missionary Retirement

I am thankful for Marty Hoskins and his team who are making a difference in meeting the needs of our volunteers and missionary personnel.

Nazarene Missions International

Daniel Ketchum was elected as the General Nazarene Missions International Director in November 1, 2005. He followed Dr. Nina Gunter who served in this position for 19 years until her election as a general superintendent. Daniel previously served as a missionary and field strategy coordinator of the South Asia Field on the Eurasia Region.

Nazarene Missions International (NMI) is the church-relations heart of World Mission within each local church. NMI provides far more than materials, programs, or promotion.

The purpose of NMI is to mobilize churches to participate in missions.

Daniel and his team have developed four areas to help individuals and the local church with the charge and vision for mission work in our church.

Praying

Global praying is the furnace and foundation of our Book-of-Acts strategy. We envision every local church engaged in prayer for global mission through initiatives contextualized in each community. NMI was born in prayer and our future is in prayer.

Discipling

Global disciple making invites emerging leaders from each generation to become active participants in missions. We envision young generations of international, mission- passionate leaders who are no longer satisfied to listen, look, and learn. They desire to speak and shape the next era in Missio Dei, the mission of God in the world. NMI engages these young leaders as participants in global missions.

Giving

Global giving challenges church members to give for mission sacrificially. The World Evangelism Fund continues to be the vital lifeline for development of leaders and churches globally. The financial resources multiply through collective sacrifice and corporate generosity of our Nazarene family. Giving empowers believers and reminds us all that we are participants in God's mission.

Educating

Global education moves leaders and churches beyond static information to interactive praying, intercession for leaders and churches, and drawing people to Christ through the Holy Spirit.

NMI is telling the story by resourcing global mission in the local church:

- Mission books, tapes, and CDs
- Curricula for children, youth, and adults
- International Mission Education Journal
- Global Glimpses
- Mission Connection
- NMI Web site: 27,000 hits each month. The redesigned NMI Web site is a vital tool to resource local churches and districts in all areas of NMI, World Mission, and beyond.

I am thankful for General President Eunice Brubaker and the General NMI Council for the leadership they have given to the global church. I am equally grateful for the dedicated teams of leaders in the local churches and districts who are supporting and advancing the cause of mission and building the kingdom of God.

Nazarene Compassionate Ministries (NCM)

Compassion arises out of our love for the Lord in response to God's gift of salvation.

It is our hope that compassion will be woven into the fabric of our daily lifestyle as individuals and congregations respond to the gifts God has given us and as we endeavor to follow Him. As people in the body of Christ live out compassion through their everyday activities, they are responding to God's call on their lives and witnessing to those around them.

Nazarene Compassionate Ministries supports local church ministries in over 145 world areas. Throughout the world, in crisis situations, Nazarene Compassionate Ministries has been the preferred partner in disaster response by funding agencies such as World Relief, World Concern, Humedica, Foods Resource Bank, and Canadian Food Grains Bank. All of these resources enable Nazarenes to respond to the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of their communities.

This quadrennium, Nazarene Compassionate Ministries helped facilitate hundreds of shipments of Gift-in-Kind donations to the six regions and North America filled with clothing, medical supplies, and Crisis Care Kits.

Through Child Sponsorship, Compassionate Ministries continues to meet the needs of over 11,800 children around the world through feeding, education, and training programs in 80 world areas.

Nazarene Compassionate Ministries is committed to missions by resourcing, equipping, and providing technical support to local leaders around the world. They are passionate about promoting "Compassion as a Lifestyle," offering unconditional assistance, followed by intentional evangelism, for eternal results.

I am thankful for Larry Bollinger and his team that is making a difference throughout the world.

World Mission Literature

World Mission Literature led by David Hayse, continues the development of holiness- based written materials in as many languages as possible where the Church of the Nazarene ministers.

These materials are used to train national personnel, and are in the Church's commitment to maintain doctrinal integrity. In an effort to meet these critical goals, World Mission Literature endeavors to develop relevant and needed products, while working to implement effective marketing and distribution systems. In addition, World Mission Literature is partnering with the various global mission strategists to build awareness of the needs of our constituencies. World Mission Literature is motivated to produce and contextualize as much as possible for the various programs and ministries of the global church.

In these four years over 700 new titles were completed in 86 languages. Significant attention has been given to developing regional and field marketing strategies, a financial support system, and the promotion of ministerial education and pastor's libraries.

As these areas are strengthened, it will ease the load on mission personnel and national leadership.

Statistics cannot tell the whole story, but they provide a way to quantify the results of stewardship invested in holiness literature. Since World Mission Literature was established in 1945, over three thousand titles have been written or translated through this department.

Each Sunday, Nazarenes worship in over 200 languages. World Mission Literature has produced holiness literature in 93 languages.

World Mission Communications

Led by Dave Anderson, World Mission Communications, the media arm of the World Mission Department, continues to meet the demands of this rapidly changing electronic age.

World Mission Broadcast, World Mission DVD, World Mission Internet Services and the website, and the coordination of the six regional communication centers are key focuses for World Mission Communications in training, equipping, production, and media support.

World Mission Broadcast is in its 64th year of operation and gives witness to the life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ. Through radio, television, and the internet, millions of listeners and viewers hear the Word proclaimed, respond to the life-giving message, and are being disciplined each day.

World Mission Broadcast in South America is preparing to release the third season of Mujer Valiosa TV (The Valued Woman). This television ministry was launched in 2007 after the unprecedented success of Mujer Valiosa radio. Mujer Valiosa radio airs on more than 1,400 stations in 24 countries.

Like its predecessor, the television ministry exploded into the market, now airing on more than 1,000 channels in 20 countries. The potential audience is estimated at more than 150 million viewers. These statistics are exciting and clearly show the tremendous impact programs like Mujer Valiosa can have.

An example of the type of impact World Mission Broadcast's programs make can be found in the life of Rabeh from Algeria. Rabeh saw WMB's Middle East broadcaster, Ayman Kafrouny, on a television program ministering through songs and Biblical teaching. God used this program to touch Rabeh's heart and he wrote to Ayman saying, "I want to thank you for your program that I watched on Life TV. Because of your program I came to know Jesus Christ and I gave my heart to Him. Since then my life was changed totally. I found real peace and I am now a new person. Please pray for my family to come to know Jesus, like me."

World Mission DVD

The World Mission DVD objective continues to be a "report back home" of the return on investment to the local church and their support of global missions through the World Evangelism Fund. This quarterly resource is available free of charge to every local Nazarene church. Each new issue is uploaded to the Nazarene Media Library, making it available to anyone who has the desire to watch and download a segment to show in their local church or mission meeting. The ability to post World Mission DVD segments on the Media Library has greatly expanded its distribution.

"From The Dark" - Release 2 – This compelling story of Felix Vargas and his journey from a life of sin to a believer in Christ has been used of God to transform lives around the world. Originally produced by World Mission Communications in 2007, a second release was done in 2008 with updated graphics and a Portuguese version. The menu has now been expanded to include Portuguese, Spanish and English. Over 8,000 copies of this award winning DVD have been given away and because of continuing demand, another 2,500 copies have been ordered. This film has won two Telly Awards and a Davey Award for excellence in filmmaking. But, the greatest reward is its ability to speak to viewers, resulting in changed lives.

Regional Directors

We had several changes in the regional director leadership during this past quadrennium. Brent Cobb resigned his position as the Asia-Pacific regional director effective July 1, 2005.

During his ten years of service, the Asia-Pacific region entered 12 new world areas, developed 11 districts, adding 411 new churches and 19,709 new members. We are deeply thankful for the work that Brent and Marty Cobb gave to the church and the Asia-Pacific region.

Verne Ward was elected as the Asia-Pacific regional director in November 2005. Verne had served as a missionary on the Asia-Pacific region in Papua New Guinea and was field strategy coordinator for the Melanesia field when he was elected. Rev. Ward brings innovative ideas and a philosophy of mission that will result in dynamic growth in the region. Fred Huff resigned as the Africa regional director and accepted a new ministry assignment in March 2006. During Dr. Huff's six year ministry as the Africa regional director the membership grew by approximately 39 percent.

Eugénio Duarte was elected as the Africa regional director in November 2005. Since 1997, he had served as a missionary on the Africa region and was currently serving as field strategy coordinator for the Africa French Equatorial field when he was elected.

Bruno Radi (1946-2005). The global Nazarene family suffered a great loss when Bruno Radi died on June 21, 2005. While mourning, the church in South America has continued to follow through with the vision and passion of evangelism that was the heartbeat of this giant man of God.

Christian Sarmiento had served as regional director for the Mexico and Central America region since April 1999. During this time, the region was blessed with growth through his visionary leadership. He is deeply committed to building the Church of the Nazarene and bringing the transforming message of Christ to the world. Dr. Sarmiento was elected as the regional director of the South America region in October 2005.

Carlos Saenz was elected and began serving as the Mexico and Central America regional director in December 2005. Since 1988, he had served as a missionary in the Caribbean region and was serving as Caribbean Compassionate Coordinator and Field Strategy Coordinator for the Caribbean Spanish field when he was elected MAC regional director.

Our regional directors provide excellent leadership as we continue to plan for growth on our six regions. We are blessed to have leaders of such high caliber in these positions. The demands of their responsibilities are enormous, but they give themselves to the task with dedication and sacrifice. They have a true passion for evangelism and it is a privilege to work with them:

- Eugénio Duarte lives in Johannesburg, South Africa, and leads the Africa Region.
- Verne Ward lives in Singapore, Singapore, and leads the Asia-Pacific Region.
- John Smee lives in Miami, Florida, and leads the Caribbean Region.
- Gustavo Crocker lives in Büsingen, Germany, and leads the Eurasia Region.
- Carlos Saenz lives in San Jose, Costa Rica, and leads the Mexico and Central America Region.
- Christian Sarmiento lives in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and leads the South America Region.

World Mission Committee

In 2007, the World Mission Department and the World Mission Committee recognized Dr. Loren Gresham for 10 years of service as Chair of the World Mission Committee. I would like to commend Dr. Loren Gresham and the World Mission Committee members of the General Board for their service this quadrennium. They have provided support to the World Mission Department and wonderful leadership in this task of global evangelism.

In Conclusion

“I know where I am going, but there are millions who do not; keep on telling them.”

Bruno C. Radziszewski 1946 – 2005

Bruno Radi, regional director of South America for eleven years, went to be with the Lord on June 21, 2005. During World War II, Bruno's father, from Poland, met and then later married an Italian woman. They settled in Italy for a short time where Bruno was born and then immigrated to Argentina. His parents were converted in a Nazarene tent campaign when Bruno was eight. Bruno gave his heart to Jesus when he was 11 and was called to preach as a teenager. He started preaching when he was 16 and then began his studies in the Bible Institute in Buenos Aires. His first ministry assignment was in the northern part of Argentina where he started the work with the Toba indigenous people.

He served in many different roles in the church: pastor, district superintendent, field strategy coordinator, evangelism director of South America and then regional director of South America. Bruno also had an impact on the broader church of Jesus Christ. While he was pastoring a strong, growing Nazarene church in Rosario, Argentina, he also worked for ten years coordinating evangelistic campaigns across Latin America for Luis Palau.

Bruno and his wife, Liliana, worked together to guide the administration and ministries of the South America region. Bruno's vision for leadership and passion for evangelism has had a major impact leading to a movement of church planting and multiplication of members throughout South America and in many countries around the world. He was a mastermind at building a team and working as a team member.

He was a popular speaker for holiness, church development, and leadership development conferences. He was the author of several books and was very instrumental in using modern media to present the Gospel and train for discipleship. His innovative use of the JESUS Film for evangelism and church planting has been used by the Holy Spirit in reaching thousands of people for Christ.

Bruno had a very inventive mind. He was always thinking of more effective and efficient ways to accomplish the task at hand. We saw this even in his preaching. Bruno had an incredible gift of communicating the gospel. He could take deep theological truths and transfer them to simple illustrations so that everyone could understand the message.

He was a visionary leader, a mentor, an evangelist, and friend. We miss him greatly, but we know his legacy will continue to impact the church for years to come.

Just as Bruno Radi believed in his earthly life, today we still have the reminder that our God is steadfast, and our eyes are to be focused on Him. We are not to be bound by fear, but rather we are compelled go and proclaim the Truth.

NAZARENE MISSIONS INTERNATIONAL

To the Board of General Superintendents and Delegates of the 27th General Assembly:

Nazarene Missions International (NMI) is the church relations heart of Global Mission within each local church globally. The purpose of NMI is to mobilize churches in mission through:

- Praying: interceding for leaders and churches and for the Holy Spirit to draw all people to Christ.
- Discipling: mentoring and involving all people including youth and children to make Christlike disciples in the nations.
- Giving: devoting ourselves and our resources including World Evangelism Fund to extend Christ's kingdom.
- Educating: informing people of the world's needs and enabling our church to meet those needs in Christ.

Praying

Prayer is the center of the mission of God and our mission. Prayer is the heart of Spirit-born passion and the key to Book-of-Acts movements that the Holy Spirit is pouring out now on several fields around the world.

The global NMI team led 70 District NMI Presidents from 10 nations on a Prayer Vision Journey in the Horn of Africa. Participants were invited to pray alongside, to learn from, and to be inspired by exemplary brothers and sisters in Ethiopia where Nazarenes are planting new churches every day.

This past quadrennium subscriptions to the NMI Prayer Mobilization Line exceeded 10,000. Participation has increased more than 2,000 subscriptions in these few years. Plans for the future include prayer podcasts and translation.

NMI continues to encourage prayer and fasting, praying for unreached people and developing congregations in the 10/40 Window and the Persecuted Church, World Week of Prayer, International Day of Prayer, and LINKS missionaries whom we support in prayer and in many other ways.

NMI hosts the Million Hours of Prayer in preparation for General Assembly and Conventions and 24/7 Global Prayer as regions around the world pray during General Assembly and Conventions.

In Mark 11, Jesus quoted the words of the prophet Isaiah, "My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations." This past quadrennium, NMI encouraged every leader of every gathering—local, district, field, regional, and global—to call participants into the presence of God in prayer. We desire deeply that every local church will become a house of prayer for all nations.

Discipling

Leaders of NMI are discipling next generations to be sent from the nations to the nations. We applaud the Isaiah/Caleb project for sending 13 missionaries from Mexico and Central America and South America to Spain, Portugal, France, and Middle East. On a Mission Corps contract, participants raised funds from their home countries. They have been planting and developing churches for two years and will return home during the summer of 2009.

District NMI Mission Call Coordinators are discipling 381 youth and children who have heard and answered God's call to global mission. NMI assists local churches to identify and equip young people who sense a call to missions.

Thanks to your generosity and since General Assembly in 2005, the Church of the Nazarene has entered and is evangelizing and discipling in seven new world areas: Kosovo, Guinea Conakry, Moldova, Niger, Norway, Zanzibar, and a new creative access area. We are active in a total of 155 world areas.

NMI and the Global Mission Department partner in hands-on discipling:

- Since 2005, Mission Corps (formerly NIVS) deployed more than 2,000 missionaries from six world regions.
- Youth in Mission sent 756 students from six world regions.
- Nearly 11,000 Work & Witness teams from all seven world regions contributed a total of more than 12 million hours of labor.

In 2006 NMI began to ask every leader, “Whom are you discipling?” and “Who is discipling you?” We embrace our statement of mission and our quadrennial theme: “Making Christlike Disciples in the Nations”.

Educating

In mid-quadrennium, NMI completely revised a new Web site that provides informational and educational resources for mission leaders around the world. User reviews continue to demonstrate how vital this new design is for NMI best practices and future expansion. Simultaneously, NMI introduced creative graphics for each of four objectives: praying, discipling, educating, and giving. The new Web site and new graphics have received extremely positive response.

This quadrennium NMI initiated Web-casting and tele-conferencing to communicate with and to train district and local leaders. We continue to pursue excellence in communication through new technologies.

The global NMI team hosted a quadrennial gathering for district presidents to provide equipping, information, and inspiration. The team also helped to develop and to participate in quadrennial NMI conferences on each educational zone in the USA/Canada region. The global NMI team conducted two training sessions for new district NMI presidents.

Each year NMI awards International Student Scholarships to theological students attending Nazarene Bible colleges, seminaries, and universities in Global Mission regions. Since 1999, NMI has awarded 1,136 scholarships. In the past quadrennium, NMI awarded 480 scholarships.

NMI has helped to support Global Mission in publishing holiness literature in 90 languages. Global Nazarene Publications (formerly World Mission Literature) is currently developing 673 projects in 56 languages.

Mission education books and curriculum remain vital to global awareness. Each year, NMI partners with the Nazarene Publishing House (NPH) to publish six mission books, three of which are for youth. This is the number one best-selling series published by NPH.

NMI also provides creative mission curriculum for children, youth, and adults. NMI partners with NYI and Barefoot Ministries to provide curriculum for youth mission education. NMI collaborates with Children’s Ministries to provide children’s mission books and curriculum for children’s mission education. For adults in local churches, NMI provides a packet of creative mission education resources.

Each year, NMI develops the International Mission Education Journal (IMEJ), a simplified, abridged version of NMI curriculum for use in local churches. Then, we translate IMEJ into multiple languages for extensive global usage.

Mission books remain vital. While leaders have purchased fewer books and curriculum each year, they have purchased more CDs of books each year.

NMI has moved many regular education resources from print to digital, such as HeartLine, Mission Connection magazine, and Global Glimpses. In this move from print to digital, NMI will apply cost savings toward development of regional writers and resources. We will translate these resources into multiple languages for contextual mission education globally.

In the future, NMI will provide more strategic books, more great stories, more international resources, and more creative resources such as podcasts and video streams. NMI partners closely with Engage Magazine, the new Global Mission Web magazine. Engage invites international writers to relate dynamic mission stories in their own words.

Our global leadership team is researching and developing future resources for NMI around a concept we call Simply Mission. Based on formal and informal surveys among local and district leaders and in collaboration with Nazarene Publishing House, we will develop new NMI ministries and products. Simply Mission will pursue more mission passion and simpler program. Simply Mission will feature simpler offerings and combined emphases.

As a result of the blessing of the Lord, the amazing local and district volunteers who lead NMI globally, and their practice of the four objectives and multiple emphases noted above, the number of local NMI’s grew from 11,311 to 13,446 during this past quadrennium. The number of NMI members grew from 827,055 to 961,278 during the past quadrennium. All of this is to the praise of God’s glory and in gratitude to NMI leaders around the world.

Giving

At a gathering in Rwanda, District Superintendents and pastors responded to our invitation to be filled with the Holy Spirit. Then they spontaneously asked for the privilege of giving an offering to a pastor in a creative access nation who spends 40 weeks each year in jail for his faith. Pastors in Rwanda have adopted orphans from the 1994 genocide and receive very little income. They had already given World Evangelism Fund (WEF) in full but they offered US $40 that day.

NMI is telling stories of God's mission. Churches are responding faithfully.

- During the past four years, Nazarenes gave for the World Evangelism Fund (WEF) more than US $192 million, a quadrennial increase of US $16 million compared to the previous four years. In fact, WEF giving increased each year during this quadrennium.
- Nazarenes globally gave more than US $6 million beyond WEF, which helped the Church of the Nazarene to enter seven new world areas and to establish new works in USA and Canada during the quadrennium. Note that 80% of giving beyond WEF helped to enter new world areas; 20% helped to establish new works in USA and Canada.
- Nazarenes gave US $117 million for 10% Approved Mission Specials.
- The US $12 million given for Alabaster building projects resulted in more than 1,000 new buildings. That averages nearly 5 projects each week. Since its inception in 1949, Alabaster offerings have totaled US $89 million and have funded more than 8,000 projects.
- Nazarenes gave more than US $31 million for Compassionate Ministries, a quadrennial increase of US $13 million.
- Work & Witness teams contributed nearly US $23 million, a quadrennial increase of US $2.5 million.
- Nazarenes gave US $2 million for World Mission Broadcast.
- Nazarenes gave US $13 million to support missionaries in deputation, LINKS, missionary health care, and missionary Christmas fund.
- Total giving for global mission: more than US $309 million, an increase of nearly US $39 million or 14.3% compared to the previous quadrennium.

The NMI 90th Anniversary project “Books for Pastors—Tools for Ministry” generated global interest in providing basic biblical and library resources for pastors on each Global Mission region. During the quadrennium, Nazarenes around the world gave US $ 3,040,269.75 million for this project. Added to the amount given for this project last quadrennium, the total “Books for Pastors” offering received stands now at US $ 3,273,048.86 million.

World Evangelism Fund Expansion

New generations of givers will respond to new global giving strategies. The General Board recently approved the Board of General Superintendents' proposal to adapt the World Evangelism Fund to changing needs. Beginning with district assemblies in 2010, the World Evangelism Fund goal for each local church and district globally will be 5.5% of all current income without deductions.

An economic downturn swept the world at the end of this quadrennium. Teams in NMI and the Global Mission Department demonstrate a long history of responding to crisis. In 2005—the year of Hurricane Katrina and a tsunami that traumatized South Asia and Southeast Asia fields—giving to mission specials and World Evangelism Fund increased significantly. Amazing numbers of volunteer teams gave their time and talent. Christ's love compelled them.

Christ's love compels us now. Yes, we face challenges, unpredictable and hazardous. Yes, global economic crises require simplicity, courage, and sacrifice. Yet, we do not lose heart or abandon hope. Now is not the time to retrench global mission. Now is the time to renew our confidence in God's mission and in Christ's love. We want everyone everywhere to call on the name of the Lord, to repent, to trust in Jesus, to receive forgiveness and eternal life, to embrace heart cleansing and fullness in the Spirit, and to make Christlike disciples in the nations.

Please note statistical summaries that follow
...to the praise of God's glory!

GENERAL EDITOR

To the Board of General Superintendents and Delegates of the 27th General Assembly:

It is a privilege to present this Quadrennial report. As general editor, I have endeavored to fulfill my responsibilities as outlined in General Board Bylaw 8.7 and as described in the Administrative Handbook. What follows are highlights from my reports throughout this quadrennium concerning the various areas of my service and ministry.

Editorial

During this quadrennium I have served as editor in chief of our denominational magazine, Holiness Today. Following significant changes in design and format, the magazine continues to emphasize the twin themes of the pursuit of practical holiness and facilitating the global connection of Nazarenes through pictures and stories.

Holiness Today offers six issues annually along with a comprehensive Web site, www.holinesstoday.org. By combining print and electronic technologies, Nazarene readers can be informed as well as connected via this interactive venue. I am ably assisted by Carmen Ringhiser, Holiness Today managing editor.

Editorial Policy Board

During this quadrennium, the Board of General Superintendents approved the expansion of the Editorial Policy Board to include representatives of Adult, Youth, and Children's ministries. This expanded focus ensures proper and appropriate representation regarding curricula offered by the denomination.

I have chaired the Editorial Policy Board in their work of ensuring missional and doctrinal integrity of materials produced by all entities of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene. My colleagues have met four times during the quadrennium in prayerful and thoughtful deliberation concerning these issues.

Beacon Hill Press Committee

In addition, I have served as a member of the Beacon Hill Press Committee (BHP). I have also served on the Beacon Hill Press Executive Committee with my colleagues, Frank Moore, Chair, Bonnie Perry, Beacon Hill Press director, and Hardy Weathers, Nazarene Publishing House president. Additional members of the BHP committee include, Kent Conrad, Debbie Goodwin, David Hayse, Janet Lanham, Carl Leth, and James Spruce. Together we have fulfilled our stated obligation of reviewing manuscripts and making recommendations to Beacon Hill Press and Nazarene Publishing House

World Mission Literature

It has been my privilege to work with World Mission Literature director David Hayse in a partnership focused on enhancing global literature. Through trust relationships established throughout the regions, we have been able to assure both doctrinal and theological congruence with the Articles of Faith in the materials procured, produced, and distributed throughout World Mission areas.

Centennial Initiative

Roger Hahn, Centennial general editor, and Alex Varughese, managing editor continue to provide leadership in collaboration with the Editorial Policy Board, Beacon Hill Press, and Nazarene Publishing House. During the quadrennium two volumes of the New Beacon Bible Commentary project, Romans and Jeremiah, have been released. I am grateful to the dedicated leadership of these two Spirit-filled scholars and educators.

NCN News

The Church of the Nazarene has an effective global news system called NCN News. NCN stands for Nazarene Communications Network, and it is truly a global network. With news correspondents located in each regional office, NCN News provides our readers up-to-the-minute accounts of those happenings involving or affecting global Nazarenes. NCN News is delivered 50 weeks of the year as a free, subscriber based eNewsletter. Undergirding the weekly e-mail delivery system is a powerful Web site, www.ncnnews.com. I am ably assisted in this endeavor by Chad Schnarr, NCN News managing editor.

Mission Education Committee

As general editor, it has been my privilege to work with the Mission Education Committee to review and approve texts used in local church mission education. This vital link between local churches and the global evangelism and disciple-making initiatives of the church connects people and mission through narrative and story.

Portfolio Responsibilities

The Church of the Nazarene's statement of mission uses only seven, carefully chosen words to powerfully and concisely describe our global responsibility. Clearly, words are not only essential to communication; they have the capability of helping us see and implement bold ideas and concepts.

As general editor, it is my privilege to provide both the Board of General Superintendents and the General Secretary with editorial services as requested.

Respectfully Submitted,
DAVID J. FELTER
General Editor

INTERNATIONAL BOARD OF EDUCATION

To the Board of General Superintendents and Delegates to the 27th General Assembly:

In 1989, the General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene approved an Education Commission report and recommendations creating the International Board of Education and the position of education commissioner. This action of the 1989 General Assembly recognized the scope of the Nazarene education work globally. It was a strategic decision, the benefits of which cannot be overstated.

In 2008, the International Board of Education and the education commissioner served the global church in advocacy, support, evaluation and networking the 57 undergraduate and graduate level Nazarene institutions located in 40 countries on six continents. These schools enrolled 45,103 students last year on their campuses and in their extension centers. Their assets totaled $1,055,112,861. Local church support to these institutions, as reported, totaled $27,468,445.

Dr. Jerry D. Lambert served the Lord and the Church of the Nazarene from 1994-2008 as Education Commissioner. He retired in 2008 as the second commissioner in the denomination. What a legacy he left for the church.

Dr. Lambert worked closely with the 13-member International Board of Education. He was passionate about IBOE's theme: "Educating Global Christians for the 21st Century." He visited each of the 57 schools of the International Board of Education and participated in the missional reviews of many of these institutions.

Two Global Theology Conferences, in Guatemala and in the Netherlands, were funded, in part, by money raised by Dr. Lambert. He chaired the Books for Pastors project designed to assist pastors with a basic core of books for their libraries. The 24 modular Course of Study project, led by Dr. Mike Vail and assisted by his wife, Connie, replaced the previous "Directed Course of Study" programs for persons pursuing their educational requirements for ordination. Funds for this massive project were secured by Dr. Lambert.

In fact, the "21st Century Global Education Strategy" with the mission to develop a worldwide system of quality education to prepare pastors to carry out the mission of the church was the overarching concern of Dr. Lambert. He believed that this mission could be accomplished through the church's 57 colleges, universities, seminaries, extensions, and distance education in collaboration with regional, national and district leaders.

The backbone of the "Seven Strategic Initiatives" of the Global Education Strategy represents the core of the plan:

1. Modular Course of Theological Education
2. Pastor/Teachers Contextualized Training Program
3. Pastors' Ordination Library
4. Academy for Global Faculty
5. Bi-Vocational Ministry Preparation
6. Partnership Structures for Mentoring Students
7. Area Technology Center for Theology

An international gathering of representative Nazarene educators was convened in 1995 by Dr. Lambert at the Theological Education in the Two-Thirds World Conference. The Nazarene educators at the conference produced a statement known as the "Oxford Affirmation" which articulates important aspects of an emerging philosophy of education for the church.

It was clear from the educators that Nazarene institutions around the world long for reciprocal sharing of resources and professionals from the countries and institutions. This resourcing can be done without invading institutional autonomy while facilitating institutional development and the movement of institutions from primary dependence upon World Mission Department funding. The educators concluded that Nazarene education must affirm and protect both:

- Residency programs and extension/distance programs
- Academic theology and applied theology
- Education and training
- Preparation of full-time pastors and bi-vocational pastors
- Academic degrees and professional degrees

- Clergy preparation and liberal arts education for laity

Thank you, Dr. Lambert, for broadening our vision and establishing a firm foundation on which to educate global Christians for the 21st century.

The education commissioner works with regional education coordinators (RECs). These RECs serve as key strategic links between the Global Ministry Center, including the World Mission Department and the International Board of Education, and the IBOE schools within the regions served by the regional education coordinators. In each of the six regions serving the World Mission Department (Africa, Asia-Pacific, Caribbean, Eurasia, Mexico, Central America and South America), the RECs work closely with the International Board of Education. They are the chief advocates for education on the regions they serve.

AFRICA REGION

Filimao Chambo, Regional Education Coordinator

Filimao Chambo became the regional education coordinator for Africa effective December 1, 2005. Prior to this assignment, he served in three pastoral ministry assignments and as the director of Seminario Nazareno em Mozambique.

Nazarene College of Theology, Nazarene College of Nursing, and Nazarene College of Education in Swaziland combined to establish the Nazarene Higher Education Consortium (NAHEC). This consortium is the first phase toward the formation of Swaziland Nazarene University.

Africa Nazarene University celebrated their 10th anniversary in October 2005 with over 2,000 in attendance. The Helstrom Student Center was opened and represents great success in the development of infrastructures for the provision of quality education. Articulation agreements were signed with Nazarene Theological College of Central Africa and Nazarene Bible College of East Africa. An articulation agreement continues with the Creative Leadership Institute in the Horn of Africa.

Nazarene Theological College, South Africa, introduced the Bachelor of Theology distance learning program with 41 students. Approval of this degree made it the first school in Africa to offer a degree level ordination track through distance learning.

Nazarene Theological Institute-ITN/NTI serves over 20 countries and it is anticipated that in 2009 over 1,500 students will be enrolled in one of the following approved Course of Study modules: (1) Diploma in Ministry, (2) Certificate of Christian Ministry, (3) Certificate of Biblical Studies, (4) Certificate of Compassionate Ministry and (5) Certificate of Lay Ministry. ITN is working to provide the same course of study for both French and English language students in the Francophone areas and on the West Field.

ASIA-PACIFIC REGION

Melvin Rigsby, Regional Education Coordinator

Melvin Rigsby accepted the assignment of regional education coordinator in August 2008 due to the election of Dr. Floyd Cunningham, former regional education coordinator, as president of Asia-Pacific Nazarene Theological Seminary.

Celebrations were held for the 25th anniversary of Asia-Pacific Nazarene Theological Seminary and the inauguration of Dr. Floyd Cunningham as president. He had been serving as officer-in-charge and acting president since the resignation of Hitoshi Fukue in May 2007. The Holistic Child Development Department was created offering a graduate certificate in partnership with Compassion International with plans for a doctoral program to be offered under Asia Graduate School of Theology. In addition, APNTS is expanding its role by developing blended video conferencing technology to be used at multiple Nazarene college campuses and training centers throughout the Asia-Pacific Region.

Indonesia Nazarene Theological College is recognized by the Indonesian government and is thereby able to produce religion teachers for the public school system in Indonesia.

Korea Nazarene University opened a new dormitory that includes facilities for disabled students. KNU is recognized as the top university in the country in rehabilitation studies. Also, the school received permission from the government to open a nursing program in the next school year. KNU is the largest Church of the Nazarene college or university with enrollment of over 5,500 full-time students.

Luzon Nazarene Bible College is excited to announce two new college programs starting in 2009: Bachelor of Elementary Education and Bachelor of Secondary Education. They are also developing an international education exchange program and are making plans for a new administration building and a covered gym.

In January 2007, Melanesia Nazarene Bible College, Papua New Guinea, began a Department of Education for elementary level public school teachers with 25 first-year students. The government will fund additional teachers for the Education Department and will issue student scholarships as it does in similar colleges. Meetings with Papua New Guinea education officials, who have encouraged this development, assure administrators that graduates will find jobs in government schools.

Nazarene Theological College in Brisbane has gained re-accreditation of its undergraduate and post graduate programs for the next five years as a member institution of the Sydney College of Divinity, which gains its accreditation through the Minister of Education in the state of New South Wales. This enables NTC to offer accredited awards from a diploma through a PhD. Further development of our flexible delivery of education has continued through the use of video conference teaching.

At Visayan Nazarene Bible College, Philippines, the Ward Center for Evangelism was dedicated in December 2007. The school partnered with Jesus Film Ministries in planting four churches with one church plant project, Forest Hills Church of the Nazarene, organized after a year.

CANADA REGION

Terry Fach, Regional Education Coordinator

On September 15, 2008, Ambrose University College (formerly Canadian Nazarene University College) began classes on the new 40-acre campus in Calgary. Sustaining a Nazarene presence in Christian higher education in Canada for the 21st century has resulted in an unprecedented partnership with the Christian and Missionary Alliance. The $37 million project includes new academic facilities, the Ambrose library, an on-campus residence and a new university-competition level gymnasium facility. Ambrose offers a ministry degree and certificate, as well as several other accredited degrees. In 2008, a Bachelor of Science degree (biology major) was added with the launch of a post-degree Bachelor of Education degree anticipated in 2009.

CARIBBEAN REGION

Andres Hernandez, Regional Education Coordinator

Andres Hernandez now serves as the regional education coordinator, replacing Ken Walker who has served effectively over the past several years.

In 2006, Caribbean Nazarene College opened a facility that houses the new chapel, four faculty offices, music rooms, a conference room, a prayer room, the extension office, and the chaplain's office. The building also makes possible the expansion of the Wesley Harmon library and computer lab. The school reports a successful review and 10-year renewal of CNC's accreditation through the regional accrediting body. Over the past few years, CNC has experienced a significant increase in their Decentralized Theological Studies program with an 83% increase in one year.

The Séminaire Théologique Nazaréen d'Haïti dedicated a women's dormitory on campus. This represents an historic commitment by the Haitian church to train women for ministry.

EURASIA REGION

John Haines, Regional Education Coordinator

European Nazarene College continues to develop its Moving Forward Strategy that was approved by its Board of Trustees. A new web-based college administrative software program has been installed in order to allow access to information and records for administrators, faculty, and students from all learning centers. A new curriculum and delivery system has been approved and initiated across the EuNC educational zone. EuNC's "One School-Many Locations" approach to its educational mission is proving to be valuable in the establishment of a stronger enterprise with 51 faculty members now serving the overall student body. Campus and institutional development continues.

India Nazarene Nurses Training College: The School of Nursing is undergoing significant change, with the loss of its director. There are many changes in Washim with regard to the hospital and School of Nursing. A new School of Nursing building was completed. The school continues to pursue infrastructural and academic upgrades to keep it moving toward baccalaureate standards, which will soon be required of all such institutions in India.

Nazarene Theological College-Manchester: The Momentum Center for Evangelism and Church Development has contributed greatly to the college, districts, field, and region. In its effort to assist a sister institution, South Asia Nazarene Bible College, on the region with faculty development, NTC launched a new Master of Arts in Aspects of Christian Holiness in India. The first cohort of nine students began their studies in January 2008 and will continue through a four-year program. Also, the residential Hurler Hall has been completely renovated with new rooms and floor plans. This has led to more students living on campus and has boosted NTC's capacity to house its students in safe and pleasant accommodation.

South Asia Nazarene Bible College in India continues to work toward recognition and affiliation with the Asia Theological Association and is pursuing the necessary steps to complete official registration in Bangalore. Though its program is totally decentralized, a new model in India and South Asia, there is evidence that SANBC graduates are seen as "the best pastors in their communities" because of the holistic education they receive through the college and new lay-training initiatives starting on districts with the help of SANBC teachers and curriculum.

MEXICO AND CENTRAL AMERICA REGION Ruben Fernandez, Regional Education Coordinator

The Seminario Nazareno Mexicano, A.C. – SENAMEX (Mexican Nazarene Seminary) has three campuses: Mexico City (main and central), Ensenada, Baja California (north), and Tuxtla Gutierrez, Chiapas (south). Rev. Obdulia Martínez has done an excellent job building a common vision for the whole nation. During her administration the seminary is also making good improvements in organization and putting in order all the legal matters with the central property in Mexico City.

Seminario Teológico Nazareno de Guatemala, under the leadership of Dr. Hugo Alvarado, has begun a basic non-academic program to support the local churches in the field to develop its leaders. This program currently has 498 students involved.

The Instituto Biblico Nazareno in Guatemala with Rev. Jose Cornelio Cuc continues providing wise guidance in training pastors for the faster growing area of our region.

The Seminario Nazareno de las Americas (SENDAS) continues growing as a multiregional institution. In 2008, its Master Program for Latin America grew over 12%. For the first time in many years, the distance education program decreased. SENDAS continues in the process of looking for governmental recognition for all of its programs through UNELA (Evangelical University of the Americas) from San Jose, Costa Rica.

SOUTH AMERICA REGION Jorge Julca, Regional Education Coordinator

The Faculdade Nazarena de Brasil (FNB) finally received the official Educational Ministry accreditation and on October 13, 2008, held a great Thanksgiving service and the opening of our first university in the history of the Church of the Nazarene in South America. During the first week of February 2009, FNB will open its doors to offer classes in four different faculties: Theology, Administration, Pedagogy and Music.

The Latin American Center of Wesleyan Studies with its headquarters in Seminario Teológico Nazareno del Cono Sur (STNCS) in Argentina continues planning for the development of a research center and the production of Wesleyan materials written in different parts of Latin America. The school extended its academic offerings by opening an online option through which they have offered courses in the Bachelor in Theology level and began the construction project of a Student Center as part of campus development.

The Seminario Teológico Nazareno (STN) has continued leading theological education in Peru for the majority of the districts in the country. The school has taken a big step in the search for official recognition by the Ministry of Education.

The region has continued with the development of our teachers-pastors through the program that we call FADES (Decentralized Faculty). This year we had training workshops for the teachers-professors through our institutions in the countries of Ecuador, Venezuela, Colombia, Argentina, Bolivia, and Brazil. Around 300 teachers-professors were trained through this project with excellent results. This has utilized the educational support of our professors in the program of decentralized studies.

USA/CANADA COUNCIL OF EDUCATION Corlis McGee, Chair

Eastern Nazarene College went through a presidential transition during the quadrennium. Dr. J. David McClung completed his term as president on June 30, 2005, and Dr. Corlis McGee began her term as president on July 1, 2005. A first step in addressing student life concerns began with the "It's All About the Students" Campaign. Income from this campaign was targeted toward student upgrades in facilities such as renovation of the Dugout into a cyber café, installation of a campus wireless network, continued renovations in residence halls and athletic facilities, and renovation of the admissions area.

Richard Spindle retired in 2005 after 16 years of service as president of MidAmerica Nazarene University and 25 total years of service to the university. Dr. Ed Robinson began his term as president on July 1.

In the fall of 2008, MNU opened the Bell Cultural Events Center, a $12.1 million project. The center provides a first-class performing arts venue, 21st century fine arts educational facilities, as well as conference space for the university, the Greater Kansas City metropolitan community, and the regional Church of the Nazarene.

The highlight on the campus of Mount Vernon Nazarene University during 2006 was the election of Daniel J. Martin as the sixth president of the institution to follow E. LeBron Fairbanks, who retired after 18 years as president. In 2008 the School of Nursing and Health Sciences was launched and the evening Social Work degree program was initiated.

On July 1, 2006, Harold B. Graves Jr. became the fifth president of Nazarene Bible College. He succeeded Hiram E. Sanders who retired after 12 years of innovative and effective leadership. NBC implemented two new programs. The Module Plus Program provides a threshold level of education for completing the denominational Course of Study (COS) for ordination as elder in the Church of the Nazarene. This program is designed to help a person complete all the module courses required for ordination or to complete individual courses needed to finish the education requirements for ordination. The Advantage program is a Bachelor of Ministry degree completion program with majors in Leadership and Ethics, Counseling, and Christian School Education.

Nazarene Theological Seminary continues to make significant gains with the expansion of the seminary “from a building to a campus.” With the relocation of Nazarene Headquarters, the seminary has assumed ownership responsibility of King Conference Center, the Nazarene Commons, and 12 houses immediately adjacent to the seminary property. The Nazarene Commons was completely remodeled into a campus center that now includes a coffee shop, the NTS bookstore, recreation facilities and student leadership offices. A number of the residences located adjacent to the campus have been renovated and are providing much needed housing to NTS students and staff. The online program continues to expand with 11 NTS courses currently offered online.

Under the leadership of President David Alexander, Northwest Nazarene University is steadily moving towards its centennial in 2013. Dr. Richard Hagood retired after serving as president for the past 15 years. In addition to its 87-acre campus located in Nampa, Idaho, the university also offers programs online as well as in Boise, Twin Falls, Idaho Falls, and in cooperation with programs in 10 countries. NNU is completing the $10 million Thomas Family Health & Science Center. The facility, scheduled to open spring 2009, will enable the university to better meet the needs of the growing nursing, biology, chemistry, physics, math, and computer science departments.

The Olivet Nazarene University’s Center for Faith and Culture Studies was launched under the direction of Dr. Frank Moore. This initiative is designed to engage the ONU Region and the church at large in the thoughtful application of theology to daily life, with special attention given to various cultural issues such as social justice, faith and science, and human sexuality. The first international graduation ceremony for Olivet was held in Hong Kong in the spring of 2008. The launch of a Doctor of Education in Ethical Leadership degree program took place, which is now enrolling its second cohort. The ONU Center for Student Success was established, which fosters a variety of new programs for student enrichment and development.

At Point Loma Nazarene University, construction was completed on Smee Hall, the new home of the School of Theology and Christian Ministry, the Center for Pastoral Leadership, and the Wesleyan Center for 21st Century Studies. This $4.2 million dollar project was completely funded by gifts from individuals and churches. Meanwhile, plans for new science facilities for the university are underway with a formal campaign expected to start in 2009. In November 2007, PLNU’s Board of Trustees unanimously re-elected President Bob Brower to four more years of leadership as PLNU’s president.

A delegation from Southern Nazarene University of 11 faculty, staff, and students spent 10 days in Swaziland advancing the developing partnership with the Nazarene Consortium of Higher Education (NAHEC). SNU’s role is to come alongside the leadership of this consortium to assist in transition from three separate institutions into one college/university. The Ziglar Center for Ethical Leadership was dedicated in 2008 and was built to advance the Biblical principles advocated by Christian motivational speaker Zig Ziglar over the past 40 years. The Center for Intensive English (CIE) was launched in August 2009. This center for teaching English for international students is off to a fast start as SNU welcomed a number of new students from around the world for preparation for mainstreaming in regular programs.

In 2005, Dan Boone was elected as the 11th president of Trevecca Nazarene University upon the retirement of Dr. Millard Reed, who served as president for 14 years. In 2006, two new programs were added: Master of Arts in Preaching and Bachelor of Arts in Special Education. The Nina Griggs Gunter Award has been established as the first leadership award of the Center for Leadership, Calling, and Service, a new undergraduate program designed to enable students to discern their life-calling and pursue a vocational service path to God. Construction is underway on the Bud Robinson Building as the newly renovated facility to house the Center. Two interdisciplinary degree programs are opening: The J.V. Morsch Center for Social Justice and The Center for Worship Arts.

EDUCATIONAL BUDGET PAYMENTS

The Institutional Funding Guidelines adopted by the International Board of Education in 1993 state that “the General Board upon recommendation of the IBOE, shall establish the boundaries of the education zone of each Nazarene institution,” and that “each church on the zone is expected to send an education budget, determined by General Church process, to the educational institution on its zone. Promotion of payment of the budget on the various districts is the responsibility of the institution and of the respective district administration.” Listed is a summary of the 2005-2009 educational budget payments for our USA/Canada institutions with the prayer that as support for Nazarene higher education increases throughout the international church, such a report may soon be developed for all IBOE schools worldwide.

Totals of USA/Canada Institution Educational Budget Payments

	Total Accepted	Amount Received	% Paid
2004-05	$22,348,233	$19,816,356	89%
2005-06	$23,218,235	$20,447,773	88%
2006-07	$23,621,131	$20,355,619	86%
2007-08	$23,850,036	$20,174,142	85%

Over $20 million received in support of Nazarene higher education! The record of church support to USA/Canada Nazarene higher education is exemplary and often referred to with admiration by other denominations. We are grateful!

Still, it should be noted that 100% payment of the educational budget would greatly enhance the ability of our Nazarene colleges and universities to serve the church effectively in these difficult financial days.

CONCLUSION

During the 2009-2013 quadrennium, seven strategic priorities will drive the allocation of time and energy of the education commissioner.

1. Strengthen the relationship between the mission of IBOE schools and the mission of the denomination;
2. Connect technologically the IBOE schools globally for mutual support and resourcing;
3. Implement a global faculty initiative;
4. Support and nurture regional faculty development;
5. Develop strong and effective governing boards for these schools;
6. Secure funds internationally for these projects and priorities; and

7. Champion the system of Nazarene higher education globally.

Fulfilling these strategic initiatives requires that the education commissioner increase the level of intentional collaboration throughout the global church.

The Church of the Nazarene is blessed with a worldwide network of education. Many of these institutions serve as hubs from which extension programs of ministerial education are offered at various academic levels and through multiple systems of delivery.

The education providers are classified into six categories:

- Graduate Seminaries and Theological Colleges
- Liberal Arts Universities and Colleges with Graduate Programs
- Undergraduate Liberal Arts Colleges
- Undergraduate Seminaries and Theological Colleges
- Certificate and Diploma Bible Colleges
- Specialized Training Schools

The International Board of Education facilitates the global network of financial, human and curricular resources of the denomination in response to the gospel of Jesus Christ and the mission of the Church of the Nazarene. The IBOE oversees the Quality and Missional Review programs for each institution. It seeks to assist each institution fulfill its unique vision and mission, especially as they relate to clergy preparation.

The International Board of Education assigns projects to and receives recommendations from the Resource Institute of International Education (RIIE). It meets throughout the year between annual meetings of the International Board of Education.

This collaborative clearinghouse provides the structure, utilizes the available technology and coordinates the resources to network and facilitate the work of ministerial education in all IBOE schools.

As mentioned above, regional education coordinators serve as strategic links between the International Board of Education and the IBOE schools within the regions they serve. These key individuals coordinate the work of regional education councils who resource their IBOE schools on the regions they serve.

The International Board of Education schools are joined together on the regions where they are located through regional educational councils.

The International Board of Education and the above mentioned entities in no way replaces what is currently being done at individual Nazarene institutions. Each of the 57 IBOE schools within the system is uniquely and strategically led by elected leaders and appropriate governing boards.

A stronger global system of Nazarene education is emerging as a strategic network of Nazarene institutions worldwide under the umbrella of the International Board of Education. These educational institutions are committed to the mission, Articles of Faith, Core Values, and the Covenant of Christian Character affirmations of the denomination AND increasingly to each other!

Respectfully submitted,
E. LEBRON FAIRBANKS
Education Commissioner

NAZARENE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL

It is an honor to present my ninth report to the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene for 2009.

I am thankful for this group of leaders which has been at work this year in numerous ways to fulfill our stated mission and vision. Special thanks to our office employees who accomplished are work in the midst of transition from the Nazarene Headquarters to Global Ministry Center. These gifted people are Kristen Bell, Dave Curtiss, David Gonzalez, Ruth Lail, Marcy Lee, Jenny Schafer, and Teri Wagoner. Here then are the highlights from Nazarene Youth International in 2008:

Global Youth Ministry Summit

A Global Youth Ministry Summit was held 6-15 March 2008 with 27 participants representing 7 countries of the world. The event began in Amman Jordan as approximately 100 Jordanian youth and youth leaders gathered for seminars and training. Representatives from Israel, Lebanon, and Syria were with us during that time. The Summit included Jordan and multiple sites in Israel including Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Nazareth, Caesarea, Mt. Carmel, and Capernaum. The purpose of the gathering was to experience the land of Scripture, connect with other Nazarene youth workers, and to connect with the work of the Church of the Nazarene in the Holy Land. All three objectives were met and the evaluations were very positive and supportive of a future summit.

2008 “Year of the Youth”

A partnership between NYI and Jesus Film Harvest Partners (JFHP) occurred this year in the development and deployment of youth led Jesus Film teams. The goal was to have 25 youth teams serving throughout the year help fulfill the JFHP emphasis of “the year of the youth.” A total of 24 youth led teams were deployed in the following world areas: Africa Central Field, Africa French Equatorial Field, Africa West Field, Australia, Bangladesh, Bolivia, Brazil, Brazil North, Cuba, Democratic Republic of Congo, Guatemala, Haiti, India Central, India South, India Western, Mexico, Mozambique, Nepal, Pakistan, Philippines, South America ConoSur Field, Thailand, and Ukraine. Each of these teams was supplied with the necessary equipment to implement this evangelism strategy throughout the world.

Plans are still in place to have a youth led Jesus Film team in Sri Lanka. This team will begin serving after delivery of the equipment. Upon the deployment of the Sri Lanka team the goal of 25 teams will be accomplished.

Here is a story from the youth led Jesus Film team in Australia that provides insight into the results of this partnership between Jesus Film Harvest Partners and NYI:

“I am the High school Chaplain at the High school in my local area. I was asked to come along onto this camp and to share about values, beliefs and attitudes, they gave me a time slot of 45 minutes, as it turned out I had the full 3 days of sharing about my journey and what changes these boys could make in their journey. This school has never had a camp like this before and because of what had happened on this camp, the school has now made sure that this kind of leadership camp will happen every year! Praise the Lord! God’s Spirit was stirring in the hearts of everyone without them even knowing. It was awesome to see real tough men make changes. Again having the equipment has been a massive help, praise the Lord!”

FUEL / Youth Week

The purpose of FUEL / Youth Week is to emphasize holiness with our young people and call them to live a dynamic life in Christ. NYI provided free resource materials including 5 lessons, 7 devotionals, supplemental activity resources, and a sermon outline to support local churches in the planning of this special emphasis for youth during the week of 27 January through 3 February 2008.

Timothy Award

The Timothy Award was established by the Nazarene Youth International General Council in 1995 to recognize outstanding leadership and service to youth leaders through NYI at the local, district, regional, and general level. The Timothy Award embodies the words of the Apostle Paul, who in Philippians 2:20 recognized Timothy's commitment to the needs of others: "I have no one else like him, who takes a genuine interest in your welfare" (NIV). It was Timothy who had been encouraged to "not let anyone look down upon you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity" (1 Timothy 4:12, the theme verse of NYI). He then proved himself as a trusted Leader devoted to serving the body of Christ. His legacy was his genuine interest in the welfare of others, a description given by the one who knew him best.

16 Timothy Awards were presented in 2008 to these valued youth leaders who are investing their lives into our young people.

Discipleship Summits

The NYI office provided staffing support for each of the SDMI sponsored Discipleship Summits held in 2008. During this time we emphasized the importance of youth workers serving in an intentional discipleship relationship with young people. Also, emphasized was the importance of each youth worker being in a discipleship relationship with someone for their own spiritual development. This was a valuable time to connect with youth workers across the United States of America and Canada.

NYI Communications

A change in the communications strategy occurred in April of 2008 with a decision to migrate the NYI web site from the NYI servers to servers which were also hosting the www.nazarene.org web site. Consequently, the Communications Coordinator position, Chuck Parish, was eliminated from the NYI staff. Chuck had developed and programmed the NYItoday.org website from conception. With Chuck's leadership the NYI web site has impacted thousands of Nazarenes world wide through www.nyitoday.org as youth and youth leaders had access to information and resources. I am extremely grateful to Chuck for his years of service to NYI as Communication Coordinator.

During this transition Kristen Bell has expanded her responsibilities to include assisting in the area of communication. As a result, the following accomplishments have taken place.

The web migration process was completed in July 2008. The new NYIToday.org homepage features four panels that express the main components and ministries of NYI (Global NYI Convention, Jesus for a New Generation, Ministries, and News and Events). After the 2009 Global NYI Convention, the Global NYI Convention panel will be replaced with a Youth Ministry Academy panel as this training strategy will launch in June of 2009.

The Mission Offering Project, "Jesus For A New Generation" portion of the website was also redesigned. Information on this is included in the Program section later on in the report.

The www.nyitoday.org website now provides a translation feature that greatly expands our ability to communicate across language barriers. This also has eliminated the need for most of the translation projects for the Spanish and Portuguese websites providing a great cost savings to NYI. Information on the web site that is theological or technical continues to be translated through our contracted translators.

Two communication pieces were added in 2008 to provide information to district, field, and regional leaders. These were the monthly "Global Briefing" and quarterly "Global Briefing."

The monthly "Global Briefing" is a newsletter-like communications piece designed to help keep NYI Council members and Regional Directors up-to-date on new developments, NYI staff personnel, reminders and other mission critical information.

The quarterly "Global Briefing" newsletter is provided in January, April, July and October for all NYI leaders. The purpose of this is an expanded version of the monthly "Global Briefing." All NYI leaders and members have access to this newsletter on the NYIToday.org website under the News and Events portion. The development of an online subscription is still in progress and will be finalized early 2009.

Bible Quizzing

2008 accomplishments include the establishment of a goal for translating the Bible Quizzing materials into three languages (Spanish, Portuguese and French) and the contextualization of the English version for use outside of the USA. A large focus of the global Bible Quizzing Ministry during 2008 has been promoting the Mission Offering Projects that relate directly to covering the expenses of the Bible Quiz material translations. The offering raised this year was $6,668.72, which has been used to subsidize the translation projects as well as provide resources that will help the world regions implement Bible Quizzing. World Mission Literature and NYI have reached an eight year agreement on sharing some of the costs related to the translation of these materials. This was a monumental consensus and will help secure a solid future for non-English speaking quizzers.

Jesus for a New Generation

At the 2008 Global NYI Council meeting a decision was made to combine the youth mission offerings (Jesus for a New Generation and the Annual Youth Evangelism Offering) into one mission offering strategy. The concept of a “Global Focus Project” was created that will allow a region to present a project that is promoted and emphasized around the world on an annual basis. The cycle of the regions will be determined at the 2009 Global Council Meetings when the project proposals are reviewed and then a project finalized for a 2010 implementation.

The new Jesus for a New Generation website launched in October of 2008 and has received positive feedback as well as several subscriptions to the new Jesus for a New Generation newsletter. The website is available in Spanish, Portuguese, and English.

Our average offering total over the last seven years has been $23,205.63. We have averaged sixty three active projects online for the year. In 2008 Jesus for a New Generation had the lowest giving total to date of $14,391.84. All seven regions have been active participants and the Caribbean, Eurasia, Mexico and Central America, and USA/Canada regions have sponsored projects. Meanwhile the Asia-Pacific, Caribbean, Eurasia, and South America Regions have received monetary support this year through the program. Below provides the complete list of projects that were sponsored during the 2007-2008 fiscal year:

Global Youth Evangelism Offering

Due to the change in strategy for the Annual Youth Evangelism offering that was adopted in February of 2008, the Global NYI Office has taken a passive approach to promoting the offering as we asked the regions to create their own promotional materials. This year NYI raised $2,949.68. This money will be delegated out to the regions and a portion to the NYI Office. There are currently no plans to continue this offering after 2009.

Youth Ministry Academy

In collaboration with Clergy Development, NYI contracted a team of global writers to flesh out a Youth Ministry Deacon Module consisting of 20 lessons. These training materials will be available from the Clergy Development website, and on the Youth Ministry Academy website that will launch in June 2009. The Youth Ministry Deacon module lessons will also be translated into French, Korean, Portuguese, and Spanish.

Special thanks is extended to Dr. Dean Blevins for serving as the editor of this project as well as Clergy Development for partnering with us in the development of this huge project. We look forward to sharing these lessons with our youth leaders around the world. Our goal is to complete the translations and formatting by June 2009.

The Global NYI Office continued to collaborate with Sunday School Ministries and Nazarene Compassionate Ministries for the worldwide implementation of the “Connecting A New Generation” emphasis. Work this year focused on the ongoing implementation of the strategy which included a meeting of the global task force with representation from each region of the world.

Regional Reports

Africa NYI

2008 has been a great year of development on the Africa Region. The three main areas of NYI focus – leadership development, evangelism and discipleship have shaped the Africa Region NYI ministry.

Several lay-leadership and other leadership training events took place throughout the course of the year on the South Eastern District, the East field, as well as the Horn of Africa. Each training event placed a special emphasis on equipping leaders to effectively carry out their responsibilities. Other areas of focus included the NYI Charter and Ministry plans, the book Million Leader Mandate by John Maxwell, as well as times allotted for annual planning and fellowship.

Youth camps and sporting events have been one of the most influential ministry tools used for evangelism. These camps and events ranged from a district sports day to district AIDS awareness campaigns that placed focus on “we choose life.” Bible Quizzing, football, AIDS awareness materials, and study of the Scripture helped aid in evangelism efforts. NYI is developing a strategy to use Energia soccer balls as evangelism tools during the 2010 world-wide soccer championship tournament that is to be held in Johannesburg, South Africa. Inter-district soccer leagues and clinics are being established and held in anticipation of this rapidly growing project.

It was reported that one of the main areas for improvement is the ministry focus of discipleship. The development of a Bible Quizzing, JESUS Film, and Mind Map (developed by missionary, Stefan Tibi – helps teach the Church of the Nazarene Articles of Faith) strategy has been essential to the mission. The Western Cape district, Africa West field, Zimbabwe and Swaziland National district each held Bible Quizzing tournaments this year.

Communication has been a struggle and remains a key issue in working as a ministry team with the field youth coordinators. An area of focus that has taken precedence is working with Africa leaders to develop strategies for utilizing and raising local resources to help supplement help from outside ministries and people.

Asia-Pacific NYI

The 2008 year has been one of growth and development for NYI as a region as the Asia-Pacific region seeks to determine how to effectively make Christlike disciples among youth.

An emphasis has been put on discipleship and finding NYI leaders on the region and developing regular communication with them. Two specific ways this has been furthered was by the establishment of Field Youth Coordinators in the Southeast Asia and South Pacific fields (Ulises Toafa – South Pacific; Belinda Allder – Southeast Asia). In both fields, meetings have been held with the youth and church leaders to discuss how NYI fits within the overall strategy of the church.

The regional leaders have sought to enable interactions and stories of what God has done through the APNYI website for stories and NYIfriends as a social networking venue for youth across the region.

In the past year over $2,500 in sponsorships for evangelism-related ministry projects has been received from a District NYI in the United States. Evangelism efforts have been made through the implementation of the USA based Youth in Mission teams that ministered in Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, and Thailand in June and July as well as in the two inter-Australia Youth Missions teams that were sent.

Additionally, NYI has partnered with JESUS Film Harvest Partners for youth-led JESUS Film teams. The region has hosted equipment in Australia and Thailand, and this has been used both by youth and to connect with youth across these countries to share the good news of Jesus. Most every district on the Asia-Pacific region has had some specific youth camp over the last year. Several stories and notes from many of the camps have been received and detail how the camp served as a formational and transformational experience with youth in their relationship with God and with one another.

The Asia-Pacific NYI began developing a five-year strategic plan in order to maximize its effectiveness in the role it can play to make Christlike disciples among youth. This five-year plan is being done in collaboration with youth and church leaders across the region. In this plan all aspects of the ministry of the Regional NYI are being re-evaluated to ensure their effectiveness and benefit to districts and local churches.

Planning took place in 2008 for the upcoming 2009 Global NYI Convention. These plans included two satellite sites - in Manila and in Papua New Guinea and are aimed at maximizing delegate participation on the Asia-Pacific region.

Caribbean NYI

Young people and youth leaders are being introduced to Jesus through relevant, needs-based, relational compassionate evangelism. This was accomplished through sports, tutoring, EvangeCube, outdoor rallies, door-to-door visitation, music, one-on-one relationship building, youth meetings, youth camps, ministry projects, etc. Some of the emphases of the youth camps held this year were strategies for evangelism, leadership training, and serving with excellence. As a result of their evangelistic efforts Jesus is being proclaimed by life and word as young people continue turning to Jesus as their Savior and Lord.

Work is still being done to increase the levels of discipleship of new believers. A new discipleship resource Alto Voltaje has been released in Spanish and will be translated into English and French for the rest of the region. This year has also seen the release of Youth Sunday School lessons and a Youth Life Skills book. Quizzing materials have remained an unfulfilled dream.

Another area of main focus in 2008 has been training leaders. Monte Cyr has been intentional in conducting youth ministry and leadership training for the region's youth and youth leaders (and occasional wise Pastor and D.S.). Over the course of this last year, trainings have been held in Dominica, Barbados, Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Haiti, Dominica, St. Croix, Antigua, Guyana, Belize, Martinique, and Jamaica. The response to the training times have proven to be enthusiastic training sessions as well as a time for deepening the skills and ministries of those who were trained.

The Caribbean NYI regional website and newsletter have remained an effective outlet and communication tool for the region. Both mediums have provided encouragement, stories and have allowed others to actively partner with the region.

The Caribbean Regional NYI Council members who have made 2008 a success: Rudolph Prescod – President, Dhariana Balbuena – Spanish Field Coordinator, Fabienne

Eurasia NYI

Evangelism and discipleship is taking place by providing relief and rehabilitation, the promotion of social justice, in JESUS Film teams, the proclamation the Good News through preaching and many other programs. The desire for, and the practice of, holistic teaching and discipleship was echoed throughout the region as young people in Jordan and Nepal, amongst others, explored Christian values regarding the use of money and healthy living.

Early on in the year Eurasia Region was privileged to host to the Global Youth Ministry Summit in Jordan and the Holy Land. The event was intended to enable youth workers to gain a better understanding of the Holy Land and to provide leaders with the space to interact with other leaders from around the globe and local believers. Throughout the summer, a variety of teams including Youth in Mission were involved in many of the ongoing ministries of the region and good friendships were formed.

The need for quality leadership training to support those involved in youth ministry in the communities, many fields and districts have been expressed and accomplished by providing various levels of education. The regional leadership development initiative has been of great benefit to Bangladesh and the Netherlands and is going to impact many more areas in the next few months. More ministries on this region purposefully integrate through means of leadership development and education including SDMI, NYI, NMI, Compassionate Ministries.

The Eurasia NYI Council placed a main focus on NYC'08 in Ukraine. A special emphasis was placed on fellowship, God's mission, and social justice. Approximately 270 young people from 25 countries attended the event, and from the feedback NYC was a valuable venture and investment.

Mexico and Central America NYI

No Report Received

South America NYI

The three main areas of the ministry -- evangelism, discipleship and leadership development have influenced the structure of ministry for the 2008 year.

The evangelism efforts were varied according to the specific contexts of each country. The South America region has used massive revivals, personal evangelism, JESUS Film viewings (Cono Sur; South Brazil), Collection Day, Maxima Mision, radio evangelism and the EvangeBall to help minister to their communities through evangelistic outreach. 2008 is marked by a gain of 1,730 young people, arriving at the South America membership numbers of 46,419. It was mentioned that evangelism must remain a main area of focus.

Youth discipleship is becoming a central subject for the region's intentional ministry. They started the use of the Alto Voltaje discipleship materials to begin a new focus on discipleship and leadership development. These materials help a leader define who they must be and what they must do. The discipleship programs are also general enough to be used in the local churches.

2008 was a year filled with several training seminars that provided leaders with effective ministry tools to use when working with the youth. Leadership development training sessions were held at the Congress EJUNAP (Chiclayo-Peru) as 400 young people were trained in Bible Quizzing, pastoring youth, leadership, etc. A school for NYI leaders was developed in Peru through collaborative efforts with Campus Crusade. The National Congress that was held in Brazil was success in bringing every district leader from Brazil to the event. Specific training sessions in ministry areas, evangelistic events, worship, and fellowship helped bring leaders together.

Canada & The United States Of America NYI

2008 has been an encouraging year in several aspects of their ministry. An increased spiritual fervor, connection to the Church of the Nazarene, and commitment to the Kingdom of God were evident throughout the year's events and emphases.

The highlights in the area of evangelism included a closer working relationship with USA/Canada Mission Evangelism and the NewStart partnership that will aim at hosting events for pastors and staff for churches seeking to minister to emerging culture.

Holiness and discipleship were areas of main focus that shaped events and new strategies for the USA/Canada region. A series of events called FUEL were held in 3 areas across the USA/Canada region – Toronto, Orlando, and Los Angeles. A free movement of the Holy Spirit was felt in every service through inspiring worship. A remarkable two-thirds of event attendees responded to the call to consecrate their lives to God. Bible Quizzing remained a valuable discipleship resource as events and tournaments were held all over the region. A partnership with SDMI increased the meaningfulness of the Breckenridge '08 event that was centered on discipleship of young adults in the Nazarene Church. USA/Canada NYI has continued the history of support for the Nazarene Publishing House – specifically Barefoot Ministries in the development of discipleship materials for youth.

Eight of nine fields in the USA/Canada region held a field youth event on their respective college/university campus with over 7,000 students participating. Other events that aim to shape youth into leaders were held. One Audience was held at Trevecca Nazarene University and focused on the development of worship leading and musical gifts and abilities.

Leadership development continued to be a strong area of focus for the region as Big Picture Training saw a year of growth and development. New regional trainers and regional training teams were established. 2008 saw a ten-fold increase in the number and participation of Big Picture Training events.

Another area of importance has been the collaboration with other Nazarene and non-Nazarene entities. Through the partnership with World Vision, and Nazarene Compassionate ministries local/district churches raised over $500,000.00 through 30 Hour Famine in this budget year. A National Network of Youth Ministry denominational youth leader gathering was held as well as the continuing development of a Wesleyan Coalition that also resulted in a meeting this year with other denominations to help cooperation and collaboration in youth ministry efforts.

2009 Global NYI Convention

Planning for the 22nd Global NYI Convention was an ongoing process throughout 2008. Monthly planning sessions focused on general coordination and strategy for connecting the ten convention sites worldwide. The list of convention sites in addition to Orlando, Florida include: Accra, Ghana; Johannesburg, South Africa; Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea; Manila, Philippines; Santa Cruz, Trinidad; Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic; Mumbai, India; Schaffhausen, Switzerland; and Quito, Ecuador. World Mission personnel (Brad Firestone, Josh Williams, and Eldon Jones) have been extremely valuable to the design and strategy for video conferencing. We look forward to this historic moment of NYI delegates gathering worldwide 24-26 June 2009.

From HQ to GMC

Along with the other employees at Nazarene Headquarters the NYI office put significant time in the planning of our new space in the Global Ministry Center. Also, many hours were invested into cleaning out storage areas and organizing information, materials, and equipment to service the youth ministry of the Church of the Nazarene in the new Global Ministry Center. We are excited about our new space and the continued investment of resources into the youth and youth leaders of our church.
